

Beefing gets goalie the gate

QUEBEC (CP) — Serge Aubry started in goal for Quebec Les Nordiques last night but the fiery netminder never got a chance to finish the World Hockey Association game against Minnesota Fighting Saints.

Aubry, given a minor penalty in the second period by referee Ray Thomas, argued the decision and later was given a misconduct. Then, towards the end of the period when Minnesota scored, Aubry continued arguing and was given a game misconduct.

But despite Aubry's ejection from the game for his game misconduct, Les Nordiques held on to defeat Saints, 5-4, before 5,980 fans.

Aubry was replaced by Richard Brodeur, last season with Cornwall Royals of the Quebec Junior Hockey League. He allowed one goal in the third period.

Argumentative WHA goalie ejected from Quebec nets, Tremblay misses contest

In other games, Houston Aeros whipped Ottawa Nationals 7-3 and New York Raiders beat New England Whalers 7-6.

After Aubry was thrown out of the game, he was replaced by Richard Brodeur, a junior last season with Cornwall Royals of the Quebec Junior Hockey League. Brodeur allowed one goal in the third period.

Les Nordiques took a 4-0 lead in the first period on goals by Francois Lacombe, Yves Bergeron, Andre Gaudette and Ken Desjardine, but the Saints fought back with three unanswered goals in the second period, two by Wayne Connelly and one by George Konik.

The teams exchanged goals in the final period, Michel Parizeau scoring for Les Nordiques and Mike Antonovich replying for Minnesota.

TREMBLAY OUT

J.-C. Tremblay, the former Montreal Canadiens star defenseman, missed action Thursday night because of calcium deposits in the left shoulder but he said he will be ready for Quebec's next game Sunday.

At Houston, the Nationals had a 3-2 lead in the second period but the Aeros scored five straight goals—four of them in the second period and one in the final — to win the game and end a two-game losing streak.

Ottawa got goals from Wayne Carleton, Steve King and Brian Conacher while the Aeros were paced by two - goal performances from Gordon Labossiere, Murray Hall and Ted Taylor. Larry Lund got the other Houston goal. Attendance was 8,166.

The 5,551 fans at New York saw Norm Ferguson, Wayne Rivers and Mike Laughton score third-period goals as the Raiders rallied to edge the Whalers.

Rivers' goal was his third of the night. Other New York goals were scored by Craig Reichmuth and Brian Perry while John French, Terry Cafrey, Tim Sheehy were among the scorers for New England.

In games tonight, Los Angeles Sharks meet the Blazers at Philadelphia, Alberta Oilers are at Cleveland against the Crusaders and Chicago Cougars are at Winnipeg against the Jets.
