

Capreol High - Where Are They Now

Ray Thomas graduated Capreol High in the mid sixties. He excelled in hockey both as a player and official. While playing the point, he was instrumental in helping the Capreol Red

Continued on Page 6

Where Are They Now

Continued from page 3

Wings win the N.O.H.A. Intermediate & Championship in late sixties. He pursued his officiating career in Holland where he became Referee in Chief with the Netherlands Ice Hockey Federation. Returning to Canada, Ray continued to referee with the now defunct World Hockey Association. Today Ray is Sergeant of the traffic section with the Ottawa-Carleton Regional Police Services. He resides in Kanata with his wife & 3 children. Ray's parents Fred & Elva still reside in Capreol. Capreol High continuing a tradition in excellence then, now and in the future. J.C.