The Official Opening of Capreol's brand new Public Library took place on Monday evening at the new location 82 Young St. Capreol between the hours of 7 - 9:30 p.m.

A good turnout of Capreol citizens were present and welcomed and shown the new library along with a new selection of books that are now available. The method of cataloguing and recording of books was also explained to the people present.

An interesting feature was the large percentage of our younger people attending the opening and indicating a strong need for the library.

After the official ceremonies refreshments were served.
