

Museum an historic site

City councillors Tuesday designated the Northern Ontario Railway Museum in Capreol an historical and architectural site.

Now, the provincial government must approve the designation, said Coun. Dave Kilgour.

Once the museum becomes a historical site, under the Ontario Heritage Act, it must be maintained in its original state and cannot be torn down, he said.

May 15 2002