

The Northern Ontario Railroad Museum and Heritage Centre is taking part in the "Week of the Child" from October 19 until October 27, by opening the museum for two special events. Phyllis Davison, a local performer of songs and stories with historical themes will be giving two performances on the following dates: Sunday, October 20 from 2:00 - 2 p.m. for families with children and on Wednesday, October 23 from 2 - 2:30 p.m. for school aged children from 10 - 13 years. Ms. Davison appears courtesy of The Learning Basket Program of the City of Greater Sudbury. The museum will also be open for tours on these dates from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. There are lots of interesting and interactive exhibits, colouring books and games, plus the gift shop. There is something for everyone so come on out to Capreol and celebrate the "Week of the Child". The museum is located at 26 Bloor Street. Free parking is available. For information, please call the museum at 858-5050 or Pam at 858-3781. •
