
SUPERIOR COLOURS : A fall colour tour of Ontario is being organized for departure from Toronto Oct. 3. It's a five-day itinerary priced at $574 per person, double. The trip is being organized by Winnipeg-based Rail Travel Tours. Transportation is aboard VIA Rail's Canadian. Rate includes transportation, hotel stays, sightseeing and plenty of time to explore on your own.

From Toronto, passengers travel north through Muskoka to Capreol, visiting the Northern Ontario Railway Museum, then transfer by bus to Sudbury. From Sudbury, passengers take the train through the rugged regions of the Canadian Shield to White River, where Winnie the Pooh originated. Return is via Sudbury.
