On Saturday, May 6, and Sunday, May 7, from 10 am-5 pm, the Northern Ontario Railroad Museum and Heritage Centre will be hosting "Preserving Our Past Through Art", an event that will illustrate the role of art in the preservation of our heritage at Pioneer Manor (960 Notre Dame Street in Sudbury). The participating Sudbury artists will be Gord Drysdale, Robert Michelutti, Charlie Rapsky, Jamie Ruddy, Doreen Sanders, Oryst Sawchuck and Royce Simpson who are well known for artwork depicting heritage scenes such as historic buildings, early mine shafts, abandoned train stations or vintage vehicles. This event should have wide appeal for all family members and should be particularly nostalgic for our seniors. Admission is free.
