

ELEVEN

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIPS

The Membership Committee may revoke or terminate any membership in any classification at any time, with or without cause, and any member may resign at any time by paying in full all amounts owing by him or it to said club, including dues through June 30th of the fiscal year in which the resignation occurs and by giving written notice to the Membership Committee.

Upon the death of an individual holding a Full or House Membership, such membership with the approval of the Membership Committee, may be transferred to the widow, if any, of such decedent provided request to the Membership Committee is made within 6 months from the death of the member. Such membership shall continue as long as she does not remarry but upon her remarriage her membership shall terminate.

If a member terminates his or its membership for any reason, including death, there shall be no refund of initiation fees, regardless of when the termination occurs.

If a membership is revoked by the Membership Committee, any dues paid in advance shall be refunded in full to such member and upon the recommendation of the Membership Committee any part or all of the initiation fee paid by such member, if any, may be refunded.

TWELVE

GENERAL

All members and guests must abide by the rules and regulations as to the use of the golf course, club house and swimming pool, laid down and promulgated by the Management or Membership Committee.

The privileges of each class of membership herein set out are the sole privileges which members of such classifications are entitled to enjoy, and nothing herein or elsewhere contained shall be construed as giving any member of any classification any rights or privileges with respect to the operation, management or control of said club or any of its property.

THIRTEEN

AMENDMENTS OF RULES

These rules and all or any part thereof may be altered, amended or repealed at any time by the Directors of the club.
