

For nightly dinner dancing, the hotel's popular combo has a repertoire ranging from the latest sophisticated rhythms to nostalgic melodies and arranges each session to fit the prevailing mood of the dancers.

Buffets are a daily luncheon feature, with a la carte service available. To accommodate the people who drive many miles for luncheon or dinner at Grand Hotel, the dining room seats twice the capacity of the hotel rooms.

Happiness is in the air every day of the year

With water on three sides glistening with starlight and the gentle sound of waves lapping on the beach, Julep Point is the scene of happy occasions ranging from dances to seafood luaus and steak fries.

The cottages are secluded behind banks of vivid color at azalea time. With four bedrooms, four baths and two large living rooms, a cottage is ideal for a golfing party of eight or ten, or may be divided into two smaller suites.
