

FORMATIVE YEARS

Lakewood began with two nines, aptly named Azalea and Dogwood because of the profusion of these plants and trees on the property. These original eighteen holes, now referred to as the Old Course, opened June 7, 1947. Mr. Roberts, Mr. Slaton and Mr. McRae were the first to tee off on number one of Azalea. This marked the beginning of a great and wonderful playground for the rich and famous guests of the Grand Hotel and the elite members of the Club.
