

Sumptuous accommodations for grand indoor comfort.

Charming guest rooms with marvelous views.

All 310 oversized rooms are either new or have been completely renovated, enlarged, and redecorated (with careful consideration given to historic preservation and detail). So now all rooms at the Grand are truly commodious, with renovated rooms in the main building offering twice as much space as before!

Amenities in many rooms include huge walk-in closets...white cypress panelling (taken from the original rooms but reworked to fit new dimensions)...ceiling fans...roomy sitting areas with overstuffed chairs or couches. Baths are luxurious, and most have spacious separate vanity and dressing areas. Plus, all rooms—in the main building, cottages...or in the new bay-house and marina house—afford beautiful views of the Bay, marina, or lagoon with its surrounding garden.

Of course, every room features individual climate control, in-room movies, AM/FM radio, and color TV. And all rooms include Marriott's sophisticated health protection system, with smoke detectors and sprinklers in every room.

For a small meeting or special celebration, you may want to consider one of the many elegant suites—hospitality or V.I.P. deluxe.

Our pro shop carries everything for outdoor fun.

All accommodations at the Grand Hotel are complemented by a wide range of support services backed by Marriott's highest standards of quality...and genuine southern hospitality.

Dining at the Grand is pure ambrosia served in a charming atmosphere. Enjoy a delicious lunch in our dining room...at Lakewood Golf Club's restaurant...or under the sun at our poolside grill and snack bar.

Delectable food presentations await guests.

In our Birdcage Lounge, sit back and take in a panoramic view of the sunset. Leisurely sip a mint julep (one of our bartender's many specialties) made with freshly-picked mint. Then, prepare your palate for a rare blend of gourmet elegance and traditional favorites served in a formal—but friendly—setting. Grand prime ribs of beef. Bon Secour oysters. Red snapper stuffed with crabmeat. Seafood gumbo.

Feel like dancing? Our live orchestra will sweep you off your feet nightly—for dinner and after-dinner dancing.

Our opulent brunch makes Sunday an event!

A superb assortment of recreational activities.

Enjoy quiet moments and exciting activities.

Here, at the Grand Hotel, there are more ways than ever thought possible to relax.

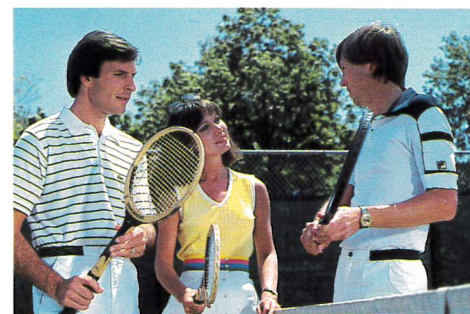

Start with a round of golf at our internationally-known Lakewood Golf Club. Tee off any time of day—no tee-off time is required—in an unhurried, uncrowded atmosphere. Our unique, championship 27-hole layout ranks with America's best. "Playing this course can be an almost mystical experience," according to GOLF Magazine. Rolling terrain. Fairways lined with huge oaks and thick with pines. Sugar white bunkers. Wooden bridges crossing lazy creeks. A sense of bayou country.

It's a long, enjoyable course with new traps, well-marked cart paths, and easy-to-follow tee signs. Meeting goers can play a full round...or a few holes between meetings.

Acres of colorful beauty abound.

All guests receive full golf privileges. And Lakewood's full-time staff of PGA instructors will gladly give pointers. It's a complete club in itself, offering everything for golf—electric carts, caddies, practice and putting greens, lounges, dining room, locker rooms, and sauna.

Ask one of our pros for a few pointers.

Tennis enthusiasts will be thrilled to discover 10 tempting Rubico-surfaced courts, located near the main lobby. Guests can even sign up for lessons, taught by one of our professional tennis instructors. And any of our staff pros will gladly arrange to put together a golf or tennis tournament for meeting goers...and meeting planners!

Board our Bullfisher for thrilling deep-sea fishing.

The pleasures of the Gulf Coast setting are almost endless. Accept the challenge of deep-sea fishing. The Grand's own 53-foot Hatteras Yacht—complete with crew—makes it possible for adventure-lovers to see, for themselves, just how exciting this ocean sport can be.

Guests can set up a fishing pole or drop a crab trap off Pavilion Wharf. We'll supply all the equipment needed. They'll haul in their day's catch, and one of the Grand Hotel's chefs will clean it...specially prepare it...and serve it to them for dinner that evening—at no extra cost!

Our marina has lots of room for docking—

Enjoy a relaxing round of golf on Lakewood Golf Club's internationally-known course.

Take the plunge in our huge, 750,000-gallon swimming pool.

40 slips in all. And for guests who don't own boats, we offer sailboats, powerboats with water skis, paddleboats, and skiffs.

Swimmers flip over our 750,000-gallon pool. It's one of the largest hotel pools in the world, giving guests plenty of room for lap swimming and water play. Our poolside gazebo is ideal for small gatherings and private parties.

Head out to the polo field; on some Sundays we offer exhibition polo matches. And horseback riding can also be found at the Grand.

Joggers and bicyclists abound on the boardwalk. (Rental bikes are available in both tandem and regular styles.) Lawn sports and shuffleboard are also available.

Meeting goers can ease tensions in our sauna. And end the day with a relaxing stroll along the beach, past alluring antebellum homes lining the shore enhanced by the colors of a Gulf Coast sunset.

For youngsters from ages 5 to 12, we have a Junior Hostess Program throughout the summer and on all major holidays. Our qualified staff members will plan an exciting array of activities guaranteed to delight youngsters and send them home with many happy memories.

Our service makes guests feel right at home.

Southern hospitality that outshines the sun.

Smile here and everyone smiles back. Especially our friendly staff. Why? Because they truly enjoy being a part of the Grand tradition. In fact, some of our employees have worked here for over thirty years. And for some employees, working at the Grand is a family tradition, too! They're proud of this "Queen of Southern Resorts." Proud to be working for Marriott. And proud to be serving you.

Perhaps that's just one more reason why so many meeting planners who've discovered Marriott's Grand Hotel continue to use the facilities time and time again. Because Marriott does it right.
