

The quietly elegant decor throughout Grand Hotel is pleasing to people who are accustomed to luxury without ostentation.

The dining room overlooks a thrilling panorama of landscaped grounds with Mobile Bay in the background. Its two-level design enhances the impression of spaciousness.

Traditionally-furnished rooms and suites in the main hotel and cottages and the modern accommodations in the new Bay House may differ in appearance, but are alike in the comfort they afford.

