

Guest rooms and suites are all in the wings, far from central activity, for privacy and utmost quiet. The entire air-conditioned and protected from fire by a modern sprinkler system. All rooms have easy access to the outdoors through exits at the ends of the wings. Rooms are finished in natural cypress and are smartly furnished and decorated. Many rooms have sofa-chair-cocktail table groupings before great picture windows.

Any season is the perfect vacation-time at Grand Hotel, where the Southern air is temperate, where pleasure always reigns. Under the intense blue of Alabama skies you will catch your breath at the first sight of green lawns sharply meeting the sparkling white and blue of beach and water.

Grand Hotel is wrapped in the shade of giant, century-old oak trees festooned with Spanish moss. Its antiqued exterior, finished in subdued stain, absorbs the light, creates an atmosphere of restful relaxation, an absence of glare. The hotel spreads long and low, with giant picture windows and plate-glassed porches making the beautiful outdoors an intrinsic part of the interior scene. There are many miles of natural woodland trails in the environs of Point Clear, and the hotel maintains a stable of fine horses for riding enthusiasts.
