OAK HARBOR, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1959

NUMBER 45

POLICEMAN John Kamberger and Jerry Cook, Oak Harbor businessman, look over the damage to the front of one of Pioneer Way's older buildings, used at the time for storage by Lineburg Electric. The 1951 Buick is firmly wedged into the rear wall of the store, with estimated damage to building of $2,500. A humorous note was contained in a small sign on a window of the establishment reading, "Parking 50c, special night rates, room for one more." School begins Wednesday —

Crowded school classes foreseen

School registration will come to a close this Friday, school officials announced, and those youngsters as yet unregistered may get a course in "outdoor education," due to the crowded condition of both high and elementary schools.

The transfer of some first, second and third grades may be made from the Oak Harbor Elementary to Olympic View School (Homoja Huts) and parents will be notified of this change this week.

Registration has been good, said Supt. of Schools Wilbur Gilbert, who also pointed out registration may be made on Friday of this week also. As of Friday, Aug. 21, 1,862 elementary students registered, with 2,100 expected.

A teachers' workshop will be held Monday and Tuesday, August 31 and Sept. 1 and school will open for a half-day session on Sept. 2 with Junior and Senior High students attending from 8 a.m. to noon, and elementary students from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The next two days of the week will be regular school days. The cafeterias will not be open until further notice, with a delay of about four weeks expected because of the uncompleted Junior High building and the temporary housing for high school under renovation.

Mr. Gilbert said that for the first month some classes would have to be held in the gym and in the cafeteria.

Monday, Sept. 7, Labor Day, school will be closed.

Car wrecks Pioneer Way building

One of Pioneer Way's relics of early downtown Oak Harbor, the building formerly housing the "Yardstick," virtually had its face "lifted" early Wednesday morning when a 1951 Buick, driven by Gwyneth Spellman of Coupeville plowed through the front of the wooden structure and came to rest with its nose puncturing the rear wall.

The driver was taken to the Naval Hospital for treatment of shock and minor injuries and remained there for observation when it was discovered she was under treatment for a minor brain concussion suffered in an earlier accident. She was believed to have been under sedation at the time of the Pioneer Way accident.

The wrecked building was being used as a "used" storehouse by the Lineburg Electric. Owner of the building, Bernie Russell, said that damage was estimated at $2,500 to the building which was not covered by insurance.

Man booked after killing of own dog

Police Chief Fred Murcay reported that his department had booked a man at the County Jail this week charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, with investigation pending following a bizarre series of events Tuesday night.

The prisoner, M. E. Ogborn of 850th St. N.E. took his rage out on his dog, first beat the animal unmercifully, then shot the dog, and followed this act by cutting its throat. Not satisfied that the dog had been punished enough, Ogborn hung the animal from the limb of a tree.

Ogborn will also face a charge of discharging a firearm within the city limits.

Plane wreck sighted on Vancouver Is.

Reports from a civilian fishing party of the wreckage of a Navy plane with 11 skeletons aboard on Mount McCreek near the Campbell River on Vancouver Island were received by the Whidbey Naval Air Station on Monday of this week, with information that an RCAF search party had been dispatched to identify the craft.

LT Duane J. Hoffine, Public Information Officer at Ault Field said Wednesday morning that the Canadian search party had lost their radio contact and had never gotten to the wreckage, in a thickly forested area about 20 miles north of Robert Lake. Another search party was dispatched at 3 a.m. Wednesday, and as this report is written, identification of the reported aircraft is unconfirmed pending a report from official sources. The instance as reported by a Seattle newspaper Wednesday morning was based on unconfirmed reports from Canadian sources, Navy officials here said.

Jackpot climbing so be careful

850 Avenue East seems to be the street to live on for a chance at the Who's Who jackpot. Ethel Vannice was the fourth winner on the street. Her entry was drawn Monday by Mrs. Henry Zylstra of Oak Harbor Meats. She received only $7.50 so the jackpot jumped to $82.50. She named the correct personality LeRoy Rowand.

There were thirteen clues as follows: Terryaki Steak, Master's degree, four children, ONE OF 500 (this is the population of his home town) Lindenwold, N.J. (his home town), 7% hat, Scout master, Wacky school orchestra, poet of sorts, The bow-tie bus driver, Dances, Sherwood (his second name) and pay in 11 months (he's on an eleven months contract). This last clue was the one missed by Mrs. Vannice. We had placed it with Hammond Organs and thought we'd catch everybody but 369 smart persons entered it as a clue.

Immediately after the drawing the following "anonymous" poem was dropped on the contest editor's desk.

"I think SHERWOOD is a real pretty name—
But the way it got treated is a cryin' shame!!
A Master's Degree is also beauty to behold—
But the way it got treated—kinda left me cold!!!
However, for all this fame (of

Kindergarten registration continues

Registration for Learn and Play Kindergarten is still being taken, according to Mrs. Jack Goodman, who reports 65 registered at this time.

Four classes are planned, with morning classes from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and afternoon classes from 12:45 to 3:15 p.m. Registration may be made at OR 5-3757.

Annual Mardi Gras date set for Oct. 3

Basic plans for the third-annual all-hospital Guild Mardi Gras have been made, according to Helen (Mrs. Fred) Grunwald, Oak Harbor, and already things are falling into shape for an all-community event which will be one of the greatest undertakings of North Whidbey. It will be held Saturday, October 3 at the Oak Harbor High School gymnasium.

There are approximately 450 women in Coupeville and Oak Harbor working in nineteen guilds, making the Mardi Gras their main year-around project. Last year through their efforts and that of the hospital association $2,500 was added to the building fund which has now surpassed $10,000.

This year again the event will start with a kiddies parade. Last year the number turning out exceeded expectations and costumes were so elaborate that the committee decided to make the parade available to more spectators.

Once again a king and queen will be chosen by students of the Oak Harbor High School, to be balloted on at the first assembly and chosen the week before the Mardi Gras.

GUILDS AND their projects for the Mardi Gras are Guild 1, pie wheel, bean bag throw, plants; Guild 2, Christmas ornaments, decorations, home-made candy; Guild 3, fair horse sticks, candy bars, candles, gourd, riding horse, caramel apples, ice cones; Guild 4, balloon game, cotton candy; Guild 5, cook books, cake walk, quik cuts, window cloths; Guild 6, pie and coffee and ice cream; Guild 7, aprons, pillow cases and prize contest; Guild 8, general store, stationery, fresh bread and

Last year's chairman

GUILD 12, chili and crackers; Guild 13, Sloppy Joes, dish towels; Guild 14, Dutch pantry (cakes and pies); Guild 15, Bingo; Guild 16, baby gifts, shower gifts; Guild 17, dance, pop concession and Guild 18, roulette wheel, mouse game.

It will be noted that Guild 7 has a prize contest. This is an event which promises a great deal of excitement. Prizes for $1 donation include a Necchi Portable sewing machine, Polaroid camera outfit, 30-30 Winchester rifle and Chamelmaster transistor radio. Further details may be secured from members of the guilds.

New business to open Sat. at Marketown

A "grand opening" for a new business, the "Stauffer Home Plan" will be held Saturday, Aug. 29, 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. in Marketown next to Haddon Furniture, when Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chapman will be hosts to the public, as independent dealers for the product.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Hazel Littell, winner of $2,500 in the recent Stauffer contest, "10 happiest women" writing what the machine had done for them. Two door prizes of 20 per cent off on the purchase of the famous "Stauffer posture-rest" will be given to guests during the open house.

The Chapmans, a Navy family were here three years, then transferred to Kodiak for three years before returning to Oak Harbor where they expect to retire in one year. They have three children, Tom 13, Linda, 11, and Susie, seven.

Teachers to meet Aug. 31

An orientation meeting for all teachers new to the Oak Harbor school system will be held in the High School library on Monday, August 31 at 9 a.m. At 10:30 tours will be given to points of interest in the vicinity, and "all hands" will meet at noon at Clover Valley for lunch.

A general meeting for all teachers will be held at 1 p.m. at Clover Valley school, and at 2:15 building meetings will be conducted.

At 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 1 all teachers will report to their assigned buildings, and on Wednesday school will begin for all teachers with students dismissed at noon.

Chief warns of danger in streets

Police Chief Fred Murcay warned parents of children who play in the streets at the Broadview Addition to Oak Harbor. Murcay said he had had numerous complaints about children coasting and playing both on streets in the addition and on the highway.

"Someone is going to get hurt here if caution isn't taken," said Murcay, "and parents should see that the children are warned of the dangers of playing in the streets."

SWIM PICNIC FRIDAY

Remember the Red Cross swim class picnic at City Beach Friday afternoon, 4 to 6 p.m. Cards will be given at that time and families of young swimmers are invited to bring their picnic suppers and enjoy the last week of summer. The city beach will be open Saturday, Sunday and Monday of Labor Day weekend, with a guard on duty, weather permitting.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Revival services will be held nightly at the Church of God, 7189 700 Ave. West, starting August 28 through September 6. The colored evangelist, Rev. W. A. Webb, will be in attendance. There will also be spiritual singing. Everyone is invited.

Long Live the Queen!

Oak Harbor is looking forward to the selection of a new "Miss Whidbey Island" to represent our Navy installation during the coming year at informal functions. The selection of a local girl to reign as "queen" ties the civilian community closer to the Navy community, furthering the cause of public relations on both sides, and providing a spark of "glamor" to the military.

The new Navy "queen" is selected by a group of judges composed of Navy men and civilians who take into consideration not only beauty but personality and character. Representing Whidbey Island Naval Air Station and the community as well, the "queen" must combine dignity with stardust, and personality and poise with beauty. The "Miss NAS Whidbey" event will be eagerly awaited this fall.

Sidewalks again —

School begins next week, and children walking to and from school on Midway Boulevard north of 700 Ave. will add to a traffic hazard to this important thoroughfare and shopping district. Well defined pedestrian crossings at the Chimes corner, and school patrols assist children in this area, but from the corner north toward the residential area of northeast Oak Harbor a real danger exists for both children and adults, something for property owners as well as our ever-watchful town police to consider.

The happiest summer —

In spite of inclement weather at times, and tides that refused to cooperate at all times, Oak Harbor's summer beach program progressed satisfactorily, with hundreds of youngsters learning the rudiments of keeping alive in the water. Added to the fine Red Cross swim program was the fact that no drownings took place, either at Oak Harbor or at Cranberry Lake State Park, despite overflow crowds at both water sites, attesting to greater vigilance and cooperation of parents of children enrolled in the swim program.

Which adds up to a sigh of relief as orchids are presented to the Red Cross swim program, the Oak Harbor recreation program, the State Park guard program and everyone who had a lot of fun while remembering to keep a healthy regard for the rules.

Spindrift

When folks get to thinking they have problems in putting over a program or promotion on Whidbey Island, we have this little gem of a bedtime story for their listening ear:

A friend from Oregon related that a Portlander connected with the Oregon Centennial thought up a real winner. School children were invited to collect old candles which were to be melted down and cast into one huge candle, the light thereon to burn all during the Centennial.

The kids, enthusiastic over the project, collected enough tallow to fill the State House, and then the promoters came to the realization that no provision had been made to cast the huge candle, if such a provision could have been made.

Tons of old candles, and no light. And all those disappointed little kids.

The gas company came to the rescue, offered to dispose of the candles, and erect a burning flame (gas, of course) for the duration of the festival. Which offer was accepted with alacrity, by red-faced officials.

SUMMER is nearly over, and reluctant youngsters are getting ready for another year of school. The new early opening time (8 p.m.) for Junior and Senior High may work somewhat of a hardship on late risers.

In our own case, we have already established a new schedule, get to work at 7 a.m. no breakfast. By the time school begins, we will have everything under control except Doug, who never wants to go to bed or get up either.

A little item we didn't consider until just now is the daily piano practice. This always took place in the morning before school, and dates back to the days when Mary Lee thumped out her half-hour duty before breakfast. Gad. A half hour EARLIER.

SINCE DOUG handily cut off the end of one finger, his piano playing has been curtailed somewhat, but we are looking forward to resuming the morning agony, however early. As it is, all the "music" we get now is played by ear, with a heavy bass beat from the left hand, and the injured finger held stiffly upward in its guard. A little more touchy will be the clarinet.

And to think he could have had three years on the bass drum.

Goings on about town: Mrs. Edna Jensen, recreation director, getting ready to wind up the swim classes at city beach — Beverly Case, last year's high school "Homecoming Queen" beginning to work at the News office — Stan Nye back from a week's vacation and happy too yet — Arend Balster in favor of billiards for kids instead of mischief; Capt. Hill Barrington at Pay-Less kissing our Mom on the cheek on account it was HIS birthday; the new Band Calendars arriving with everyone's birthday and anniversaries on it — Bill Garrison intent upon getting the temporary school housing to look better than temporary housing — George Koetje winning a game of horse-shoes — Midway Boulevard looking up with new signs on North Whidbey Business and Professional Center, and Lone Oak Motel — the school district office ready for fall traffic with a paint job and new sidewalk — Ernie Neuman, school principal, sitting on the front porch of the uncompleted Junior High building and figuring class schedules for opening day — Tom Howell telling us about blue potatoes.

Of course we're talking about the two city buildings as they stand side by side opposite the Whidbey Press. We don't know what the town council plans to do with grandma but before the grand old lady hears her fate, we should reminisce a bit.

MAYOR RAY MAYLOR was one of the first students to enter the old building in 1902, having moved from "Freund's Hill." We think probably that there were "His" and "Hers" out-buildings somewhere around but we were too shy to question Ray, having run into a little trouble on the Pioneer mannequins. We do know that it housed about 40 students from one to sixth grade. Simultaneously country children were attending at Silver Lake, Clover Valley, Sandy Flat, etc.

Getting back to grandma, the building remained vacant until about 1930, Ray believes, but it was being put to use gradually for certain things like elections, storage of fire truck and gradually a library. In 1942 the town became more businesslike and looked around for a town engineer. In 1943 it remodeled the grand old lady so that election clerks did not have to use the neighbors' facilities, the council could meet without shivering, the policy could interview a miscreant and the clerk could file records in a mouse-proof cabinet.

MANY PEOPLE now living in the area attended school in the old building — the other Maylor boys, Alice DeBoer (Mrs. Forrest Kennedy), John Vander-Pol, Evelyn and Betty Vander-zicht, Clara DeVries (DeYoung), Pete Fakkema, John Bultman, Geert Zylstra, Jim Balda, etc., etc.

Evelyn Vanderzicht Alsberg says she had to stay out of school a year to be company for her brother, John, who was not old enough yet to attend. But Evelyn would be the last to say the year was wasted. Probably through close association with John she gained far more than had she taken the more conventional route to education. To prove it, she was later promoted two grades at a time.

EVELYN can remember climbing up the huge rock at recess time. The same rock is still there (near the water tower) but somehow Evelyn says it's gotten a lot smaller.

Betty Boyer can remember carrying soup from the high school to the 1902 building which testifies to her reliable character. Imagine OUR early graders with a batch of hot soup!

the building was remodeled in 1943.

The pretty school marm taking her responsibility seriously with the "marcelled" pompadour is Miss Lola Weaver later to become the first lady of Oak Harbor, and now passed away.

THE BUILDING has lots of memories with its bell that used to pull the students to the ceiling, the slanting floors and dirt basement. The bell room was remodeled as a watchtower for civilian defense. But that's another story. . .

What do you think we ought to do with grandma?

Navy-Neighbor derby ends as 230 enjoy barbecue

"The fishing was lousy, but the food was wonderful" was the consensus of opinion among sponsors of the annual Navy-Neighbor Salmon Derby which climaxed Sunday at Rocky Point with a triumphant salmon barbecue.

Sixty-five ticket holders reported for the four-week period that practically no fish were caught. Dewey Churchill caught the biggest fish with a 7 lb. 15 ounce salmon, CDR Jake Lay-

The salmon barbecue, held at Rocky Point was presided over by S. R. "Pappy" Cole, experienced in salmon barbecuing.

BOWLING LEAGUE
The Housewives Bowling League will meet Monday, August 31 at the Oak Bowl at 12:30 p.m. and all women interested are urged to be present.

Football meeting Monday

Rowland "Red" Smith, new Oak Harbor High school football coach, has asked that all boys, including freshmen, who are interested in turning out for football attend the meeting to be held in the high school gym next Monday, Aug. 31, at 3 p.m.

Smith announced the Frosh gridders would hold their opening turnout Tuesday, Sept. 1 — the same date the varsity practices will begin.

The varsity is scheduled for two sessions Tuesday — the first from 9 to 11 a.m., and the second from 3:30 to 5 p.m. The freshmen will work out from 1 to 3 p.m.

Gear will be issued to all football aspirants this Friday, Aug. 28, and Saturday, Aug. 29. Varsity candidates are asked to draw their gear either on Friday from 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m., or Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon. Frosh gear will be issued Saturday afternoon, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Smith will be assisted with Wildcat football chores by Les Hogan, formerly of Connell High school and Sid Parker, frosh mentor for the past two years. All three coaches will work with both the varsity and freshmen elevens.

Traffic signs important says Police Chief

"You can't shrug off traffic signs!" Chief Murcay of the Oak Harbor Police Dept. told drivers today.

"You can bet your bottom dollar," he said, "that every traffic sign and signal you pass on the highway has a definite reason for being where it is. The hospitals and cemeteries are full of ex-drivers who shrugged off some sign on the mistaken notion that whoever put it there didn't know what he was doing."

A great many intersections having "Stop" signs are deceptively safe-looking, according to the Washington State Safety Council, but have a bloody history behind them that necessitated the original installation of these controls.

In the same way, each speed limit and warning sign is a silent testimonial to days and weeks of investigation and testing by traffic experts in their efforts to determine at what speed, and under what conditions, the road may be safely traveled. Entering into this are studies of the road's surface; what effects various weather conditions have on it; topography of the country through which the road travels; principles of inertia; and other factors that seldom occur to the average driver.

"No traffic sign or signal," he said, "is thrown up at random simply because it is found lying around the sign shop."

With the proper conditions of wind and high temperatures, a tiny spark can turn into a raging forest fire. The Forks fire in 1951 travelled 18 miles in 36 hours, destroying more than 30,000 acres of forest land. Don't let it happen again. Guard every spark. Help Keep Washington Green.

Conservation for 1960 to begin

Farmers who wish to put cropland into the Soil Bank's 1960 Conservation Reserve must ask the county ASC committee to set a basic annual rate per-acre for the offered land, Wilbur W. Sherman, Chairman, Island County ASC committee, said today. The period for filing such requests is from August 24 through September 10. No such requests will be accepted after September 10.

In setting the basic annual per-acre rate for land offered, the county committee will take into consideration productivity of the land and the rate will be limited to local fair rental value of the land based on crops harvested from it during the past five years. When all eligible cropland on the farm is offered for the Conservation Reserve, the rate will generally be set 10 per cent higher than the rate for only part of the eligible land.

After the basic rate has been determined, the farmer may apply for a contract at any figure below the basic rate established for the land offered in the request for rates. If necessary, a priority system will be used to determine which offers are accepted.

Contracts under the Conservation Reserve may run for as long as 10 years. During the time of contract, the farmer will receive an annual rental payment on reserved land for the life of the contract, and he also will receive cost-sharing help in establishing an approved conservation practice.

For Washington, basic per-acre rate of payment under the 1960 Conservation Reserve is $16 the same as under the 1959 program. Tentative acreage goal for the state is 84,000 acres.

11 traffic deaths over weekend alarm State

Seventeen traffic deaths occurred last week in Washington, with eleven being reported over the weekend. Seven of these occurred in two accidents; one accident claimed three lives, the other four lives.

Eight, or nearly half of the fatal accident victims died as the result of excessive speed. Another six died as the result of being on the wrong side of the road, or over the center line. Other violations included failure to yield the right of way, improper parking and cutting in.

The August death toll rose sharply, and so far this month 47 deaths have occurred. This is nine more than during the corresponding period last year. For the year, 333 deaths have occurred, three less than during the same 1958 period.

The rural areas have had 27 more deaths so far this year, while cities have had a reduction of 30 deaths.

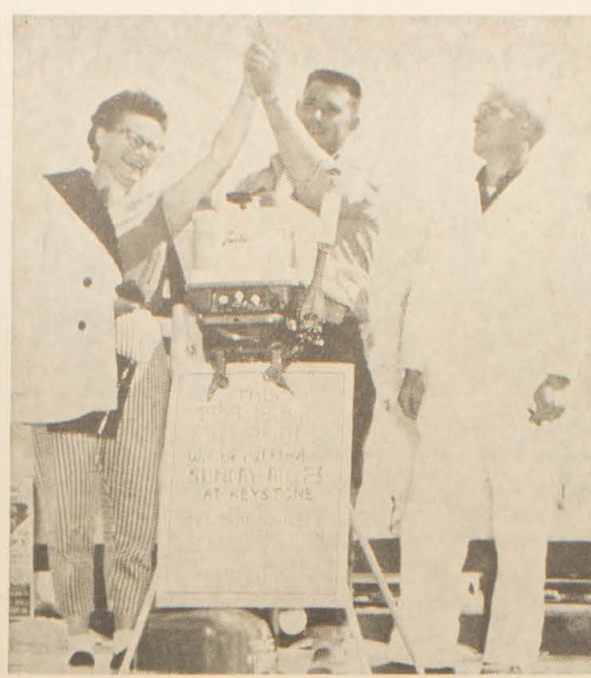

This weekend experience casts doubt over the coming Labor Day weekend. It appears that with the increase in travel, the holiday weekend could possibly surpass records set during previous years.

Here are the statistics: Deaths during week ending August 24, 1959, 17. In 1958, 12. Deaths so far during August 1959, 47; in 1958, 38. Deaths so far this year, 333; in 1958, 336.

Wash. man to head agriculture census

A Marysville man has been selected to head the 1959 agriculture census west of the Cascade Mountains, according to Congressman Jack Westland. He is Robert E. McManus, 5724 75th Place, N.W. McManus will have the title of Agriculture Field Assistant for the Western Washington area, and was appointed by the Bureau of the Census.

The census on Agriculture will be taken in October and November. This will be the 17th such count since 1840.

W-D Boat club derby set Sept. 19

The big annual Whidbey - Deception Pass Boat Club salmon derby will be held September 19 this year, with starting time set at 5 a.m., continuing until noon, when prizes will be awarded.

Those holding tickets to the derby will have the opportunity to win a 10 h.p. outboard motor as well as cash and merchandise prizes, and tickets will be placed on sale soon.

The Boat Club met last week to report that there will be a two day cruise to Sucia Island on August 29 and 30 with Cecil Strong, cruisesmaster. Those taking part are asked to be launched and ready to go at 9 a.m. at Cornet Bay. Those who cannot go on Saturday are invited to go Sunday and join the others at Fossil Bay.

Chuck Dann showed colored movies taken on Attu Island during the war. The next meeting of the Boat Club will be Sept. 15, with hostesses Mrs. Glenn Ducken, Mrs. Deane Williams and Mrs. Cecil Strong.

All work and no play makes jack for the nerve specialists.

Football fan club to meet

A meeting of the Quarterback Club, group of persons interested in the high school football program in Oak Harbor, will be held Sept. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Chimes basement.

The group of fans will elect a president and plan a program for the coming year. Details may be obtained from Ted Knutsen at the high school or Bernie Lange at OR 5-4450.

Information sought on meteor shower Feb. 9

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, responsible for the Nation's scientific research in space, is attempting to correlate information on a meteor shower which occurred between 9 p.m. and 9:15 p.m., Eastern Standard time, the night of February 9, 1913, and may be remembered by residents in this area.

In order that all possible sources of information may be reached, NASA is seeking the assistance of your newspaper and its readers. The information we have so far indicates that a group of meteors passed over a narrow line from Regina in Saskatchewan, through Ontario, Buffalo, Scranton, Pennsylvania, Brooklyn and out over Bermuda.

The meteor shower reportedly consisted of six or six clusters path of the previous cluster at intervals of about a minute. Each cluster consisted of about six individual meteors, and many meteors had small tails. The brightest had the intensity of the Moon. The shower was accompanied by thunder, which was heard for some minutes after the phenomenon passed over head. A second passage should have occurred about an hour and one-half after the 9 p.m. passage, and should have gone over your area, according to calculations.

Some astronomers have speculated that these meteors may have originated from the Moon. NASA's purpose in asking help to obtain all first-hand reports to arrive at a conclusion regarding the nature of the bodies, or of unusual noises heard at the time. Cloudy weather prevented direct observation of the meteors in many areas over which they passed.

You can aid us by any positive or negative reports based on articles in your morgue files, together with an article based on the above information asking for persons with diaries and letters to write to John A. O'Keefe, Assistant Chief, Theoretical Division, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Silver Springs, Maryland.

Sign donated for Whidbey Service Center

The Whidbey Servicemen's Center, a Christian organization operated on a faith basis, provides a place of Christian friendship, wholesome entertainment and a hearty welcome to all servicemen in the Whidbey Island area, and is known as "A home away from home, with the Bible in it."

Social security names Sept. 1 for payments

August 31 is an important date for anyone who is severely disabled and who worked under social security for at least five years out of the ten years before becoming disabled, according to Dennis R. Rainey, field representative of the Everett social security office. Many may lose at least one or more month's social security, insurance payments if they do not contact his office before September 1, he warned.

The 1958 social security amendments removed the provisions of the law which made it mandatory to offset against social security disability payments any disability benefits paid by any other Federal agency or by state workmen's compensation. Originally, many persons, knowing that no benefits were payable under the old law's offset provisions, failed to claim their social security disability benefits.

They can now claim them, if payable, back as far as August 1958 if the application is filed by Aug. 31, 1959. They should contact the Everett social security office at 3024 Wetmore Ave., immediately, Rainey emphasized; or, if more convenient Mr. Rainey may be contacted at the Oak Harbor City Hall, August 31 between 9 a.m. and noon.

Who's Who on North Whidbey

- CONTEST RULES -

1. This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You MAY submit one entry per person at any or all of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are in the row that is heavily bordered this week—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the WHIDBEY PRESS. Sponsoring Merchants and their families (and their employees and families) are most welcome to enter—but one special rule applies: during the weeks when entries are brought into your store, you may enter only at the other two stores in the same row (not in your own store).

2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry in an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the paper to participate.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the North Whidbey area. Clues to his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (this means any ad in this section or any ad of the same merchant elsewhere in the paper). Clues will be scattered—many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!

4. If, by coincidence, the name of WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

5. TO ENTER, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address!!! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this issue. You may enter at all three if you wish! There are no other places where entries will be accepted—any member of the family may bring in all entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 5 p.m. Monday of the following week. At that time (5 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $7.50. If THAT entry also lists every clue hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, a BONUS of $37.50 will be added. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS—which will continue to grow until it is won! Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of clues—the exact number and all copied correctly and exactly as in the paper. (Watch those capitals, etc.)

7. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED. The publishers of the OAK HARBOR NEWS and the ISLAND COUNTY TIMES will be the judge and their decision is final.

8. All clues will be in the Island County Times and the Oak Harbor News.

NOW IS THE TIME

The school year is about to start and you want your child to enter school in his new grade as perfectly equipped as possible.

You can do something about it now! If you don't, please don't blame your child or the teacher if he or she comes home with:

- ✓ A poor report card.
- ✓ A record of uneasy social contacts.
- ✓ A lack of interest in school life or the future.

KEEN VISION IS VITAL
Among a parents first responsibilities, is to have their children's eyes and vision checked before sending them off to school.

Pointers for Flower Show Exhibitors.

Some shows are past but others are coming up in the fall. First cut at the proper bloom stage which varies with the flower. For instance correct time for cutting roses is when outer petals begin to loosen. For dahlias they should be fully open and gladioli when the second floret is ready to open.

Flowers with woody stems should have their stems split and bruised two to four inches up from the cut ends. Those with milky juices such as poppies should have about one half inch of the cut ends placed in boiling water for one to three minutes before placing in cool water.

Gather rosebuds in the late afternoon. Results of research show they keep longer than cut in the morning. This is because the flower and stem has more stored carbohydrates in the latter part of the day. Chemical substances such as aspirin that is sometimes used to prolong freshness have not proven out to be noticeably effective.

It usually pays to cut flowers with a sharp knife and with a long slanting cut. Most absorbed water used to keep the flower fresh comes through the cut end. This is generally true yet some flowers do absorb considerably through the stem surface.

Often it pays to place the flowers in warm water as it moves up the stem faster and easier. Then store or keep the flowers in a cool room temperature. If they are to go to a show a cool room or refrigerator is good. Remove all leaves that would be below the water level.

Don't Drown Those Shrubs

Yellow-tipped shrubbery in late summer may mean too much water than too little. Or it could be poor drainage. Generally we recommend watering shrubs about every ten days. Then soak the soil to a depth of 6 to 8 inches. Frequent light watering is not good. It causes shallow rooting.

We need to water oftener in light sandy soils than heavy clay soils. Heavy watering in late summer may cause some shrubs to continue growing and be in a tender condition. This makes them more vulnerable to an early cold snap. Careful watering can help one to harden off or mature plants for winter conditions.

African Violet Culture

Often I visit homes where African Violets are grown. They are a source of beauty in a home and often an object of joy to many housewives. Such is the case with Mrs. Roy Loller of Camano Island. What a fine collection she has.

We have a little paper on the culture of this plant. You can have one for the asking. African violets adjust themselves readily to the humidity and temperature of most homes. Good light is essential but direct sunlight is not required.

Temperature should not be much below 60 degrees or above 85 degrees F. The soil should be moist at all times but the foliage dry.

Aphids — This has been a good year for the aphid. Most damage is done in spring and early summer. So why am I writing about the pests now? I'd say it was to keep you in readiness for spraying them next spring.

Malathion is the best insecticide in aphid control. Try not to let aphids get in such large numbers. They are harder to hit with spray then and also damage has already been done.

You may still watch cabbage, broccoli and other plants for these pests.

Bacterial Blight Showing up on Lilacs

Black spots in lilac leaves and twigs spell trouble. Then the leaves may turn black and wilt. This disease was noticeable back in May and moist conditions favor the bacterial organism.

The disease often spreads from leaves to twigs and into larger branches. To control, it is recommended that one cut out infected twigs and spray with a basic copper sulfate compound.

New UW students to meet in Mt. Vernon

Students from Western Washington who are entering the University of Washington this fall will be given an informal introduction to campus life at three meetings to be held in Bellevue, Bremerton and Mount Vernon August 31 and September 1 and 2.

The Mount Vernon meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, September 3, in the new Student Union Building at Skagit Valley College. Dr. Eugene Strom of Anacortes will be alumni chairman.

NEW STUDENTS, undergraduate or graduate, who plan to enroll in the university this fall, and their families, are invited to the meeting in their area.

(Because admission applications still are being processed, only those local students who have been formally admitted to the university, and whose applications for admission have been processed up to August 14, are included in the attached list.) University faculty and staff members will be present at the meetings to discuss campus academic and extracurricular activities and to answer questions.

Student body representatives at the Mount Vernon meeting will be Marilyn Trudeau of Sedro Woolley and Larry Fox of Anacortes. Students admitted to the university up to August 14 include from this area: Edward R. Fakkema, Barbara Kahn, Ralph M. McKenzie, Michael W. Ostrom and Gary A. Shepherd.

Schools must have complete count-register!

Due to evident misunderstanding of registration instructions, Superintendent of Schools Wilbur Gilbert urges all parents to note the changes which are in effect this year.

This year, for the first time, all children must register, including those who were in attendance last year. That includes grades 1 through 8 and 9th graders. Grades 10, 11, and 12 registered in May and those high school students may pick up their class cards during the last two weeks in August at the high school. Students new to this high school must register, however.

Because the schools are facing a shortage in housing, this count of every student who will enter September 2 must be made to determine if extra classrooms will have to be created in the gym or cafeteria.

Only 146 first graders have registered which is about one-half of the expected enrollment. It should be emphasized that registration will be held after August 21, for all those who have not registered as yet.

ALL PUPILS in junior high, grades 7 and 8, will register in the old junior high building near the Chimes corner.

Registration time for grade and junior high pupils are from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Students will register and attend classes according to the following areas.

Pupils living in the city limits and south of 850 E. and east of Midway Boulevard register in the Olympic View Elementary. This applies to grades 1 to 3 only; grades 4 to 6 in this area register and attend Oak Harbor Grade.

All other pupils living in the city limits and generally north and east of Ault Field even though they live outside the city limits register in the Oak Harbor Elementary.

Pupils in the 7th and 8th grades register in the old junior high at the Chimes corner. Temporarily 7th and 8th grade classes will be held in this building.

STUDENTS WHO LIVE outside the city limits and south of Ault Field register and attend classes in Clover Valley Elementary.

It is planned that a full day of school will be held on Sept. 2. Hours, grades 3 to 6, 9:00 to 3:30 p.m. Grades 7 to 12: 8 to 2:30 p.m. Grades 1 and 2, 9 to 2:30 p.m.

1. First Grade: (a) Present evidence of date of birth at time of registration. (Birth certificate or notarized statement.) (b) Pupils must have reached their 6th birthday on or before October 31. (c) a fee of $3.00 is collected at this time to cover the cost of workbooks, paper, pencils, Weekly Reader, etc.

2. All Pupils: Parents of Federally connected children must sign Federal card at the time of registration. This indicates the connection of the parent or guardian with the Navy, Civil Service or other Federal employment in the district.

Parents signature on this card will be necessary before registration will be completed.

Seventh and 8th grade pupils will have to return the Federal card before registration can be completed.

Floyds Bay Due To Return To Whidbey in Sept.

Hong Kong, B.C.C. With the city of Hong Kong as a backdrop, Captain Donald Gay, Jr., Commanding Officer of the USS Floyds Bay AVP-40, inspected the crew and presented several awards.

The Floyds Bay, which departed from Whidbey in mid-March, has been Station Ship here and will depart shortly for return to Oak Harbor, with an EDA of 18 September.

Capt. Gay complimented the men on their appearance and also on the fine record of conduct ashore which they have established during their deployment.

LT George Fox, CIC and Operations Div'n Officer, accepted from Capt. Gay, in behalf of his division, the Captain's Trophy, awarded each quarter to the divisions which has established the best record in intra-mural athletic competition, conduct, I&E participation, appearance at inspections, and other factors. This was the second consecutive time the award was won by the operations division.

Chief Teleman John B. French was awarded the Navy Unit Commendation for his services aboard the USS Princeton during action against enemy aggressor forces in Korea. Chief French's wife resides in Alameda, Calif.

Squirrels control fir cone market

Fir cone pickers are needed on South Whidbey within the next two weeks, it was announced by Jesse Petrich, Field Supervisor for Mannings Seed Company at Roy, Washington, but it will be up to the squirrels. Petrich made a survey of South Whidbey over the weekend and reports the heaviest crop in 16 years.

Main source of picker's supply will be when the squirrels start cutting their winter supply. They only have access to the tasty acorns, high off the ground, resting on fragile, shak-y boughs. Pickers are warned not to jump the gun but wait for word from Mabel Petrich, District buyer, who will receive cones at her home on the Coles Road. Time for picking will be publicized. Immature cones will not be accepted.

Another source of supply is at the site of logging operations. Pickers are again warned not to take the cones before the order to pick. Price will be set at the time picking notices go out.

Only Douglas fir cones will be accepted and as far north as Greenbank, only.

Standard unit of measurement is a gunny sack, 22 inches x 36 inches properly packed, shaken down, and should be sewn with a sack needle leaving 2 to 3 inch ears. This will hold approximately two bushels.

Because of the excess of cones, a stricter watch will be made as to quality and see count of the cones, which has been set at six. This is determined by slicing the cone lengthwise counting only the seeds cut in half, in one half the cone.

A minimum of 1000,000 sacks is on direct order.

Those interested and needing further information, please contact Mrs. Petrich at Rt. 1, Langley or phone Langley at 2430.

This "school house" helps give you better telephone service

The house illustrated above has walls, windows and roof but it is no ordinary house. This is a "training house" built of samples of every kind of material normally found in home construction—brick, plaster, block, wood, etc. It is used to help teach apprentices the best methods of installing telephone equipment. Such "learning-through-doing" offers the best possible practical training for the job of telephone installation and repair.

Apprenticeship training is only part of a program of employee education that helps people in every department of our company learn to do their jobs better and faster. As a result of such training you, the customer, get better telephone service at the lowest possible cost. And, as our people learn new skills and improve upon existing ones, they have more chance for promotion within our company.

The employee training program is particularly vital to West Coast Telephone because of our rapid growth. In 1949 we had 964 employees. In 1959 we have 1621. Keeping these people trained in the newest techniques of telephone service and teaching them to do their jobs better is one of the ways we work to provide you with telephone service as fine as any in the U.S.A.

Families welcomed by VP-2 and NAS

Hospitality chairman from the squadrons called on three new families this past week and welcomed them to Whidbey. The newcomers have all settled in new homes and are taking up the threads of Navy life in this friendly community.

THE FAMILY of CDR Frank Shaw have a special interest in the story of Bambi as their uncle, Melvin Shaw, was an artist in the Disney studios and his name appears on the fly leaf of the book "Adapted by Melvin Shaw." Shown are the Commander, Kevin, Casey and Kimball and Mrs. Shaw who is affectionately known as "Mac" to her friends.

Take one handsome officer, one vivacious, witty wife, three healthy alert youngsters, put them at home in Qtrs. GG on the Seaplane Base and you've got the Frank Shaw family.

The officer is CDR Shaw who keeps fit and handsome by indulging in active outdoor sports like skiing, squash and tennis while "Mac" (or Helen) claims to have two left feet, loathes sports herself but can talk a good game. In a clipped accent resembling her Canadian neighbors she laments "I used to be pretty good at basketball but one can hardly call up five other girls and say let's have a game, shall we? Or duckpins maybe? No one plays those any more, so you see I am useless."

But seven year old Kevin, Casey 4½ and roughneck of the row, Kimball who is 3½ think Mom is pretty useful, especially at meal and bedtime. Kimball, by the way, has learned to stand at attention and salute in true Marine fashion under the coaching of neighbor Col. Corley. And being a registered nurse, you may be sure that Mom is mighty handy to have around for band-aids and such.

LATER ON the children will realize that fellow they've called Daddy is quite an illustrious guy. Fresh out of UCLA and holding a commercial pilot's license back in the late 30's, Shaw was looking for excitement and the RCAF was looking for young men exactly like him. The outcome was that he spent two years as an Eagle Squadron instructor in Moncton, New Brunswick and in Vancouver, B.C. All this time he was in the service of the King he had not been requested to pledge allegiance to the crown but the moment the Japs hit Pearl Harbor, Shaw had to return to the States or lose his citizenship.

Well, he had a choice of the three services for flight service but as he could pass the Navy's requirements and they were the highest of the three, he became Ensign Shaw, USN. He was sent to Pensacola for an abbreviated training and indoctrination on Navy customs and traditions and then sent to Floyd Bennett Field, N.Y. for test pilot duty, and worked with Grumman and Chance-Vought at Bridgeport and Long Island.

"WE FLEW new planes out to carriers and brought the old beat up and shot up ships back for overhaul and repair, if there was enough left of them to fly. We needed all we had back in those days," said Shaw.

After things quieted down he was sent to General Line School in Monterey (the first class) and it was then in 1948 that he married Helen MacDonald and settled down in Carmel for a while.

But things didn't stay quiet. Shaw was ordered to the "Suisun," sister ship of the "Floyds Bay" as Air officer and Operations officer. They deployed in the forward area during the Korean mess.

Back to Pensacola to the staff of Chief of Naval Air Training as assistant PIO and then to San Diego and VC-6 which later was designated VAH-6. Deployed on carriers and took a trip to Atsugi during that tour.

Up the east coast to Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island during 1955 and '56 and then two years at Field Command, Armed Forces Special Weapons at Albuquerque, known as DASA and finally to Whidbey and command of HaTuPac. That unit recently became officially designated VAH-123.

EARLIER THIS month, the Canadians celebrated the 50th anniversary of powered flight in Canada with a mammoth show. Their air interest began two years after the Wright Brother's flight in the U.S. and according to CDR Shaw, they are a much more air minded nation than our own country. There were static displays, demonstrations and stunt teams from all over the world. It seemed quite fitting that the ex-RCAF pilot should be chosen to head a formation of A3D jets to Vancouver, B.C. as the U.S. Navy's entry. Incidentally, the Canadian Golden Hawks flying F-86's are the counterpart of our own Blue Angels.

Back in the old days, Shaw estimates that he ran from Whidbey to Vancouver in the bi-plane DeHavilland Moth would have taken about 45 minutes depending on conditions. The trip this year in the A3D jet took 10 minutes, hardly time to get warmed up.

As C.O. of the squadron attached to Air Group 12 with its headquarters in Miramar, CDR Shaw is apt to be gone more than he is home. Trying to arrange an interview with this busy man is a challenge. But he likes it that way, being busy is being happy, to him.

When the day in the far off future comes that Shaw is retired he wants to return to school for his master's degree in education or enter law. Helen wants to go back to advanced nursing school and catch up on operating room duties.

THIS COUPLE have a lot of fun in life although they do have minor domestic difficulties such as Helen drawing the blinds each time Frank comes home and open them wide. "It's just like an upholstered cellar," says he. Their advice to all couples is "the fine print on the bottom of our marriage contract which says, Frank shall date his wife one night a week all the rest of the year if she will give him two weeks off during the winter to go skiing by himself." They maintain it has meant a most wonderful 11 years of marriage and a lifetime of happiness to come.

Tea honors Captain's lady

The lovely home and delightful grounds of Capt. and Mrs. G. M. Incoe was the setting on a beautiful late summer day last week for a tea in honor of Mrs. Claire Williams whose husband Capt. Vernon Williams will retire September 1.

Mrs. Incoe chose pink candies in white milk glass holders and pink and white carnations spiked with evergreens as the theme for the pleasant party. Pink and white gladioli in a green bowl and in an antique pitcher in the living room completed floral arrangements.

Mrs. John W. Byng, wife of the Commander, CFW, presided at the tea table and poured from a beautifully crested silver service. Delightfully dainty refreshments were served from silver trays on a handsomely embroidered white tablecloth.

The officers wives and Oak Harbor guests expressed their regret at losing the company of this popular couple and wished Mrs. Williams happiness in their new leisurely way of living. The Williams' will spend the winter months at the El Cordova in Coronado while they make plans to purchase or build a permanent home in California.

Officers' Wives Club

by Lou Beury

Autumn is rapidly approaching and once again our activities will be in full swing.

Many new faces have appeared in Oak Harbor during the summer and to our newcomers we extend our warmest welcome and an invitation to join our wives' club.

One main aim of our organization is to provide a means of getting to know one another. Our "Hobbies and Accomplishment" luncheon planned by VP-50 to be held Sept. 9, 12:30 p.m. at the BOQ, is designed to do just this. What better way is there to become acquainted than by sharing each others interests?

Displays of many different hobbies will be available. Be putting finishing touches on your entries, for we would like them taken to Quarters BB on Sept. 2 — only one week away!

Any questions? Call M. E. Yelle Ney at OR 5-2211, Ext. 3911.

We're looking forward to meeting all our newcomers at this time. Reservations can be made through your unit representative or call Marilyn Schulz at OR 5-4703. See you all there!

Thanks, to ComFair Whidbey Wives for providing cookies used at Blood Bank last Thursday.

Reminder? August 28 is one of our "Lafayette Days." Work can be picked up and returned at this time.

Attention: Officers wives still desiring to take beginners bridge lessons, call Adrian Toon OR 5-4657.

FLORIDA GUESTS
Visiting here from Sarasota,
Florida at the W. W. Cockrell home is Mr. and Mrs. J. Cockrell. The men are brothers. This week "Woody" took his brother to Sekiu, fishing.

REALLY STRUTTING were these two Oak Harbor beauties, in the Pacific National Exhibition opening day parade at Vancouver August 22. Beverly Armstrong and Norma Simonson drew much applause from the more than 250,000 people who line the three-mile-long parade route. The Oak Harbor high school band is in background.

MARY CAROZZA of Oak Harbor, presented a bit of terpsichore for the Oak Harbor Night.

MARINER NEWS
A Senior Troop meeting was held August 9 at the home of Nancy Blackwood. The business meeting was preceded by a pot luck dinner. At the meeting we divided into two patrols, one a Senior Service patrol and one a Mariner patrol.

The Mariners elected new officers. Bos'n, Nancy Blackwood, Cox'n., Gale O'Hara; Yeoman Janet Blum, purser or treasurer, Carol Prael, scribe or corresponding secretary, Jani Richman. A subject of discussion was the all council slumber party. The Oak Harbor girls will supply the food.

Next meeting will be after school in the activity room on Friday, Sept. 4. All high school girls are invited to attend.

FROM PORTLAND
Visiting here at the home of Mrs. H. L. Burrier and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Neil over the weekend were Mrs. Burrier's sister, Mrs. R. C. Rogers, and Mr. J. Formick of Portland, Oregon. On Saturday the Neils entertained with a family dinner for the guests, the Jim Neils, Denny Andrews and Diane Genovese of Mount Vernon, Mrs. Burrier and Tom Burrier.

Mariner Scouts

An organization meeting was held at Scout Haven Aug. 19 with a much smaller attendance than hoped for. Mrs. Schulle gave an interesting talk on the "Girl Scout Program" and its objectives. We still need leaders and program aides. If you have an interesting hobby, such as art, photography or anything the girls could use as badge work, you could become a program aide. You would need to donate very little time and still help the Girl Scout program. Let us hear from you.

Sept. 9 has been set for our first Neighborhood meeting of the fall season. So mark your calendar NOW.

Troop 57, led by Mrs. Lewis, attended the Island Co. Fair at Langley for Oak Harbor Night. This was the first fair for some girls so it proved to be a worthwhile experience that other troops might enjoy next year.

I have been asked to include my number each week to avoid confusion:
Pub. Rel. Rep. B. J. Neal
OR 5-3004

Any new girls to the neighborhood or other girls interested in scouting please call Mrs. Schulle at OR 5-3801.

WELL AND HAPPY

Mrs. Mina Stemel is visiting in Oak Harbor. She spent three weeks with her sister, Barbara Vanderzicht and family, and is spending this week with her son, Chester DeVries and family. Mrs. Stemel looks surprisingly well after seven months in the hospital undergoing brain surgery. She has just recently become well enough to travel although she was released from the hospital in May.

LYLA SUE HAGA

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Haga welcomed the birth of their second child, a girl, Tuesday, August 25 at the Anacortes hospital. The baby has been named Lyla Sue and joins a little sister, Lee Ann, two years old.

Guests attending were Maureen Foster, Audrey Foster, Sally Nienhuis, Billy Messner, Carolee Riepma, Susan Sullivan, Rita Tyhuis, Beverly Case, Mrs. Henry Case and Sheila. The guest of honor received many nice gifts, and following the opening of gifts, refreshments were served.

NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. William Pierson are the happy parents of a baby boy, born August 19 and weighing 6 pounds, 6 ounces. The baby has been named William Herman, and joins a brother and two sisters, Carol Lee and Penny Prael and Fred Prael.

IN BREMERTON

Miss Patricia Neuman is visiting for two weeks in Bremerton at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ray Cherry.

Beta Sig Phi plans for year

On August 20 the executive board met at the home of the president, Billie Yates. The new program book was presented and discussed, and plans were made for many coming activities. First regular meeting of the year will be held at the home of Marion Bernhardt at 8013 800 East. All inactive members who would like to participate in the sorority are cordially invited to attend. For further information please call Shirley Dimmitt at OR 5-2465 or Mary Farris at OR 5-3062.

HAS A LITTLE HELP

Alice Lang, assisted by Lynn Weidenbach, Cherita Deckwa, Paul and Marlene Lang and their two sons, Bill Blank and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell of Anacortes, Beverly Case and Carol and Marvin Lang, moved to Bellingham Sunday. Alice rented a three bedroom house in Bellingham and will enroll next year in Western Washington College of Education. Marvin decided to stay with his grandma and continue working at the Navy service station. Carol will attend junior high school in Bellingham.

County Fair rated best, biggest ever

Island County's 35th annual Fair closed Sunday after a highly successful three day run, including two parades and three programs sponsored by surrounding towns.

The childrens parade on Saturday morning brought out an enthusiastic crowd of spectators who enjoyed such entries as the Klinton Kannibal Kettle group of youngsters who walked off with prize money in their pot; the "Baby Island Red Hots" who took second; the many original and creative costumes; the horses; and the kids in general.

THE MAIN parade, beginning at 1 p.m. despite a drizzle, wound its way through Main Street to the Fair Grounds led by the Thirteenth Naval District Band. Jerry Wenik driving a horse and buggy was judged most humorous; and Oak Harbor's Chamber of Commerce float carrying "Miss NAS Whidbey" won the commercial award. A bevy of pretty girls aboard the Rainbow for Girls float took the prize in the fraternal organization section.

Marching units were hard to judge, but Oak Harbor's Junior High band took top honors on final tally. Horse entries far outnumbered those of former years, and contributed to the "Country Fair" theme. Hazel and Norman Clyde managed the entire parade.

TURN-AWAY crowds were reported at the night programs put on by Everett, Oak Harbor and Coupeville - South Whidbey. Local and professional talent supplied the fun, and home cooked food was served all during the three day event.

Frank Kramer Sr. said that despite the weather, attendance records were broken, and that the success of the event was gratifying, with much cooperation among organizations and individuals during the preceding weeks of planning.

Mrs. Gertrude Seimer, superintendent of the Canning and Preserving Dept. reports Mrs. S. R. Newman, Oak Harbor, tops with 14 blue ribbons and 15 reds. Her daughter, Nancy, came away with the honors in the junior section with 10 blues and 5 reds. The number of entries in this department was much below former years, due, it was thought, to newer methods in freezing.

IN BAKED GOODS said Marie Kramer, superintendent, Marjorie Finn, Oak Harbor had 6 blues and 9 reds. The juniors were led by Priscilla Leidholm, Clinton, 3 blues, 3 reds. Boys: Larry Leidholm, Clinton, 2 blues and 1 red. Larry won his laurels on over-night cookies, macaroons and brownies.

Floral Dept., Deloris Hanson, superintendent; Doris Carter, 17
