NEWS OF LAWMAKERS AT OLYMPIA

A Brief Resume of Proceedings of the People's Representatives at the State Capital, Bills Introduced, Passed, Rejected, Etc.

WOMAN WINS WAR FOR BILL

Hard Fight and Oratory Gain Votes in House.

Olympia—The first real fight to be waged by a woman on the floor of the Washington legislature and the first victory to be scored was that by Mrs. Frances Axtell, representative from Bellingham, who, after a hard fight and much oratory, saved one of her pet bills, which appeared in the house with the recommendation of a committee that it be pigeonholed.

The bill provides for the elimination of the "previously chaste character" of the provision of the statutory law. The public morals committee, after considering it, reported unfavorably, and a motion was made to adopt the report when Mrs. Axtell rushed to the rescue of the measure.

"There is no reason for such a committee report," urged Mrs. Axtell, "and I protest against this sham resolution proposition. The bill has been checked up by the attorney-general and it is all right."

Continuing a plea for the bill, Mrs. Axtell won enough votes to defeat the committee report and get her bill referred to the judiciary committee.

By unanimous vote the senate of the Washington legislature passed a bill prohibiting the sale, barter or giving away by any person, firm or corporation of a pocket pistol or revolver unless the purchaser shall have secured a purchasing permit from a judge of a municipal or superior court of the state.

Before a judge can issue such a permit he must be presented with affidavits from at least two reputable citizens vouching for the good reputation and record of the purchaser.

The measure, which was originated by Senator Collins, is aimed to restrict the sale of firearms and thereby lessen the number of murders, holdups and suicides by shooting.

Before it was finally passed by the senate it was amended so as to require permits from judges instead of chiefs of police or sheriffs as was originally provided in the bill.

The change was made on motion of Senator Piper, who declared that if there is to be restriction of the firearm traffic it should be drastic and sweeping. He declared that peace officers are not as careful as they should be in giving permits to carry concealed weapons and would not be careful in issuing purchasing permits.

The amendment prohibiting the display of firearms in show windows was also adopted.

"What we want," declared Collins in explaining his bill, "is to lessen the amount of crime in this state. If we make it impossible for the holdup man, the burglar or the maniac to purchase a revolver on the spur of the moment we will lessen the amount of crime. The majority of shootings could be averted if revolvers were not available or if time were required before a gun could be purchased."

It is believed that the house will pass the bill and that it will be signed by the governor.

The committee on game introduced a bill providing for the establishment of a complete state fish and game department with a board of commissioners, a state game warden and deputy wardens in each county. Provision is made for the establishment of hunting and fishing licenses for counties and for the state at large, and the county license to cost $1 a year, and the state license $5 a year to residents of the state and $10 for non-residents.

The bill gives the game commission the power to create game refuges and game farms and to raise various species of game birds and animals. The bill is a compromise on a bill introduced in the senate last week creating a game commission.

A resolution was adopted by the senate calling for an investigation of the State Reformatory at Monroe. The investigation will be upon the question of the care of inmates and the general management of the institution from a moral and financial standpoint.

A resolution was introduced by Senators Leonard and Wendt, memorializing congress to extend a road through the Rainier National forest to connect with a highway proposed to extend from Spokane to Seattle through North Bend, Snoqualmie Pass, Dacotah, Ellensburg, Wenatchee, Walla Walla and Wilbur. The resolution was referred to the memorials committee.

The house passed a bill making it possible for county commissioners to employ scientific agriculturalists to instruct farmers and others in the art of improving crops. The measure was brought by the agricultural committee, which desire the counties to pay for scientists who are now being paid by public subscription.

Minimum Wage Advocated. London—The Daily News understands that the intention in the land campaign inaugurated by Chancellor Lloyd-George is to propose the statutory establishment of a minimum wage for agricultural laborers of at least one pound ($5.00) a week, and provision for every laborer of a cottage and a plot of land held independently of the farmer or landlord.

AGAINST SALARY INCREASES

Senate for Economy—Big Irrigation Project Considered.

Olympia—In the senate during the week a bill came up providing for the increasing of the salary of the adjutant general and other officers of the National Guard. Fifteen senators spoke on the floor against salary increases, and the majority of the others voted that way.

Probably the most important bills which are before the legislature at the present time are two which were introduced during the week, one providing for $40,000,000 bonds for the building of the Quincy Valley irrigation project and the other for a $20,000,000 bond issue to carry out a logged-off land scheme devised by various lawyers and agriculturists.

The Quincy Valley project, which Senator McCreary would have the state undertake, would involve an interesting financing system. The bill as introduced provides for the issuance by the irrigation district in the Quincy valley, embracing 435,000 acres of land in Douglas, Adams and Chelan counties, of $40,000,000 in 6 per cent bonds, which would be turned over to the state with the land as security.

The state would then issue $40,000,000 worth of 5 per cent bonds, which would be sold in the market, and the money derived expended in the building of the project. The plan would be merely to extend the credit of the state to carry out the project and have the land pay the costs.

The project would involve the extension of a canal a distance of about 65 miles from Wenatchee lake to the Quincy valley, the construction of a tunnel under the Columbia river, the building of power plants and the extension of many miles of feed canals.

PIPER WAGE BILL DUE SOON

State Federation of Labor Reports Favorably on Measure.

Olympia—With a favorable committee report and an indorsement from many commercial and industrial organizations, including the State Federation of Labor, the women's minimum wage bill favored by the Washington legislature by Senator George U. Piper, of King County, will come before the senate probably this week. This also has a favorable committee report, and is expected to be the main issues in the senate during the week.

The wage bill has enough support in the senate committee on labor and labor statistics, to which it was sent, to assure its being sent back with a favorable report. There are but two members of the committee who are not heartily in favor of the measure.

These two members probably will join in the favorable report with the others before the bill is brought up for third reading in the upper house.

The Federation of Labor officials, who came to Olympia specially to promote the welfare of a women's wage bill of their own drafting, have checked over the Piper bill and, with a few minor amendments, have declared it to be satisfactory. With Senator Piper's consent to the changes, the Federation indorsed it and will do all they can to get it passed.

WANT STATE TO CLEAR LAND

Farmers Would Have Logged-Off Acres Made Ready.

Olympia—Establishment of a $3,000,000 fund with which to clear the state's logged-off land for the benefit of settlers and immigrants will be sought during the session of the Washington legislature by delegations representing the agricultural districts. A powerful vote is said to have lined up behind a bill introduced in the house by Pierce, providing for the fund and for a general system of improving and settling of the state's land.

The measure provides for the appropriation of $1,000,000 out of the general fund and the levying of a special tax of one mill to raise another $1,000,000. The plan is to clear off all the state land suitable for agriculture and divide it into ten-acre tracts to sell to small settlers and immigrants. The clearing can be done, according to the plan, as the ground is sold.

Roads Committee Is Cautious.

Olympia—The roads and bridges committee, in the face of the flood of bills, has decided upon a policy of economy which is expected to result in the larger part of the road plans being put over for the future. The committee of the house and senate have investigated a sub-committee, which is investigating the various road measures and is fixing up a program, which both houses will be asked to follow.

SINGLE TERM IDEA OPPOSED

Presidential Recall Musters Only Ten Votes in Senate.

Washington, D. C. — Presidential terms ranging all the way from two to six years, propositions against second terms and third terms, as exemplified that would affect Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson, and proposals for the recall and the direct popular election of president, were thrust into the senate in rapid succession in the first day's consideration of the constitutional amendment limiting a president to a single term of six years.

In a session filled with lively debate, Senator Bristow's proposition that a president could be recalled at any regular election was voted down, 58 to 10, and Senator Hoke Smith's amendment to make the single term four years, instead of six, was defeated, 43 to 25.

More than a dozen amendments were pending when the senate adjourned.

Senators Dixon and Poinsette, Progressives, Bristow, progressive Republican, and Lodge, Republican, led the fight against a restriction of the presidential term. Senator Williams, Democrat, proposed a four-year term, with the privilege of one reelection, but this amendment was so drawn as to prevent Colonel Roosevelt from seeking another election.

The defeat of the Bristow amendment for recall of the president followed a short debate in which Senator Bristow urged that to make the Federal administration properly responsive to public demand, the people should have the right to change the president when they change congress.

The vote on the recall amendment mustered ten votes only in its favor.

BORDER TOWN IS PROTECTED

Reinforcements Reach Juarez and Rebels Fall Back.

El Paso, Tex.—All rebel forces have disappeared from the vicinity of Juarez, now reinforced beyond a fear of attack. In addition to 300 infantry on railway patrol trains coming in, 500 irregular cavalry, under Colonel Manuel Landaez, arrived Friday. This leaves more than 1000 government troops in the border town.

The cavalry came from the vicinity of Alameda, selected by the federal government as the place of the proposed peace conference. They arrived over the Mexican Central railway, which has been repaired temporarily from Alameda to the border. The Mexico Northwestern railroad remains closed below Juarez, and rebels are burning bridges on the English-Canadian line to within a few miles of Juarez.

All is reported quiet along the border patrolled by United States troops out of Fort Bliss. With the El Paso uncertainty of all railway traffic, the United States Customs department has closed the port of Columbus, N. M., for all entries. The unsettled condition in the Casas Grandes district below the New Mexican line has resulted in much cattle stealing.

Three Thousand Acres Withheld.

San Francisco—F. C. Dozenhorst, chief of the field division of the Federal land office here, has received orders from Secretary Fisher, of the department of the interior, to begin his investigation of transactions between Louis R. Glavis, deposed secretary of the Timber Conservation commission, and timber companies to which Glavis is alleged to have given preferential listings. Dozenhorst was advised that, pending his findings, permits for about 30,000 acres of the land in question would be withheld.

The investigation will cover contracts said to have been made between Glavis and several timber concerns, including the Wood, McCloud and West Side Lumber companies, in which, according to charges made while he was secretary of the Conservation commission, he agreed to procure for the companies special listings of land near Redding, Cal., giving them advantages over weaker claimants.

Ocean Rate Pool Fails.

Berlin—The North Atlantic Steamship conference, which began its sitings here Tuesday, ended abruptly when the Canadian Pacific railway refused to join in the pool. The other members unanimously decided to renew the combination and there is a prospect of a lively rate war. A representative of the Austro-American line announced the intention of his company to inaugurate a regular service between Trieste and Canada.

Socialist Loses Seat.

Topkapi, Kan.—The Kansas state senate unseated its lone Socialist member, Fred Stanton, of Gray County, by a vote of 28 to 10. E. F. Porter, Republican, who contested Stanton's election, was elected. Evidence tended to show that men crossed the line from Missouri to vote for Stanton, that there were errors in the count and that scores of aliens voted.

WILSON ACCEPTS STUDENT ESCORT

Princeton Men to Be Prominent Feature in Parade.

Special Trains of 13 Cars Each Will Convey President-Elect's Delegations to Washington.

New York—Woodrow Wilson has accepted the offer of the students of Princeton University to escort him from his home in Princeton to the White House on the day he is inaugurated.

Just a century ago Princeton gave its last president to the nation—James Madison. The centenary will be celebrated in a unique program, to which Mr. Wilson gave his consent when Paul F. Myers, a Princeton senior, rode on the train with him to New York and outlined the details.

The Princeton youths will charter two special trains, of 13 cars each, on March 3. One car will be put at the disposal of the president-elect and his family, and accompanying newspaper men. The governor smiled when he found the number 13 confronting him again, for he believes it means luck to him.

The students, more than 1000 strong, will take Mr. Wilson direct to his hotel on arrival at Washington, and will attend the smoker given that night by the Princeton Alumni association of Washington. The next morning the students will escort Mr. Wilson from his hotel to the White House, where President Taft will join the incoming President and ride with him to the capitol.

After the ceremony at the capitol the Princetonians will take their place in the inaugural parade, just behind the military and at the head of the civic organizations.

"I will be delighted. That will be fine," exclaimed Mr. Wilson enthusiastically when the plans of the students were explained.

The governor intimated while on his way from Philadelphia that he might not limit himself, in choosing his cabinet, to the names that had been suggested to him. He said this in response to an inference drawn by a newspaper man from a talk recently that the selection of Bryan for secretary of state was indicated.

"There is absolutely no justification for that inference," declared Wilson. "I could not call the names which have been suggested for other portfolios, either."

He paused and added after a moment's reflection: "And I might be making some nominations of my own. For I certainly will not feel bound to confine myself to names that have been suggested to me."

The Round Table club, whose dinner Mr. Wilson attended Friday evening, has been in existence between 40 and 50 years, but Professor Brander Matthews, one of its members, said that not a line had ever appeared in print about it. It consists of about 20 members, every one of whom is eminent in some way in literature, public affairs, or otherwise. Among them are the President-elect, ex-Ambassador Joseph H. Choate, John L. Caldwell and Dr. S. Weir Mitchell.

The members of this mysterious club do not know who organized it or what were the circumstances leading to its formation. It has no officers, is not incorporated, and has no rules. For nearly 50 years it has met at dinner on the last Friday of each month. Its members, who live in different parts of the country, journey to New York when that day comes.

No speeches are permitted at these dinners. After the dinner proper is over the members rearrange themselves and a flow of table talk begins. Governor Wilson, when asked if he intended going anywhere after the dinner, replied with some surprise: "Oh, no. The talk is always so interesting that the whole evening is taken up with it."

Prisoners Give Cuttle.

Los Angeles—Dr. E. H. Garrett, government physician here, has entered upon the unique task of soliciting three square feet of cuttle from inmates of the city and county jails to use in a patient severely burned in a recent fire. "I want to the jails for volunteers," explained Dr. Garrett, "because I know I would find fellows there who would have nothing to do for the next 60 or 90 days but get well after I had taken some of their skin."

One More State Needed.

Charleston, W. Va.—By a unanimous vote the West Virginia legislature ratified the income tax amendment to the Federal constitution. Governor Glascock has announced that he favors the measure. The vote of only one other state is needed to make the amendment constitutional.

FRIDAY, JAN. 31, 1913

The ground seen his shadow.

And Jupiter Pluvius handed us a snow storm, which means there's no joke about it.

The activity of the Milwaukee railway in the Port Townsend vicinity causes much speculation as to how the road will connect with Everett and Bellingham.
That a railway bridge will be built from Whidby Island across to Fidalgo Island is almost a certainty, and trains will no doubt be ferried from the vicinity of Ft. Casey. Inasmuch as the Milwaukee system is being electrified it seems probable that the time is not far distant when we will have electric railway facilities.

The Oak Harbor News, in a splendidly written article last week, congratulates Langley on her victory for independence and home rule. We hope our sister town may complete her incorporation proceedings now under way, with as little opposition as Langley had to contend with;
of course there will be the town knocker, and the ignoramuses, and these always oppose but are harmless. The real danger is in the votes of those who are constantly employed and have no time to post themselves or investigate the wisdom of incorporation. The knocker has no business, but people who are working have so much business that they lack the time to consider the situation, and there are large numbers of these here and at Oak Harbor. Let these advantages of incorporation be fully known through the press and by circular, and the town knocker and his little handful of sorehead followers will represent the only opposition to progressive movements.

The legislature is considering the feasibility of a measure known as the Bausman bill, providing for the clearing of stump lands by aid of the State. A twenty million dollar bond issue is proposed and the plan seems to be one that will justify the passage of the bill. If it does not pass, counties will have to solve the problem for themselves.
A bond issue of half a million would likely alter the complexion of Whidby Island sufficient to warrant products aggregating five times the interest charge and annual sinking fund. The methods in common use will never develop the country in time for any one living today to see it.
We spend ages making an ordinary country road road, and, like the village of Langley, stand dormant for thirty years and live in poverty. If the State refuses to pass the progressive measure, let the counties act for themselves. They have the security. Individuals do not hesitate to utilize their securities when wanting funds for use in developing their property. When a community, or a county, or a state is to be developed, there is always more or less opposition likely on the theory that the money might not be expended honestly, and to prevent any dissipation of the fund some people vote to have no fund and have no progress. When a man needs a hundred dollars, he get-it at his bank; if he needs a thousand or two, he borrows it on his land. He does not hesitate to do so; but if his town needs money for improvement, he objects; if his county needs money for improvement, he loudly objects; it remains to be seen what will be said and done in case the Bausman bill is passed by the senate. Chatham county, without a railroad, recently put out $300,000 of five per cent twenty year bonds which were immediately purchased by a Chicago bond house who paid face value and $300 premium thereon.

If you have credit why not use it, if you know how to use it; for otherwise progress is distressingly slow and uncertain, and the only protection available is life insurance. Has it come to pass that we must die to win the race for a livelihood or shall we use the means at our command for practical improvement which will develop early enough to permit us to see some of the fruits of our intellect. Bonds are retired by means of a sinking fund representing five per cent per annum for twenty years, which, with annual interest payments are met by taxation and the increased values and increased productive ability usually amount to from five to fifteen times the amount of additional tax, and could possibly amount to fifty times as much per annum.

Increased interest in our town by our own citizens; increased interest by others who might locate here, invest here, and help make a better town of it; the enjoyment of accommodations and benefits which are simply impossible to secure from county officials, are advantages of incorporation as suggested by our esteemed contemporary, the Oak Harbor News, who add, with reference to our recent incorporation, that it means personal benefit to every inhabitant in return for taxes paid, instead of these taxes going elsewhere in the county where Langley is not interested. It means better protection and better care of the young boys and girls. It means better protection for merchants against traveling fakirs and peddlers. It means better street lighting in the future and better sanitary protection. It means better financial conditions and better social conditions, and above all it means that Langley is up-to-date and can now be mentioned as a progressive town instead of a moss grown number afraid to line up with the growing towns of the state. It means a self supporting, up-to-date, energetic little municipality. It will be but a little while before Langley, like other live towns in the state, will begin to reap the benefits of her good judgement in this matter.

She Smiled at Me.

She smiled at me! Ah, she was fair!
A titch of wit was on her hair;
Her eyes a soulful depth possessed;
In faultless fashion she was dressed;
She had the proud patrician's air.

Half pausing for a moment there,
Her curved lips parted, red and rare;
A gloved hand pressed against her breast.
She smiled at me!

The sidewalk had an icy glare.
It seemed to hit me everywhere.
My feelings freely were confessed.
The sentiments that I expressed Perhaps were coarse, but I don't care—
She smiled at me!

LEG WEAKNESS.

It's surely disheartening when prom-around, waste away and die. Mother Hen's chicks seldom get it, but brooder birds often. The affliction affects their joints, tendons and muscles, and its cause is often found in badly ventilated; damp houses and brooders lack of exercise, running and sleeping on board floors, stimulants, bottom brooder heat and heavy, rich feeding to force growth. Bottom heat is un-

The Snail's Horns.

A snail's manner of withdrawing his horns is very interesting. He does not pull them back bodily into their receptacles, but turns them inside out, just as one sometimes turns the fingers of a tight glove.

Very Likely.

"Fan," said George, "you know how I feel toward you. Do you reciprocate?"

"George," Fan said, with a shy glance, "does this mean annexation?"

is very doubtful.

and visiting friends in Everett Thursday.

Geo. Grebin, former editor of the Islander was shaking hands with his many friends here Sunday. He was accompanied by a friend who is also a news paper man.

A. E. Penny, a railroad man, who has been visiting J. C. Langley last for Skyhomish Monday to enter the service of the Great Northern.

Fred Funk of the Funk Mercantile Co. has been wrestling with the Grippe for several days but has got the microbes going some at this writing.

K. P. Hartley is considering a large logging contract in B. C., and will like home.

dents of Langley, were here this week looking after their residence property

Why oppose Incorporation? Why not be men and help a good thing when it is for the benefit of the community and welfare of the town? Let us not be knock-ers any longer, but put our shoulders to the wheel, and add our stone to the pile and thus aid in the upbuilding of Langley—the hub and metropolis of the Island.

The Langley Bank has rented the space occupied by the Whidby Land Company, and will enlarge their banking room to meet the requirements of their growing business. The Bank has taken an option on the Fred Funk corner and contemplate building a suitable building.

Open an account with the Bank of Langley and patronize home industry.
During the coming season the advantages of a home bank will be manifest and now is the time to establish relations of a financial nature.

The long looked for Island County booklet is reported off the press and will be ready for delivery within the next few days. Those who have seen it claim it is to be a masterpiece, and and it is to be hoped that its judicious circulation will awaken interest wherever it is shown.

Our Saratoga correspondent compliments us by the claim that the Islander is like new wine—grows better the older it gets—and then proceeds to roast us because it is old when it gets there.
Looks like wine don't agree with our Saratoga correspondent after all his appreciation of it. It is said that Rockefeller thinks a lot of pie, but can't eat any. Maybe it is your tummy drother. We will have that new road someday, maybe, no one knows, and then we can annex Saratoga and have city delivery. Be patient brother.

The Langley Improvement Club was represented Tuesday at the business men's banquet at Everett, given by the Everett Commercial Club. The meeting was addressed by C. W. Corliss, one of the recent purchasers of Still's Park near Coupeville. The purpose of the meeting was to form closer relation with the Island and the main-land and to discuss measures leading up to important improvements. A full account of the proceedings will appear in next week's Islander and it is hoped that good results will follow the combined efforts of the various commercial clubs.

James Zylstra, a prominent attorney of Coupeville, and formerly prosecuting attorney of Island County, was in town Thursday.

Mrs. L. F. Crandall and son Chas. were among the passengers for Seattle Friday morning.

Luther Weedon, the owner of the Island County Abstract Company at Coupeville, was among the visitors from that city Thursday. Mr. Weed-on reports a good deal of activity in property throughout the county, and finds the duties of his office keep him busy.

The Commissioners met Monday last pursuant to law, in special session, to canvass the vote for incorporation of the Town of Langley. The vote was verified and a certificate of incorporation forwarded to Olympia. We are now an independent municipality.

Mrs. I. M. Bainter, who has been confined to her home for several weeks, is able to be about again.

Fred Funk of the Langley Improvement Club returned Wednesday from the Commercial Club meeting and Banquet at Everett; about 25 Islanders were present, the object of the meeting being to formulate plans for securing good roads in Island County co-operation of the larger organizations with the local clubs was assured. Mr. Funk reports that a great deal of interest was manifest in the meeting, which was addressed by C. C. Corliss, who recently purchased a fine body of land near Sande Fuca and Coupeville known as Still's park.

Mayor elect, F. E. Furman, and the councilmen and treasurer received their Certificates of Election from the county on Thursday, and as soon as they have taken the oath of office, will be duly eligible for inauguration.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hingston celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary this week. Among the guests present were Mrs. P. Anderson and son Axel, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hingston and family, and Mr. Bales of Bremerton.

A telephone message was received this week stating that the Camano was to be taken off the run for ten days, and another boat will be placed on its run.

President C. E. Feek of the Canning Company together with directors C. O.
Green and H. P. Jensen, met Tuesday to hear the report of G. R. Beane on the inspection of the machinery of the Bethel cannery; it was decided to get new machinery and a committee was appointed to take charge of the matter.

Mayor Frank Furman and the Councilmen will be pleased to meet the people Tuesday evening, February 11th 8 p. m., at Yeomen Hall. Come everybody. Ladies please bring sandwiches or cake.

L. Baynton is the genuine champion prognosticator of the polls. When you want to know results in advance just ask "Barney"—he guessed the results of the presidential election even naming the majority for Wilson, and he guessed a good many other issues and guessed them right. It's not all guess either, for Barney is a shrewd calculator from that conservative old state of Vermont. For incorporation of the Town of Langley Barney guessed a victory with majority of 7 to 9 depending on how many were out of town. And he was right.

E. E. Gaskill, of Coupeville, formerly County Assessor, has closed a deal with Ed Howard for 80 acres west of town, known as the Weander place.
This is a very nice ranch and it is understood the price paid was high although the exact figures have not been made public.

Play Ball! Rah for Langley! Threr strikes batters' OUT! Kill the Umpire!
All this and some more soon; and to make this possible come with the whole family and patronize the Grand Basket Supper general good time and dance, February 15th at Olympic Hall. Don't forget the date. Base Ball! Base Ball!

We wonder why several parties, who live within the incorporated limits of Langley, whose names we cannot tell go gold feet, and went back home after starting for church last Sunday evening.

The Whidby Telephone Company reports a considerable increase in the number of telephones throughout their territory which is further evidence of the general progress and development of our good county. Put in a phone.
Frequently a single call saves a year's entire cost and perhaps even a human life.

Dr. Craig reports considerable sickness the past ten days, mainly grippe, pneumonia and the usual February afflictions. The ground hog hanging on us for six weeks continuance of this brand of weather may give all of us a chance for enforced vacations. Keep dry, keep quiet, and remember a pill in time saves nine.

Two matters of importance are under consideration by our progressive Improvement Club—co-operation with the Telephone company looking toward direct wire to Everett, and with the postal authorities, looking toward a morning mail service; we trust both issues will take root and grow into actuality.

A Grand Success

The meeting of the Board of Directors of the Whidby Telephone Company Wednesday the 5th was well attended.
The directors are very enthusiastic over the successful conditions of the Company. Arrangements will soon be made to get connections with the Islanders office from almost any point on the Island. Come good people watch us grow. There is more demand for phones at present than at any time in the past five years. You will soon be able to talk to almost any party on the Island.

The increase on the directory shows a steady growth for the last six months.
If we increase the next three months the way we have the last three, we will be able to lower the rates some.
We need the assistance of those who need assistance, to make the Company a grand success. We have just installed a new line from central office to Useless Bay, taking about six miles of wire. Our success in the near future is certain.

Saratoga.

The Whist Club meet at the home of Samuel Pruden and enjoyed one of the most delightful evenings of the season, Saturday last. A dainty luncheon was served at mid-night and every-one felt compensated for paddling through the mud in getting there.

J. F. Freestone is in Langley this week fitting a new 10 horse power engine in his good boat the "Bob" so from now on it will "Cap" Freestone if you please.

The Langley Islander is like new wine it grows better as it gets older but it seems as if it never would get over the awful habit of coming out late.
We hardly ever get our paper until Tuesday evening as the boat carries no mail Saturday after-noon, hence our news is so stale by that time that they smell bad.

Mr. Mrs. Derkee from Cal. are at the Prudden home on a visit they being old friends of the latter.

Ole Amble and Tom Smeby went to Victoria B. C. this week where they are employed as carpenters.

Mr. Maule has his brush camp running nicely and has quite a crew of men cutting and hauling brush.

Mrs. Wagner daughter of Mrs. Prather of this place is home on a visit her mother. Mrs. Wagner was a farmer resident of Saratoga and all her old neighbors are glad to see her back.

H. M. McLeod of Langley spent several days this week looking after business matters and visiting old time friends

Lone Lake

German services were conducted at the school house last Sunday morning.

The Bay View Social Club met at Independence Hall last Saturday evening, and all voted on a dance for next Saturday, February 8th.

Walter Hannah is surveying at Terry's this week.

Mr. Scott and partner returned in their launch from Seattle last week.

Notice, there will be a club dance at Independence Hall Saturday evening, February 8th. Tickets for gentlemen 50 cents. Ladies free.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley departed for Seattle one day last week.

D. Siemers and sons are now employed clearing land.

Frank Olson and sons will begetting out logs on the Cowan place shortly.

John Bock made a trip to Everett Thursday; the same thing for S. G. Myron on Friday.

Mr. L. D. Brooke delivered a lecture at Independence Hall one evening last week, his subject being the "High cost of living, its cause, and the remedy for same." Quite a crowd were out to hear Mr. Brooke, and all thought he brought out some good points.

Mr. Kines, of Stanwood, visited at the Myron home last week.

Services will be held at the Lone Lake church Sunday, February 16th, 10:30 a. m.

English services will be held at the Bay View school house Sunday morning 10:30. Rev. E. Schultz, of Seattle, will conduct the same.

CHEETAH HUNT IN INDIA

Sport Was Once Very Popular With English Residents—Is Not Rare Beast.

The cheetah hunt which the viceroys witnessed recently at Hyderabad reminds one that cheetah hunting was an extremely popular sport with Indian princes in former days, although the initiation of European forms of sport has done much in these times to rob it of ancient vogue.

It was practiced both by Hindu and Mohammedan chieftains over the greater part of India, for the cheetah even now is not a rare beast, and a century or so ago must have been common enough.

Another animal used in the same way by Indian nobles was a sort of lynx, spelled variously as "shoo-goose," "syahgoose." But this was used much more rarely than the cheetah. However, it was not only Indians who indulged in this form of sport.

It was enjoyed and practiced by Europeans as well in the days when they were content to abide in India for fifteen years at a stretch and when they lived a life of ease in a way unknown to modern times. More than one of the Company's nabobs kept their own cheetahs, which were frequently presents from friendly chiefs.

It may easily be imagined that cheetah hunting was very good sport and welcomed by the servants of the Company as an excellent substitute for the coursing which was familiar to them in England and which, like the cheetah hunt, has vanished before the spread of games such as tennis and golf.—Madras Mail.

The Rothschilds.

What chiefly struck one at the funeral of the late Baron Gustave de Rothschild was the great multiplicity of relatives descended from his father, the first Baron James, the shrewdest and most funnily humorous member of the Paris branch of the Rothschilds, that he founded. Among these descendants were a son, grandsons, and great and great-grandsons—Rothschilds, Lamberts, Leoninis, Ephrussis, Sterns, Sassoons, Gubbays. They represented not only the principle of blood relationship, but the 2-nance of Paris, Brussels, Genoa, Milan, Odessa, Bombay and Calcutta. Among the numerous multi-millionaires descended from the first Baron James there was one who devoted himself to medical science, dramatic literature and the collection of autographs of great writers—Baron Henri, only son of the second Baron James.

INFERTILE EGGS KEEP BEST

Large Part of Loss Can Be Obliterated, According to Investigation Just Completed.

A large part of the heavy loss from bad eggs can be obliterated by the production of infertile eggs. This has been demonstrated beyond a doubt by the investigations concerning the improvement of the farm egg which during the past two years have been conducted in the middle west by the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture estimates that, between the producer and the consumer, there is an annual loss of $45,000,000 in the egg crop of the United States, the greater portion of which falls on the farmer, who is by far the largest producer. Of this enormous loss, about one-third, or $15,000,000, is caused by heat which develops the embryo of the fertile egg, causing what is known to the trade as a "blood ring." As it is impossible to produce a "blood ring" in an infertile egg, such an egg will stand a higher degree of temperature without serious deterioration than will a fertile egg.

The secretary says that if farmers and others engaged in the production of eggs would market their male birds as soon as the hatching season is over, a large saving would be made, as practically every infertile egg would grade a first or second if clean and promptly marketed.

No more simple or efficient method for the improvement of the egg supply of the country could be adopted than the production of infertile eggs.

Testing Coins.

"There goes another man suffering from degeneration of public manners," said the clerk in an aggrieved tone. "I gave him five pieces of silver in making change, and he tested every one of them to see if it was counterfeit right before my eyes. It is only lately that people who buy have got rude enough to do that. Clerks always did it with coins that customers gave them, but that was a prerogative of the trade. For the customer to assume the same privilege is a usurpation of ancient rights. The worst of it is most people nowadays are pretty good judges of bad money, and every little while a coin is refused because it is counterfeit. The only way tradesmen can teach customers the respect due them is to turn their own backs when testing money. That has always been the custom in England. No tradesman over there would dare flip a coin under a customer's nose, and as a consequence no customer has ever taken that liberty with him."

No Royal Road to Success.

Too many people have the idea that the poultry business is a sinecure—an easy way to make money. Nothing is farther from the truth. This country is strewn with wrecked poultry plants, whose ambitious owners thought that all one needed to do was to build houses, stock them with hens, employ feeders, sit down and count the money.

Success with poultry means much work, great attention to details, and above all a willingness to work, prompted by an intense love for the business. Unless one can measure up to those requisites of success he will have money by staying out of the game.

INCREASE PARCEL POST WEIGHTS

Postmaster-General Would Also Reduce Some Rates.

Postal Banks Immense Success—$28,000,000 Placed By 300,000 Depositors to Date.

Washington, D. C.—Postmaster General Hitchcock's annual report tentatively suggests reduction of some parcel post rates and increasing the limit of weight beyond 11 pounds; recommends civil pensions for postal employees; an increase in rates on second-class mail, which may pave the way for 1-cent letter postage; the consolidation of the third and fourth classes, so that books and papers may be forwarded by parcel post, and points out that during his administration expense of operating the postal service has been cut down $45,000,000.

In course of a statement on the condition of postal finances, Mr. Hitchcock says: "The transformation of a deficit into a surplus has been accomplished, not by curtailing the service, but by developing it along profitable lines. While postal facilities have been greatly enlarged, extensions have not been made in a haphazard manner, but only when shown on investigation to be justified by conditions."

The establishing of postal savings banks at presidential postoffices was completed early in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912—the year covered by the report. Since then the system has been extended to 4004 fourth-class postoffices, as well as to 645 branch offices and stations in the larger cities. There are now 12,812 postal savings banks at which patrons may open accounts. The number of depositors is approximately 300,000 and the deposits aggregate about $28,000,000, not including $1,314,140 withdrawn and invested in postal savings bonds.

On the basis of the present monthly net increases of deposits, it is estimated that the gross income of the postal savings system for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, will amount to $700,000 and the interest payable to depositors to $300,000. The income of the system for the fiscal year will meet the interest payments and the total expenses of the central office, but will be approximately $275,000 less than enough to cover the entire expense of the service. However, the postmaster general's report says, "it is expected that when the deposits have increased to $50,000,000, which at the present rate they will do soon, the system will be self-sustaining."

The report contains no references to subjects which have developed since December 1 and, consequently, the postmaster general's consideration of the parcel post has to do only with the preliminary work of establishing the new system, which went into effect on January 1. Tentatively, however, he recommends not only that the parcel post rates be reduced, but that the weight of packages be increased to a point above the present maximum weight of 11 pounds. On this subject the report says:

"While the postage rates for the new parcel post system range considerably lower than express charges for corresponding service, it is believed that experience will show them to be higher in some instances than is necessary in order to maintain the service at cost. Likewise, the restriction that places an 11-pound limit on the weight of parcels mailed should be regarded as merely tentative. After the system is thoroughly organized on that basis the scope of the service in its usefulness to the public should be still further enlarged by increasing the weight limit. If properly developed under efficient management, the parcel post will prove to be a most important factor in reducing the cost of living."

State Races for Honor.

Santa Fe, N. M.—In an effort to beat New Jersey to the honor of being the 36th state to ratify the income tax amendment to the Federal constitution, New Mexico legislative leaders are planning for immediate action by the house when it reassembles.

The instruments were destroyed, resulting in the interruption of communication.

Continent of Trees.

The idea of an extensive forest generally calls to mind the forests of South America or the heart of Africa, but it is a surprising fact that in proportion to its size Europe is much more extensively wooded than the rest of the globe. It is calculated that nearly a third of the surface of Europe is covered with trees, whereas the proportion over the whole land area of the world is only about one-quarter. Finland and Sweden have the greatest extent of forest land, half of their surface being covered with trees. Britain and Portugal are the least wooded of European countries, only a twentieth part of their area being covered with forests. Though southern Britain is richly wooded, the trees are for a large part in hedgerows and are not collected into forests.

WOMAN SICK FOURTEEN YEARS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:

"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ailments we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

NEAT PACKAGE HELPS PRICE

Butter Wrapped in Tidy Parcel of One Pound Each Will Attract Eye of Fastidious.

You may not believe it, but farm butter put up in square packages of a pound neatly wrapped in oiled paper will bring a better price in any market than the same butter loosely packed in a tin bucket or jar.

A butter mold costs a trifle and oiled paper with your name printed on it costs but a little more, and if butter is put up in square packages form it will bring from two to three cents per pound more than if packed in jars or tins.

Fastidious customers in the city, who are in the habit of getting nearly everything they consume in fancy packages absolutely will not buy butter that is scooped out of the pail and sent to their homes in wooden dishes.

In spite of this fact which nearly every farmer ought to know, 95 per cent. of the farm butter is sold without being put up in this form and it all goes together in one mass at the creamery, where it is worked over, molded into pound packages, wrapped and stamped with the name of the creamery and sold at a profit, all of which might have been had by the farmer if he would do the same thing and sell direct to city consumers.

Of course it is not always possible to sell direct to consumers, but even if butter is sold to the stores it will bring a much better price if put up in oiled paper in pound packages. In fact the making of butter is not all there is in the business.

No thoughtful person uses liquid blue. It's a pinch of blue in a large bottle of water. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue.

As Usual.

The only thing that carried me through was my wonderful vitality."—Exchange.

How Kansas Got Its Name.

The late Colonel Inman always insisted that Kansas got its name through mistake of a proofreader. The early Kansas Indians were Kaws, a diminutive of Kaunas. In revising the works of a missionary the proofreader mistook the "u" for an inverted "n" and changed it to "n." Since then it has been Kansas.
