Marketown merchants plan 3-day fun "Summerama"

Marketown is spreading the velvet carpet this Thursday, Friday and Saturday with a program of fun, entertainment, games, contests, dancing and even a beauty contest, designed to appeal to old and young alike. Virtually nothing has been overlooked in this event, the first annual Marketown Summerama.

Marketown business houses will stay open till 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday, and will cooperate fully both in the exciting series of games, contest and fun but also in attractive "specials" for shoppers.

The program will also mark the grand opening of S & W Thriftway under new ownership. (See separate story.)

THURSDAY

The Summerama starts off Thursday, August 6, with dinner being served from 4:30 to 7:30, at the five cent bar and other eating establishments. Square dancing "on the mall" will begin at 7:30. Here everyone interested in square dancing as well as spectators will have a "ball" since three local callers, Les Anderson, Hal Ramaley and Leroy Rowand will take turns calling the dances over the loud speaker system. In addition a combination of Circle 8 square dancers, the Junior Square Dancers, Mrs. Blackwood's group and Les Anderson's square dancers will take part.

Square dancers from everywhere are invited to attend and participate.

As a special feature, a circle waltz contest will be held during the evening, with prizes going to the dancers. Anyone may enter.

FRIDAY

The Carnation Milk Company is bringing a fire truck to S & W Thriftway especially for the occasion and all children are invited to ride in it all day Friday and Saturday. Also, courtesy of Sunny Jim products, candy floss will be distributed to the children. Any proceeds received for either of these will be given to the proposed hospital.

Friday afternoon events begin at 2:30. Foot races will be held under the direction of Mrs. Don Brown, swimming instructor at Cranberry Lake. There will be many kinds of races for all age groups and prizes for everyone. At 3:30 the North Whidbey Beach Rangers 4-H group, Bud Baher, leader, and Paul Baher, drill master will perform. Children in this group are Clyde and Paul Baher, Jean Kromer, Karen Van Rooy, Valerie and Bobby Hart, Bobby Williams, Butch Hassler, Harvey Hassler, Billy MacFadden, Leah McCullough, Johanna O'Brien, Deborah Wimer, Linda Wimer, Shirley Taug, DeDe Matczynski, Tommy and Carolyn Cockrell, Nancy Newman, Robin Wilson, Betty Hetherington, Lewis Wimer and Sheila Sissler.

Marine band concert here at Memorial Stadium Sun.

An outstanding event for Whidbey Island music lovers will be the appearance of the Department of Pacific Marine Band at the Oak Harbor Memorial Stadium on the afternoon of Sunday, August 9, at 3:30 p.m.

The 45-piece band, will give an hour's free concert. Bleachers are being installed temporarily in the stadium to accommodate over 2,000 patrons.

The primary mission of the Department of the Pacific Band is to provide marching and concert music for Marine Corps activities located throughout northern California. However, when military requirements permit, it performs in parades and other civic functions. The Band is a colorful and talented addition to such functions, a fact established by the enthusiastic public reception wherever it performs. Warrant Officer George D. Durham Jr., a career Marine musician, is the Musical Arranger and Conductor of this colorful band. Master Sergeant John J. Hursey, Drum Major and Assistant Band Leader, is director of the band at marching performances.

The public is cordially invited to attend this concert. Captain Charles C. Gold, USN, Commanding Officer NAS Whidbey Is., urges all military personnel who can do so to support this very fine band with their attendance.

Barn, shed burns in Thurs. fire

In a fire of undetermined origin Thursday noon, the big barn and machine shed at the Vince Stroops home just west of Oak Harbor on highway 1-D burned to the ground.

The Oak Harbor Volunteer Fire Department was credited with saving the big two-story home built in 1910 for the Loers family, Oak Harbor pioneers.

Mrs. Stroops first noticed the smoke as she and her husband and two friends were having lunch. Going outside, she saw that the end of the barn was afire. She was unable to get the line as she attempted to call the fire department and stopped a passing motorist. When the fire trucks arrived the big barn was a mass of flames and the shed had also caught fire.

A grass fire which spread through the orchard was also extinguished, saving most of the trees.

Biggest loss to Stroops, beside a boat and engine and tools, was the pick-up truck which he built out of his old "mail car" and which he used for hauling wood and for fishing trips. Stroops is a retired rural mail carrier.

The couple had planned previously to leave Thursday morning for a weekend in the mountains, but had put the trip off for a day.

"If we had gone we never would have saved the house," said Mrs. Stroops.

Oak Harbor on Telescope Aug. 7

Oak Harbor and Whidbey Island will be the subject of George Prescott when he appears on "Telescope" a KING TV show, Friday morning, August 7. The show is aired between 8:30 and 9:30.

Bernie Russell of the North Whidbey Chamber of Commerce said details of the program had been worked out with the State Department of Commerce and Economic Development and would feature a picture tour of scenic spots on Whidbey Island.

Prescott was recently featured as principal speaker at the annual installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce. At that time he impressed his audience with his ability as a speaker and thorough knowledge of his subject.

Russell said the upcoming TV show would mean a great deal to Oak Harbor publicity-wise, since the program has built up a wide audience of viewers.

Bogus bill scare squelched by T-man Sunday

Folks in Oak Harbor and vicinity were excited over the weekend when it was thought that bogus $20 bills were being circulated in the community.

Police Chief Fred Murracay stated Monday that there was no cause for alarm. A treasury agent had been in Oak Harbor on Sunday to examine the suspicious looking bills and declared them all legal tender.

Apparently the rumor started when a comparison was made of the 1934 series with the 1950 series. In 1950 the rear plate of the bill was changed, resulting in different wording, etc.

Put them back in the billfold, folks, they'll still buy as much as they did yesterday.

Capehart is now official

A ground breaking ceremony will officially mark the beginning of the proposed Capehart Housing project which will mean homes for 550 service families completed by December 1960.

Capt. Charles C. Gold, USN, Commanding Officer, NAS Whidbey, has issued a general invitation to the public to attend the ceremony which will be held at 2:30 p.m. August 10 at the Crescent Harbor site of the housing, about two miles east of Oak Harbor.

The program will include music by the Thirteenth Naval District Band, invocation by CDR J. E. Hollingsworth III, CHC, and introduction by Capt. G. M. Inscow, of honored guests, including Capt. John Weston Byng, Commander Fleet Air Whidbey.

Those who will address the gathering will be Captain Stanley P. Zola, CEC, District Public Works Officer, 13ND; Mr. Kenneth H. Vitt, senior member of the contracting firm of V. O. Stringfellow and Associates; Honorable Ray L. Maylor of Oak Harbor who will talk briefly on Navy - Community Relations; Capt. Gold and Rear Admiral Frank T. Watkins, USN, Commandant, 13ND.

Capt. G. M. Inscow, Capt. Charles Gold, Capt. Stanley Zola and Mr. Kenneth Vitt will participate in the ground breaking and Capt. Inscow will conclude the ceremony with a few closing remarks.

Three hundred ninety single family dwellings will be built at the Crescent Harbor site and 160 houses on Maylor's Point. Foundations will be poured in the near future with the first group of houses expected to be occupied by January 1960.

"We just follow his blueprint."

These words of Wilma Rhodes, widow of the late J. W. Rhodes of Oak Harbor, explains in part the new three-way operation of the Rhines in both North and Central Whidbey. Plans made before his death are now being carried out to the letter.

Mrs. Rhodes opened Rhodes Market in Coupeville, officially last week, and she plans to continue operation of the store which is now a part of Coupeville's new shopping center opposite the court house. This was her husband's "blueprint" she mentioned. The other was the dispensation of Rhodes' other holdings on North Whidbey.

RHODES THRIFTWAY, Marketown, and the Midget Market on Highway 1-D, north of Oak Harbor, will be owned by Claude Sanchez, 32, and Norm Wallace, 30. Both have been working at the store since 1952 and 1955 respectively. They will call the new operation S & W Thriftway but otherwise will continue in the same path as set by their predecessor.

Mrs. Rhodes is a nurse who married after graduation in 1941. She met her husband, as she puts it, "over a broken leg and traction splints." However she has acted as a sounding board and counselor for him in his long years in the grocery business in San Francisco and in Seattle. She has received great help from Associated Grocers, the Oak Harbor partners, Bob Severson, former manager of the Midget, and especially from her son Bob, who plans to make food handling and distribution a career. He will be a senior in Oak Harbor High School next term.

She is enjoying her first business venture and feels that the store is serving a definite need for the area.

High? Low? Rain? Mr. Engle knows

Mr. Ralph Engle of Coupeville does do something about the weather, he keeps records of it and here's what he has to say about July as it happened at his Coupeville observation post.

High for the month was a scorching 91 degrees on July 22.

Low was a chilly 44 on July 28. Rainfall? Hardly measurable at .28. The average for July on Whidbey is .59 so the rain that fell on Tuesday was much appreciated by all.

EDITOR OUT OF REACH
Mrs. Dorothy Neil, editor of the Oak Harbor News, is enjoying two weeks away from her position. She is spending some time with her daughter, Mary Lee, in Seattle and will be out of town for the entire vacation period.

SPECIAL MEETING
North Whidbey Hospital commissioners will meet in special session on Wednesday, August 12 at the Arnold Freund home at 8 p.m. for consideration of the budget for the coming year. The public is invited and urged to attend.

PORT TOWNSEND FAIR
The Jefferson County Fair opens Friday, August 14 for a 3-day run. Harness racing at 2 p.m. Saturday and a Loggers' show on Sunday will be the features of the Fair.

Over 800 enter —

Mailman Dyer is jackpot winner

It was the Oak Harbor mail man who took our money away from us Monday night when the 11th Who's Who contest was held at the Pioneer Department store. The name of Norm Dyer, consistent contestant, was picked by Mrs. R. T. (Reka) Zylstra after Bookkeeper Ray Zylstra spent at least three minutes churning up the huge mass of entries. Dyer got $232.50.

Mrs. Carl (Edith) Engle of Coupeville was the mystery personality.

Each line and word of Dyer's entry was carefully checked by contest managers and a group of spectators and it was found that he capitalized and punctuated when he should have, so there was nothing to do but empty our hard-earned jackpot.

"My wife (Polly, the new town treasurer) helped me and she'll help me spend it. There are clothes to be bought for school and this is sure going to help. And the least I can do is take her out for dinner."

Correct clues were PAINTED WITH OIL, drove race horse, baked beans a specialty, Chinese Cook, Negro doctor, married son of Mercer girl, Born Feb. 18, 1880, 1 great grandchild, Giving gives her joy, pitchers and pitchers and pitchers (Mrs. Engle has a renowned collection), same house since marriage, whist and bridge, New Brunswick, N. S. (something geographically inconsistent here but it is still a clue), one of 12.

Some of our clue-chasers included erroneously one year old Rambler, stop and have a chat, up to 80 years, 12 acres cheap, home tasting, etc. Some were not careful to capitalize PAINTED WITH OIL, some were careless about "bake" beans. But there were approximately 800 who were 100 per cent correct. The fact that there was one clue less in the Island County Times would not have disqualified any winner. However, Coupeville folks were undaunted by the omission and most had their full total of 13 clues.

One of the most interesting entries was from Ricky Williams of Oak Harbor, small son of a school teacher. Ricky most carefully and laboriously printed his entry and came out with a perfect score. Many new names showed up in the stack of correct entries.

From Coupeville the perfect scorers were Franzen, Libbey, O'Grady, Wilson, Edwards, Rhodes, Vaughan, Solid, Sherman, Hedstrom, Brewer, Criscuola, Hammons, Keefe, Hesselgrave, Privette, Chromy, Meadows, Finley, Chase, Davies, Ansell, Brooks, Stoddard, Bailey, Clark, Engle, Faris, Parker, Clark and Solid.

From Oak Harbor the "would-have-won" folks were Williams, Beekman, Boyer, Zylstra, Wichers, Ernst, Scholer, Winter, Long, Denise Dyer, Cays, Burns, Lang, De Young, Houghtaling, Vanderzicht, Cozine, Admiral, Vannice, Eelkema, Hinshaw, Webb, Lange, Kirk, Quinn, Weimer, Priest, Willey, Krieg III, Rollag, Stuart, Neff, Muzzall, Palmer, Smith, Case, Alsberge, Nienhuis, Waller, Schulz, Supry, Heller, Moore, Nichols, Schock, Van Dyk, Eddy, Cook, Kay, Jensen, Bledsoe, Wong, and Emberton.

Next week's jackpot is down to $45 again.

"It isn't the money," one contestant said at the drawing Monday. "It's the fun. I just can't wait right now until I see the paper this week."

The three featured merchants next time are Cooper's Rexall Pharmacy, Studio Tulle, and the Whidbey Florist and Greenhouse. The drawing will be held at 5 p.m. Monday, August 10 at Cooper's. Leave your entries at all three places if you wish.

At this very moment a group of clues are peeking out from a group of ads. It's a great game for the whole family. How will we address your check next week? Anyway, happy hunting.

Her Majesty -

"Miss NAS Whidbey of 1960" is scheduled to make her initial appearance early this fall, when she will be chosen from among many lovely entries to represent the Naval Air Station and Whidbey Island for the entire year.

Beauty, personality and character is taken into consideration in the selection, and the choice of last year's judges, Miss Barbara Bushaw, couldn't have been a happier one. With charm and beauty she appeared dutifully all during the year in her royal capacity, a credit to the community.

This year the rules for the contest have been tightened a bit, but a large number of contestants is expected. "Miss NAS Whidbey" is one of the best possible advertisements for Whidbey Island, and clubs, organizations and churches should give some thought to selection of an entrant.

The queen will enjoy a full year of important events where she will be the reigning monarch. Something for any girl to dream about.

Had your shots? -

It's inconceivable, but entirely true that Americans, with available vaccine for one of the greatest scourges of our modern day at hand, should herald Dr. Salk as a national hero and then ignore the prevention of polio.

For the past two years the incidence of polio has been negligible, due to vaccination of school children all over the country. This year the disease has broken out in epidemic proportions in places, and a count of 791 cases has been reported by mid-July, or twice as many as last year's count.

Nine out of ten of these cases occurred in unvaccinated persons.

School children have been vaccinated in Washington, but local drives to vaccinate adults have fallen below par. If you haven't been vaccinated, your Health department urges you to do so now. The fee is small compared to the costs of years of hospitalization.

by Phyllis M. Smith

Second to sleeping in your own bed again, the best part of returning from vacations are the memories that stand in the back of your head like chopped foods waiting to be mixed in a salad. You use them one at a time and stir them a bit before they become part of an indistinguishable mass.

We found Kaslo just as we had remembered it, the same size as it was 40 years ago, and still unaware of its maidenly loveliness. But very soon now its natural endowments will be discovered by the world because a wide paved road has replaced the old cliff-hanger of yesterday. Also it is no longer dead end. A road goes north from Kaslo to the outside world.

At the moment, however, the place is still unbelievable. You can stand hip-deep in a good fishing lake with no one around for miles — no one, that is, but an interested chipmunk or a ragamuffin little boy from a miner's cabin who sits on a log, swinging his feet, and scoffing occasionally at the way you cast your line.

Kaslo (Pop 1200), one of the oldest cities of British Columbia, is not listed in the AAA's official Northwestern Tour Book or included in their What to See, Where to Stay, while in British Columbia. Other places such as Clinton (pop. 688) and Lillooet (pop. 1,083) have used nearly a quarter of a page and they offer the tourist nothing in comparison.

The reason for this, of course, is that Kaslo people do not care if you visit them or not. They have fixed up a lovely lakeside park for campers but no signs are erected to tell them where it is. "You're welcome," they say in effect "but find the bloody place for yourself."

If you are foolish enough to ask where the best fishing is, Kasloites will tell you every spot but the right one. Kaslo is the home of Kamloops trout but the natives will not reveal the name of the fly or what hour they take it. However, if the locals find you at the mouth of a good creek, the place is all yours. They may run their boats up to shore, see if you're in earnest, then they will put-put off to another stream. No use crowding, you know.

And there you are, left alone, in all the majestic scenery, rushing swirling eddies, dripping line, choppy waters where the icy brook meets the quiet lake and above it all, the nostalgic roar of tumbling stream thundering toward you from a mountain that is always rather frighteningly close in the Kootenays.

Up town one afternoon we ordered a hamburger and salad at the old "ice cream parlor" and we were scolded soundly by the manager.

"We don't pretend to carry on an eating house here," he snapped, "but I can get you all a hamburger."

Properly chided we told him we would be very grateful for anything he could bring us. You see, he knew that the hotel had closed and his establishment had been our second choice. He wasn't going to let us get away with that.

Newest innovation in Kaslo is the restoration of the old steamer, Moyle, now used as a museum. For years the Moyle carried the boy-friends of the 1930 "teenagers" up and down the lake, as well as freight and passengers. Just as Anna Miller met her true love, Bert Numan, handsome purser of the Fairhaven when it docked at LaConner, so many a Kaslo miss found herself on the same boat — paddle-wheeler of course — not knowing if she were windward or starward.

With the toot of the old Moyle whistle, young hearts beat fast in Kaslo and there was always time to make the wharf before the deck hands fastened the hawsers.

The Moyle now stands on dry land right near the old swimming beach and old-time returnees like myself are discreetly invited to help defray the expenses incurred by the Kootenay Historical Society for their effort in stimulating old memories.

The museum-boat is open day and night and the trusting people of Kaslo depend on hand written caustic notes for police protection. In these notes, they shame YOU (who just might be the vandal) for past misdemeanors and admonish YOU to refrain from such unsportsmanlike activity in the future.

So you wander through the old dining room galley and recall the picture that intrigued you so many years ago — blue uniformed officers sitting before an imposing array of heavy CPR knives and forks on a white white tablecloth. Then suddenly you remember the huge oranges that always graced a bowl at the officers table. A "vandal" note now on the wall hits your eye and you wonder if you really stole that orange as you had always planned to do when you, a little girl of six, stepped cautiously past the group of dining officers.

Red Cross now over 100 years in existence

One hundred years of "service to humanity" was observed by the Snohomish-Island Counties Chapter of the American Red Cross recently in the Chapter House in Everett. William Ingram, chapter chairman, presided.

Tribute to the founder, Henri Dunant, was given by Mrs. Genseric DeLeon, executive committee member from Alderwood Manor. It was on June 25, 1859 that Dunant, a Swiss businessman traveling in Italy, volunteered to give aid and comfort to the unattended wounded, following the Battle of Solferino. Three years later, while writing his memoirs of the battle, he concluded with a plan — a series of steps — which could cross international boundaries and cut through red tape to administer to the suffering and homeless peoples in all parts of the world, regardless of color, race, or creed.

A capping ceremony for four Gray Ladies was conducted by Mrs. Marlow May, volunteer field consultant. Certificates were presented by Mrs. Dortha Palmerston and pins by Mr. Ingram to Mrs. Gwen Purdy, Mrs. Alice Blackwell, Mrs. Vickey Shaver and Mrs. Nina Trumbull. These women will serve as "friends in need" at the White Acres Nursing home at Freeland.

Report was made on the summer "Learn to Swim" campaign by Miss Kathleen Somerville, chapter executive secretary, who announced that classes began in July at Wonderland Park, Silver Lake, Lake Goodwin, Langley and Oak Harbor.

Following the business session an informative illustrated talk, "Sea Power" was given by Chief Harold E. Whitney, USN Whidbey Island Naval Air Station. Stressing the importance of keeping the sea lanes open, he said, "As long as people live on the land masses, they are dependent upon the sea." He warned that control of the seas by an enemy power would cut off the United States, not only from our allies, but from our own overseas troops. To retain control, nuclear powered ships, missile type weapons, and qualified, well-trained personnel are necessary. Concluding, Chief Whitney stated, "The cost is great," but, "if we can control the sea lanes, 85 per cent of the earth's waterways will be open to the free world."

SA Paul Heilmann, USN, assisted as projectionist.

During the social hour, a decorated cake, bearing the symbol of the organization, was served by Mrs. Kenneth Walin, Mrs. J. H. Fletcher and Mrs. Charles Hammond presided at the tea table.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

How long must Oak Harbor be virtually without sidewalks?

The installation of curbs, curb-to-curb pavement, storm sewers and sidewalks in a community is certain to be a costly and awkward proposition. The decision to proceed on such an improvement program can only be reached after considerable discussion, planning and co-operation on the part of the officials and population, but since it's going to have to be faced sooner or later isn't it about time we took a look at it? I think it is, but the longer we put it off the worse it's going to be. And besides — sometimes we find it didn't hurt as much as we thought it was going to.

We've been told rightly enough that our twenty miles or so of paved streets are something to be proud of, that our population is increasing by several hundred a year, and soon we'll be a city. However, let's face the fact that as long as those miles of streets are bordered with open, weed-choked ditches we're living in a village and we'll still be living in a village no matter how many times the population doubles. Our main and most traveled streets, at least, should have some provision for pedestrians and for parking. On Pioneer Way, if anyone walks across the street outside the painted pedestrian crossing lines he's jay-walking, and it's illegal, but on most other streets he must walk the length of the block in the street to reach the pedestrian crossing. . . and THAT'S ridiculous!

Looking up 500 Ave. E. you can see mothers pushing strollers and even children from the Victory Home Kindergarten walking in the street because there is no place else for them to walk. Cars are parked more than halfway into traffic because there isn't room to get them further off the street, because of the ditches. At the Chimes intersection during school months the schoolboy monitors stop traffic so that the children may cross the street in order to continue on up or down 700 Ave. or out Midway Blvd. . . in the street! Condition such as these are not good at the best, and during bad weather with mud, ice or snow they are many times worse.

Aside from the dangers involved, completed streets are certainly one of the most important factors in the general appearance of a town, as a glance at 400 Ave. W. in Broadview will show. Since Midway Blvd. is one of the town's important entrances and exits, shouldn't it, at least, be completed? Letters and other descriptive literature from our Chamber of Commerce are fine for describing our growing city, but the impressions taken home by the visitors who pass thru are pretty vivid too.

The problems, financial and physical, of such a project are big ones, but they can be resolved. The new city hall and the fire and police department building were problems too, but the problems were solved and the buildings will soon be in service, and the hospital will probably be receiving patients long before we now think possible. Those things are true because we faced the situation and got busy and did something about it.

Finally, in considering the improvement of our streets, there is one argument in favor that none of us can deny. . . something that at any time can make the whole thing extremely personal to all of us. Unless we provide the proper space for our pedestrians, then someone — some time — somewhere in Oak Harbor — is going to be injured or killed by being struck by an automobile!

Yours sincerely,

J. F. Remington

Skagit Valley now fully accredited as two year college

The report of the accreditation committee which visited Skagit Valley College last January was received at the college recently. For the first time in thirty-three years, SVC has been recommended for unlimited, full accreditation as a two-year college.

It should be noted that the college has always been accredited but on a year-to-year basis with the limits involved.

The Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, the same accrediting agency that evaluates all colleges (two and four-year) in the Northwest, will meet in December to make the official official. This committee's recommendation, however, is tantamount to official action.

Supt. Phipps and Dean Hodson will appear before the entire association at their annual meeting in December to give a final oral report on certain conditions pointed out by the committee. These conditions will all have been met by that date. All of them have been satisfied by the new facilities.

All college freshmen and sophomore credits earned at SVC are fully transferrable to any other college in the United States. This has always been true, but now the status of the college has been increased with the "unlimited" aspect of the accreditation.

File claim early for Soc. Sec. check

To avoid delay in receiving the first social security check, those planning to retire are encouraged to file their claims early. It is not necessary to wait until you actually retire before applying for benefits, says Dennis Rainey, Field Representative of the Everett social security office.

Rainey stated that by applying a month or two before retirement one can be assured of receiving his social security check soon after his retirement date.

Rainey is in Oak Harbor twice a month to assist Island residents with social security matters. He will next be at the city Hall from 9 A.M. to 12 noon on Monday, August 10th.

CD vital for farm safety

Civil and Defense Mobilization Director Leo A. Hoegh in a Farm Safety Week statement urges farmers to accept Rural Civil Defense as a vital part of farm safety in this nuclear age.

Mr. Hoegh pointed out that fallout from nuclear attack on key military, metropolitan and industrial centers could cover hundreds of thousands of square miles of the United States.

He said: "This nation cannot survive and recover from attack without its farmers. Rural America has always carried a heavy burden in times of national emergency. In this nuclear age, it is more important than ever before." Mr. Hoegh pointed out that fallout is one menace of thermonuclear attack against which simple protective measures can be taken.

"It need not kill," he said. "It is up to you to take action. Nobody can do it for you, anymore than they can ship you a packaged civil defense from a factory."

Director Hoegh said free plans and designs for various shelters can be obtained by writing to OCDM Rural Civil Defense, Battle Creek, Mich.

New sports club organized on north Whidbey

Teenagers of Oak Harbor and Coupeville have recently organized a Water Ski Club and elected officers. The president is Pat Clark of Coupeville; vice-president, Gary Hammonds of Coupeville; secretary, Sarah Goodwin of Oak Harbor, and treasurer, Vicki Criscola of Coupeville.

The Club is still being organized but several things have been accomplished. The official name of the club is The North Whidbey Water Sports Club. Some by-laws and the constitution have been set up and membership cards have been ordered. The dues are $2 a month during the summer months of May, June, July, August and September, and fifty cents a month during the inactive months of winter. There is also a family rate plan. This charge allows you to go skiing with the Club and in tournaments and pays for gas and oil and skiing equipment.

A water ski float has been built and is in the bay in front of Lindsay's home in Coupeville. A ski jump is our next project. Sweatshirts bearing our name and insignia are planned for next summer. Dances and parties are going to be held during the winter as well as a raffle of water skis or a boat. The past two week-ends the Club has gone water skiing. At our first meet we had about ten participants and twenty at our second meet. New members are joining all the time. One need not have a boat, ski equipment, nor be an expert. All that is required is a genuine interest in the sport. We have a wide range of skiing abilities, from beginners, who have never been on skis, up to those who have had lessons at Cypress Gardens in Florida.

All interested teen-agers and adults are welcomed to our meetings on Tuesday nights at Lindsay's Marina in downtown Coupeville, at 8:00 p.m. Refreshments are served after the meeting, compliments of Lindsay's Marina.

Braves upset Cardinals in 6-5 league victory

The Braves finally accomplished what they, and the other teams in the Babe Ruth Baseball League, hadn't been able to do earlier. The league-leading Cardinals were finally defeated as the Braves turned the trick in Wednesday evening's league contest, by a score of 6 to 5.

The Pirates had the misfortune of being involved in a pair of tie ball games that will probably be continued at a later date. On Monday the Pirates tied with the Braves, 3 to 3 in eight innings, and came back on Thursday to play a six-inning 6 to 6 tie with the White Sox.

Braves 6, Cardinals 5

Wednesday evening's contest was the highlight of the season for the Braves as they eased by the previously undefeated Cardinals by a score of 6 to 5. The Braves scored the deciding run in the last half of the seventh inning on three walks and a double by Skip Rhode.

Rhode's two-bagger was the only extra-base hit of the contest for the winning Braves. Tom Weindl and Scott Doman chipped in with a pair of singles apiece for the winners.

All of the five hits registered by the losing Cardinals went for extra bases. Mike Smith, Fred Klein, and Steve Ellis had doubles, George Gamble a triple, and Ole Carlson a home run.

White Sox 6, Pirates 6
Thursday's contest was the second tie game of the week for the Pirates as they played a 6 to 6 deadlock with the White Sox that was called after six innings because of darkness.

Dale Birge and Dennis Maylor were the big stickers for the White Sox. Birge tripled and doubled and Maylor slammed out a home run. Dennis Dillard was the only Pirate to register more than one hit. Dillard got two singles.

Cardinals 13, White Sox 3
The Cards banged out ten hits in their 13 to 3 victory over the White Sox in Tuesday's game. Mike Smith with a double and triple, Eddie Morrow with a double and single, Doug Erickson with a pair of singles, and George Gamble and Ole Carlson with triples were the heavy Cardinal hitters of the contest.

Tom Elvebak and Dennis Maylor each had a double to account for half of the White Sox four hits. Gary Eerkes and Paul Cope picked up singles for the other half of the White Sox safeties.

Pirates drop to Eagles' SW
The Pirates of the Oak Harbor Babe Ruth Baseball League dropped a non-league game to the Eagles of the Sedro Woolley Babe Ruth League in a game played here last Saturday afternoon.

The visitors out-scored the local Ruthers by a 12 to 8 count.

The Pirates, managed by Earl Faris, had previously defeated the same Eagles by a score of 4 to 3 in a game played earlier in the season at Sedro Woolley.

Sedro Woolley rallied for seven runs in the seventh inning to wipe out a 6 to 5 Pirate lead and salt the game away. The Pirates tallied a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh, but could not overcome the visitor's margin.

Ron Baker, Dennis Dillard, and Dave Fakkema accounted for the Pirates' total of seven safe hits. Baker was the big gun with a triple and single. Dillard had a pair of singles, and Fakkema chipped in with a two-bagger.

Bob Huggins, Sedro catcher, had three singles to lead his team at the plate. Dave Closson and Dave Conn each had a triple for the winners. Conn also added a single to his total.

The short score:

S. W. Eagles 12 11 3
O. H. Pirates 8 7 7

Shannon, Conn and Huggins. D. Faris, Rollag and Judson.

Though out-hit 5 to 2, the Dodgers managed to squeeze out a 3 to 1 win over the Cubs. The Cubs' Wayne Orchard and Dupries were the big hitters of the contest as they each pounded out a two-bagger. Wade Dann and Dennis Cunningham registered the only two Dodger safeties, both singles.

Dopps-Helde off to Alaska in 20' Skagit

Two members of the Whidbey Deception Pass Boat Club left early Saturday morning for Alaska in a 20 foot Skagit belonging to Warren Dopps, accompanying him is vice-commander Fred Helde.

They plan on reaching Nani-mo, B. C. the first day but admit they have no pre-arranged schedule and will travel as weather and water conditions permit. They hope to go as far up the Alaska coast as possible in the time allowed. Mr. Dopps has all of the necessary navigation equipment and is also an ardent camera fan, so it is expected he will return with a complete movie of the trip.

During their absence, Mrs. Helde and daughter Colleen will visit relatives in Libby, Montana.

Juveniles should take firearm training course

The State Game Department today emphasized that juveniles who have not taken the Firearm Safety course required by law, should do so if they wish to hunt this fall. Youngsters under the age of 17 must complete satisfactorily a 4 hour course in Firearm Safety training under the supervision of a certified instructor before a hunting license can be purchased.

Although over 40,000 youngsters have completed this training. It is estimated that this year 10,000 juveniles will desire to hunt who have not taken this Safety course. The general hunting seasons open August 11, however, during the month of September, there are many species of game birds and animals that may be hunted.

School teacher is pied piper of Coupeville

Robert Dunshee of Coupeville, makes his daily bread and butter teaching French and English to local high school students. But the frosting on his cake (aside from his wife Pat and two boys, Hansel and Malcolm) is the sheer joy of exhilaration he derives from playing the Highland pipes. To him this is the most wonderful music on earth.

Now to Dunshee, and to every other piper worth his wind, the pipes are not a gimmick, a novelty, or a passing fancy. Tradition has it that it takes seven years to be a worthy piper but Robert has been at it only 5 or 6 and is most accomplished. A man's ability is judged partly by his able execution of the complicated grace notes or "doubblings".

There are other suppositions and fancies concerning the pipes that Robert doesn't condone. For instance, that one has to have a Scottish name or ancestry to want to hear the skirl and drone. (There's Rasmussen and other "foreign" names in the Keith Highlanders of which he is a member.) That the kilt and full regalia is necessary to make the music authentic and pleasing. (It is just as spine tingling and inspiring with the piper in street clothes.) That it is just an unpleasant loud noise that grates on the nerves and scares little children. (Actually it is a romantic instrument with a history for inspiring men to valor.)

Dunshee has a vast knowledge of the origin of the pipes and the music such as the more common jigs, reels, hornpipes and strathspeys. The Highland Fling is danced to the latter and such tunes might be recalled as Fiddler's Joy, Mrs. MacLeod of Raasay or When You Go to the Hill Take Your Gun. They are similar to our own folk songs and square dance music.

ROBERT DUNSHEE, of Coupeville, plays a lively melody on the Highland pipes dressed in the summer tunic and kilt of the Keith Highlanders of Seattle. —WPP

In contrast is the Piobaireachd (pronounced Peebrock) which corresponds to a classical sonata. It is a theme melody with complicated variations which might last from fifteen to twenty minutes. Dunshee tells an old story of a Scottish chief whose personal piper had just finished entertaining an English guest with a long piobaireachd and was asked to "have him play it over again in English."

Up until about 100 years ago this music was handed down verbally as was our American folk music. It has been in written form only this last century. A piper who strides about while playing is not trying to get away from the noise so close to his ear, as those who don't care for this music might joke, but it is not easy to play without moving. It creates a body condition known as hyper-ventilation and experienced pipers have been known to flop over backwards while standing still to tune the pipes with the rest of the band. Very similar to the sensation one feels when blowing up several balloons in rapid succession.

The instrument consists of an air tight leather bag, four sounding pipes and a blow pipe for keeping the bag inflated. Three of the pipes are known as drones and form the fan shaped part which lies at an angle on the piper's shoulder. They produce the droning accompaniment to the melody and the single constant note thus produced is "A".

The fourth pipe, tuned to this pitch, is called the chanter and it is on this that the single note melody is fingered, producing the sound known as "skirling".

To simplify things for the beginner (and Bob is qualified to teach) a practice chanter is used. It produces the same nine note scale but very quietly, and costs only about seven dollars. This enables the would-be piper to discover whether he will go on to invest one hundred dollars to import an instrument from Scotland or to forget the whole thing. No teacher would ever encourage a pupil to buy the pipes to hang on the wall for a conversation piece. That, indeed, would be akin to sacrifice.

The Keith Highlanders who play about once every two weeks usually have 12 pipers and 5 drummers, tenor, bass and side. They wear the Keith tartan kilt and are entirely voluntary members who play just because they find it thrilling and satisfying. In spite of the measured cadence of the march, especially the slower ones, there is a feeling of being "ten feet tall and floating four feet off the ground" as someone has said. The Dunshees will go to Renton this weekend to take in the Highland Games and will be among the first in line in Seattle later this fall when the Black Watch band comes to town.

Automobile Manufacturers Association records carry the facts on this. In a Chevy sedan, for example, you've got more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars! And Chevy's front seat hip room spreads up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

bigger savings

Here's solid proof that Chevrolet squeezes more miles out of a gallon: In the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, two Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide took the first two places in their class. Winning mileage: 22.38 m.p.g. And that, friends, took top honors for Chevy from every full-sized car!

higher trade-in

N.A.D.A.* Guide Books prove that your Chevrolet will keep its value. Chevy used car prices last year, for example, averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the other two cars in Chevrolet's field.

*National Automobile Dealers Association.

full coil ride

You're the expert on ride, so you'll want to try Chevy's easygoing smoothness for yourself. MOTOR TREND magazine can give you a hint of what you're in for: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." And Full Coil springs, of course, never squeak, never need grease.

fresh styling

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine gave Chevy's styling a thoughtful look, then said it this way: "In its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling..." You'll find your own happy way of saying that Chevy's the only unmistakably modern car in its class.

brakes
Bigger, yes, and built with bonded linings for as much as 66% longer life. And how's this for proof that Chevy's a real stopper: in a NAS-CAR* conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds, Chevrolet outstopped both of the "other two" time after time.

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research.

The NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award goes to Chevrolet! Chevy wins for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines... for the establishment of new levels of V8 compactness combined with outstanding smoothness." And you can choose among eight V8's and the Six that won the Mobilgas Economy Run for its class.

You MAY submit one entry per person at any or all of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are in the row that is heavily bordered this week—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the WHIDBEY PRESS. Sponsoring Merchants and their families (and their employees and families) are most welcome to enter—but one special rule applies: during the weeks when entries are brought into your store, you may enter only at the other two stores in the same row (not in your own store).

2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry in an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the paper to participate.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the North Whidbey area. Clues to his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (this means any ad in this section or any ad of the same merchant elsewhere in the paper). Clues will be scattered —many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!

4. If, by coincidence, the name of WHO'S WHO (or other facts about (him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

5. TO ENTER, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address!! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this issue. You may enter at all three if you wish! There are no other places where entries will be accepted — and mail entries will not be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 5 p.m. Monday of the following week. At that time (5 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $75.00. If THAT entry also lists every clue hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, a BONUS of $37.50 will be added. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS — which will continue to grow until it is won! Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of clues — the exact number and all copied correctly and exactly as in the paper. (Watch those capitals, etc.)

7. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistakes for clues, but errorless typographical CANNOT BE GUARANTEED. The publishers of the OAK HARBOR NEWS and the ISLAND COUNTY TIMES will be the judge and their decision is final.

8. All clues will be in the Island County Times and the Oak Harbor News.

9. When a star (or asterisk) appears in any of these ads below, it means that additional advertising of that merchant appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper, and additional clues may be hidden in any of those ads also! So you should look further for additional advertisements of sponsoring merchants in this paper. The stars apply to display ads only.

NEWS

Sunday was the peace Arch ceremony at Blaine, commemorating the many years of friendly relations between Canada and the United States. Oak Harbor had a very good representation of all Scouts but we were especially proud to have seven girls and three leaders from our girl scouts. The girls marched in the parade with a group of Coupeville girls, who are also a part of our Whidbey Island neighborhood, and exchanged flags with Canadian scouts. This year we were very pleased to see a girl scout, Miss Janet Calender from Blaine, in the Honor Guard for the flag.

Scouts attending from Oak Harbor were Lydia Kight, Martha Allgire, Sandy Admiral, Linda Rowand, Patty Cozine, Dianne Neal, and Wendy Walter. The three leaders were Sandy Cozine, Bonnie Neal and Katherine Tannis who were there to cheer Oak Harbor as they went by in the parade although they themselves were not there in leader capacity.

Lydia Kight is very proud of her Canadian Girl Scout pin which she received at Peace Arch Ceremony from a Canadian girl guide who asked her to trade pins. Maybe next year we can all do something like this. Troop 31 had a cookout last Thursday to say goodbye to Terry Lerma who is leaving their troop. They met at Scout Haven for this event which was the place to say a scout farewell to a fellow scouter.

Asia contains about half of the world's population.

Cub Scouts take train to Blaine

Cub Scouts of Den 4, Pack 62 turned out in full attendance to make a train trip from Mount Vernon to Blaine on Sunday under the supervision of Mrs. Bonnie Neal and Mrs. Katherine Tannis. The families met the boys at the park for a picnic lunch prior to the parade.

Cubmaster Leroy Rowand and committee chairman Ernie Neuman marched in the parade with the boys and participated in the exchange of flags ceremony. They made the return trip home by car.

CALIFORNIANS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swanson of Los Angeles arrived Friday and spent several days at the home of the latter's cousin, Cecil Strong. While here Mr. and Mrs. Strong took them fishing, boating and attended the Boat Club picnic on Sunday.

Hillcrest News

Jon Layton went with a group of Boy Scouts who boarded the train in Mount Vernon Sunday to go to the Peace Arch celebration at the border and to partake in the ceremony of exchanging flags with the Canadian Boy Scouts.

Those from Hillcrest of VAH-6 squadron returning last week were Mr. Richard Farrell, Mr. R. E. Engle, Mr. R. L. Scully, Mr. Richard Brandtz, Mr. R. L. Huth, Mr. Fred Meche, and Mr. Woodworth we mentioned last week. They were all on the Ranger on a cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brandtz were hosts to a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crandall and family last Thursday evening.

The Homebuilder's class of the First Baptist Church gave an old fashioned box supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Morgan last Friday evening. A prize was offered for the most original box and Mrs. Norman Lewis was the lucky one with the winning box which was shaped like a book with the title "Food for Thought". Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Stanley Morgan, Mrs. Bill Turley, and Mrs. Vance Morgan. Games were provided by Mrs. Turley. Afterwards Dr. Russell Preston gave an inspiring message which closed the evening's program very beautifully.

Several from Hillcrest are attending the Lutheran Bible School this week and next. Among them are Mrs. W. L. Walker and children, Mrs. Charles Stollenberg and children, also the Stollenberg children, as well as others.

Charlene Stollenberg is still in the Bremerton hospital and Mrs. Charles Stollenberg is with her most of the time, going back and forth when she can.

Miss Lou Lindsay, her nephew Woodie Sobol and his friend Tommy Brown who have been the house guests of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trefero for several weeks left last week for the return trip to North Carolina. En route they plan to stop at Yellowstone National Park, Mt. Rushmore and the Bad Lands in South Dakota, then on to Chicago before returning to their home. Miss Lindsay will resume her teaching in N. C.

Marvin DeMille caught a salmon in the JC's fishing derby. At least he didn't have to take a ribbing from the Mrs. Since she had caught one before he did.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Johansen and family were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Western at the Western Beaver farm at Freeland last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Quinton and family have gone on vacation for several days. They left for Spokane and on up to Canada sight-seeing.

Mrs. Donald Brown is one of the teachers at Cranberry Lake for swimming lessons and is also a life guard there too.

Mr. and Mrs. Marinus Weidraayer and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Bauman of Everson, from Friday through Sunday. Mrs. Weidraayer's niece Miss Anita Honcoo came home with them for several days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fry and family enjoyed the day at Lake Goodwin over the weekend, returning home to get Danny who was working. The family plans a few day's vacation at Westport enjoying the beach and swimming through the remainder of this week.

Guest in the Richard Farrell home for awhile one day last week were his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Farrell, whom they had not seen for a number of years.

A Driver's Prayer
O God give me a firm hand and a sharp eye so that I will not injure any person while driving. Thou hast given life and I pray that none of my actions will take away or spoil that gift which comes from Thee. Grant that I may refrain from the kind of indulgence that would impair my skill and thus endanger the life of my fellow man. Guide my auto for the protection of others and may I not miss the beauty of Thy world (because of speed) which Thou hast created. May I always drive courteously, safely and with a full sense of the responsibility which lies in my hands.
AMEN

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Borgman and Donald helped Dale Ubil celebrate his birthday which was the 3rd of August. Others who helped him celebrate were Mrs. E. Georgalas, Mrs. L. W. Galivan and son Terry. A bunch of ice cream and cake was enjoyed.

Mrs. S. J. Simonson called on Mrs. Bertha Simonson in Anacortes Sunday evening.

L. H. Duncan who left for fishing in Alaska a few weeks ago has been heard from. Stated they were going north farther as the fish were getting very scarce where they were.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pound who bought a piece of land from Johannes Christiansen recently moved a trailer on the property across the road from Bob DeVries. They are living in it until they get a home built. There seems to be people buying here and there all the time, some building soon, some a little later.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Willhight and three children of Coupeville and a brother of Mr. Willhights of Buckley were recent callers at the Reint and Carroll Borgmans.

Mr. A. Waitkus was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeVries.

A larger gathering had dinner at Frank Siegfried's beach a week ago Sunday. The writer didn't get the names of all of them, but among them were Mr. and Mrs. Jarold Thornton and 5 children and Marion Thornton of Blanchard. Two boats of people from Everett brought some of the cabin, David Langland, Harris Custer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hunsford, Claude and Helen Arnold and Alma Matsen, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Olsen and Judy, Reint Borgman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Borgman and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Frostad. Those from Everett spent the weekend down there.

Watch your traffic manners, says chief

"Most traffic accidents don't happen. They are caused!" That statement was made today by Chief Murcroy of the Oak Harbor Police Department. He places much of the blame for automobile accidents on drivers who hurry along the road at excessive speeds and ignore traffic signs and signals.

"In most traffic accidents somebody is violating the law," he said. "Last year nearly three fourths of the drivers in fatal accidents in our state were violating a traffic law at the time of the accident."

According to the Chief, many of these violations involved ignoring laws expressed in signs or other devices on street or highway. Reports show, he said, that such violations as exceeding the posted speed limit, failing to keep to right of center line, and disregard of warning or stop signs are common.

"Accidents resulting from such flouting of the law are certainly inexcusable," he said, "and they show that a great part of our annual traffic toll could be wiped out if people would heed the signs by their shapes and to heed them on sight. HEXAGONAL, stop; DIAMOND SHAPED, caution; RECTANGULAR, regulatory; ROUND, approach to highway-railroad intersection; CROSSBUCK, designation of highway-railroad intersection; a TRIANGULAR, yield right-of-way."

He also stressed the importance of driving at speeds safe for conditions.

"Slow down and live," he advised motorists. "Don't tempt fate by heedless driving."

Wool growers vote in Sept.

Chairman John E. Miller of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced today that sheep producers will have the opportunity to vote in September in a nation-wide referendum on the question of continuing to face a market development program for wool and lambs.

The program of advertising, promotion, and related activities is carried out under an agreement with the American Sheep Producers Council. It is financed by deduction from wool incentive payments earned by growers under the national wool program.

The agreement has been in effect since the 1955 marketing year and, if approved in the September referendum, will be continued for another three years. Approval requires the favorable vote of producers having two-thirds of the volume of production represented in the referendum.

The new agreement, Mr. Miller said, would provide that deductions may not exceed the rates of 1 cent per pound for shorn wool and five cents per hundredweight for lambs that have been in effect under the original agreement.

The referendum will extend over the entire month of September to make it as easy as possible for all growers to participate, Mr. Miller said. Ballots will be mailed to producers from the county ASC office before Sept. 1 and may be voted and returned through Sept. 30.

The referendum relates only to wool and lamb market development program. It will not affect the continuation of the payment program under the three-year extension of the wool act last summer.

4-H club news

Thursday, July 30, twenty-two members of the Beach Rangers met across from the Navy golf course. They rode along the road and beach to the Darst bulb farm where they took to the woods, and went on to Fort Casey. They covered approximately 15 miles.

The night was spent there with leaders Bud Baher, Mr. John O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Weiner and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. McFadden doing the largest part of supervising. Other assistants during the daytime were Mrs. Gene Williams, Mrs. Ray McCullough, Mrs. Irene Van Rooy, Mrs. D. C. Kramer and Mrs. W. W. Cockrell.

Friday afternoon a show was given for the spastic children who were brought to Fort Casey from Seattle for a week of camp. Each of the children was given a ride on the 4-H horses after which a 4-H drill was performed. The Beach Rangers also put on gymnastics events, as well as clown acts and a wild west show.

We were joined on Friday by two girls from the Coupeville 4-H horse club, Susan Charbonneau and Sue Gable.

Friday night was also spent at the camp grounds, and Saturday morning we proceeded back home to Oak Harbor.

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to John Vandiericht, park commissioner and to Mr. Lopez, park caretaker, who made it possible for us to use the camping facilities.

Mariner Scouts

One of the most popular spots in the international Girl Scout Roundup Camp was the exhibition tent. Creative works ranging from classic oils to Indian bead work and historical exhibits were displayed.

The circus-size tent held more than 1000 pieces, all the work of girls from America's 50 states and from 27 foreign lands.

In some metropolitan areas as many as 14,000 paintings and other art works were submitted. From these, the very best were selected for display in the exhibition tent.

Mike Germakian of New York, art director for the Roundup, called the display "of professional quality. They represent not only great creative thought but outstanding ability."

Based on the theme "Home Frontier", the exhibitions feature the history, industry and art of sections of the nation and world from which the patrols come.

On display Friday were the 362 that will form a traveling exhibit to be sent by national headquarters to troops throughout the Girl Scout world. Another traveling show will be the selected list of paintings and other art works used during the Roundup exhibition period.

"A Mile high and a world wide" the Scouts held their last campfire session before the 10,000 girls started their journeys home across the entire world.

The closing Campfire Sunday at 7:30 p.m. featured international Scouts and Guides building the fire by placing "wishes for peace" on the flames.

Outstanding demonstrations chosen after more than a week of presentations by hundreds of patrols were presented, and folk dancing was also featured.

The Encampment formally closed at midnight Sunday but it was Tuesday before the last Girl Scouts had left the 6000 tent city, returning it to the empty ranch-land it was before the largest group of Girls Scouts in history came to make up the Roundup.

The San Juan Patrol of eight girls from Oak Harbor, Sedro Woolley, Anacortes and Bellingham were in attendance.

Janet Blum, correspondent.

Miss Arlene Kammenga is hostess this week and next to her cousin, Miss Jadyn Bowen of Seattle. On Monday the girls attended the dress judging 4-H program in Coupeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koontz and family spent a few days this past week with Mrs. Koontz' folks in Kennewick.

Less Kammenga and Ed Beekma recently took a trip to Everett to complete arrangements for living quarters there while they attend Everett Junior College this coming year.

The Sisler family is making the most of Si these days as he is on leave before leaving for sea duty out of Alameda. He plans to cut a winter's supply of wood for the fireplace for his girls so no doubt will appreciate the first few days of shipboard living.

Things we've seen around town: Twila Blain zipping around the city hall on a motor scooter, legal limit of course; the pretty blue trim and bright orange railing contrasting with the white paint of the new library and city office building; some wag has altered the "school zone" sign on Midway to read "cool zone"; two signs at the sick bay at Ault Field read "Dispensary" and "Dead End"; the Friday afternoon rush and traffic jam around the bank corner; Claude Sanchez in a bright gold shirt with "Thriftyway Too" embroidered on the back, and Rose and Bert Moran numbering the too few days they have before they leave the Kennel and Oak Harbor.

WALKERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker and Jerry have returned from a trip to Idaho Falls, Yellowstone Park and on to Leavenworth where they stopped to play golf.

Barbecue dishes very popular

Barbecued seems to be "the" word in present day outdoor living.

Meats of all kinds and just about all cuts may be barbecued. The less tender cuts of meat should have a tenderizing period prior to barbecuing. Marinate the meat in the refrigerator for 12 to 24 hours in a good acid preparation. French Dressing an barbecue sauce are two easy marinades. There are many others.

When choosing barbecue sauce for beef use one rich in oil. Pork calls for a sauce that is easy on the oil and heavy on catsup, tomato paste or chili sauce. Choose a barbecue sauce for lamb that is rich in oil and garlic.

Here is a barbecue sauce for fryers we have used many times at our house. Incidentally we use our oven broiler as a "barbecue". Barbecued chicken at our house doesn't necessarily mean it is an outdoor meal.

MARINATE SAUCE FOR FRYERS

Stat with two, 2 pound fryers halved. For the marinade, 1/2 cup cooking oil, 1 clove garlic, crushed, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon oregano, 1/4 teaspoon rosemary, 1 teaspoon ginger, 3 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 tsp. wine vinegar, 1/4 cup chicken broth. Prepare marinade by mixing all the ingredients together. Marinate chicken halves 3 to 4 hours. Remove from marinade and season with salt and pepper. Fold wing tips back so wing is held firmly in place; place chicken cut side up on broiler pan. Place pan on bottom rack in oven. Turn controls to broil. Leave oven door ajar. Broil 25 minutes, basting with marinade. Turn chicken halves and continue to broil with marinade, then broil 20 minutes longer, until the chicken is tender. The marinade may be stored in the refrigerator to be used again.

Copy of letter to State Parks and Recreation Commission, John Vanderzicht, Director

Gentlemen:

In answer to your letter of July 27, 1959, we must refer you to our letter to you dated July 17, 1959, which is self-explanatory and reads as follows:

"The Island County Board of County Commissioners will be glad to cooperate with the State Parks and Recreation Commission to have this old road vacated, providing the new relocated road will go to the beach at the old ferry landing with a larger turn-around, and will be open to the public at all times, which means twenty-four hours a day—every day of the year."

Anyone who adds to or tries to change the meaning of the above quoted letter either does not understand or is attempting to mislead the public. No one needs to refer to Webster's Dictionary to understand our letter above set forth in quotes.

Therefore, we urge you to reread the above quoted letter very carefully and trust we can come to an equitable agreement on this matter.

Respectfully yours,
Island County Board of County Commissioners
Jack Meeter, Chairman

Deception Pass parks hold crowd of 58,000 folks

Mr. Harry Walker, superintendent of parks with headquarters in the log house at Cranberry Lake entrance gave figures for the last week of July to the News this weekend.

A record crowd of 58,000 people visited the Deception Pass area made up of Cranberry Lake and surrounding beaches, Bowman Bay and Rosario. Four hundred eighty-five cars were registered on Friday and Saturday of last week with an estimated total of 1845 people arriving in them. The busiest week showed 1300 campers registered.

This year's total may be below that of 1958 because the season was so late in comparison, although the figures have been higher for corresponding weeks of this year.

There is a decided increase in the number of small trailers entering the parks each year and the barbecue stove or disposable charcoal cooking package is becoming more and more popular.

Mr. Walker praised the work of the two lifeguards at Cranberry Lake, Mrs. Donna Butler who resides at Rosario and Miss Sharon Carr of Mt. Vernon who is working this year for the first time at the lake. They have had a terrifically large number of swimmers and bathers to watch, although the new float lines marking off the shallow depth for the non-swimmers have helped keep folks in their proper place.

Kow Korner gets C. A. R. award

The Kow Korner Drive Up of Oak Harbor has received the nationally known and highly regarded Standard Award of the C. A. R. The Drive Up will display the emblem and other insignia of the coast to coast chain of qualified independently owned restaurants.

To receive the award, a restaurant must be located on a traveled route, serve good food at popular "family" prices and be clean and sanitary throughout. Personnel must be neat appearing and give prompt courteous service. Traveling inspectors regularly visit the franchised restaurants to see that the owners is abiding by the standards set.

The Kow Korner Drive-Up is owned by C. G. Dillard and H. W. Williams.

Failure to yield will result in fine says Chief

Oak Harbor police chief Fred Murcay issued a warning to all motorists that they must yield right of way to any emergency vehicle. The flashing light and siren can be seen and heard in any car even with windows closed and radio on.

In an emergency run on Tuesday Chief Murcay had near misses with two vehicles which did not move to the side of the road.

"Future violators will be taken to court on a negligent driving charge which carries a minimum fine of $35 for the first offense," Murcay said. "Island County residents must be made to realize that an emergency vehicle must not be hindered by traffic."

San Diego bound
Mrs. Marie McFall is leaving this week for an indefinite stay in San Diego, California. Her address there will be 4140 Utah St. Like so many others who leave Whidbey, Mrs. McFall is reluctant to say goodbye to the many wonderful friends she has made here.

and two boys, both of whom attend school. He loves the Island and helped with the building of a modern home out near the Rocky Point Golf course.

Sanchez was born in Sagua, Colorado. He left school in his junior year to join the Navy but completed his high school education while serving in the Armed Forces. He asked for Whidbey duty in 1947 and returned here successfully from 5 different deployments. He was discharged in 1953.

Sanchez is active in local Veterans of Foreign Wars and is a member of the Navy League.

NORM WALLACE is a Northwest boy, having been born in Snoqualmie. He heard about an opening in the supermarket and went to work for Rhodes in 1955. Prior to that time he had leased several meat markets, having learned his meat cutting trade in Snoqualmie, North Bend and Issaquah. His wife Alyce is active in P-TA, hospital guild work, is a den mother. They have three children, two of whom are school age. They live on 8032 87th East.

Wives of both young men are as enthusiastic about the area and the opportunity made possible to them as the men themselves. All four have been working long hours, remodeling, changing and dreaming of future plans. They have made many improvements, suggested long ago, including a new check-out stand and rearrangements of different departments.

The three persons who are filling the shoes of J. W. Rhodes are aware of the burdens they have assumed, since marketing is no longer a "cracker barrel" operation but a matter of nets and percentages for which no book has been written. Their enthusiastic approach augurs a successful future and their many friends wish them well.

Summerama will feature beauty contest Saturday

A given height will be the winner. At 4 p.m. Mariners and Girl Scouts will sing.

Dinner hours are from 4:30 to 7:30. At 7 will be a putting contest for men and women, or a "tin cup derby." Appropriate prizes will be given to the golfer who does the best putting.

Women will take part in a "cake race" in pancake race style. The ladies will compete for layer cake.

Saturday

On Saturday at 2 p.m. there will be a model airplane demonstration under the direction of Whidbey Aircraft Model Flying Club, Snub Pollard, sponsor. An example of radio control and multi-engine flying will be given by Dick Wycoff, Leonard Road, Arnold and Everett Davis. Various stunt patterns will be shown by other members of the club including Martin Beatty and Brian Maudin.

From 3 to 3:30 there will be another riding drill and horse show by the North Whidbey Beach Rangers, 4-H riding club. This is the same group which entertained and delighted the spastic children at Fort Casey recreation center last weekend.

Everyone is invited to dinner again when hot dogs, cold drinks and watermelon will be sold for five cents. Dinner hour ends at 7:30 p.m.

At 5 p.m. will be one of the most interesting and spectacular features of the three day event when the pony express rider is scheduled to arrive. The idea behind this show is to see how, in an emergency, a message could be conveyed from Coupeville to Marketown in the old-fashioned manner. Eight to ten riders from the Island County Sheriff's Posse are taking part. They will be stationed at designated places between the two communities. Mayor Ralph Ward will present a dispatch to the first rider who will carry it at top speed to the second until the final rider appears at Marketown. Announcement of the progress of the pony express will be given to spectators over the public address system. The stunt will also serve as a test in civil defense. Many experts believe the message can be carried in fifteen or sixteen minutes.

At 7 o'clock Saturday evening will be the Marketown Beauty Queen contest, highlight for the teenagers and spectators. Girls of any age may enter the contest, each to be judged in a summer cotton dress. Accessories are optional. The winner of the title will receive a big bouquet of roses along with her royal title.

As a special promotion, if the queen has purchased her cotton dress from Kahn Bros, she will receive another one free, or the price of the original refunded. All girls are eligible.

Bargains will be available in the stores throughout the Summerama and father will be able to play host in the grand manner at a total cost of 25 cents per person plus a free floor show. He may also be a recipient in the massive array of prizes won by him or any member of the family.

Included in the prizes are five yards of metallic rayon acetate, the same material as won last year by Mrs. Ralph Lindsay in Coupeville.

This newspaper will serve as a program of events, the only one printed, and readers are urged to bring it with them during the three-day event so as to keep abreast of the schedule which will roll along at a fast-moving pace.

Highlights of fishing spots

Southwestern Washington — Fish Biologist, Dorian Lavier reports that large numbers of summer run steelhead are present in the lower stretches of the Columbia river. While fishermen are having good success in the Columbia itself, those streams flowing into the Columbia that normally produce summer run steelhead are slow. Sea run cutthroat are being taken in the Cowlitz and Toutle rivers. The best lures are night crawlers, small spinners, and buck tail flies. The lower Lewis and Kalama are fair fishing for this trout. Yale, Merwin and Spirit lakes are fair fishing for trout. Silver lake, Cowlitz county, is still excellent for bass and carp.

North central Washington — Field men state that the streams in this area are at an ideal fishing level. Fine catches of fish have been checked by Protectors in Okanogan and Chelan counties. The hot weather has slowed trout fishing in most lakes, however, Salmon, Bonapart, Waunacutt, and Fish lakes, Okanogan county, are still giving up good catches of trout. Fish lake in Chelan county is loaded with perch.

Central Washington — Yakima region — The Yakima river is reported to have fair trout fishing with rainbows caught up to 17 inches in length. The lower Naches river is producing nice catches of rainbows up to 12 inches. Bumping lake is still the hottest fishing spot in this area.

Northeastern Washington — Streams in this area are producing good catches of small to medium sized trout. Lakes in the northern part of the district are fair fly fishing in the early morning and late evening. The trolling of flies with leaded line is particularly effective on these lakes.

GENE WILLIAMS, new assistant of Jimmy Haddon, at Haddon Furniture, is shown in an unusual pose, shifting furniture around. Gene, often called the Mayor of Marketown, is learning something new every minute. —WPP

In forestry language, a "sleeper" is a fire that burns undetected beneath the ground, springing to life hours or days later. Campfires cause many sleeper fires. Don't you be caught napping. Drown your campfires. Stir and drown again. Feel the ashes to make sure that they are "dead out." Keep Washington Green.

Bill Rollers go back to retirement

Due to ill health, Bill and Marion Roller have decided to go back to retirement which they left when they accepted the managership of Lloyd Hunter's Island Music Center in Oak Harbor. The Rollers regret leaving but find that life has been too strenuous for enjoyment. They have a home on South Whidbey.

Mr. Roller will keep his connection with music equipment sales and will play two days a week at the electric organ on the mainland.

Replacing him as manager of the store will be Cecil Perkins, formerly of Haddon's Furniture, another man who decided on retirement once but re-entered business when he found too much time on his hands. Perkins has been active in newspaper work and radio for many years and is competent in sales promotion of any kind.

He will be assisted by Patricia C. Aus 20, who came to the Island with her parents about a year ago. She attended the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C., majoring in music. She belonged to the Chorus and Brass Assembly there and has had fourteen years on the piano, eight years cornet and four at chorus.

Extension Service Accomplishments 1958.
We have just received a statistical report on Extension's activities in 1958 for all United States. Before quoting a few figures I want to make a few comments. There has been much discussion as to Extension's present position and its future role in agriculture and home economics. True we have fewer and larger farms. The farmers are also better educated and trained than some year ago, they also have help from industry through the feed and chemical companies and public utilities specialists just to name a few. Thus one could say our clientele has been reduced. But has it?
Here on Whidbey and Camano Islands we have thousands of homes that have garden, lawn, landscape, family food, interior decorating, home management and other problems that Extension can help. Actually then we would say our clientele has increased taking in a wider area of people. With the farmer the problem is just as intense because his problems are more numerous and more complex.
With that sort of introduction here are a few figures and I mean few, so you won't tire of reading them.
Three are 11, 120 County Extension Workers in 3000 counties of the United States. Island County has two - namely, Mrs. Sylvia Bliven and myself, Joe Long.
County Agents reported that more than 12,437,000 families

Islands agriculture
were assisted in adopting improved farming or homemaking practices in 1958. Of this total number, 32 percent were farm families, 22 per cent were rural non farm, and 46 percent were urban families.
Demands for Extension assistance from both rural non farm and urban families increased 22 per cent over 1957. I believe in Island County this trend is even more pronounced. Let us look at a few of our own figures.
In 1958 we had 879 farm and home visits, 1,326 office calls, 1,273 telephone calls, 369 news articles, and 7,736 bulletins distributed in Island County alone. Adding to this the attendance at meetings we held we have a figure of 16,427 contacts. This does not include the letters written answering problems. Attendance at meetings held by local 4-H and Home Economic leaders without either agent being there amounted to 1,667.
Perhaps these are only figures and do not tell the whole story. Mrs. Bliven and I both fully realize that for a contact to mean something a change or acceptance of an accepted practice is necessary. That is ever our aim. Just three more figures and I'll call it quits on this subject. We directly assisted 315 farm families, 375 rural non farm, and 325 urban families in 1958 in Island County.
Several of us took in the 19th annual Western Washington Resources Council Tour on San Juan Island, July 30. It was attended by some 42 farmers, railroad agents, and state officials. Bill Baker, San Juan County Agent was the host. Bill got a lot of ribbing about his Centennial beard; being called Gabby Hay numerous times.
First we started at the Jones Farm near Friday Harbor. They have Aberdeen Angus cattle and a commercial flock of sheep. There are two lakes on their property from which they irrigate the pastures by sprinklers. These are five gallons per minute sprinklers and are changed every twelve hours. Before long they will be irrigating 160 acres. San Juan looked dry but their place resembled an oasis. I wish more of our farmers could irrigate.

A "rookie" in San Diego, a young priest from Los Angeles and a recruit leatherneck from Camp Pendleton attended the All Stars Baseball Game at Los Angeles on August 3 due to the generosity of an Oak Harbor man who found he could not use the three tickets himself.

Outstanding here was the part machinery plays in their farm operation. Mr. Jones and his son put up all their hay and silage and have it so arranged that the machinery does all the heavy work. Noticeable were the baler, hay loader, silage wagons, catching gate, sheep loader and tractor equipment.
Then we visited the Bert Lawson's new sawmill. This was as neat and smooth running small sawmill as I have ever seen. Straight vertical saws ripped through a log at one time turning out two inch sawed lumber. Next the edgers and trimmers finished the job. A little lake acted as storage place for the logs prior to sawing.
The final stop was at Straits View Farm next to Marvita Resort. Here over 1000 acres in being improved with good pasture mixtures and fertilization. Fence rows are being cleared of brush. This fact alone has reduced the rabbit damage considerable. This would help on Whidbey too. Rabbits just do not normally feed far from their hiding place.
The County Agent learned a lot from the tour and I hope some of it can be passed on to you good people.

Generous citizen sends others to All Star game
A "rookie" in San Diego, a young priest from Los Angeles and a recruit leatherneck from Camp Pendleton attended the All Stars Baseball Game at Los Angeles on August 3 due to the generosity of an Oak Harbor man who found he could not use the three tickets himself.
A ticket and personal check for hot dogs and pop were mailed to commanding officers at each military base and to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. The sailor and marine will sit on either side of the Catholic priest and enjoy an afternoon of fellowship.
The donor suggested that the service men be proxy for a Whidbey sailor and Marine. The donor's name? E. J. Cronin of Oak Harbor.
Don't smoke while walking where there is any inflammable material. It is so easy to start a fire in this weather. Keep Washington Green.

are five gallons per minute sprinklers and are changed every twelve hours. Before long they will be irrigating 160 acres. San Juan looked dry but their place resembled an oasis. I wish more of our farmers could irrigate.
Outstanding here was the part machinery plays in their farm operation. Mr. Jones and his son put up all their hay and silage and have it so arranged that the machinery does all the heavy work. Noticeable were the baler, hay loader, silage wagons, catching gate, sheep loader and tractor equipment.
Then we visited the Bert Lawson's new sawmill. This was as neat and smooth running small sawmill as I have ever seen. Straight vertical saws ripped through a log at one time turning out two inch sawed lumber. Next the edgers and trimmers finished the job. A little lake acted as storage place for the logs prior to sawing.
The final stop was at Straits View Farm next to Marvita Resort. Here over 1000 acres in being improved with good pasture mixtures and fertilization. Fence rows are being cleared of brush. This fact alone has reduced the rabbit damage considerable. This would help on Whidbey too. Rabbits just do not normally feed far from their hiding place.
The County Agent learned a lot from the tour and I hope some of it can be passed on to you good people.

Thirteen Who Gave Blood Are Thanked

Many may consider the number 13 unlucky but former NAS Communications Officer, LCDR Ralph V. Kane, USN (Ret.), doesn't, for there was exactly that number of donors from NAS blood for his open heart surgery to repair a faulty aortic valve.

Twelve donors answered the call from the Communications division and were transported to the University Hospital in Seattle by the Transportation Division. The driver also contributed, making the thirteenth man from NAS Whidbey.

Approximately one month ago, the former Communication Officer of NAS (he served here from September 1954 through September 1956 though he had only one more month to live.

OPERATION IN JUNE

Then the open heart operation was performed on LCDR Kane by a team of University of Washington School of Medicine surgeons on June 25. While Kane's heart was "tied off" for the operation, more than 10 quarts of blood per minute were supplied.

The valve repair required little more than an hour once the heart was exposed, and the UW's artificial heart-lung supplied oxygenated blood to Kane for a total of 66 minutes.

INJURED IN FORMOSA

Eleven months ago while serving as Executive Officer of the fleet oiler Chemung in Formosa, LCDR Kane was stepping into a small boat when high waves tossed him into the water and slammed the boat against him, crushing him against a bulkhead. He suffered extensive injuries. Blood clots were removed from an arm and a leg, and the heart trouble was discovered after air-sea rescue

VP-1 wives hear deployment talk

Next week Patrol Squadron One leaves for Iwakuni, Japan. The majority of the Squadron's dependents will remain in the Oak Harbor area. CDR John W. Murph, Commanding Officer of the Squadron, arranged a lecture for these dependents recently to inform them of the Squadron's job and of their privileges in the Navy family.

CDR Murph opened the presentation in the NAS theatre explaining why VP-1 had to leave Whidbey Island and the job they expected to do in the Pacific. LT Tom Curtin, Squadron Flight Surgeon, followed the Captain. LT Curtin first assured the listening wives that he would see to it their men came back in good health and then went on to explain the dependents' privileges under Navy medical care here in Oak Harbor and elsewhere. Mr. F. J. Read, Red Cross Representative at NAS, continued the presentation emphasizing the ability of the Red Cross to help 24 hours a day. CDR J. E. Hollingsworth, Chaplain, USN, concluded the talks with comments on morale.

Following the question and answer period, a ten minute film was shown on artificial respiration. A pamphlet was passed out at the end of the presentation reviewing what had been said and listing all pertinent information for reference.

flights and treatment in Singapore, Taipei, Yokosuka, San Diego and Seattle.

When donors were requested, C-2 and C-1 Divisions of the Communications answered the call. Recently LCDR L. W. Brooks, MC, USN, of the Medical Department received a letter from the wife of LCDR Kane, Mrs. Alice L. Kane, thanked all who donated blood so that the operation could be performed.

WIFE THANKS DONORS

She said in part: "My husband was deeply touched when I told him about it. You know how he loves the Navy. It was very hard for him to leave it after twenty five years, especially under these circumstances. We intend to stay in this area, and hope to visit Oak Harbor one of these days."

"Once again, our heart-felt thanks to you and the men who so generously contributed their blood and their time."

Want to get more out of life? the Revenaughs did—and do

Do you ever wonder what you did with all your time before TV came on the scene? Well, Bill and Dawn Revenaugh had a set once and then decided it was more fun to go places and do things for themselves than to watch other people have so much pleasure. They sold the magic tube and haven't stopped enjoying life since.

What do they do? Well, you name it and they've probably tried it or have it on their list. The two of them love to read, he likes photography and has a vast collection of slides of their almost weekly camping trips, and he plunks away on a college ukelele to liven up parties now and then.

A small, compact sleeping trailer goes behind their station wagon on every navigable road and some not so advisable—such as Paradise Inn at Christmas time when the snow plow almost covered them and the Rangers rather wondered at anyone who would be camping in the middle of the winter.

They have fun on every trip and so many memories put away for the years when they won't be able to run around as much. Like the time the bear stole the pancake flour and the cookbook, Dawn is still wondering just what bears do with books.

When they are at home they never sit still. They have marbled topped chests of solid walnut inset with chestnut burls which have been in the Revenaugh family since the Civil War. The couple refinished them. A rocker has had a re-do, too, as well as a round dining table, all the more enjoyable because they are "family" and have had loving interest. Perhaps Maybelle Ney (she was featured on this page sometime ago with a house full of antiques) deserves some credit for starting her friends on the furniture.

Right now they have a cane back rocker and a captain's chair on the unfinished list. The rocker will probably go to the Lighthouse for the Blind for caning. And Dawn is starting her second braided rug. Her first is a work of art in "dancing" colors while the second is made up in more muted tones from material which she dyed as needed. Made of nylon and wool the fabric should last forever and someday be an heirloom for their own children.

Hiking, duck hunting, fishing, (right now it's stream fishing Bill finds intriguing) and gardening keep these folks outside most of the time. Last year they put in lawn around their Penn Cove home by the store, had a big garden and each posey got tender, loving care. Since they acquired the trailer and the wanderlust they have pared the garden down to a patch and the flowers have to fend for themselves.

For Dawn, this has been a vacation. She is a registered nurse and after she finished her training she continued work while Lt. William Revenaugh finished his dental training. They had met at the University of Wisconsin. When he was graduated, he turned to the navy and requested Bremerton, the only name he was familiar with on the Pacific Coast.

Their tour is almost finished, they'll leave the mountains and the waters they have grown to love so much and go back to Lake Forest, Illinois to set up a dental practice and raise a family.

Of course, Petey, (who is really a female Beagle and Sam, another Beagle pup just recently acquired) think they are already family. Petey has her own chair, the rocker with the fat cushion while Sam will take any spot as long as it's people.

Be that as it may, the Revenaughs are going to be an Illinois branch of the Washington State publicity bureau, though unofficially. They have piles and reams of maps and reading material on the state, with more tourist information than can be had at any one chamber of commerce.

Wives club has picnic at lake

Loads of food, fun and children seemed to be the theme of the NWCA picnic held at Cranberry Lake on Sunday. Eager eaters consumed vast amounts of chicken, hamburger, potato salad, beans and all the usual picnic goodies. All these took second place to the large variety of cakes the girls had baked; much to the delight of husbands and children and those of us who just don't have any will power.

The many guests that attended are sincerely welcome to visit us again. Helen Rogers, the Picnic Chairman, is leaving soon but it is hoped that future picnics will be attended and enjoyed as much as this one was.

In the future Viola Badgely will be keeping you abreast of the NWCA news. She replaces Lois Layman who is visiting her parents in Eastern Washington while her husband is on duty in California.

The regular business meeting will be held at the Community Hall on Thursday evening at 7:30 Aug. 6. With National Convention plans in the offing all members are reminded to attend. Those interested in NWCA are invited to call Kay Spencer, OR 5-3073 for information.

North Whidbey Navy Wives Club of America

by Marge Rodgers

Summer time is picnic time and the turnout at the NWCA outing Sunday, July 26 seemed to prove that everyone likes a picnic, even the ants. Nearly all the club members turned out with husbands, children and guests, plus enough food to feed an army. Cranberry Lake was the place chosen for our outing, and it was an excellent choice, especially for the children who were more interested in swimming than eating. A good time was reported by all with the hope that we might have a repeat performance in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Gresham, Lois to club members, became the proud parents of their third boy, Scott Andrew, Saturday, July 25. Congratulations!

With so many of our members taking part in the Day Camp activities and others going on vacations, the month of July was certainly busy, but every month is a busy one if you belong to NWCA No. 150, with visits to the hospital, layette work for Navy Relief, emergency child care, business meetings the first Thursday of each month and our coffee socials on the third Thursday of each month. listed mens' wives are invited to visit with us and take part in these activities that help others as well as helping us to make new friends. The meetings are held in the community hall by the Thrift Shop, near the housing office on the Seaplane base side.

A Board meeting was held at the home of Judy Eveland July 29, and several ideas were discussed and will be brought before the club on the next business meeting.

The monthly business meeting will convene on Thursday, August 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the community hall. All members are asked to mark this date on their calendar and please attend if possible.
