To the owner or manager:

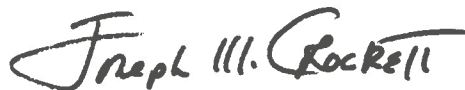

In view of the fact that "the name is the same," this is to request a brochure or flyer describing the bed and breakfast inn of The Colonel Crockett Farm.

I should note that I was one of the 30,000 people who was terminated by the great airplane company during 1970. I even might have been the one who was asked to "turn out the lights" as I left the city of Seattle.

Bigger and better things have happened, however, in the ensuing 22 years.

I am planning a return trip to the environs of Seattle in coming months and a visit to The Colonel Crockett Farm will, surely, be a part of this itinerary.

Sincerely,
