Two Holstein Herds End Year of Tests For Production

Two Holstein herds in Washington have recently completed a year of production testing in the official Herd Improvement Registry program of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

These are: Nick Roorda, Lynden—12 cows averaged 380 pounds of butterfat and 10,456 pounds of milk in 281 days on two milkings daily; Clayton F. Allard, Yakima—35 cows averaged 627 pounds of butterfat and 16,364 pounds of milk in 307 days on two milkings daily.

Testing was supervised by the State College of Washington, in cooperation with the national association.

OF INTEREST TO HUNTERS

There is a Town Ordinance against discharging firearms within the city limits. This means if you see a Chink or a deer in town—don't shoot! You might wind up in court.

ROMANCE: In Yugoslavia

The invitations read: "Marshal Josip Broz Tito and Mrs. Jovanka Broz invite..."

Thus, in sending out invitations to a reception for British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, did Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito coyly make known to the world his three-month-old marriage to a woman major in his army.

Tito, 60 years old, and his bride, who is 28, kept their marriage secret for three months, indicating that the Yugoslav ruler, like his former friend, Stalin, considers his private life no business of the public or the press, and maintains a rigid curtain of secrecy around all of his more personal interests.

The Yugoslav government released a few details on Mrs. Broz "for information" purposes. She is a tall, very dark and handsome 28-year-old Yugoslav army major, student and ex-partisan fighter. She met Tito earlier this year while serving in his secretariat. Her maiden name is Budisavljevic. She is Tito's third wife, and he has two sons by his two previous marriages.

OUR DEBT: Still Growing

It isn't exactly news, but the U.S. debt is continuing to grow.

The Commerce Department reports that net public and private debt increased 53 billion dollars in 1951, reaching 519 billions by the end of the year.

Private debt rose 31 billion dollars, and the debt of state and local governments 2.5 billions. The net debt of the federal government showed virtually no change for the second successive year. Thus, the federal debt stood at 219 billion dollars at the close of 1951.

Interpreting its report, the department said that the increase in debt was accompanied by "a general growth in economic activity and a record volume of business and individual investment."

There were some hard-headed economists who were prone to diagnose the increased debt plus the accompanying phenomena described by the Commerce Department as an acute case of inflation.

The department also reported that total farm debt amounted to 13.3 billion dollars at the end of the year—an increase of 11 per cent.

GRANGE NOTES

Juan de Fuca Grange Observes Booster Night

Delmon Anderson, Master of Juan de Fuca Grange at Oak Harbor, welcomed many guests and members at the Grange Booster Night program, Tuesday evening.

Bernie Loers gave the history of the Grange, and enumerated many projects it has instituted, such as land grant colleges with agricultural courses, extension service, rural free delivery of mail, etc.

Dean Davis and Johnny Blattman played as a clarinet-accordion duet, the "Little Dutch Mill" and other numbers.

Sara Zinkweg, International Farm Youth Exchange Student, entertained her listeners with a description of farm practices in Holland, and her impressions of this country. There, she said, milking machines are taken by tractor to the cows in the field, rather than bringing the cows to the machine.

In Holland, Miss Zinkweg stated, farms are passed from father to son, and there is little trading in farm property. This may be because there are so many people, and a limited amount of farm land, she said. There is the work of reclaiming land flooded during the war, and much land is being reclaimed from the Zuider Zee.

Miss Zinkweg had little to say of politics in her country, but was playing it safe in this country by wearing both a donkey and an elephant button.

As to dress, she said they wear much the same clothes as in this country. There is six weeks vacation from school in her country. In school, among other things, they must learn the King's English, French, German, and their own language. She said she is through high school, but used to ride her bicycle 12 miles to school.

Regarding foods, she said ice cream was new to her, and while she likes it, she probably prefers the puddings of her homeland. At any rate, she purchased as old time crank ice cream freezer and sent it home. They have ice, but no refrigerators. She said their basements are cool, and food is kept in them.

Her favorite sports are swimming and skating.

Turkey sandwiches, coffee and cake was served at the close of the evening.

Deer hunting starts Sunday. Don't shoot 'til you're sure!

Deputy Skarberg Finds An Auto

On Saturday evening, George Stockholm of Clinton stopped at the Fir Tree Inn for a bite to eat. When he came out of the Inn—no car! He feared it had been stolen and immediately reported it to the Sheriff's office.

In a short time, Sheriff Clark had 30 Deputies looking for the car, and maintaining road blocks from Deception Pass to Columbia Beach, and the Keystone Ferry. He also had notified the State Patrol at Everett, and police departments from Mount Vernon, south.

About 11:30 that night, Deputy Gus Skarberg returned home from the hunt—to find Stockholm's car in his field! The brakes had loosened, and allowed the car to roll 200 yards down the hill, across the highway, through some brush, and landed in a six-foot hole. A little more, and it would have gone over the bank, and into the drink.

OPENS SERVICE STATION

Kenneth Brooks is the manager of the Union Oil service station in Coupeville, which opened for business last Saturday.

Mr. Brooks is well known in the town, and throughout the county, having lived here about eight years. At various times he drove a dairy truck and bakery truck, which gave him a wide acquaintance.

Post Office Examination

Federal Civil Service announces an examination for Substitute Clerk ($1.615 an hour), to fill vacancies in the Post Office Service at Coupeville. Applicants must actually reside within the delivery of the Coupeville Post Office or be bona fide patrons of that office. Persons employed in the Coupeville Post Office will be considered bona fide patrons of the office.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at any first- or second-class post office, or from the Director, whose address follows.

Applications should be filed with the Director, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service Region, 302 Federal Office Building, Seattle 4, Washington, immediately—and not later than the close of business on Nov. 3rd.

RADIO PROGRAMS

TO AIR EKREM STORY

The story of "First Find the Fingers," recounting the John Ekrem case, will be heard on the "Official Detective" program over the national hook-up of the Mutual broadcasting system, Oct. 19th, from 3 until 3:30 p. m.

In this area KVI in Seattle, or KRKO in Everett are the Mutual Don Lee stations.

On Oct. 20th, 6:15 p. m., on the KRKO news broadcast from Everett, will be heard the presentation of a beautiful Benrus watch to Sheriff Tommy Clark, on behalf of "Official Detective Stories," magazine.

OAK HARBOR SCHOOLS

PANTHERS TAKE GAME FROM MOUNT VERNON

The Oak Harbor grade school Panthers beat Mount Vernon last Friday at football, by a score of 34 to 12.

The Panthers made their touchdowns all through the game, but Mount Vernon scored their two touchdowns in a fourth quarter rally. Before the game was over, all the players on the Oak Harbor team had been on the field.

The Panthers will play Sedro-Woolley here this Friday, at 1:00 o'clock, in Memorial Stadium.

FAREWELL PARTY

Saturday evening, September 4, a going-away party was given for Judy Pinyon. There were about 30 young people present, and Judy received many wonderful gifts.

Games were played and then refreshments of punch and cookies were served. A little dancing was enjoyed, and then it was time to say good-bye.

Mrs. Joe D'Amico and Mrs. Charlie McGreevy were present.

Friday, October 3rd, was LaConner's Homecoming game. The Braves lost to the Oak Harbor Wildcats, 26-6.

Dwight Webber is back in school in the eighth grade. When he left here, he was in the fifth.

Another Jerry Smith started in school here Tuesday. He is also in the eighth grade.

Frank Long, our No. 1 subscriber, has moved his family to Amanda Park, on the Peninsula. Frank has a custodial job there.

Sue Ann Everett spent from last Thursday until Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Engvald Lundgaard in LaConner, while her parents were in Seattle.

'Could This Be You?'

Saturday afternoon Robert Jennerjohn went to sleep and ran off the road on the new detour skirting Ault Field. His car took out about 30 feet of the cyclone fence.

Deputy Sheriff Ben Sands investigated an auto wreck on Camano Island, late Monday evening. He found Norm Lee Koop lying on the ground unconscious, and Leslie Cooley in the car in a similar condition. The Deputy brought the men to Coupeville, where they spent the night as the guests of the Sheriff. Koop charged with negligent driving and Cooley with drunkenness. They posted appearance bail Tuesday.

Youth Exchange Student Talks to Lion Members

At last week's meeting of the Coupeville Lions Club, Miss Sara Zinkweg of Holland gave a very interesting talk on conditions in Holland, and compared them with things in the United States. Miss Zinkweg is a Youth Exchange Student.

Lion Pat Wanamaker was appointed to contact a name band for a harvest dance to be given by the Coupeville Lions Club during the latter part of October, or the first of November.

Lion Edwin Sherman was designated a representative of the Lions Club to the Civilian Defense meeting at Oak Harbor, October 13th.

Lion Mark Swoyer was appointed chairman of the March of Dimes drive for the Coupeville area. Lion Harry Palmerston of Langley is the county chairman for the drive.

The Club will sponsor a blood donation on Friday, November 13.

The Barnett family has moved into the house in the block east of Ye Olde Tymme Printie Shoppe.

SCANNING THE NEWS

Guided Missile Era at Hand

The international armaments race has become, in part at least, a grim game of "button-button, who's got the push-button?"

That much became apparent when the U.S. Navy released a story of a robot attack on a Korean military target on September 1.

An outmoded airplane, brimming with electronic devices, was launched by catapult from the deck of an aircraft carrier off the Korean coast, escorted by radio controls to its target and then aimed at a heavily defended spot into which no plane with a human pilot dared to go.

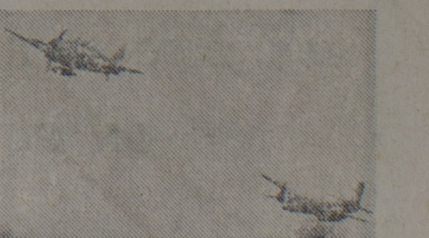

A television camera had been installed in the cockpit of the robot plane, whose historic flight thereby was witnessed from beginning to end on a TV screen on the ship.

Lt. Cmdr. Lawrence A. Kurtz, who directed the first robot plane attack, says that the U.S. has enough such guided missiles on hand to carry out a large-scale robot campaign in Korea.

But, like the atomic bomb—as the U.S. learned to its dismay—the development of guided missiles is not a one-way street for any nation.

For example, where does Russia stand with respect to this new field of war weapons? It is a blunt fact that many high Western military officials believe the USSR may be ahead of the United States.

This theory is predicated on the known fact that the Reds captured plans for the German V-1 and V-2 rockets during World War II; and a number of V-1 missiles sent against London were "guided," although they lacked the added refinement of television. Moreover, photographs of recent Soviet warships show what appear to be platforms for guided missiles.

Another aspect of the situation is the strong possibility that the U.S. has advanced much farther in its robot bomb development than is indicated on the surface by the revelation of the actually rather crude robot-converted planes.

A leading mailorder concern has circulated boxholders in this vicinity the past week, inviting requests for the big fall catalog.

Why? We'll tell you one reason. Mailorder firms have men going about the country, checking territory. A copy of the old home newspaper is secured. If it is found the local merchants are on their toes, and their wares are advertised in the local paper, that town becomes an address to which catalogs are only mailed on special request, or to old customers spending at least $10 a year with the company.

If, on the other hand, few of the business houses in a town are represented in their paper, and those with small, uninviting ads—that town goes on the list for catalogs to every boxholder. Get next!

To make this YOUR PAPER, a paper representative of all the people in this territory, we need more of YOUR NEWS—Comings, Goings & Doings—that sort of thing. Also more school and organization news. Send it in, bring it in, or mail it. We are not mind readers.

Also, if you appreciate a free and independent press, your subscription is one way of achieving just that. Don't wait for us to come right out and ask you for it. Bring or send it in!

Neither the Town of Coupeville nor Prairie Center would assume any past obligations of the other, under the annexation proposal.

THE LOW DOWN

HICKORY GROVE

I will expound this week on what I have dug up in my research into "What is the middle of the road?" This middle of the road business is the present day mode of approach by just about everybody running for any kind of office, from senator to mayor, up and down the line and crosswise. I will proceed, and for the gents who are the candidates it will pay 'em to listen close. If they dilly dally there in the middle of the road they will soon be losing a fender, at the very least, and more than likely it will be a head-on—and disaster. You can't drive right down the middle, or balance water on both shoulders, with safety—for long.

There is only one answer to any question—it is "yes" or it is "no"—it is not a smart alec beatin' around the bush that is wanted. Most voters have been around—they, too, like your Uncle Josephus, are not a 100% yokel all the time—it is just part of the time. This is the year the voters may become weary and lower the boom on double talk.

So to you office seeking gentry, I offer you this sagebrush sage advice—it is my good turn for today—your chances will be brighter if you take heed. Say "yes" or say "no"—get out of the middle of the road before you get run over.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

A FREE PRESS GUARANTEES YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."—Article I, Bill of Rights.

Your Right to Know . . . A Constitutional Guarantee.

No! Not the publisher's, the editor's, nor the reporter's right to know, but You—the Newspaper Reader, the citizen, the man-in-the-street . . . it's You, the individual, that the Constitution guarantees the right to know. That is an important difference in meaning that has been too often overlooked by newspaper people.

As Theodore A. Serrill, general manager of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association, put it: "Instead of languishing in smug contentment, fortified in the misbelief of press freedom as a personal compliment, more newspaper publishers and editors should wake up to the fact that Press Freedom is not a personal compliment—it is a personal responsibility. It belongs to the people. But it's the newspapers' job to preserve it. That is the first big objective of National Newspaper Week."—The Bridgeport Chief.

ULTIMA THULE:
Arctic Air Base

Back in the misty period when Leif Erickson and other intrepid Vikings were roaming the northern seas, Ultima Thule was an awe-inspiring term meaning "farthest land of the world."

But earthly distances have contracted so much since then that we are almost unimpressed when we hear today that a huge strategic air base has been constructed by the U.S. only 930 miles from the North Pole.

The name of the base is, of course, Thule. It straddles the polar air routes over which long-range bombing attacks could be carried in a future war.

Thule air base, which sprawls over 90,000 acres on the rugged western tip of Greenland, is not yet completed, but it is the ready and working northern-most outpost of United States jet fighter defense and an obvious staging ground for Air Force intercontinental bombers.

It is situated at a point 2,752 miles from Moscow, 3,199 from Omsk, 3,267 to Stalinsk, and 4,115 to Vladivostok.

If the Russians have anything comparable to such an advanced Arctic base, such layouts are supposed generally to be located in the Franz Josef Land group of islands, which lie on the other side of the North Pole.

Thule air base has been scraped out in the past 18 months from a few square miles of one of the infrequent sizable flat areas along Greenland's jagged west coast.

SALMON FISHERMEN CATCH THEM TOO BIG

Men in a skiff from the purse seiner "Radiant" were almost startled out of their fishing boots off Whidbey the other day when two whales showed up in their net and started to "boil". They didn't know what was coming up at first.

One whale tore a six-foot hole as it took off through the side of the net, and the other sounded and went out through the bottom.—Puget Sound Mail.
