OAK HARBOR, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1959

NUMBER 40

PROVING THAT OAK HARBOR has it "all over" Los Angeles, San Francisco and other cities where eggs have been fried on the streets during hot spells, Reke Zylstra, Pioneer Department Store owner tried his hand at the chamber-of-commerce-type promotion in downtown Oak Harbor on Saturday, our "hottest day." Unofficial temperatures were 90 degrees. Zylstra, clad in apron and all ready with egg turner, took his failure hard, but said it was worth it to know he couldn't fry an egg on the sidewalk without a blowtorch.—Whidbey Press photo

Whidbey sizzles as mercury soars

North Whidbey, like the rest of Puget Sound, sweltered in unusually high temperatures this past week, with high honors awarded on Saturday, July 18, with 87 degrees reported at Coupeville, 90 degrees (unofficial) at Oak Harbor, and a cool 82 degrees at Ault Field Naval Air Station.

The weather forecast was for fair and continued warm although the barometer began falling Monday evening.

Despite the unusually high temperatures, a cool breeze fanned the island during afternoons.

The weather at Coupeville (Ebey's Prairie) is reported by Ralph Engle, Government cooperative weatherman, and is usually several degrees warmer than the report from Aerology, Naval Air Station.

The Ebey's Prairie "high" for the past week is as follows: July 15, 65; July 16, 74; July 17, 78; 18th, 82 19th, 78; and 20th 76 degrees.

Unofficially in Oak Harbor, the temperature reached 90 degrees on Saturday and Sunday, and lessened to 89 on Monday. At Ault Field, the coolest part of the island, the Navy reported the following temperatures: July 15, 65 degrees; 16th, 74; 17th, 78; 18th, 82; 19th, 78; and 20th, 76 degrees.

No appreciable amount of rain has fallen in July of this year, a total of 21 inches recorded by Engle for July 1, 3, and 5.

Ruby Weaver resigns post, new city treasurer picked

Mrs. Polly Dyer, (Mrs. Norman) has been appointed to fill the position of Oak Harbor city treasurer by Mayor Ray Maylor. Mrs. Dyer will fill the elective position left vacant by the resignation of Miss Ruby Weaver, who plans to continue as librarian. Routine Election of city treasurer will take place in 1960.

Mrs. Dyer is well qualified to fill the position, having had two years of college accounting and two years experience bookkeeping, as well as being familiar with most types of business machines.

Mrs. Dyer, whose home was in Jacksonville, Florida, is married to Norman Dyer, local boy who is employed by the Oak Harbor Postal service. The couple have two little girls, Dawn, 5, and Debby, 4.

The new treasurer's office has been temporarily set up in the council room until the new city building is completed. Hours are from 9 to 12 noon, and those wishing to see the city treasurer on business are asked to take note of the hours she will be on duty.

Sue guesses her great uncle -

Jackpot Hits all time high

Out of 602 entries the one of Sue Carskadden, grand-niece of the personality of the week, Dr. Henry A. Carskadden, was chosen in the ninth Who's Who contest being conducted by the Whidbey Press. Next week the jackpot jumps to $195.

Sue received only $7.50 because she had one clue too many. She included "Arthur Godfrey" which was a bona fide part of the Oak Harbor Pharmacy ad, and not a clue.

Correct clues were 165 lbs., Henry, 1500, babies, FAVORITE OF GLADYS', HAC, Maverick is favorite, Went to D. C. for the hospital, born in Williamsport, Pa., sweet, kind, generous Birthday July 6, retired but not tired.

Once again there were more correct answers than wrong ones. This contest brought many new names of folks finding it's fun to play whether they win or not.

Many included 'Enjoy it at the Pastime' because they saw something different in Mom Cook's ad. Mom Cook moved from Marketown to the Pastime so her ad was changed. From time to time there may be such changes in the sponsoring merchants' ads.

Nothing disturbed the following experts, however, who came up with perfect scores, from Coupeville, Vaughan, Hedstrom, Franzen, McCaffery, Ratcliff, Spangler, Rhodes, Stoddard, Edwards, Bainbridge, Cook, Solid, Libbey, Bailey, Meadors, Wilson, House, Harpole and Davies.

These were the unconquered from Oak Harbor: Dyer, Van Dyk, Bodin, Hanson, Jensen, Kirk, Neff, Case Lange, Walter Beekman, Aucutt, Pollard, Maylor, Cozine, Eerkes, Eaton, Rieppma, Zubrod, Houghtaling, Lang, Lange, Maletich, Krieg, Ernst, Schulz, Cays, Wong, Smith, Stuart, Hoebeck, Burns, Vanderzicht, Honeycomb, Carber, Emberton, Bowman, Wright, Ernst, Quinn, Cogdill, Cheney, Wichers, Zylstra, Long, White, Heller, Purcell, Garrett, Baxley, Walker, Boyer, E. I. K. m. a., Vannice, Schooler, Kay, Davies, Pantano.

The crew at the Prop Wash did better than the editor, Ernie Sutton, whose entry, tidy as it was, couldn't be listed with the Little Miss Terry Ann Long drew the winning entry Monday afternoon at Brown Lumber Co. 100 percenters.

Oak Harbor hot, but not enough to fry an egg

Reke Zylstra, Pioneer Department Store owner, and former Mayor of Oak Harbor collaborated with the Oak Harbor News this week to prove that Oak Harbor enjoys the most temperate weather on the West Coast.

Zylstra donned a cook's apron, and armed with spatula, attempted to fry an egg on the sidewalk in front of his store on Pioneer Way, where "in the shade" temperatures were recorded at 90 degrees Saturday. (See picture.)

Although the egg didn't fry, the experiment was a success. It proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that Oak Harbor's hottest day isn't equal to the hot days recorded annually in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland, where sidewalk-egg frying doesn't even create a stir any more.

Had the egg fried, chamber of commerce-minded citizens could have taken refuge in the thought that those cities didn't have anything on Oak Harbor when it came to summer.

"OH Night" auditions August 4

"Oak Harbor Night at the Fair" talent auditions will be held at the USO building on August 4 at 8 p.m. and anyone interested in participating in the Oak Harbor program is asked to do so.

Clint Anderson, who will emcee the program, will also conduct several professional acts to augment the local entertainment.

Sponsors of the Oak Harbor Night are local businessmen who will be solicited soon for a contribution for this important county event.

The committee on Oak Harbor Night at the Fair will meet again August 10 at the City hall.

Four win prizes at Brown Lumber

Several hundred people were present during the event to hear factory representatives answer building and painting questions, and to inspect the up to date materials. Coffee, lemonade, cake, and cookies were served, and souvenir balloons given to the children.

Plans to improve road fail -

Plat accepted, road 'existing'

County commissioners, sitting in a stormy session at the continuance of the public hearing on the Glencairn plat of Surf 'n Sands development Friday, voted unanimously to accept the plat despite the fact that provision is made for only a thirty foot county road through the plat at the beach edge.

County Engineer George Norris read his official report on the road "survey" requested July 6 by the commissioners. In this report, Norris said that he could not recommend that the Surf 'n Sands development give land for widening the county road at this place or for rebuilding and recommended then that "if the road cannot be vacated, that the plat be accepted with the existing road."

At the July 6 hearing, in which commissioners voted, under public pressure not to vacate the half-mile portion of county road in exchange for a new road built some distance from the waterfront, much concern was felt by those attending the meeting as to acquisition of additional land for widening or rebuilding this scenic highway.

It was felt then that if the Glencairn Plat was accepted by the county before provision was made to widen or rebuild the

Lots of sunshine and half of the summer remaining looks good to youngsters taking part in the Red Cross Swim program at City beach, and all that remains is for the tides to cooperate, said Mrs. Edna Jensen, city recreation director this week.

As it appears now, there will be only 20 swimming days left, when the tides are suitable, and an intensified program will go into effect immediately.

The swimming program for next week is given as follows: Monday July 27, Tuesday, July 28, and Wednesday July 29:

Lighthouse site of Historical Society picnic

The annual picnic of the Island County Historical Society will be held on Sunday July 26 at the Fort Casey lighthouse at 1 p.m. A picnic will be enjoyed, with cake and coffee served by members of the group. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

The lighthouse, which is being converted into a museum by the State Parks and Recreation, has a picnic site set aside next to the building, with tables, and water and restrooms installed. Signs on the highway will direct people to the Fort Casey road, and other signs at Fort Casey will direct picnickers to the road to the State park site.

Snohomish Centennial this week

Pioneers of a 100 years ago would certainly not recognize the town of Snohomish were they granted the privilege of returning for centennial week July 21 through 26.

One of the main attractions of the festivities is a 90 minute pageant premiering July 22 at the High School Stadium, and appropriately named, "From Ox Team to Jet Stream."

Depicting events during the last 100 years, the pageant will begin before the introduction of the white man to the Snohomish Valley and present scenes of the first school, church, facets of the gay 90's, First World War, roaring 20's World War II, and end with the Atomic age. All scenes are reported to be acted out authentically and months of preparation and rehearsal have gone into their production.

The pageant will continue through until Saturday, July 25. Each evening's performance will be climaxed with a 15 minute fireworks display.

PARK SUPERINTENDENT Harry Walker stands at the end of the "road going nowhere" in the Cornet Bay portion of the State Park, which Washington State Parks and Recreation has requested from the county in order to open this mile of beach for picnic area and boat landing ramps. The road originally led to the Deception Pass ferry landing, has not been used as such since the building of the bridge in 1935. —WPP

County replies to state Parks road request

This week the Oak Harbor News received a copy of a letter from the Island County Commissioners to the State Parks and Recreation Commission in answer to a request from the State Parks for vacation of the dead-end mile of county road running through Deception Pass State Park to the old abandoned ferry landing.

Gentlemen:

We have on file a letter from Mr. John R. Vanderzicht dated June 30, 1959, which reads in part:

"On behalf of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, I wish to request that the portion of county road from the entrance to the Cornet Bay area of Deception Pass State Park to the end of this road, which is the old abandoned ferry landing, be vacated."

The Island County Board of County Commissioners will be glad to cooperate with the State Parks and Recreation Commission to have this old road vacated, providing the new relocated road will go to the beach at the old ferry landing, with a large turnaround, and will be open to the public at all times, which means twenty-four hours a day - every day of the year.

Respectfully yours,
Island County Board of County Commissioners

Jack Meeter, Island County Commissioner, has maintained that he did not favor vacation of this road to the State Parks because it would then be under State Parks regulations, excluding the public except for standard hours.

Meeter also said that he favored the continuance of a new re-located road around the north end of the Island to Troxell's landing, giving the public a road of unparalleled scenery.

PETE ROODZANT

Victory, defeat, the battle continues —

Island County residents still own the scenic waterfront road from San de Fuca to Penn Cove. This was the first outcome of a battle which began July 6 at a public hearing held at the courthouse, in which Islanders seemingly convinced the county commissioners that indiscriminate giving-away of our scenic roads is not to be taken lightly.

The action was a jolt to the promoter of the development, since he had been given to understand that the exchange of the scenic road for another road, built to county specifications, would be only a formality. Time and money was expended to build the new road before the public became aware of the assumed transaction, and the about-face of the commission decision was a blow to the development.

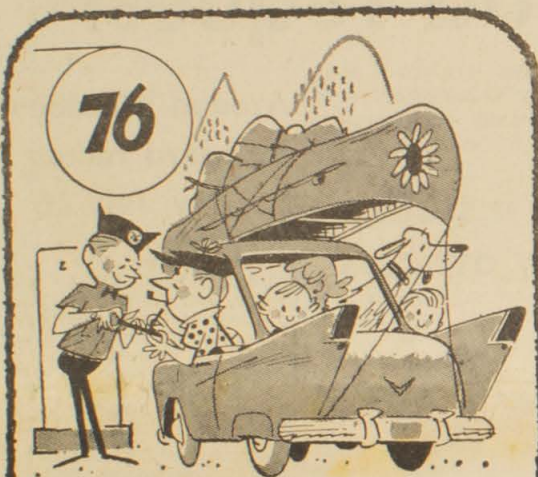

The continuation of the hearing on July 17, which held the future of the scenic road as to improvement, widening and grading, saw the Islanders' cause go down to defeat.

In a cut-and-dried "public hearing" the county engineer refused to recommend that the scenic road be improved in any way. The promoter of the development stated flatly that he would not give a foot of property for widening the road. The plat of Glencairn was accepted by the commission with the county road "AS IS."

North Whidbey's commissioner, holding tight to the middle of the top rail of the fence, bowed first to the people by refusing the vacation of the road; then to the promoter of the development by refusing to ask for one single foot of property to widen and improve the county road which he personally had claimed was narrow and dangerous.

The other two commissioners, from South Whidbey and Camano, went along in a congenial manner with the commissioner in whose district the road was located.

Canning season is like final exams. If you've done everything right all year long, no need to worry about the tests. Some day I hope to get a good grade. Last year I flunked. Also the year before that.

Perhaps the reason I do so poorly is that I decide each year that I won't can any more. Watch the specials in the ads, I say to myself, and you'll get along just as well. But each year I don't reckon with my proven-don't-conscience family.

They all have packrat tendencies. They also like to pick berries.

When the "fresh" fruit sits around long enough that the kitchen takes on a fermented odor, I decide to take my final examination. My grading system goes like this:

Did I buy peanut butter in uniform jars with nice wide lids all year long, or did I buy skinny narrow and squat ones with no thought of later use? Did I buy sherbet ice cream in plastic buckets or in cartons? How many potato salad containers did I save? All I can find are a bunch of cobwebbed cheese cartons, a few chipped shot glasses, slightly dusty paper cups and some empty olive jars. Got a grade of C- on preparation (After all, I'm being fair with myself and I did have something on hand.)

Now for the next. All I have in my cupboard is one bottle of Certo and one package of pectin. Both left over from years gone by. I put on my glasses to read the directions. How can these two things be used together? No help from the manufacturer. Humph. He would never countenance such goings-on. I check a favorite cookbook, become involved in soda and sour milk substitutes but absolutely nothing on pectin. Decide to make one batch with Certo and one with the powdered stuff. Grade: C-.

I gather up all the sugar in the house including the lumps from the best sugar bowl. I'm ready. Grade: c plus.

I start by ladling out the smashed berries. Only one measuring cup so I have to wash the darned thing before I can begin on the sugar. Well I learned something. Next time I'll measure the sugar first. Got a D on this one.

I choose a very large cooking vessel for my four cups of sugared berries. (Ha, I chuckle, they won't catch me here. How dumb do they think I am? Every year the messy stuff goes over on that "rolling boil". But not with this cooking pan.) So while the berries are cooking I mop up the sticky floor, always keeping one eye on the bubbling mass, and stopping to stir. Then I put away the mop, rush back, but I'm too late. Of course it rolled right over the top. It always has and it always will. Containers were never made big enough for four cups of berries and five cups of sugar. I clean up the stove as I chalk down a big F on my score card.

I would have gotten an A on "skimming" but I inadvertently pushed over the dish containing the fluffy pink scum when it became obscured by my overly large cooking container.

Now I fill up my wild assortment of ex-cheese and olive jars, ex-potato salad buckets, exsherbet containers and ex-diet cottage cheese cartons. All of a sudden I remember the funnel I got at the hospital auction. Now this would certainly be the time for that little gem. I fumble in the drawer. Oh yes, just yesterday I put it away in a box—for the next hospital auction. A D again.

I begin on the next batch swearing I'll get a good grade on this set-up. I use my clean measuring cup on the sugar FIRST, scoop out five cups and then without having to wash the cup, I gleefully start scooping out the berries. Gracious sakes, all that sugar and I'm one cup short of berries. Can't very well go to the neighbors to borrow a cup of strawberries. I remember. I have some jam in the freezer that didn't jell last year. I dump that in and grade myself. A D this time. After all, I had initiative, didn't I?

Now for my over-all grade. I check the kitchen table. Pretty messy, pretty cluttered. The floor is red and sticky again. I check the product. Some jars are all liquid, some are all fruit. Some will jell, some won't; some sparkle others don't. Some are a mess all over the outside. Better give myself a D—for the course.

But just then the family walks in. "Oh look," they say, "Mom made some jam, didn't know she could."

"It'll never be as good as Myrtle's." "Nonsense," says their father. "Instead of running it down, help your mother. Each take a jar and put it in the freezer."

"Oh no you don't," I exploded. "I want to gloat for awhile. After all, things are picking up. I flunked last year."

Farm wheat allotment mailed to growers

Wheat growers of Island county can expect to receive their 1960 acreage allotments through the mail this week. Chairman Wilbur Sherman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced.

These allotments are being mailed now so farmers will have them in advance of the July 23 referendum, at which growers throughout the county will decide whether to market their 1960 wheat under the same quota system that has been in effect for several years.

The 1960 farm allotment will be about the same as it was last year. It represents the individual farm's share of the national wheat allotment, which will continue next year at the minimum of 55 million acres permitted by law.

If marketing quotas go into effect for the 1960 wheat crop as a result of two-thirds approval in the coming referendum, the allotment becomes a factor in determining compliance with marketing quotas. The farmer who keeps within his allotment may market his entire wheat production without penalty. The farmer who is over his allotment will ordinarily be subject to a penalty on the normal production of his excess acres.

An exception to this general rule is that any farmer may produce up to 15 acres of wheat without penalty. Also, a farmer with an allotment of less than 30 acres may apply for a feed wheat exemption and, if it is approved, may produce up to 30 acres of wheat to be used on the farm where grown.

The farmer who complies with his wheat allotment is eligible for price support, either with or without marketing quotas in effect. The acreage allotment is also a factor in Soil Bank compliance and the determination of future wheat allotments.

Compliance with the allotment is required of any farmer participating in the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank. The farmer who exceeds his allotment produces more than 15 acres of wheat and is not participating in the feed wheat program is ineligible for Conservation Reserve payments.

For purposes of establishing future allotments, the farmer who complies with his 1960 wheat allotment receives credit for his full wheat base and thus gets credit for the acreage diverted from wheat. The farmer who exceeds his allotment receives no credit for the diverted acreage unless he stores his excess wheat under marketing quota regulations or delivers it to the government.

Any farmer who has questions about his 1960 wheat allotment should take them up with the staff of the county office as soon as possible after the allotment is received, Sherman said.

There must be other words. In newspaper parlance, the BANDIT FLEES, is NABBED while DISTRAUGHT wife is APPREHENDED. Cops invariably NAB the varmint. DISTRAUGHT always applies to wives or mothers, and a criminal wouldn't think of leaving the scene of a crime under any method of removal other than FLEEING.

The police might ARREST a criminal, but APPREHEND and NAB include a suggestion of pouncing out of nowhere to hiss "I gotcha!", handcuffs, shake-down and all.

A bandit can always make a get-away, but get-away doesn't always fit into a headline. Flee fits. Hence, bandit flees, cop nabs, and only the female is apprehended in a distraught condition. Oh well, the woman is secondary since Eve, and therefore can be mentioned in two and three syllable words farther along in the story. Headlines are for the men.

And brevity is the soul of it.

The world is apparently going to the dogs, and Smokey, the Noble Dog is depressed over the prospect of having the responsibility of it. That, and coupled with the furor created every once in a while by unfeeling people who recommend drastic measures against delinquent dogs.

However, in this field comes a crusader. Charlotte Paul, author of "Minding our own Business" and co-publisher of the Snoqualmie Valley newspaper, says that the reason there are delinquent dogs is that their owners don't stay home and take care of them.

Which can be likened to the parallel which says delinquent kids often result from working mothers, and now WE are depressed.

Move over, Smokey.

India "IFYE" trip cancelled

Island County Times readers ALMOST got to read an interesting story about Betty Jo Schreiber sailing for India on the S. S. United States August 14. That is, until a bitterly disappointed young lady walked in to the Times office Wednesday just before deadline time and said that she had just received word via Washington that India had cancelled all participation in the IFYE and her trip along with it.

Betty, who has spent many long hours during the past months studying the Hindustani language and religiously poring over books on India recommended by the State Department, is now offered the alternate of going to Formosa, Chiang Kai Shek's free China island fortress.

"Since it is probably a case of either going to Formosa or not getting to go anywhere," Betty ruefully remarked, "I accepted and will probably get definite word in a day or so."

Upland birds to be scarce this season

Despite an earlier feeling of optimism, game men are now convinced that upland birds of the state are not showing in the numbers usually seen at this time of year.

As reports from game biologists from all over the state continue to point towards a below normal survival of game bird broods, it is evident that the coming season will not provide the outstanding bird shooting that existed last fall.

The success, which means ultimate survival to adult size, of the upland bird nesting season depends upon many factors, chief of which is a combination of cold and dampness. This does not necessarily mean heavy precipitation, but prolonged cool, moist periods inevitably result in losses of the newly hatched birds of the game species.

Unlike song birds, the pheasant, chukar, and other upland birds, do not feed their young. For the first two or three critical weeks after hatching the youngsters exist almost entirely upon insects which they find themselves. The mother will protect them, herd them around, and generally do all she can for them, but they must find their own food. Cool, damp weather does not bring about a good insect hatch, and the young birds often literally starve.

Last year's record breaking bird harvest followed an almost ideal nesting season, so far as weather conditions were involved. Continuous warm, dry weather allowed an excellent survival of the chicks, and a resultant heavy crop of mature birds made the 1958 season the best on record in Washington.

Summer is high country time

At mid-July, most of the high lakes of Washington's mountain regions are clear of ice and snow, and available to hikers who enjoy wonderful scenery with their fishing.

Both the Cascades and the Olympics are dotted with lakes which normally remain ice covered from 8 to 9 months each year. However, when summer finally reaches the high country, these waters offer some of the finest recreation in our state.

The Department of Game annually plants many thousands of trout in the back-country lakes, using 2 airplanes for this work. The trout are released when quite small, generally running between about 500 to 900 to the pound. At this size, they suffer no injury when dropped into a high lake.

These modern trout stocking methods have resulted in hundreds of lakes being available with trout waiting for the mountain angler, many of which, in earlier days, contained no fish.

Good trails lead into the majority of the high country areas, and the hiker should obtain a map of the region he wishes to visit and become familiar with points of interest as well as his objective. More experienced persons "brush-whack" a cross country, leaving the trails to explore new areas.

Rainbow, cutthroat, eastern brook, and Montana Black Spot trout are the principal species found in Washington's high lakes. All are game fish, and provide tasty campfire dinners for the mountain fisherman.

Hippocrates was the first doctor to take mental condition into consideration in observing a patient.

Babe Ruth Cards still undefeated

It was the same old story in last week's Babe Ruth League baseball action with the first-half champion Cardinals continuing along undefeated. The Cards turned back the Pirates on Tuesday by a score of 13 to 4, and came back on Thursday to edge the White Sox 4 to 3.

White Sox 20, Braves 0
The White Sox ran up the highest scoring total of the season on Monday evening as they trounced the Braves 20 to 0. Dennis Maylor and Gary Eerkes combined to pitch the three hit shut out.

Dale Birge of the winners had the longest hit of the game, a triple. Eerkes and Paul Cope chipped in with doubles for the Sox.

Braves 0 3 3
White Sox 20 10 0
D. Valentine, Doman, Sommerfeld and Weindl. Maylor, Eerkes and Birge.

Cardinals 13, Pirates 4
The Cardinals registered just two hits in their top-sided win over the Pirates on Tuesday, but took advantage of twelve walks and six errors to run up their total of 13 runs. A triple by Ole Carlson and a single by George Gamble were the only safeties by the Cardinals.

Ron Baker and Dick Faris had triples for the losing Pirates.
Pirates 4 6 6
Cardinals 13 2 1
D. Faris and Judson. Ellis and Sannebeck.

Braves 3, Pirates 2
Scott Doman and Don Valentine teamed to pitch a two-hitter to give the Braves their 3 to 2 win over the pirates in Wednesday's contest. Doman also picked up a pair of singles to lead the Braves at the plate. Dick ad Bill Faris, with a single apiece, had the only two hits registered by the Pirates.

Pirates 2 2 2
Braves 3 5 0
Fakkema and Judson. D. Valentine, Doman and Weindl.

Cardinals 4, White Sox 3
Ole Carlson boomed out a triple and a home run in leading the Cards to their narrow win over the White Sox on Thursday. Each team got but four hits in the tightly-played contest. Dennis Maylor matched Carlson's long hit when he registered a round-tripper for the losing Sox.
White Sox 3 4 2
Cardinals 4 4 1
Elvebak, Maylor and Birge. Smith, Gamble and Sannebeck.

Hi-Stars schedule two games this week

Oak Harbor's Hi-Stars, a team made up of high school and Babe Ruth League baseball players, have two games scheduled for the latter part of this week at Memorial stadium. The Hi-Stars are coached by Sid Parker, Oak Harbor High School baseball mentor.

On Friday evening the Hi-Stars will tangle with a group of local high school alumni athletes in a contest set for 6 p.m. Last Friday evening the 'Stars' downed the Alumni in the first of the two game series by a score of 15 to 14.

SATURDAY afternoon Parker's athletes will entertain the Shelton American Leabn Jr.

Excellent fishing at Ross Lake

Ross lake, in the upper Skagit river, opened to fishing on July 1, and has been producing some excellent catches of rainbow, cut-throat and Dolly Varden trout.

Stream anglers are also beginning to find favorite waters getting into shape for good fishing. Spring snow run-off waters appeared to be generally about three weeks behind schedule this year, and many streams are just now beginning to be productive.

Lowland lakes are in many cases showing signs of the summer doldrums, although the amazing waters of north-central Washington are still furnishing fish dinners to persistent anglers.

Kiowas top in Minors

The Kiowas took over undisputed possession of first place in Minor League standings as they won a close, well played game from the Apaches by a score of 5 to 4 on Monday evening at the Homaja Field. The Kiowas and Apaches had previously been tied for first in league play with one loss apiece.

Kiowas 24, Cheyenne 7
The Kiowas opened last weeks action with a 24 to 7 win over the Cheyenne. Billy Mallams shared the pitching chores for the winning Kiowas and Waller and Tim Rowand handled the catching. Bob Tallon was on the mound for the Cheyenne with Billy Olson behind the plate.

Apache 4, Sioux 2
The Apaches downed the Sioux in last Wednesday's Minor League contest by a score of 4 to 2. Steve Hayes and Mike Garner shared the pitching load for the Apaches with Mike Speer catching. Burt was on the mound for the Sioux with Claude Spener doing the catching.

Navajos 25, Mohawks 9
The Navajos scored fourteen runs in the first inning, then coasted to a 26 to 9 victory over the Mohawks in Thursday's game. Duane Dillard pitched for the winners and Allen Butler was behind the plate. The Mohawks used Kakey and Hughes as pitchers and Kantjas and Hubbard as catchers.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Dad's a "Budding" Genius

Time to start planting flowers again, so here's a few details about the Fowler Garden Preservation System.

Youngsters used Dad Fowler's garden as a short cut to the playground. He had a tough time keeping them out until he started a new system.

He called the small fry together and had them print their names on cards. The cards were put on stakes near every clump of flowers. Right away, each kid began to root for "his" particular plants to come up first, voluntarily kept trespassers off "his" area—and Dad's garden thrived!

From where I sit, there's a system for just about everything... even for getting along with people! The best one I know is tolerance. It means respecting your neighbor's preferences as well as your own. For instance, I prefer an occasional glass of beer with dinner. You may like iced tea. If we accept each other's choice, we're on our way to making our friendship "flower."

Residents in Hillcrest Village are requested to observe water sprinkling rules this summer similar to regulations in Oak Harbor, according to Albert Phillips, president and manager of the Hillcrest Water Co.

All those residents living on the east side of Monticello Way are asked to sprinkle on even days, and those on the west side on uneven days. Plans are now to install a larger pump and drill a new well soon so that adequate supplies of water will be available.

Stillaguamish Fair set for Aug. 28-29

By Grant B. Freer

With only six weeks to go for the annual Stillaguamish Community Fair, interest in this growing agricultural event, for the Twin City-Camano Island area is mounting, and indications are that it will again be highly successful.

Mr. Lars Stangland, president of the fair board, reports that Stanley Odegard is chairman of the parade committee, and will select his own helpers. The fair dates this year are Friday and Saturday, August 28th and 29th, with the Saturday parade beginning at 11 o'clock.

In order to provide more parking space at the fair grounds, adjacent to the Stillaguamish Grange Hall, where exhibits and booths will be stationed, a work day is being called for Saturday, August 1st, to clear additional area behind the nearby Odegard home. Much brush must be slashed and burned before any grading work may be done. Volunteers are being asked to form the work party.

It has also been announced that the Fair Premium list has been made up and is now in the hands of the printer.

Lake Titicaca, in South America, is the highest navigable lake in the world.

MR. LEO KELMIS, presiding minister of the Anacortes and Oak Harbor congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses is shown here on the left as he confers with other officials on organizational problems of the District Assembly to be held August 13 to 16 at the College of Puget Sound Field House, Tacoma. Upwards of 6000 delegates will attend the assembly.

SILVER LAKE

By Mrs. R. Borgman

Carl Truby of Seattle has been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeVries.

Mr. A. Waitkus was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeVries after which Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeVries took him and Carl Truby on a nice drive to the Ducken's fish pond, Mt. Erie and other points of interest.

Bob DeVries had a couple of days of vacation from his farm work last week. He was fishing part of the time but had very poor luck.

Early Wednesday evening of last week Alvin Borgman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Borgman of Kirkland, was badly injured in a car accident. He was taken to a Seattle hospital where he passed away early Thursday morning. He will be greatly missed, especially by his parents to whom he was very thoughtful. At this writing the writer does not know who all went down to the funeral at Bothell this morning. Some were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Borgman, Reint Borgman, George Borgman, Billie Borgman and Peter Borgman. Alvin was born 27 years ago last May on what was known as the Haller farm here in Crescent Harbor. Those who knew him extend their deepest sympathy to the family.

Mr. Carver and two sons were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reint Borgman on Saturday afternoon.

David Williams who spent some time with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeVries, returned home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Borgman came up Saturday from Seattle and took their three little daughters home with them Sunday. They had been spending several weeks with relatives here.

Mrs. R. H. Ubil brought her son Kent back Sunday afternoon to the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Reint Borgman, after spending the weekend at home. Jimmie and Dickie Clark of California accompanied her. They and their parents have been visiting at the Ubil home. They are looking after their property interests here.

Those who attended the Anderson family reunion camped out in Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Borgman's yard from Friday

Art display in park draws crowd

People thronged the Oak Park on Saturday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. to inspect the outdoor art gallery set up by the Whidbey Allied Arts. Over fifty pictures were exhibited, and Mrs. Bea Metcalfe did sketches "on the spot" for a number of visitors.

Those who displayed painting were Bea Metcalfe, Jim Metcalfe, Marcey Bashford, Fred Bussy, Vivian Anderson, Evelyn Koetje, Virginia Bruce, Peg McLaughlin, Mary Dean Anderson and Hazel Koetje.

The arts group is planning a bigger and better show for next year, when they will include other craftsmen such as weavers, potters, etc. in the exhibit. The president of the local group, Mrs. Marcey Bashford is leaving for California soon, and Hazel Koetje, vice president, will take over. The club meets on the last Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the City hall, and anyone interested is invited to attend. A varied program is presented at each meeting.

evening until Sunday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Anderson and daughters Christie and Cheryl; Mrs. Art Ingham, Fred and Marilyn; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helas, Susan and Sharon from Everett. Ed Ingham from Camano Island, who is 84 years old, gets around much better than a lot of people much younger. The family reunion is held every year at this time. Most of the year has been held at Frank S. Siegfried's beach. This year the road isn't open for driving down at present. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Reint Borgman and Frank Siegfried joined them at supper Sunday at dinner. David Langland and Jack Siegfried also joined them.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis left recently for a vacation trip to Alaska where they plan to stay for two months. They have a couple living in their home to look after things while they are away. Haying is nearly over around here now. It sure is getting to be hot and dry. The writer received a letter from Nebraska stating they are having too much rain.

SCHOOL IN OKLAHOMA

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sory (Nona Bos) are now living in Oklahoma City where Ralph is attending a school for six weeks under the CAA program. Following his schooling they will move to Hayward, California, six miles from Oakland. Another Oak Harbor couple, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Davis are also living in Hayward.

VISITS PARENTS

Mrs. Nick Colvin (Jo Bryson) and baby son Jeffrey spent a week here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bryson.

- CONTEST RULES -

1. This is a family fun contest. Entries welcome from every member of the family old enough to fill out his or her own. You MAY submit one entry per person at any or all of the Sponsoring Merchants whose ads are in the row that is heavily bordered this week—but only one entry per person at any one store (more than one will disqualify all entries of that person for that week). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the WHIDBEY PRESS.

Sponsoring Merchants and their families (and their employees and families) are most welcome to enter—but one special rule applies: during the weeks when entries are brought into your store, you may enter only at the other two stores in the same row (not in your own store).

2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. DO NOT put your entry in an envelope. Not necessary to be present at the drawing to win. Not necessary to be a subscriber to the paper to participate.

3. WHO'S WHO may be anyone in the North Whidbey area. Clues to his or her identity will be hidden ONLY in ads of Sponsoring Merchants (this means any ad in this section or any ad of the same merchant elsewhere in the paper). Clues will be scattered —many ads will have no clues, while others may have as many as five. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you. We'll be delighted if you succeed in outguessing us, in spite of our best efforts!

4. If, by coincidence, the name of WHO'S WHO (or other facts about him) happen to appear in news items, editorial matter, or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

5. TO ENTER, write down the name you think WHO'S WHO is. List all the clues you can find in all the ads of the Sponsoring Merchants in this issue. Don't forget your own name and address!!! Then, drop your entry at any Sponsoring Merchant whose ad is between the heavy borders in this issue. You may enter at all three if you wish! There are no other places where entries will be accepted — and mail entries will not be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue, and closes at 5 p.m. Monday of the following week. At that time (5 p.m. next Monday) a drawing will be held. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies WHO'S WHO will win $75.00. If THAT entry also lists every clue hidden in all ads of Sponsoring Merchants, a BONUS of $37.50 will be added. Whenever this BONUS is not won, it will be added to next week's BONUS — which will continue to grow until it is won! Winning the BONUS requires a PERFECT list of clues — the exact number and all copied correctly and exactly as in the paper. (Watch those capitals, etc.)

7. Every possible precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but error-free typography CANNOT BE GUARANTEED. The publishers of the OAK HARBOR NEWS and the ISLAND COUNTY TIMES will be the judge and their decision is final.

To Hasten the Downfall of Falls
Give a serious thought to fall prevention in YOUR HOME, as well as on the job. The stairs are as steep there... the roof is just as tricky... the floor is just as hard... the law of gravity is just as much in effect.

A combined report from ten Ohio hospitals shows that 33 percent of their home injury cases were caused by falls. Tumbles from roofs, ladders, porches, and other high levels were quite common. Main causes were slipping, stumbling, over-balancing.

Mark off your stairways as the most extreme danger zone. Eleven out of every one hundred home fatalities occur there!!

Survey your house for falling hazards. Weed out all the slipping and tripping dangers. Observe your family for fall-producing habits. With a little regular thought and effort, you'll be far more certain of enjoying a well-balanced family life!

Bits 'O News

Bob Daharsh of the Mechanical Shop spent several days last week on a fishing trip with his son. Bob's boy has just completed a Navy electronics course in Florida and is home on leave with his folks, enroute to his new duty station at Moffett Field. Bob Miller is doing some commercial fishing in south-eastern Alaska, during his leave, while A. J. Tuller of Security Department is pleasure fishing in the Bellingham area. Paul McDermott is trying his luck with the wiley ones in the Cascade mountains.

Mike Kennedy of the Electric Shop left with his wife and daughter, the past weekend, for Lake Louise and Banff, British Columbia. Mike and his family are really enjoying their new trailer.

Don Goodwin and Herb Hazen of Design Division are both in leave, spending their time taking short trips and doing a little loafing around home.

Some people even spend a bit of their vacation time working. Axel Hallberg spent several days last week putting in his season's hay. This week is being put to good use by Tom Keefe — he can be found sprucing up his house. There are also people who spend a vacation around home, but do not indulge in the manual labor routine. Jane Faber returned from her vacation with a lovely sun-tan — accomplished right at home while doing a bit of old fashioned loafing. Also in the "doing nothing special" — just whiling away the time" department, Evelyn Carskadden can be found.

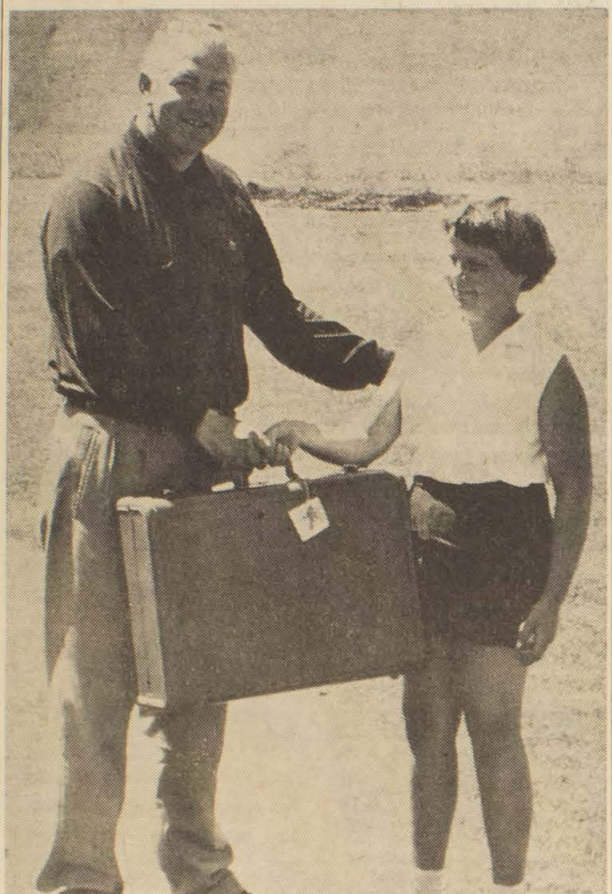

Among the folks receiving out of town guests are Ouida Halbach, who has been entertaining her niece from Tacoma and Wanda Rols showing friends from California around the "banana belt."

Bill Nelson of the Transportation Division has recently returned from a six week trip to Holland, where he visited former friends and relatives. "Red" and Hannah Bainbridge also arrived home recently from their trek to Pennsylvania.

To California

Jean Peterson of the Comptroller Department left last Friday to drive her husband to Alameda where he will be on TAD orders for several months. Jean plans to visit in the Bay area for a few days before returning to Whidbey.

Yvonne and Bob Angerer took off last weekend, heading for the North Country around Banff and Lake Louise — they intend to rough it and camp out all the time they are there. Yvonne's boss, Paul Walker and family, are taking off in an easterly direction, on their trip thru Yellowstone Park.

Club "O" Wives

The purpose of the Officers' Wives Club is to provide a means of getting acquainted with fellow wives, and to sponsor worthy projects. What better way to become better acquainted than to discover each others' talents, tastes and interests? Therefore the VP-50 wives are hosting a "Hobby and Accomplishment" Luncheon where your talents will be reintroduced to the group.

Each unit will select accomplishments of its members to be displayed (best 8 or 10). These items are to be brought to Qtrs. BB on the day before the luncheon with each person's name and unit on same.

There will be a judging of the hobbies and accomplishments displayed, and four cash prizes awarded.

Be proud of the talented people in your unit — help ferret them out so we will all get to know them.

Examples of hobbies and accomplishments:

Paintings — all art work; embroidered samplers, ceramics, braided and hooked rugs, leathercraft, jewelry, quilts, knitting, sewing (dressmaking, children's clothes, etc.), hat making, table settings (2 or 3 girls can get together on an attractive setting), doll clothes.

There are many others of interest to all; however "babies" and "athletic trophies" are not accepted.

Let's try to make this a "sophisticated county fair" exhibit. It will be very entertaining if you will all take part.

Call Maybelle Ney if you have any questions, at OR 5-2211 ext. 3901.

The blood bank cookies (umm they were delicious) for July were donated by VAH-8 and VP-123 wives. June cookies were sent to the blood bank by Farnon 112 wives. Sorry, girls, I forgot to print that last month.

Mr. Maylor was presented with a 15-year certificate and a silver lapel emblem. Mr. Jack M. Wood of Oak Harbor, and Arthur L. Kineth of Coupeville, who serve Local Selective Service Board No. 24 at Mt. Vernon as Advisors to Registrants were each presented with 10-year Certificates of Appreciation.

THE PRESENTATIONS were made by the State Director of Selective Service, Captain Chester J. Chastek, USN, whose headquarters is in Tacoma. Captain Chastek journeyed to Oak Harbor in order to make the presentations personally.

the standpoint of the mercenary attest to the breadth and depth of their patriotic devotion to the public weal."

Mouth-to-mouth respiration film now available

A ten minute film, in color, showing the procedure used in administering mouth to mouth artificial respiration is available for showing to any group or club on Whidbey Island.

Sanitation Officer Wittig of NAS will loan the film and projector to anyone calling him at OR 5-2211, Ext. 5383 or at his home OR 8-2139, Coupeville. The film will be available until August 5.

The mouth to mouth method has been adoped by the Coast Guard and Red Cross as the most effective procedure. In case of chest or back injury of broken arms, it is the only method that can be used. It is a simple technique and can be administered by almost anyone, regardless of size or strength.

Captain Keeton, Senior Medical officer at NAS urged all persons 12 years of age or older, military or civilian to become acquainted with this life saving treatment. It is especially important in an area such as this where water sports are so popular.

THE MOUTH TO MOUTH method is not new, it is even mentioned in the Bible, but has only comparatively recently been taught in the Red Cross standard first aid course.

The Oak Harbor police, the Lions' Club and several other groups have indicated their desire to show the film and others are urged to make arrangements with Wittig immediately in order that he may work out a schedule. The only stipulation he makes is that it be returned to him by 7:30 the next morning that he may use it during the day.

Wittig also made a plea to all parents to be constantly alert to keep little folks away from poisons of all kinds, medicines, household cleaners, and garden sprays. The station hospital is called almost once a week to administer first aid to a child who tries a toxic substance.

News From DUGUALLA BAY

By Alice Elles

We just knew there was a valid reason to slurp down gallons of tea whilst others are doing likewise with coffee. Couldn't think of it except that we had to imbibe something and the caffeine juice is not compatible with our particular brand of stomach acid.

Be that as it may, if you peruse the Times (Seattle not Coupeville) as we do right down to the last odd filler you may have notified recently an item which mentioned that scientists are working on the theory that those who drink tea liberally will not be affected as much by Strontium 90.

Seems they've tested mice and have come to the opinion that the tannic acid in tea combines with the strontium 90 and is passed from the body instead of being absorbed. Kind of technical but that's the gist. Now I am ready for the fallout — me and the teapot.

Have been waiting for some wag to come out with some lame jokes on the Wizard advertising, such as "I just cleaned my air and can't do a thing with it" done in an English accent.

Or space men frantically trying to keep their atmosphere or whatever it is up there in place around their planet, using the same line. The whole thing has impossible possibilities.

Yup the sun has been real hot! But that's no excuse for such inanities.

Seen the sign on the cars "Made in Detroit by idiots"! Some of them could well read "Driven on Whidbey by the same".

Mrs. E. J. Birkenholtz and daughter Vercilla got away from it all last week when they took the train — like the ad says — and saw San Francisco with its cable cars and all the other fascinating sights that make the city a tourist must. Vercilla was on vacation from the Whidbey Camano Title Insurance office.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Christiansen of And's Resort are entertaining Edith's mother and brother in law and young Jerry from Seattle.

Pat and Bud Strong have Pat's 17 year old brother Butch from Bellevue as a guest this week. Her mother and sister were up over the weekend.

Felix Elles, Mr. Garner and Mr. Clark were crabbing at March's Point on Sunday's low tide. Young Garner and Clark were happy to row the boat while Tippy Garner and Alex Elles played on the beach under the watchful eye of Alex's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ausburn of Rt. 1 have been entertaining California folks since their return from that state this spring. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Artesia, Mrs. Dorothy Mills-paugh of El Cerito, Mr. Richard Hedblom of Lakewood, Mrs. F. P. Ausburn and Mrs. Fern Summerfelt of Long Beach.

The Ausburns spend the winter months in California with their children and friends and observed their Golden Wedding

Jam and jelly testing tips from experts

Testing jelly for doneness is simple and may save you some time later. The satisfaction received from having your jams and jellies turn out right is worth the extra step it takes to make one of the following tests.

TEMPERATURE TEST
Use a jelly, candy or deep-fat thermometer. Cook jelly mixture to 220 degrees F and jam mixture to 221 degrees F. At this point the concentration of sugar will be such that the mixture should form a satisfactory gel. Be sure to read temperature at eye level, bulb is covered completely with jelly mixture and doesn't touch the bottom of the kettle.

SPOON OR SHEET TEST
Dip a cool metal spoon in the boiling jelly mixture. Then raise it at least a foot above the kettle, out of the steam, and turn the spoon so the syrup runs off the side. If the sirup forms 2 drops that flow together and fall off the spoon as one sheet, the jelly should be done. This test has been widely used; however, it is not entirely dependable.

REFRIGERATOR TEST
Pour a small amount of boiling jelly on a cold plate, and put it in the ice compartment of a refrigerator for a few minutes. If the mixture gels, it should be done. During this test, the jelly mixture should be removed from the heat.

This test can be used with jams.
MARASCHINO CHERRIES
4½ lbs. large white cherries, pitted (Royal Ann, Oxheart, Napoleon about 7 lbs. before pitting)
4½ lbs. granulated Beet Sugar (9 cups)
1 oz. red food coloring
1 oz. almond extract
6 tablespoons lemon juice (about 2 lemons)
3 cups water

Soaking solution: To each quart of water add - 2 tablespoons salt (non iodized) and 1 teaspoon alum.
1. Wash and pit cherries carefully to avoid mashing.
2. Soak pitted cherries overnight in soaking solution to cover.
3. Drain cherries and wash away all trace of salt and alum.
4. Make a heavy syrup of sugar, coloring and water. Add cherries and bring to a boil slowly.
5. Remove from heat; let stand 24 hours. Bring to a boil; let stand another 24 hours. On the Two fleas had a hard day at the circus and it was time to go home. Said one to the other, "Shall we walk or take a dog?" That is just about my situation today. I have a hundred and one things to do. County 4-H Camp is Monday and there is cabin assignments, class scheduling, programs and all the paraphernalia we have to take to camp. Oh my! I need a quick way to and fro so, Shall I walk or take a rocket.

I want to tell you about the peas in our garden. Last spring I looked for some semi dwarf peas. The only one in the store at that time was Gray Sugar. I had never grown it but decided to try it. We are enjoying them now. They grow about two feet high, have purple blossoms and set a very heavy crop. We noticed the pods were thin and sweet. So my wife has been cooking them pods and all and they are delicious. I knew there were such peas but this is my initial, first hand experience with any. You might try them sometime, GRAY SUGAR.

Just a few other suggestions about your garden. Watering pays provided your water rates will stand it. I might add ditch irrigation, where possible, will make better use of water than sprinkling. Next watch out for insect particularly cabbage worms and aphids at this season. Rotenone and malathion respectively will do the control job nicely.

Now, I'd like to encourage you to plant now for a fall garden. This will extend your fresh vegetables over a longer season thus increasing the value of your garden. Remember that soil moisture is necessary to germinate seeds at this season. We would suggest such crops as carrots, beans, turnips, rutabaga, kohlrabi, lettuce, radishes, chard and late cabbage could be planted now. In addition in the fall you can plant broccoli and turnips. Yesterday, I had the company of Dr. Marion R. Harris, our Extension Plant Pathology Specialist, and John C. Dodge, our Extension Horticulture Specialist. After an office conference we did some farm calling. First we checked on the dying fir trees in Coupeville Park and at Penn Cove Park area. Dr. Harris confirmed what we have been saying that most of the trees have died or have been damaged because of soil and climatic factors over which we have no control. Remember the winter of 1957-58 was warm and dry; followed by a dry summer. Then we had an early cold snap in December 1958. Some of these trees were already weakened by the now famous 1955 freeze. Aside from this in areas like Penn Cove Park the bulldozing around the trees, changing soil depths, opening areas to the baking action of the sun, changing drainage conditions, and packing of the soil in walkways, and yards all effect the trees. These artificial changes to a tree's natural or original habitat may effect a tree adversely.

We did see some indication that there has been some Needle Blight which is a fungus disease. We looked at squash fields, berry plantings and grain fields. There was no disease or insect troubles evident on the squash. Dr. Harris commented that some fields were planted quite late for this climate.

The strawberry harvest is over on the island. We saw some strawberry aphids on the plants. These will not harm the parent plant appreciably but could spread virus diseases. At the Greenbank Berry Farm we observed pickers busy in harvesting the loganberry crop. They have 65 acres of Loganberries, 8 acres of Cascade Blackberry and 5 acres in currants. John Sinema, the superintendent explained his spray schedule and the two specialists made suggestions for improvement in the control of anthracnose, mainly. They will have a good crop of Logan berries this year and pickers will be busy well into August.

1. Island-Jefferson 4-H Camp at Cornet Bay, Deception Pass State Park, July 20-23. We will have 125 youngsters and about 20 adults at camp. An interesting and educational program is planned.
2. This is Farm Safety Week, July 19-25. Last year around Coupeville there were four grain fires. Be sure your machine is in good repair before starting, watch those cigarettes, have a fire extinguisher on the equipment handy. Let's see if we can come through this year without a fire in harvest operations.

"So long," Joe Long.

Look, Tacoma, take a break after loading their baggage aboard the USS Gen. Wm. Mitchell (Top 114). They departed Seattle July 6 for a thirty-day trip to Japan as part of the Shipmate Program of the Navy League of the United States.

Bob Rhodes writes of trip to Japan

ROBERT W. RHODES of 6179 60th N. W. Street, Oak Harbor, Washington, was one of a group of twenty-five (25) Navy League "Shipmates" who sailed aboard the U. S. Navy transport USS GENERAL W. A. MANN on June 27th for a one-month cruise to Japan.

Social activity included dinner in the Captain's cabin for the boy leaders of each of the three groups. All boys dined at least once with the ship's officers. Teen-age dances, made possible by the presence of an exceptionally large number of young female passengers, were very well received.

The boys were all requested to write short articles about their impressions of shipboard life, and the one by ROBERT W. RHODES is attached.

The first day is over, the orientation and explanation finished, and now we have settled down to our routine, which will last for the next eight days.

Everyday we attend classes on subjects of importance to the operation and maintenance of a Navy ship. We are given a light smattering of subjects such as Aerology, Navigation, Seamanship, Engineering, Supply, and a Watch class which consists of standing a regular watch on the bridge of the ship with the ordinary duty section as instructor. We walk around the bridge of the ship with one sailor and as we get to a different spot he explains his job there and then we go ahead and try our hand at it.

It certainly must take patience for these men to explain everything twice to nine or ten people every day. Whenever we steer the ship it seems as if we practically run in perpendicular lines to the course that we are supposed to follow. During a four hour watch we will stand duty as a helmsman, telephone talker, messenger, lookout or after-steering man. They say that experience is the best teacher, and we are certainly getting plenty of that.

In the evening, they have different forms of recreation including dances and movies. There are books to read and quiet games to play.

Of course, there other things that must be fitted into the daily schedule. First on this list must be the meals. The food is excellent! Then there are the multitude of odd things that pop up, such as doing your laundry, writing letters, and sleeping. The Navy expects you to be up at 5:15 a.m. and in bed at 9:30 p.m. As of yet, we civilians haven't adjusted to the hours, and we generally try to find time for a short nap.

The weather has been gray, cloudy and cold, but there hasn't been any rough water. This is about par for the course, and things should warm up as soon as we hit the Japanese Current. The smoother water has really been a pleasure to us, and we hope it will continue.

Definitely one of the big things to happen to date was our joining of the Mystic Order of the Golden Dragon. This is a society composed of the people

Colorado Roundup news

President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent a letter of greeting to Mrs. Charles U. Culmer, president of the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A., on the occasion of the 1959 Girl Scout Senior Roundup, which took place 10 miles north of Colorado Springs from July 3-12.

The President's message read: "Please give my greetings to those attending the Senior Roundup of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America. The inspiring background of the Rocky Mountains and the high ideals of the Girl Scouts provide a splendid setting for your meeting."

With Senior Scouts and Scout leaders from all parts of the county, you will be able to make great plans for the coming year. I am delighted to add my wishes for a memorable Roundup."

Dwight D. Eisenhower The President's letter was accompanied by a salutation from Vice President Richard Nixon.

"I would appreciate you extending my greetings and best wishes to all those who participate in the Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado Springs on July 3. I have long admired the significant part which the Girl Scout organization plays in developing and strengthening our greatest asset, the youth of our nation. I also want to take this opportunity to extend my warmest good wishes to the Scouts who will be participating in the encampment from abroad as all of you together continue to serve your communities, your nation and increased world understanding."

A pony express rider delivered the message during the July 8 observance of the Colorado Centennial which was held in the site's big arena. Mrs. Culmer read them to the 10,000 assembled campers and several thousand visitors.

Guests of honor were Lt. Governor Robert L. Knous; Clay Banta, of the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Merritt Farrell, chairman of the Round-Up planning committee.

Campers and visitors witnessed a pageant of Colorado history, with narration by Mr. Banta. Indians, Spaniards, explorers, trailblazers, fur traders, gold prospectors and frontier settlers, successively took over the arena as their forebears did the original territory of Colorado.

An adobe hut, four Indian teepees, a log cabin and a covered wagon bearing the "Pikes Peak or Bust" legend provided a suggestive background for this reenactment of the state's pioneer days.

The Roundup Centennial Day program included entertainment in the western frontier vein, including group authentic Koshare Indian dances by a troop of La Junta Colorado Boy Scouts, a precision drill and rope ballet by the Westernaires of Wheelwright, Colorado, and music by the Mile Hi Band from Denver high schools. Singing by the entire encampment under the direction of Miss Eleanor Thomas of Aberdeen, South Dakota, concluded the celebration. The entire encampment was open to the public on July 8 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

A Bible Thought

A BIBLE THOUGHT

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward.
Psalm 19: 7 - 11

Vacations and transfers keep folks on move

Two Navy couples who have been stationed together for the past six years will soon be separated. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Knifer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long were at Brunswick, Georgia, and Glenview, Illinois before coming to Oak Harbor. The Knifer family leave this month for Kingsville, Texas, while the Longs will go next month to Olathe, Kansas. Both Knifer and Long are AMI's with VP-50.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wright last week were Mr. and Mrs. John Selvas and family of San Diego. The visitors enjoyed camping and fishing in the local area as well as a trip to Canada. The Wrights and their guests were neighbors at two different locations when both families were in the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klingenberg entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leal and daughter Pat for the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Leal, of Oakland, California, are the parents of Mrs. Klingenberg. Visits were made to Seattle and Canada, as well as much sightseeing in the local area. Klingenberg is stationed here with NAS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Buck of Woodward, Oklahoma, are presently visiting their daughter, Mrs. Dean Legg, while Legg is in Kodiak with VP-17.

CDR and Mrs. Guldberg have vacationed at Banff Provincial park recently.

Chief Ernie Moore and family plan to make their home in Corpus Christi, Texas. Chief Moore has been squadron leading chief with VAF-2 for the past year and has left the service. Squadron personnel presented him with a .22 rifle as a farewell gift.

Bridge day calls VP-17 wives out of summer sun

Wives of VP-17 came off the beaches and patios for an afternoon of bridge and canasta at the BOQ recently. Refreshments were served by hostesses June Rudesill and Marion Weller from a table centered by an arrangement of snapdragons and asters.

Marilyn Thummel took first prize for bridge and Marilyn Schulz took 2nd as well as the travelling prize. Margaret Ann Goodfellow took the consolation prize.

Visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Jeannette Murphy of Oakland, California and Mrs. Mildred Kaufman of South Dakota.

THIS PHOTO was not sent from Hollywood as publicity for a flying movie. The handsome lad is Ronald Robbins, PR3 of VAF-4, and the setting is the spot where he was picked up after his "graduation" jump with a chute he had personally packed.

Geronimo! rigger must jump with chute he packed

Ronald Robbins, PR3 with VAF-4 has a responsible spot in the Navy and well he knows it. It's one thing to assume you're doing your job correctly when you pack a chute but the real test comes when your instructor tells you to use it yourself in usually your first jump from a high flying plane.

Robbie made his leap at Lakehurst, N. J. in March of this year and to quote "We were all scared. Every morning we'd look at the wind gauge and the sky. If it was blowing more than 5 to 7 knots we'd all breathe a sigh of relief and know we weren't going to jump that day."

"FUNNY THING about it, though," he continued. "The weather guessers said there were going to be strong winds that one day but that was down the coast from us. It was real still and a perfect testing. We jumped, even the one guy who was really scared, and we hashed it over for days afterward. It was quite an experience."

And back at their home, cute little brown eyed Judy knew with woman's intuition that her handsome young husband had hit the silk and met him at the door that evening with tears of relief.

These two young folks — he's only 21 — were both Galesburg, Illinois born and raised but he left high school to enlist in the Navy and was home on leave when he met Judy. When he returned to Kingsville, Texas to complete his tour there he took his bride who was just 16 (with her parent's consent) and they were married in Miami, Oklahoma last October.

ROBBIE TOOK his boot training at Great Lakes and was sent to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, where he was a mech but he became more interested in the parachute life. He was sent back to Kingsville where he heard of an offer of school to those who re-enlist for six years. He took the oath again and was sent to PR school at Lakehurst.

The training there was diversified. They were taught the history of chutes and flight, given two weeks of extensive calisthenics before their jump and taught the correct way to fall so there would be a minimum of injuries.

They got a checkout on the sewing machine, survival equipment packaging, life rafts and MaeWest's.

And there can be no sloppy goofing off in this department. Someone's life may depend on any of these things. The "graduation" jump the boys made was just to emphasize how important it is that each chute gets packed correctly and operates properly. There's no place for mistakes and no chance to correct them on the way down to earth.

Robbins works at the Aviation Equipment shop. Each nylon chute must be unpacked, hung overnight to dry, inspected and repacked if approved every two months.

Up in the air too, is Ron about guns. He has a collection of weapons in working condition but his pride and joy is an ancient muzzle loader that he bought from a fellow who needed ready cash.

THE CUMBERSOME looking rifle with its tamping rod and pocket in the stock for the wads and the hole underneath for the balls was made by E. Hawkins of St. Louis. So far he hasn't been able to obtain much information about the gun — he checked the museum in Illinois for light on the weapon but was not able to find one similar to it. He'd appreciate hearing from anyone who thinks they might be able to fill him in on the gun's history.

Ron and Judy are sold on the Navy for a career or at least plan to be service folks for 20 years. He's doing the work he likes, her biggest problem right now is putting fancy edging on pie crust and they both love Whidbey in the summer.

Farewell to Norma

Mrs. Betty Larson, wife of the commanding officer of VP-17, was hostess to the wives of that squadron at a farewell coffee given in honor of Mrs. Don Harvey (Norma) who will soon be leaving for California. Mrs. Harvey will be greatly missed by the group as her talent and wit has sparked many a program.

Hayward family leaves for new duty station

Journalist First Class Charles E. Hayward left Whidbey NAS July 16 for a new duty assignment with the Eighth Naval District headquarters in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Hayward was originally assigned to Whidbey with Heavy Attack Wing Two in November, 1957, as senior journalist. Much of his time was spent "on loan" to COMFAIR Whidbey doing special writing assignments and acting as liaison with civilian press and radio activities. His work appeared at intervals in PROP WASH., and he was of great help to the Oak Harbor News staff in preparing and authenticating Navy-related material. His work also included gathering material and arranging interviews for free lance magazine and radio writers interested in the Station, resulting in much favorable publicity.

In addition to military duties, Hayward was an extremely active member of the Church of Latter Day Saints, participating in all of that group's youth activities, plus heading a Boy Scout troop in the Penn's Cove Area. Mrs. Hayward and the couple's six small children will reside in Salt Lake City, Utah, temporarily.

We'll miss 'em all.

Crandalls leaving

LCDR and Mrs. Walt Crandall who have been living in Hillcrest have sold their home and made plans to leave on August 1 for duty in Washington D. C. The family is most reluctant to leave Whidbey where they have made so many friends and so thoroughly enjoyed the island living. LCDR Crandall has been attached to Hatupac, recently redesignated VAF-123.

Aloha theme at NWCA social Striking arrangements of varied exhibits from Hawaii and Alaska were admired by those attending the NWCA Coffee last Thursday. Guests doffed their shoes at the door and sat on quilts on the floor while watching a program of Hawaiian dancing given by Nadine Durrance and her daughter Diane.

Hostesses attired in muu muus or grass skirts provided leis for all to wear. Cake and punch were served at the close of the program by hostesses Frankie Goodwin, Dotty Karlson, Judy Eveland, and Rhoda Haddock. The patriotic motif of the month was carried out with the decorating of the refreshment table. Besides the usual members enjoying the Coffee were Arlene Potet, Dorothy Poling, and Barbara Swankie.

The NWCA picnic which was cancelled last week will be held at Cranberry Lake this Sunday, July 26, with all other arrangements just as planned previously. Club members and their guests should arrive between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m., bringing everything needed for their families except a beverage, which will be furnished.

"Sophisticated Country Fair" at luncheon

Hostessing the Officers' Wives luncheon at the BOQ on August 12 will be wives of VP-50. They have planned a "Hobby and Accomplishment" luncheon where talents and hobbies will introduce clever ladies to the group.

Each unit will select 8 to 10 of the best products of its members and they will be taken to Qtrs. BB on the day before the luncheon with the name and unit of the creator on each item.

Four cash prizes will be awarded for the four items judged best of the total display.

Paintings, all art work, embroidered samplers, ceramics, braided and hooked rugs, leather craft, jewelry, quilts, knitting, sewing, hat making, table settings and doll clothes are a few samples of hobbies which might be displayed.

Mrs. Robert Ney at OR 5-2211, ext. 3901 would be most happy to answer any question about this "sophisticated country fair". Blood Bank cookies for July were donated by VAF-8 and VAF 123 wives. June cookies were sent to the bank by Faron 112 wives, their last contribution as a unit before the Faron was decommissioned.

ONE OF THE 7 BIG BESTS CHEVROLET GIVES YOU OVER ANY CAR IN ITS FIELD

Take it, not from us, but from official results of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run: Chevy's pennypinching 6 delivers the most miles per gallon in its field. For a pair of these Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class, getting the best mpg figure—a whopping 22.38—of any full-size car. And here are more expert, impartial opinions and on-the-record facts backing us up on Chevy's other six bests:

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.* Guide Book. Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST STYLE

It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "Chevrolet establishes a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevrolet out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars—and why not: Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings, to help lengthen brake life by as much as 66%.

BEST ROOM

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.† make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

BEST ENGINE

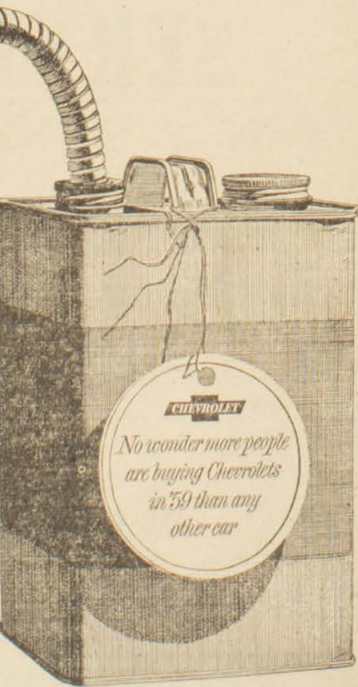

Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST RIDE

MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. And your Chevrolet dealer can tell you about a long list of other advantages besides these 7 big ones!

Friday, July 24, will be a busy day for Oak Harbor Rotarians.
The regular noon meeting will take place at the IOOF hall and an evening dinner meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend in honor of the visit of the District Governor, T. E. Morgan.

Mr. Morgan was elected to his position as Governor of District 504 of Rotary International for the 1959-60 year at Rotary's
50th Annual Convention in New York last June.

Mr. Morgan, who retired after forty years in the lumber business, will visit each of the 41 clubs in the district which comprises Alaska and parts of B. C. and Washington. He is one of 251 officials supervising the activities of 10,200 Rotary clubs in 113 countries, with 500,000 members.

During the past year 374 new clubs were organized, and for the first time in British Guiana, Ghana, Madagascar and Nepal.
Since 1947 Rotary has awarded grants of more than $3,000,000 to 1202 students from 67 countries for a year's study in some other country of their choice.

Guests at the July 17 meeting were Jim Moen, Paul Robinson, CDR L. B. Libbey, Leroy Rowand, Bernie Russell, Bert Moran and Don Anderson.

President Marvin Porter appointed Mr. McNeely chairman to be assisted by Jim Bonn and Albert Hoffman as a committee to submit an idea for a Rotary project.

The meeting adjourned early in order that members might take part in the Rotary-Navy golf competition.

Man arrested on assault charges Tuesday

Robert V. Sangster, 29, NAS, was arrested at 3:23 a.m. Tuesday morning by Deputy sheriffs Art Black and John Rientjes on an assault charge.

The case involved a domestic dispute after which Sangster's wife left to take refuge elsewhere. Sangster followed her, kicked in the door, struck the woman and threatened her with a knife.

Prosecutor Russell Johnson reports that Sangster has a previous record of similar action and a request by a Navy legal officer that the Navy be allowed disposition of the case has been refused. The man will be charged with assault, according to prosecuting attorney Johnson.

In addition to the traditional delicious barbecued salmon and the rest of the picnic goodies, missioners, are responsible for making it a safe road. In order to do this it will be better to buy the property now than to have to deal with individual property owners after the plat is approved. You (the commissioners) should have a plan to establish this road now."

Norris replied to Adamson, saying that scenery or no scenery, the bulk of the traffic will follow the better road, thus reducing substantially the traffic on the old road, where widening will not be required.

Mrs. Jennie Morris asked
Norris if the county road along the waterfront was on the map to which Norris replied that it was not, that the county had only "squatters' rights" to it through usage, that there were never any deeds to the land in this area.

Norris further said, "I have had 40 years of experience in this type of work in Washington and Oregon, and I know how a plat should be laid out. When this was planned, the engineer and developer worked with me on the whole thing. After the F-5 highway was planned, we had certain limitations to the south, and this plan was the best we could get out of it for the benefit of the county and the public."

Dr. Henry Carskadden, county health officer told the assembly "people don't understand how we enter into the picture. We cannot intercede here until they propose to build houses on the development, and then each builder must have a builder's permit and septic tank permit. There will be trouble on some lots here as there is in any development, but we are going to be strict."

Frank Guest, commissioner from Camano Island, also said that before construction could be started, the approval of the health officer would have to be obtained.

"All of the counties in Washington are not doing this"
but we are insisting that this be done."

The hearing closed at 2:30, after Commissioner Andy Andrews took the chair so that Meeter could move that the plat be accepted with the existing county road.

MODEL OF NOSTALGIA—Old-timers who exult over the fabulous farm meals and forget the heat, haze and bone-creaking work of the wheat harvest will cherish the thought of this scale model 20-74 Nichols and Shepard steam engine. Webster Mooney, who once operated one of the machines, poses beside the miniature in Nortonville, Kan. The threshing engine took 4½ years of Mooney's spare time to build, and is built to about quarter-scale. Mooney had boiler and gears made for him; the rest of the work is his own. It can be fired with either wood or coal or will operate on compressed air.

Navy-neighbor Salmon derby set for August 1

The annual Navy Neighbor fishing derby sponsored by the North Whidbey Chamber of Commerce is all set to get underway Saturday, August 1, with Joe Ryan heading the Chambers committee in charge of the derby. Commander F. J. Trefero, representing the Navy, will serve with Ryan as co-chairman. Other committee members are Chief K. D. Batdorff, Don Goodwin, and Chuck Dann.

A big salmon barbecue will climax the derby. CDR "Pappy" Cole, former NAS executive officer, will be on hand to do the barbecuing at Rocky Point on Sunday, August 23. The derby will officially close at 9 p.m., Saturday, August 22. Tickets for the derby will automatically include the barbecue dinner for participants and their families.

TICKETS for the derby are on sale at Chuck Dann's Sporting Goods store, Churchill Mercantile, Mike Branca's and at the O. D. office. They may also be procured from members of the committee and at the Chamber office, Ryan said.

Below is a brief resume of the rules governing the derby: Derby will officially open Saturday, August 1 and close at 9 p.m., Saturday, August 22. The barbecue will be held Sunday, August 23.

$3.00 admission will be charged for entrant and his family for derby and barbecue.

Trophies will be awarded for the biggest fish; perpetual trophy between civilians and Navy; the best neighbor and a traveling trophy for the entrant catching the most fish each week. Contestants will be permitted to keep their fish.

Official weighing stations will be located at the O. D. office, Branca's and Churchill's.

All fishing must be done in waters adjacent to Whidbey Island.

Ryan urged that participants purchase tickets immediately. "We want to make this derby the biggest ever," he said, "and 'Pappy' Cole will be greatly disappointed if the Rocky Point picnic grounds aren't filled to overflowing for the big barbecue on August 23."

Gerald Fikse heads new commercial club

Gerald Fikse was elected president of the newly formed North Oak Harbor Commercial Association, at a meeting of merchants of that area held on Thursday night.

Other officers elected were Ink Hinshaw, vice president, and Mrs. Bob Kooyman, secretary-treasurer.

Several projects will be undertaken by the organization in the near future, and as an immediate project, the group has acquired a 50 by 300 foot parking lot next to the Whidbey Garden store, running a whole block from Midway to 20th N. W.

Boat club buys lot at Penn Cove

The Whidbey - Deception Pass Boat Club has announced the purchase of a lot, approximately 90 by 190 feet across the road from the Penn Cove boat launching ramp. Negotiations were conducted through Fick and Chapman, who represented the owners, Burroughs and Walker of Seattle.

Boat club members, concerned about the limited parking in this area off the highway, foresaw that if the ramp is doubled as planned, there will be no room for parking except on the highway. With boating increasing each year, the Boat Club felt the purchase of additional land for public use is a wise investment, although a large amount of fill dirt and an access road will be needed. Completion of the parking lot will start soon, club members said.

EVERYBODY COME

An invitation is out to the 30,000 former residents of North Dakota who now reside in the Puget Sound area to attend the North Dakota picnic on Sunday, July 26 at Vasa Park on Lake Sammamish.

Iran's Mohammed Youssefy is county's farm guest

A slight young man, half a world away from his home in the Biblical land of the Medes and Persians, sat astride a tractor at a farm near Coupeville last week and talked in broken but understandable English with Al Sherman who a few years ago spent a summer on another farm in Austria, on a similar mission.

Mohammed Youssefy of Bampur, Iran, and Al Sherman have become good friends in the short two weeks Mohammed has been a guest at the Clark Sherman farm on Whidbey Island. Mohammed has acquired the ability to take a good amount of "kidding" from Al, who remembered his summer on an Austrian farm when his limited knowledge of the language made him the target of some hilarious situations.

THE IRANIAN boy is not an International Farm Youth Exchange student, such as Al was in Austria. Mohammed enjoys the distinction of being the equivalent of a County Agent in his homeland, employed by the Iranian Government. He is sponsored in this country by the Ford Foundation.

Mohammed works in the Bampur area which is located in the extreme southeastern part of Iran. His area is bordered on the east by Pakistan and on the south by the Gulf of Oman. This is a typical area with extremely warm weather.

THE BALUCHI people with whom he works are perhaps the most needy in Iran, and it has been said that they are among the poorest in the world. His post meets all the qualifications of a genuine "hardship" assignment.

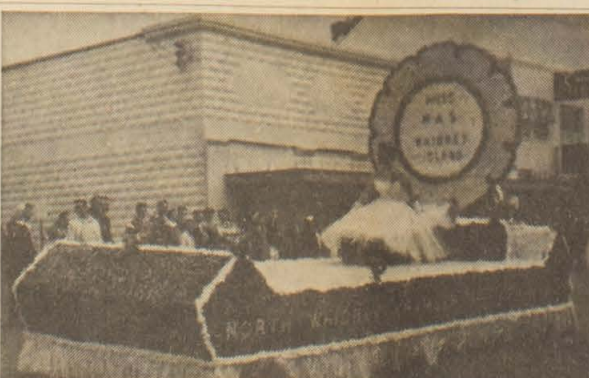

At the Sherman farm, Mohammed was introduced to the raising of turkeys on a large scale, seldom seen in Iran. Since he is interested especially in learning about agricultural machinery and improved poultry methods, the two weeks here was in itself a valuable experience.

PUBLIC NOTICE
There will be a food handler exam at the City Hall in Oak Harbor on July 23 from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

CC float wins two prizes in Loggerodeo parade

The North Whidbey Chamber of Commerce is $50 richer by virtue of two $25 checks won by the Chamber float entered in the parade of Sedro Woolley's Loggerodeo on July 4.

The float was originally constructed to be shown in Oak Harbor's Armed Forces Day parade, and drew much favorable comment from spectators on that occasion. Marvin Porter was chairman of the committee who had charge of constructing the float and was assisted by A. L. Mitchell, Percy Porter, Art. Admiral, George Thompson, Ray Kennedy, I. S. Wright and Ray Walters.

Awards won by the float were $25 for third place for fraternal organizations, service clubs, etc.; the other $25 prize was for best float entry in the parade. M. W. Schulle was driver of the float. Other firms and individuals contributing to the construction of the Chamber's outstanding float were Oak Harbor Garage, Oak Harbor Machine Shop, Piston Service, Pioneer Department Store and B. Bernard of Oak Harbor Auto Rebuild.

School board report -

School begins at 8 a.m. for High, Jr.-high pupils

High school and Junior High students at Oak Harbor will begin morning classes this fall at 8 a.m. following a decision on the matter at the school board meeting last week.

Grades one through six will begin classes at the regular hour of nine a.m. however. This will allow for more efficiency for school bus runs and for activities.

Two study-hall teachers for high school will be maintained for "after school" studies, since high and junior high school day will end at 2:30 instead of 3:30.

OTHER INTERESTING information confirmed at the board meeting, includes the readiness of the "A" wing of the new Junior High building for school opening in Sept. Contractors are concentrating on this wing of the construction at the present time.

A "surplus" building, already negotiated from the Navy, will be moved soon to a site north of the present high school and next to the tennis courts, to serve as temporary high school classrooms. The building will be completely renovated and made suitable for classes with proper lighting, etc. An application for a school in the Capehart construction area has also been submitted to the proper authorities.

A NON CERTIFICATED driver training teacher will be employed this next year to take driver training classes, to release a certificated teacher for other studies.

Other board business included the okay on bleachers on basketball back-stops for the new Junior High gym; and a resolution to have no more school sponsored music instrument displays. The band people must put on their own displays. The board further directed that every effort will be made to place used instruments on sale for new students.

A SPOKESMAN for the board said that many times parents buy a high priced instrument for a child who decides after a year that he doesn't want to take band after all, and the parents are "stuck" with the instrument. On the other hand, many parents with several children find it too costly to buy new instruments.

terlude of unusual opportunity.

MOHAMMED'S native tongue is Persian, although he understands English, having studied it in school. He has had five years of schooling altogether, including "farm preparedness."

At present he is living on a Camano Island farm, and will be there until July 15. He will remain in the United States until November.

Tummy aches for nine kids eating berries

Several children living in the area around the MEQ and housing southwest of the Clover Valley school had an uncomfortable time over the weekend when they were sickened after eating some berries they had picked in the wooded area near there.

A check with the navy hospital revealed that the berries probably had something to do with the illnesses but some of the families of the 9 children involved were also coming down with a dysentery ailment.

Some of the leaves and berries had been shown to Mr. Hilberdink, local forest warden and to him they appeared to be somewhat like a cascara fruit, although he was unable to make positive identification.

Parents are advised to warn their children to eat only those berries which they are familiar with and to watch out for bushes that may have been sprayed with insecticides.

New chaplain, other families welcomed aboard

A bit of greenery to make a strange house more homelike, a baby sitter list and a friendly welcome to the Island are extended each week to the wives of officers arriving for duty. Each unit has its hospitality chairman who in turn reports to the club chairman who reports to the News.

CDR and Mrs. J. E. Hollingsworth are well settled in Title VIII after making the trip from Norman, Oklahoma. The commander is the new Protestant Chaplain who replaced McPherson. They have a married daughter living in Seattle, a daughter Martha who is 15, and a son John who is 7.

CDR Clark W. Miller has reported to CFW from Washington D. C. His family is now at 975 Ave. in Oak Harbor. Mrs. Miller's name is Geraldine and the children are Anthony 17, Larry 14, Monte 11 and Sandra Sue 2.

LTJG K. W. Westall and his wife Fay have come from Guam for duty with VAH-123. They are at home at 356 Rosario.

CWO-W3 A. R. Svenningsen has arrived to relieve Tex Western as Disbursing Officer for NAS. He has previous duty on the USS Okanagan and his family is just down the street from the Westalls at 360 Rosario.

The Svenningsen children are, Arne 16, Thordis 14, Mark 13, and Neil 7.

A most pleasant tour to all and an invitation to join the many civic, school and recreational organizations at your disposal.

Pensacola home

Mrs. Patricia L. Cutler and children who have been staying with the late Mr. Cutler's folks in Illinois are planning to make their home in Pensacola, Florida. Mr. Cutler was killed in the plane crash near Ault Field on May 11.

Edna Blackwood takes office as president of Officers Wives club

"You may call me Madam President" could have been Mrs. Bob Blackwood's salutation to her family after the election luncheon held at the BOQ last week by the Officers' Wives club members. For Mrs. Blackwood now holds the gavel of the club that works quietly and busily to raise funds for their charity work.

PRESIDENT she may be to the officers' wives but at home she's Mom to daughter Nancy and sons Bill and Tom and wife to Captain R. M. Blackwood (more often known as Dr. Blackwood of the dental corps).

The family has been here since July 1957 and have become well known for their many community activities. They are ardent square dancers; she taught folk dancing at Clover Valley and has a group that dances each Saturday night. She's been on the Troop Committee for the Senior Girl Scouts or Mariners for two years and her husband has served as Troop Committee chairman for the Boy Scouts in the same period. Tommy is a Star and Bill is a Second Class Scout. Nancy is a Marine, holding the rate of Midshipmate.

The whole family likes to camp and to sail in their Junior Knockabout seen so often in Crescent Harbor. The Captain prefers the sailing craft to that of the motor driven boat. He relaxes best out on the water, away from the phone. Each Tuesday he takes Mariners out and teaches them knots and vernacular. Hunting, photography, and woodworking are other hobbies he has tried as well as jewelry making.

THE DOCTOR is in the navy for a career. He attended Marquette University in Milwaukee and had a private practice before he decided to join the navy. He loves it and is here to stay. Mrs. Blackwood is a native of Michigan and together they have lived in several places such as Maine for 3 years (Kittery) and 18 months in Newfoundland. The latter is not as cold as many people think, less so than Maine or Michigan but windier and much bleaker. No place for folks who like city lights, but the Blackwoods enjoyed it.

Dr. Blackwood got to see Japan and Guam and the rest of the family would appreciate a chance to see a foreign country or two now that the children are old enough to benefit from the experience.

MRS. BLACKWOOD was loud in her praise of the Oak Harbor schools, especially in expressing her appreciation of the excellent music program under Mr. Duane Hamlin. Both the boys play in the band and Nancy is an accomplished pianist and organist who often substitutes at the Methodist church services.

The family expects to be here another year and they have purchased property to insure a return here for retirement when that day comes.

Ebrights honored at dinner party

Commander and Mrs. Merton Ebright were guests of honor at a dinner party given by Captain and Mrs. Vernon Williams at the Whid Isle Inn on Wednesday, July 8. The Ebright left this week for Carlisle, Pennsylvania where the commander will attend Armed Staff College.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lueck, and Mrs. John W. Byng. Captain Byng was called out of town on official duties.

Commander Ebright has been notified that he has been selected for rank of Captain.

Take good care of the present and trade it on a better future.

New Chiefs wives honored at coffee

A coffee which will honor the new chief's wives and wives recently arrived on Whidbey takes place at the COP club on Thursday, (today) July 16 at 1:30 p.m.

The thirteen new chiefs don't consider their number unlucky and they will undergo traditional initiation at the club on Thursday.

Members are reminded of the annual drive for clothes, toys, etc. which are presented each year at Christmas time to the Lummi Indians. Also that layette work must be turned in promptly and that pocket book editions may be given to Mae Whitney.

Election held at luncheon plus TV takeoff show

by Lory DeMarino

The attendance at the July all wives luncheon far exceeded our greatest expectations. The business meeting included the election of officers. The new slate is as follows: President, Edna Blackwood, NAS; vice president Beryl Smith, NAS; recording secretary Bertha Webb, NAS; corresponding secretary, Marilyn Schultz, VAHM-10; and treasurer, Ann Underwood, VAH-6.

Our outgoing president, Mag Atkinson, was presented with a gift as a token of our appreciation. Our heartfelt thanks to Mag and her board — Rose Marie Forsyth, Ann Burrows, Betty Vaughn, Pat Anderson, and chairman Jess Trefero, Phyllis Longino, Betty Schuler, Nancy Fredericks, Gene Thurman, June Mayo, Joan DeMille, and Kay Wittig for one of the most successful terms of office in our club's history.

The luncheon entertainment was a laugh packed imitation of the famous Queen For A Day program. Our three distinguished judges, Captains Gold, Keeton, and Schork, selected Bernie Seng of VP-2 to be our Queen. She received 15 dollars as her main prize and was presented with a wardrobe (of rather questionable value) modeled by Mag Atkinson and described to the audience by Betty Schuler.

Jane Hicks was runner up. Her prizes were two dinners generously donated by the Whid Isle Inn and two dinners donated by the new proprietors of the Kennel Club, our own Pat Anderson, Joan DeMille, and their husbands.

Other contestants were Gene Thurman, Joyce Greisen, Billie Swartz, Ann Adams (assisted by Dot Richards), Eve Beyers, Eva Farrar, Paula Putnam, and Ruby Holm.

Program chairman was Jess Trefero; master of ceremonies, the amazing Don Fraasa; announcer, Jerry Van Norden; and music by our ever faithful and non-official music chairman Shirley Dimmitt. Table decorations, Betty Emanski.

Former Navy Chief dies in Jacksonville

Folks in the area who remember the F. W. Collingsworth family, who lived here a number of years ago when Chief Collingsworth was stationed here with the Navy, will be sorry to hear of his death last month in Jacksonville, Florida. Collingsworth died of a sudden heart attack following a lingering attack of nephrosis.

The Collingsworths were featured in the Oak Harbor News on the Navy Page, while living in their own trailer here in the Navy trailer court. In a letter to friends here, Mrs. Clyde Collingsworth writes that their children are fast growing up, with Carol ready for high school and Bryan Junior High. The family still owns Whidbey property, bought during their stay here.

California much too hot, Bullmans prefer Whidbey

Chief and Mrs. H. A. Bullman and sons have returned home from a trip to California to show the Pacific Coast country to Mrs. Bullman's sister, Mrs. K. J. Clark of Perth, Australia. They toured Disneyland and other points of interest as far down as San Diego. They were most happy to return to cool Whidbey after the unaccustomed heat of California.

The Bullmans visited with CDR H. Woodson and family who are living on Tolita Avenue in Coronado and wishing they were back in Hillcrest. They also spent some time at the beautiful new home of the D. B. Lacey in Medford, Oregon.

They put Mrs. Clark aboard a chartered plane at Los Angeles for the return flight to Australia. The plane carried 80 "down under" visitors who came to the United States to visit relatives who married U. S. service men. Mrs. Clark was so impressed with this country that she and her husband are already planning to return in a few years.

Those participating were Warren Dopps and his guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Doolittle, Commodore and Mrs. George Thompson and their guests, Mr. Mrs. Ray Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ducken, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Dimmitt.

VP-1 takes Captain's Cup

After a full year of intersquadron competition, Patron One walked off with the coveted Captain's Cup last Tuesday afternoon during a banquet at the CPO Club. Commander John W. Murph, Commanding Officer Patrol Squadron One, was presented with the Captain's Cup by Captain Charles C. Gold, Commanding Officer NAS Whidbey Island. On hand to witness this annual event was Captain John Weston Byng, Commander Fleet Air Whidbey.

The top tennis team members were: LTJG Richard Tavolacci, Captain; LT Bob Wagner, LTJG Norm Lewis, LTJG Bill Koren, and AN Horatio Suarez. Highlights of the tennis season came in the final and deciding match with VP-50. VP-50, who was close on VP-1's heels all season, had a two to one match lead after the singles were completed. Dick Tavolacci and Bob Wagner of VP-1 won the first set of doubles six to three. Carr and Wilmarth of VP-50 came back to take the second set six to three, and jumped into a five to two third set lead. Then, with their backs to the wire, Wagner and Tavolacci won five straight games to win the set, seven to five, and the match three to two, and the championship, which was the greatest victory seen during the competitions.

On the softball scene Patron One scored second place with some good play. VP-2 took first place in this series with some remarkable hitting and fielding, not to mention fast pitching. The VP-1 team was sparked by LTJG Jerry Brockhouse, who also spotted right field. It seems the VP-1 team has quite a few celebrities aboard. Pitcher Lew Luedtke, center field, Mickey Anderson, shortstop Skeeter Van Norden, catcher Yogi Cottrell, first base Joe Adcock Brown, second base Nellie Fox McMinn, third base Eddie Matthews Lowe, left field Chico Valles. VP-1 voted Don Brown as the rookie of the year.

On the fairway the VP-1 golf team steadily chipped their way to third place. The team, sparked by slamin' Butch O'Hare, LTJG Bill Bradley, LTJG Ken Hallett, LTJG Jim Barnes, and Chief Hill, steadily racked up points to come into third place, losing to NAS golfers, who are almost pros.

Strikes and spares—the bowling team brought home second place, winning thirty-nine games and losing only nine, adding much to the total points needed by VP-1 to take the Captain's Cup.

By way of historical background on the coveted Captain's Cup, it was first presented for competition here at Whidbey in 1956. That year Patron One by taking the trophy. The second year saw Fasron 112 winning the trophy, and the third year, Fasron took it again. In 1959, as in 1956, Patron One ran away with the Cup. The sport competition runs the full fiscal year, and points are totaled up sometime in June.

Bobwhite quail being reared

The two-toned whistle of the Bobwhite quail may become more familiar to Washington residents in coming years as a result of periodic releases of this southern game bird.

Currently, the Game Department's Kennewick Game Farm is carrying 1,800 Bobwhites in its pens, of which some 1,500 will be released during the forthcoming year, with the remainder kept as brood stock.

The Blubwhite was first introduced into Washington in 1871 on Whidbey Island, and has been intermittently released into various areas since that time. It has never, however, become abundant in past years, although residents of the lower Yakima valley region and a few other parts of southeastern Washington are used to hearing the distinctive call which gives the bird its name.

Educational wing being added to Lutheran church

Work is underway in earnest this week as the big earth moving equipment moved in to the Lutheran Church lot to excavate for the educational wing so long needed and hoped for by the congregation.

The building will be 26 feet in width and 80 feet long. It will be two stories high with a daylight basement and will house Sunday School classes, church offices and a fellowship hall.

The church has been forced to go on a double Sunday School schedule with some classes meeting in the church basement and the overflow in the parsonage basement. The new building, which should be in use around October 1, will permit the classes to be put back on a regular schedule and eliminate the use of the parsonage.

The congregation has raised about $10,000 in the past eighteen months to enable them to start on this addition. The church sold much of the topsoil which was hauled away by volunteer truckers from the congregation.

Episcopal sale postponed until August date

The Women of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. D. R. Christie in Penn Cove Park at 7:30 p.m. July 1. After coffee and refreshments were served a short devotional program was presented by Mrs. Cotta Noble.

It was decided that the proposed rummage sale be postponed until some time in August. Any contributions for the sale can either be left at the home of Mrs. W. S. Butler in Penn Cove or at the home of Mrs. G. A. Peartree in Oak Harbor. If it is desired that the articles be picked up in the Oak Harbor area, Mrs. Peartree at OR 5-2072 would be more than happy to do so.

Two of the boys in the church received camp scholarships. Kenny Peartree went to Camp Huston, and Bill Layton to Camp of the Holy Spirit.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wakefield returned from a motor tour of California the weekend of July 4. They had a lovely time, but were happy to be back in the cooler climate of Whidbey Island.

Chaffee guest speaker

Dr. Leslie Chaffee of Coupeville will be guest speaker on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. at the Oak Harbor First Baptist Church, and in the evening will show pictures of his recent work in the Cameroons, Africa, where he and his wife, the former Edna Vander Stoep and children have been living and ministering for the past ten years. The evening service will begin at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

NEWS

Girl Scouts and Brownies have invaded Bowman's Bay. Approximately 270 girls are experiencing the thrills and fun of Day Camp. For many of them, this is their first camp experience. Over in Cranberry State Park, about 60 Junior High Scouts, known as Forest Unit, are camping at the Scout Area on West Point. Parents are welcome to visit camp at any time.

Sue Quistorf is the new Director of the Day Camp. She has taken over for Colleen Fosnaught who resigned last week. Colleen's parents from Michigan are visiting her at this time.

In case of an emergency, parents can call Mrs. Kight at OR 5-3869.

Transportation remains a big problem! Drivers are badly needed for the last week, July 21 through the 24th. Anyone who can drive a group of girls to camp or pick them up in the afternoon, please get in touch with Mrs. Kight, OR 5-3869. The girls are asked to be at one of the following pick-up points by 9:20 A. M.: Oak Harbor Elementary School, Clover Valley School, Mormon Church in Penn Cove, and School Bus stop in Hillcrest.

A reminder to parents that the last day of camp on Friday, June 24, will be from 2:00 P. M. to 8:00 P. M., and they will be responsible for their own daughter's transportation that evening. Mrs. Tennis reports that the Junior Camp Committee has worked extra hard in getting things ready. Making camp ties, menus, phone calls, and a Song Board, are only a few of the many things they've done. They were the Color Guard at Forest Unit Camp the first day. The following girls are on the Junior Camp Committee: Gail O'Hara, Joanne French, Suzanne Larson, Jennifer Renn, Pam Dillingham, and Judy Kjargaard.

Scouters, don't forget to make plans to attend the Peace Arch Ceremony on Sunday, August 2. Watch this column for further information.

The double ring ceremony was performed on Sunday afternoon, June 14. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the cathedral length white satin gown that her sister, Mrs. Marvin Schwisow wore at her marriage five years ago. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and had long pointed sleeves. Her veil of French illusion edged with Chantilly lace, loaned to her by a cousin, fell from a white tiara trimmed with pearls.

Mrs. Galbraith attended her son's wedding in a tea rose voile dress with white accessories. They wore corsages of white rose buds and feathered carnations.

THE NEWLYWEDS greeted their guests at a reception in the American Legion hall. The four tiered white wedding cake, trimmed with red rosebuds and surrounded by fern, was cut by relatives of the bride, and Mrs. Wilbur Oldenburg, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Marvin Schwisow and Miss Doris Oldenburg poured coffee.

WELCOME TO WHIDBEY

Wife of Oak Harbor's first banker visits here

An old-timer returned to Oak Harbor last week to visit with friends she had known nearly fifty years ago. Mrs. J. T. Rogers of Everett, who will be 93 on her next birthday, looked twenty years younger, and gets about very well.

"I'm in the best of health, there is not one thing wrong with me," Mrs. Rogers said. "I attribute my years and health to walking. I walk downtown nearly every day, look around and walk home. And feel like I have been somewhere."

Mrs. Rogers' late husband was Oak Harbor's first banker.

The family moved here in 1910 and their youngest son, Arthur, was born the next spring.

THE BANK BOUGHT land from Mrs. Jerome Ely, and built the bank building where Patton's Real Estate is now located. The Rogers family built the big house on Pioneer way now owned by Si Butrim, and lived there for seven years.

"NO ONE wanted to sell any land in those days," said Mrs. Rogers. "We had to do some tall talking to get land from Izett for our house, and from Mrs. Ely for the bank. The Izett farm and Ely farm ran right down to main street."

The Rogers had seven children who went to school here and will be remembered by many: Irene, Paul, Milt, Eugene, Louise, Elizabeth and Arthur.

Each time Mrs. Rogers comes with her son Arthur and wife to visit in Oak Harbor, they stop by the Maple Leaf Cemetery to place flowers on the last resting places of old friends.

"We have many, many good friends there," said Mrs. Rogers.

By Alice Elles

The sun shines bright on my old Whidbey Island home — 'tis summer and every doggone thing is getting ripe and has to be done at the same time.

The first blush of red on the pie cherries brought out the noise makers and bird scarers in force around the ranch but six gallons and a dozen pies later, we lie on the cot under the spreading cherry tree and sigh in comfort as the feathered friends peck away at the last quart or so left out of reach. Even the pits and juice that kerpunked down was easier to take than another batch of pie dough or the exercise involved getting the red balls off the branches into the pan.

And all the wives are getting the raspberry these days. Mother Nature is certainly generous with the fruit this year but she never seems to solve the problem of time.

Have you had your shots this summer? The deer flies are out en masse and a dozen bites on each foot while wading sandals has sent us scurrying back to high top boots. We may have a white line this year but after last weekend's experience with those brown aerial hyperdermic needles you can rest assured the line will be higher.

The chaff which the wind driveth away from the flora this summer has alighted in every nose, sinus and eye of the Island residents who are slightly allergic to such stuff. It is more than twice blessed, but there are those who give us "Geshundheit-ing" after the first few times.

Called a woman one evening recently for news and she mentioned that her husband would be making a trip to San Diego soon and she was sure that he would be happy to make a phone call to a friend of the writer to say hello. Everything was fine until we mentioned that the friend was a cute little blonde widow. "You just talked yourself out of a phone call," says she.

Kas Young went fishing in her fish pond on Sunday and came up with a microscopic finny creature — just two eyes and a tail. Son in law came up with a pro angle on the deal and caught a dozen with a sieve.

Felix Elles used a line on Saturday and came home with a cod and a bass. Not in a fish pond, though, but out in the front yard near Hope Island.

Poor fat Dude who is too old and lazy to chase his own tail and blind in one eye got hold of some poison of Friday and spent the night at the vets. He came home Saturday but is feeling right poorly, thank you. Where he got the poison is a mystery.

Julie and Paul Borden and two children spent from Thursday to Sunday at the home of Mrs. Madeline Lyon on Rt. 1.

Lenny Lang's chimney is just about done. We never see him at work but it goes higher each time we drive by. He's certainly done a fine job.

The Cappel's have moved to California. They formerly lived in the Newt Miller place which had been purchased by Romage of Burlington.

The Backman's are awaiting the arrival of a sister and niece later this month. Mrs. Backman hasn't seen the folks for a couple of years.

George Admiral has been visiting on the Island for a couple of weeks. He is doing remarkably well after the major brain surgery he had weeks ago and will undergo a second operation in the not too distant future.

Jerry Kammenga is attending forestry summer school near Rainier and will finish out the summer vacation working at the Coop.

The Elles family has been having a linguistic heyday lately. Little son has picked up a few words such as please, thank you, certainly, excuse me, yes and no etc. from big brother's German class of a year ago. Big brother replies in Spanish, mother has resurrected her semester of French of a quarter of a century ago with the same words and father is not to be outdone. He was on the first navy cruise to Vladivostok and China that the U. S. sent out long years ago and he remembers just a bit of Russian, from those carefree wild out sailing days. That sailor boy said "Yes?" and the Russian gals said "No!" or the equivalent which I can't spell. With all this foreign exchange we still dig English the most!

"canal" which was to be built from the end of Penn's Cove to West Beach. Laborers actually cut a swath of trees through this area, to show where the canal was to go. The little boom town flourished for nearly a year, with seventeen saloons springing up overnight.

People paid big money for a share in the canal enterprise and bought lots all over San de Fuca's hills.

Keister put the last of a handful of red loganberries into the pan and looked at them thoughtfully. "There are a lot of people who came West on promises. I remember an old neighbor, Alec Kalebaugh, who told me he bought a lot out here on speculation, and when he got out West he found the lot was located on the face of Mt. Erie, near Anacortes."

"Funny about promoters," he said, "they always want to do something for us. I figure that anytime an outsider comes in to help us, they want to help themselves worse than they want to help us. But I'm still glad I bought that railroad stock."

"It cured me."

Back to Alaska
Cliff Keister left Thursday for Ketchikan for the summer season. He has been visiting here with his parents, the Herman Keisters.

PETER HULSWIT, left, and Miss NAS Whidbey (Barbara Bushaw) talk over plans of starting swimming lessons at the Surf 'n Sands pool. Plans are now ready for the program which will start July 20.

Free swim lessons
at Surf 'n Sands

Peter Hulswit, swimming instructor of 15 years experience, will give lessons free of charge at the Surf 'n Sands heated swimming pool through the courtesy of McPherson Realty, Surf 'n Sands estate.

Persons interested are asked to call Hulswit after 4 o'clock at OR 5-3995 Oak Harbor or to be at the pool (using north entrance from Highway 1-D) at 4 p.m. July 20. His address is 2148 20th N. E.

Hulswit will segregate students into non-swimmers, beginners, and those needing special lessons. He was a qualified instructor for the Holland American Steamship line, gave lessons to the Berlin Youth association and has a certificate in Holland equivalent to the American Red Cross life saving certificate. He will teach breast-stroke, back stroke, crawl, give life saving courses or any particular service asked for by those wishing to take advantage of Surf 'n Sands invitation. Hulswit asks that all non-swimmers provide their own life jackets.

A schedule will be printed in subsequent issues of the paper after Hulswit gains an idea of how many will be registered. Tentative plans call for swimming only after 4 p.m. in the afternoons, week days.

4-H Beach Rangers have farewell picnic
for W. H. Londons

A potluck dinner was held Thursday evening July 2 at Cranberry Lake by 4-H members and their parents to honor Chelac W2 and Mrs. William H. London and family who are leaving shortly for southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. London were presented with an appropriate plaque, depicting the horse and 4-H emblem by the club leader Bud Baher.

Mr. London was assistant leader, their son Mike was reporter, and son Pat was on the gym khana committee.

The club wishes to express to them our appreciation for their time and efforts in helping to organize the club as well as being actively helpful in all the club activities to date.

At the last meeting, which was held at the club house, June 9 it was decided that the members would meet with their horses every other week end at "Little Long Acres," which is a group of fields and trails in the woods along the Goldie Road.

Iranian tells Rotary of farm problems there

Mr. Al Sherman, former exchange student to Austria and chairman of the IFYE committee in Coupeville introduced Mohammad Youssefy of Iran to the Rotarians attending the weekly luncheon at the IOOF hall. Mr. Sherman has headed the committee which raised $1300 to send Miss Betty Jo Schreiber to India under the IFYE.

Mr. Youssefy spoke of the agricultural problems of his native Iran and explained that he is the equivalent of a county extension agent. Most of the work there is done by hand except on the big farms. The people there eat much more bread than the Americans and less meat, believing that they get more nourishment from the bread.

There is very little farm machinery but more is being purchased each year. The farmers pay one-third more for their mechanical devices than do Americans. There is very little irrigation but lots of oil. The oil is government controlled and of each month at 8 p.m. in the IOOF hall. In August there will be only one meeting, August 11, at which time District Deputy, Michael Eberle, of Everett, will be present to install the newly elected officers.

Birthday luncheon
Mr. A. Arbeiter was host on Wednesday noon of last week at a birthday luncheon honoring Mrs. Haimline. The group of friends present gave the honoree a lovely casserole dish as a gift.

Open Meeting
The county health department invites all interested persons to attend a meeting on July 16 at the City Hall in Oak Harbor when new methods in sewage treatment and design will be explained and discussed.

most of the sales go to United States and Europe.

Mr. Youssefy mentioned many other interesting facts about his country such as that the money exchange is 75 Rials to $1 in U. S. money. They have a public school system. Farmers exchange labor with each other to a great extent. There are thirteen states in Iran. He also mentioned that the natives imported brown Swiss cows and crossed them with their own animals to provide a creature that was both a good milker and a good worker.

It was announced at the close of the program that next week is Navy-Rotary golf match.

The district governor for Rotary will be in Oak Harbor on July 24 for the noon luncheon and the evening.

Navy man alive
after drowning
scare Sunday

A Whidbey Island navy man walked out of the woods near Concrete on Monday ending fears he might have drowned while swimming in Finney Creek.

John Michael Tucker, AO3, NAS, 20, Wichita, Kansas was scratched and bruised but otherwise apparently unharmed.

Tucker disappeared Sunday afternoon and Skagit County law officers, helicopters and volunteers from the navy searched that night and Monday morning.

Two companions said Tucker was fishing when he decided to swim to a better spot. He tried to swim back after he apparently struck a rock and slipped below the surface, leading his companions to believe he had drowned.
