The checkpoint is at 6:00 P. M. at the Sheraton Inn Airport, followed by a restoration hour from 6:30 to 7:30 P. M. at the Madrid Room at the Inn.

Dinner and evening are on your own.

SUNDAY, JULY 16, 1972

Checkpoint: 6:00 P. M., Sheraton Inn Airport,
San Diego, California

This is the final day of the tour. All of the tourists will leave together at 10:00 A. M. traveling in convoy to the Mexican Border. A separate line will be formed in going through the Mexican Border. Mexico is going all out to give us the red carpet treatment.

We must be at the border at 11:00 A. M. where we will pick up our motorcycle escorts. We will drive through Tijuana, park at the Avenida Revolution on Main Street, near the Jai-Alai building, for shopping, visiting and sightseeing. There will be three hours allowed for this portion. We then will be escorted back to the United States border, where arrangements have been made to get through the United States Border as fast as possible. It is very important that we adhere exactly to the times mentioned herein as there is a bullfight in Tijuana on this day and the traffic will be enormous. If we stick to our schedule we will have no problem.

From the border we will return to the Sheraton Inn Airport in San Diego for a checkpoint at 6:00 P. M. There will be a cocktail party from 6:30 to 7:30 P. M. followed by the Grand Awards Banquet at 7:30 P. M. in the Toledo-Barcelona Room. Drink tickets and dinner tickets are in your tour packet.

The Grand Awards Banquet officially ends the tour.
