

Spring at Auburn Heights

May 22 & 23, 2004 ----- 1:00pm to 4:30pm

Experience First-Hand the Excitement of the early 20th Century:

- Ride the 1/8 size Auburn Valley Live-Steam Railroad
- Ride in early Steam and Electric Cars
- Visit the Museum of Stanley "Steamers"
- See Antique Standard Gauge Electric Trains Operate
- The beautiful 1897 Victorian home of the Marshall family will be open for tours (adults only, first floor only)
- Sample Fresh Steam-made Popcorn

Adult Admission Fee: $10 (additional $10 for house tour)

Children (ages 2-12): $7 Children under 2: Free

Tickets are available at the gate, Cash or personal checks only

3000 Creek Road, Route 82, Yorklyn, Delaware
(Just north of the intersection of Route 82 and Yorklyn Road)

Web Address: <http://www.auburnheights.org>

For more information e-mail TCMarshallJr@comcast.net or call 302-239-6379

A special event sponsored by the Friends of Auburn Heights Preserve