A Pair of Regency Argands

England, Circa 1825
Bronze, brass, and glass
Height: 12 ¾" Width: 11" Depth: 5 ¾"

Offered in a beautiful two-tone gilt-lacquered finish, this pair of Regency argand lamps utilize a stylized cornucopia design. The cornucopia is formed by large lotus-like leaves. The font emerges from it and is decorated with a finely articulated border. The open-and-closed valve handle is disguised as the finial. The square base is adorned with large cast leaves and rests on flattened bun feet.
