Per request of Division Chaplain and consent of Regimental Commanding Officer I served as Camp Chaplain of Camp Monte Strong in addition to other duties.

Men of this Regiment have joined with the other men of this Division to raise funds toward the construction of a Protestant Church in the town of Chitose located nearby. The offerings are coming in generously. The Chaplain has spent some time in the planing of the campaign and the proposed construction plans.
Most of this month has been spent in field training. Over half of the services were held in the bivouac areas and the weekday services took the place of Sunday services. In spite of this our attendance has shown a definate growth.
Chaplain Blaylock of the 120th Medical Battalion served Communion for the men of this organization.
By verbal permission of Regimental Commander I voluntarily assisted with the Chaplain's work of the 158th F.A. attached to this RCT.
Jewish services are provided at a nearby camp.

Dear Chaplain Richmond:

The extensive maneuvers of July taxed the ability of all chaplains as they sought to adquately cover their assignments. I appreciate very much your industry and zeal.

I urge all chaplains to give emphasis thru their preaching to the question of morals. All chaplains should speak their convictions and encourage the soldiers to lead a clean life. Preaching is a mighty tool for righteousness. Let us use it.

The following is the indorsement on your July report:

1. "Chaplain Richmond has performed his duties in an outstanding manner.

2. Being in the field most of the time Chaplain Richmond has been required to conduct several services each Sunday in order to get the maximum coverage. He has done this in a cheerful and energetic manner to the good of the morale of this organization.

3. On RCT problems Chaplain Richmond performed his duties in the field in a very capable manner."

Dear Chaplain:

The following indorsement was on your September report:

1. Exceptionally outstanding service and devotion to duty was manifest by Chaplain Richmond and the other Regimental Chaplains during the month of September 1951.

2. On two week-ends during this month the RCT was employed tactically over a very large area. Chaplain Richmond aggressively entered into a program armed at giving maximum religious coverage to the scattered elements of this RCT.

3. To accomplish the above a total of 14 services were necessary each week-end. Services were necessarily offered on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. It was necessary that each Chaplain travel over 300 miles to attend to his share of the total of 14 services. Rain added to the difficulties encountered.

4. Chaplain Richmond is commended for his diligent, aggressive and thorough participation in the religious program above outlined all of great spiritual and moral value to this command.
