is going to be the big blow
against the Germans.

Wasn't that the slogan when the Allied troops landed at Nettuno on January 21st?

T O D A Y

exactly three months of hard fighting have passed and you can now celebrate this event.
But it is still merely a beach-head, paved with the skulls of thousands of British and American soldiers!

The Beach-Head has become a Death's Head!

It is welcoming You with a grin, and also those who are coming after you across the sea for an appointment with death.

Do they know what they are in for?
Yes, they feel that they are landing on a
