BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FIRST OKLAHOMA INFANTRY

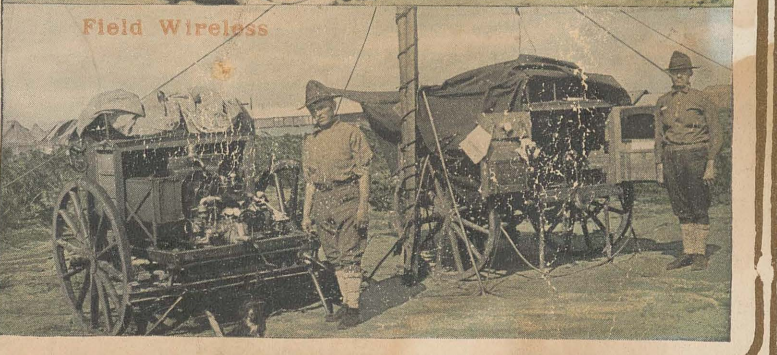

The First Oklahoma Infantry was organized in the year 1899 with John T. Stone, colonel, and Roy Hoffman, lieutenant-colonel. F. R. Boynton and Jake Sweitzer were the only majors at the time of organization. During the years from 1899 to 1917 the following served the Regiment as Majors: F. R. Boynton, Jake Sweitzer, A. H. Young, Clate M. Rambo, Chas. West, E. H. Jayne, Ed Overholzer, Ralph Ramer, J. C. Herr, Mont F. Heigley, Chas. P. Barrett, J. G. Gimsley, Victor M. Locke, Winfield Scott, John Alley, W. A. Green, Ellis Stephenson. Lieut. Col. Roy Hoffman succeeded John T. Stone as Colonel in February, 1900, and Major F. R. Boynton was promoted lieutenant-colonel. Later A. H. Young succeeded Boynton and Chas. West succeeded Young. On April 19, 1910, E. H. Jayne succeeded West, and has been lieutenant-colonel since that date. In June, 1916, the Regiment was ordered into service, and on the 19th day of July departed for San Benito, Texas, near the Rio Grande. Here they remained until February 20, 1917, when they were ordered home, and were mustered out of the Federal Service on March 1st. The Regiment was out of service just one month, when they were again mustered into the service of the United States. War had been declared against Germany and the regiment reported at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, April 5th. Roy Hoffman, colonel; E. H. Jayne, lieutenant-colonel; John Alley, major first battalion; W. A. Green, major second battalion; Ellis Stephenson, major third battalion; Mark W. Tobin, captain and adjutant; Chas. H. Barnes, chaplain.
