

Colonel George A. Hutchinson
Commanding Officer

Extends Greetings and Sincerest Regards to the Officers and Enlisted Men of the Regiment and to the Members of their Families

... with utmost confidence that each will do everything within his or her power to support, defend, and preserve the Government of the United States of America and the principles of Justice, Freedom, and Democracy upon which it is founded.

In things essential to National Defense, there must be Unity; in things not essential, there must be Liberty; in all things, there must be Loyalty—and Courage.

Mrs. Hutchinson and George A., Jr., join in the Season's Greetings.

Christmas 1941

New Year 1942