Yells, Songs And Speeches
To Be Featured At Huge
Student Gathering Tonight

On Friday night, eve of the grid-iron clash between Roosevelt's and Kamehameha's pigskin machines, will be staged a pep rally at the Warriors' camp in Kalihi. Songs, yells, speeches, and special student skits will feature the demonstration to rouse the "Imua" spirit in the football players and members of the rooting section.

Cheerers from both the school for girls and the school for boys will sing to the tunes played by the school band while cheer leaders will head the yelling.

Catherine Sims, Ruby Pua, and Rose-Pearle Kinslea will be song leaders while Albert Yim, John Allen, Auvern Ernst, Herman Brandt, and William Wilson will lead the yells.

A new football song will be introduced at the rally. The words of the song were composed by Mr. George Ebey, English instructor at the Kamehameha School for Boys, while the lyrics are taken from a march played by the band.

K.S.B. Stages "Straw" Vote

Results Show F.D.R. Polls 102
Votes; Landon Has 31

Results of a political "straw" vote staged at the Kamehameha School for Boys on November 3 were published by the committee in charge of ballot tallying late Tuesday evening prior to national and local returns in the general election.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Democratic president, overwhelmed his Republican rival Gov. Alfred M. Landon, when he amassed a total of 102 votes to Landon's 31 total. Norman Thomas, Socialist nominee, received a total of 2 votes, while Earl Browder, Communist, received one vote. Lemke did not amass a single vote.

The results of our local elections are as follows:

For the office of Delegate to Congress, Samuel Wilder King was elected, receiving a total of 55 votes against Bertram G. Rivenburgh's 13; the senators elected were Francis Ii Brown with 85 votes, David K. Trask with 71, and Eugene H. Beebe with 66; for the positions as representatives Eben P. KAM REPRESENTED AT INSTITUTE OF PACIFIC RELATIONS

Twenty-two boys from section A of the senior class and part-time English boys from the Kamehameha School for Boys attended the report on the Institute of Pacific Relations' convention held in Dillingham Hall at Punahou campus on Wednesday night, October 28.

Mr. James Triolo, adviser of the seventh grade, and Mr. Daniel Stone, tenth grade adviser, went along with the boys.

There were representatives from the K. S. G. faculty present at this meeting.

Dr. Chapman, one of the speakers, spoke about the research work done by universities, private institutions and commercial companies concerning the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Hawaii entered into the conference only twice in the discussion concerned with the foreign policy of the United States.

Hawaii was looked upon as the place best fitted for carrying out the work of the Institute of Pacific Relations largely because of a lack of racial prejudice.

Mr. Anderson spoke about the crisis of the Pacific area as seen by the Institute of Pacific Relations.

"Russia and Japan are gaining more power in the East while the United States and Great Britain are losing," stated Mr. Anderson.

The Chinese delegates made this very alarming statement: "It seems that the ability and desire to fight can gain more than 3,000 years of culture."

ERNEST GREENE TALKS TO K.S.B. STUDENTS ON VOTING NECESSITY

Mr. Ernest W. Greene, manager of Waipahu Sugar Company, addressed the students of the Kamehameha School for Boys on the necessity of voting, on Monday, November 2.

"When we vote," Mr. Greene said, "we are exercising a real duty. The present constitution provides the rights of individuals, presiding in a state, to vote. Years ago," continued Mr. Greene, "only men had the right of voting. Women could not vote."

"I estimate that there will be about 50,000,000 votes cast tomorrow in the polling booths on the mainland."

Mr. Greene went on outlining the constitution and telling of old time congress of the United States.
