It was decided a tour of the gardens to be fitted in with programs whenever possible. More stress to be laid on native growth.

Roll call to be answered by unusual bloom or fruit.

Getting brought by Gertrude Holminger discovered to be Canterbury Bell or air plant.

Mrs. was asked to obtain information concerning the Key West Garden Club Show.

Mrs. Lette Ube, program chairman, proposed a visit to the fair child gardens. Members voted to hold the March 20th meeting there.

Six months program booklet was proposed. Mrs. Carolyn Cohen very kindly offered to mimeograph them.

It was decided by the group that three women be assigned alphabetically to arrange programs for each meeting. Vivian Albury, Beth Albury and Anne Baldwin to serve at the February 21st meeting at the home of Carolyn Cohen.

Mrs. Vivian Gross brought a sample of a year book with calendar and flower arrangements - order to be placed next year.
