DAR SPONSORS GOOD CITIZENS PROGRAM

Department of Education will again give support to the Daughters of the American Revolution's Good Citizens Contest. According to Commissioner of Education Betty Castor, promotion of the qualities of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism is a responsibility of all the citizens of Florida and it is with great pleasure the DAR recognizes the senior girl or boy from our high schools who best exemplify these attributes.

DAR AWARD

JUNE 11, 1987 THE REPORTER

Britt Brown, Island Christian School Senior, received the DAR Good Citizen Award from the Florida Keys Chapter Chairman, "K" Wilkinson. Britt was chosen for this honor on her Service, Leadership, Dependability and Patriotism. She was president of the Senior Class, as well as the Student Council and very active in her church and sports in the school. She is planning to attend college in Tallahassee and will attend the Summer Session in June.

Monroe County schools participating are Key West High, (Linda Bryant, chairman); Marathon High (Erma Stout, chairman); and Coral Shores High and Island Christian School ("K" Wilkinson, chairman). Contest rules have been sent to the schools and the winner from the County will be judged from the individual school winners, with the county winner entering the state contest.

The National Association of Secondary School Principals place this program on the Advisory List of National Contests and Activities for 1987-88 and the local chapter will present each school winner with appropriate awards at their senior class assembly at the end of the school year.

Announcement will be made in 1988 when the winners are chosen and given individual recognition. Being a "Good Citizen" is one of the most important roles each student should cultivate and the local chapter is always proud to participate in this program and inspire our young folks the importance of our flag and all America stands for...Freedom.
