

2014/15 Cultural Umbrella Application and Workshops

Dear Prospective Cultural Umbrella Applicant:

I am pleased to provide you with the 2014-15 Cultural Umbrella application. The application is attached, together with a cover letter and table of contents. The cover letter gives additional instructions and important information. The table of contents is there to help you navigate through the application more easily. The application is attached in a Word format that allows you to type into it. Please be sure to save it to your desktop before beginning to work on it. If you cannot open this document, please contact me directly. If you have trouble copying and pasting the narrative sections into the application, please let me know that too. The application will also be posted on our website at www.keysarts.com. You will find a link on our home page and also in the Grants & More section.

The deadline for submitting the application is Monday, May 5th at 5 p.m. Applications will be reviewed by the Cultural Umbrella committee on May 21st, and their recommendations for funding will be forwarded to the TDC and BOCC for final approval.

We strongly encourage you attend one of the free workshops on the application and the media/marketing procedures offered by the Florida Keys Council of the Arts. There are a number of changes to this year's application from last year's that will be discussed at the workshops.
