

Jan. 13-20, 2000

'Garden Walk 2000' set Jan. 21

KEY LARGO — Patricia Cullin, co-chairman Upper Keys Garden Club 24th Annual Garden Walk presents "Outstanding Garden of the Year" certificates to residents whose gardens have been chosen for the "Garden Walk 2000."

The Walk allows both residents and visitors to see behind the walls of six beautiful gardens in the Upper Keys.

Proceeds from the event are used to beautify the community and to send a junior gardener to camp.

The winners are:

Claude and Raquel Plyler; Linda Barrett; Jeff and Brenda Braun; Nancy and Chuck Ellsworth; Diane Loveland and Fran Twitchell.

The Garden Walk will be held on Friday Jan. 21 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. for donation of $8 advance sales and $10 at the door.

The public may tour six Upper Keys Gardens and enjoy a tea at the Francis Tracy Garden Center, MM 94, bayside, between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Tickets can be obtained from the Book Nook in Key Largo, Four Winds in Islamorada, from club members or at the Garden Club Jan. 21. For information call (305) 451-4814.

Upper Keys Garden Club photos

Linda Barrett and Co-chairman Pat Cullin

Cullin and Fran Twitchell

Cullin and Diane Loveland