WHAT PEOPLE SAY 'BOUT US

*"I just wanted to send you a testimonial you can use on your website or any advertisement. I got married on the Island
Time Cruise boat on Dec 26th 2012 and it was everything we ever wanted for our special day. The staff and crew of the boat were more than accommodating and met all our needs. Even any last minute changes that were needed, no one hesitated to accommodate us. We highly recommend Island Time Cruises for any one looking for a special celebration as it is definitely a memorable one! Thank you again to Lynn, Rob, Carol, and the Captain for a wonderful wedding and we will never forget you guys! 😊*

We are holding our District Meeting at the Holiday Inn on Monday, October 21st and expecting garden club members from Dade County to be arriving Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 19 & 20. We would also like to include our Monroe County members, would I consider giving us a package rate for the ones interested in a sunset/dinner cruise for Sun evening 10/20/13. If so, we can advertise this to our club members now in preparation for our meeting in Oct. Can you give me a min. count + price that I would consider?

WHAT PEOPLE SAY 'BOUT US

"The great band started right away and had music the whole night except when there were contests. They came around with different samples of food throughout the cruise. In the literature from our hotel, it sounded like there was rum punch all night too, but only had a shot glass twice through the night so had to buy drinks."

A Message from the Owners

When you get on Island Time, you're not just getting on a boat...you're getting on a frame of mind!

Whether you're coming on board for a sunset cruise or you've chosen to use our boat for your private function, there are a few key values we try to always put out there:

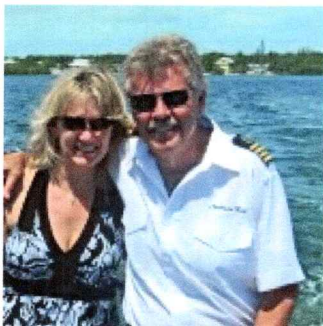

- You should always deal with happy people when you call us or come on board
- You should always have a hassle-free experience when booking a trip or a private event with us
- You should always have fun on board – while staying safe and comfortable

What sets us apart from other sunset cruise operators in the keys?

The way we treat you; we're a tight-knit crew of family and friends, and we want to make sure that you feel like you're an extension of that too.

We want you to...

- Feel like an extension of our family
- Feel like everything is being taken care of for your private function
- Feel like even if there IS a problem, whether with your booking or your experience, our crew genuinely wants to make sure you're looked after and leave satisfied

But above all, we look forward to having you on board so that you can experience getting on Island Time for yourself!

Our mission is to make sure every trip is filled with great drinks, snacks, music, family-friendly activities like conch shell blowing and limbo, and maybe a dolphin sighting to go with a spectacular sunset!

See ya on Island Time!

Lynn & Rob Mitchell

Hi Marilyn, Edna, and Paula:

If Keith feels good about taking this on and Marylou can commit to a group interested, I think it would be a good idea...but the problem is getting a certain number of people to commit.

I have been working with the Island Time Riverboat Cruises to commit to a dinner cruise on Sunday evening or an afternoon lunch/buffet. The problem is that due to lack of interest or just not enough people interested to make it worthwhile going out ($$'s-gas-crew expenses), they have only been booking sunset cruises on Wednesday's through Saturday's. However, if we could get some people together for a Saturday evening sunset cruise, it ought to be a pleasant experience for all. The cost would be $20 per person and champagne and rum punch is provided. ITRC plans on starting this in August. Hopefully, it will carry over to October. According to Brad with ITRC, he thinks so.

7pm-9pm

To schedule any other time for a cruise, you would have to charter the boat. This can get quite expensive:

RATES: Sunday-Friday Morning/Afternoon is $900 - 2 hour cruise, Saturday Morning/Afternoon 2 hour cruise/$950.

Sunset Evening Cruises: Sunday-Thursday is $1250 - 2 hours cruise and Friday-Saturday is $1800 - 2 hrs cruise.

These prices don't include the food. See attached Private Charter Pricing and menus.

All in all, to plan a riverboat sunset cruise for our guests would be ideal for a Friday or a Saturday evening. Now, the problem would be to entice our guest down on Friday, 10/18 or Saturday, 10/19 to enjoy an evening event for the ticket price of $20.00. We could put the notice out there as it wouldn't make a difference to us as these dates are dates the ITRC go out anyway and my understanding is that there is a free trolley pickup location at Holiday Inn.

What's your opinion?

Subject: Oct 20 --NEED INPUT!

I started to write to Keith about setting up something w/CRF on Sunday afternoon -- and the more I think it through, the less a good idea I think it is! Maybe just the African Queen as a promo & discount hotel rooms, leave CRF for the full day Monday -- what do you three think before I pursue this any further???

My note that I haven't sent is here:

Hi Keith,

I'm turning to you as main contact at CRF -- let me know if you need to say 'uncle'!

As you might remember, GCUK is hosting an all day meeting of 80-100 members of the South Fl District Garden Clubs on Oct. 21. We'll be at the Holiday Inn in Key Largo. I'll be dealing

SUN
Dinner
Jan's
SAT

w/those details. Ken & possibly Mike E will be the speakers -- Marylou Ruiz & Judy Clark are doing those details.

I think we might have mentioned this....so this might be follow up or a new concept: is there something CRF wants to host Sunday afternoon to entice people to come early and spend Sunday in the Keys (another planting opportunity??) or a lecture Sunday afternoon?

We will be hosting a dinner for the officers Sun night so I don't want to schedule opposite that....I don't know when they arrive yet either.

We have a special discount rate of $119 at the Holiday Inn for anyone who wants to come for the weekend -- and WE HAVE NO IDEA HOW MANY PEOPLE might be interested!

*In Peace,
Marilyn Rogers*
