IN THE FLORIDA KEYS

GARDEN CLUBS CONVENE

Contributed photo

District XII of the Federation of Florida Garden Clubs held its fall meeting at the Holiday Inn Key Largo on Oct. 21. The Garden Club of the Upper Keys hosted the one-day meeting, which included local, district and state club officers. Ken Nedimyer of the Coral Restoration Foundation was the luncheon speaker. FFGC President Sue Angle and past District Director Judy Clark presented the CRF with a check for $8,500 collected by the FFGC in support of coral restoration on the reefs. From left, Evelyn McGlone, chairwoman of the event and GCUK past president; Al Latina, FFGC third vice president; Clark; Claudia Bates, FFGC first vice president; Angle; Nedimyer; Marylou Ruiz, FFGC District XII director; and Marilyn Rogers, GCUK president.
