THE NAUTILUS

Published by the Seniors
Ravenswood High School
Ravenswood, West Virginia

We, the Nautilus Crew, dedicate this, the '60 Nautilus, to

To our Chief Navigator, Reed F. Myers, we express our heartfelt gratitude for a course well charted. It was he, who four years ago, mapped out our voyage and has kept us on that course. Although the sailing has sometimes been rough, we have reached our cherished destination as a result of his careful strategy. Due to his wise and superb navigating we have been able to reach port without once becoming grounded in the sand bars. We doff our caps to him and say "Thanks, for having kept us in line with the proper procedure."

CLASS HISTORY

ALL ABOARD! One bright morning in September, 1956, the on-rushing tide of freshmen scrambled aboard the ship that was to take them on a long four-year voyage.

During the first hard year, the captain of the ship was Christy Johnson. Helping her with her duties were Connie Matlack, Carl Brogle, and Mike Marsh. Representatives to the ship's council were Christy Johnson, Jim Williams, and Pat Ables. The overseers had a difficult job orienting the new crew, but Mrs. Elinore Hutchinson and Mr. James Kessel did an excellent job. The shipmates receiving varsity letters were Pete Gould, Gary Enos, and Gerry Stephenson.

Jim Cooper captained the ship the second year of the voyage. Verna Kay LeMasters, Don Lockhart, and Jim Williams were on deck to help steer the course. Representatives to the council were Ronnie Belue, Jim Cooper, Kathy Norris, Kay Buffington, and Gerry Stephenson. Varsity letters were earned by Bob Barnett, Mike Tucker, Larry Hendershot, Ronnie Belue, Jim Cooper, Bill Divers, Ronald and Donald Click, Pete Gould, Gary Enos, Gerry Stephenson, Jim Williams, and Dave James. Mrs. Hutchinson and Mr. Kessel survived as overseers again. Carol Brogle enthusiastically led the cheers for the deckhands.

Duties were heavier the third year. Don Brownlee was the captain, and Don Lockhart, Kay Buffington, and Jeanie Frum were his helpers. The council representatives were Kathy Norris, Helen White, Christy Johnson, Don Brownlee, Wayne Dockery, and Gerry Stephenson, who was vice president. The mates chose Carol Brogle and Gerry Stephenson to represent them at "KNOW YOUR STATE GOVERNMENT DAY;" Jim Robinson, "BOYS' STATE;" Barbara Wildman, Kathy Norris, Dee Balis, and Helen White, "GIRLS' STATE." Kay Buffington was a high stepping majorette. Part of the crew took a day off from ship duties to present the play, "HOME SWEET HOMICIDE." Members taking part were; Kathy Norris, Christy Johnson, Jim Williams, Kay Buffington, Mike Tucker, Gerry Stephenson, Judy Lincicome, Gary Enos, Brenda Woofter, Carole Pursley, Steve Pursley, Don Brownlee, Dee Balis, Carol Foose, and Gayle Everett. Mr. Harold Starcher joined the overseers, Mrs. Hutchinson and Mr. Kessel.

Finally, the last sailing year rolled around bringing its joys and sorrows. With the preparation for going ashore, it was a very busy year for all. Jim Cooper was put in charge of the ship for the second time, assisted by Don Lockhart, Carol Foose, Don Smith, and Carol Brogle. Kathy Norris presided over the ship's council. Barbara Wildman, Carole Pursley, and Madelyn Icenhower served on the council. The most exciting event of the year was the choosing of Mr. and Miss Red Devil. Carol Brogle and Edwin Haynes won the coveted crowns. The others in the court were: Kay Buffington, Don Brownlee, Judy Lincicome, Steve Pursley, Carole Pursley, Chuck Milhoan, Ann Ferguson, and Don Lockhart. Co-editors for the ship's log were Barbara Wildman and Jeanie Frum. For the ship's paper Chuck Milhoan and Kathy Norris were the co-editors. Deckhand cheerleaders were Carol Brogle (head) and Dolly Rymer. Kay Buffington, Carol Foose, and Judy Lincicome were majorettes. Kathy Norris won the Voice of Democracy Contest. "All State" shipmates were Jim Cooper--captain, Bill Divers--second team, Pete Gould--third team, and Mike Tucker--honorable mention. For the LKC deckhands we were represented by Pete Gould--co-captain, Jim Cooper--first team, Bill Divers--second team, and Larry Hendershot--honorable mention. Receiving shipmate varsity letters were: Bob Barnett, Mike Tucker, Larry Hendershot, Ronnie Belue, Jim Cooper, Bill Divers, Pete Gould, Gary Enos, Gerry Stephenson, David James, Ronald Click, Donald Click, Wayne Dockery, Jim Williams, Benny Badgett, and Clark

Ritchie. Mrs. Hutchinson gave up the ship to join the Guidance Department. Mrs. Olive Mason served with Mr. Kessel and Mr. Starcher as overseers.

The voyage came to a sounding end, but we were ready to board big and better ships in life's long voyage. We had passed the happiest years of our lives on the ship, "RHS." We disembarked, confident that the journey ahead had been smoother and the chances for success were brighter because of the experiences during the four-year voyage. We shall always remember and be grateful to all those who helped steer us along life's course.

CLASS PROPHECY

Attention Midshipmen Norris, Myers, Barnett, and Milhoan . . . As your officer, I need help with this instrument, the periscope. Instead of land, we're sighting the future--most peculiar. Midshipman Norris, take over sights and report what you see.

Up Periscope . . . Look, it's Jim Williams, such a flirt, now a prominent attorney-at-law helping lovely girls get their divorces. Who's that on his lap? Why, it's Karen Day now a bleached blonde . . . Can you beat that--Margie Meldon is now honorary president of Alcoholic's Anonymous . . . And there's Gail Badgett, queen of the Can-Can Girls (WOW! Look at those legs!) . . . Someone just got married--Who??? Steve Pursley, now known as the first man to marry a mermaid . . . What's that, a tepee?--Look, inside there's June Butler, now Mrs. Nancarrow . . . Of all things, Gretchen Smith is a fat lady in the circus owned by Jerry Miihlbach and his wife, the former Ann Ferguson . . . Lieutenant, I have spotted land--Oh, it's only a deserted island--Hey, there are the Click twins surrounded by a harem--of camels??? There goes Sandie Myers, now Mrs. Knapp, into the Pill Box Hospital for her 12th set of twins. Her doctor is Doctor Sawbones himself, Billy Slavens. . . . Look at frail and tiny Madelyn Icenhower, now co-owner of the Charles Atlas Muscle Building Company in New York . . . And Brenda Woofter is now living on Fifth Avenue--In Parkersburg!!! And there's Christina Benson in a modeling agency advertisement of shampoo--the latest product on the market by Don Lockhart, cosmotologist, who won fame for his remarkable rootbeer flavored lipstick . . . Down Periscope, Lt., I can't understand it at all. Barnett better take a look.

Up Periscope . . . Ah! Look what we have here. It's Bill Divers, the proud owner of the corner gas station. Look again at that big Cadillac coming into the station. It's Benny Badgett behind the wheel, and he's wearing a uniform; must be a general. Oh! It's a chauffeur's uniform . . . Listen to this sign--Now showing at the Smoot: Gary Enos in his latest movie, "Monster on Mars." He plays the monster . . . Christy Johnson . . . Why, she now owns the first Slenderella reducing agency in Ravenswood. Chris only weighs 1210 lbs. now. She keeps in trim by showing her customers how . . . Gosh, there's a Ravenswood News . . . The headlines say that Clark Ritchie, the editor, is visiting the White House. He went to see his old school buddies, Jim Robinson and Gerry Stephenson. They are now holding the high office of assistant janitors . . . What's that other headline??? A modern day "Rip Van Winkle" is none other than Dave James. I'd have thought he would have got his sleep out in high school . . . Take a look at this sports page. It's about Gayle Everett, the new Globe Trotters star; she leads the nation in points . . . What, Kay Buffington and Barbara Wildman are the stewardesses on the first space ship to Mars. They couldn't get Earth men so they're gonna try Mars . . . Why, there's something about me! Bob Barnett and Larry Hendershot, noted engineers, now manufacture the newest sporties sport cars in the world, for the low price of $500. It consists of four wheels, a frame, one seat, and one Maytag Washing-Machine motor. Charles White was the designer of the seat for these sports cars. Down periscope . . . Gee, even the Ravenswood News must be crazy. I Think Milhoan better take over for a while!!!

Up Periscope . . . What's this--look--the Dominion of Cuba has just been taken over by Pete Gould. That boy's really gone places. Carl Brogle is running a gambling house in this Cuban Paradise. No, he hasn't changed a bit . . . A new trans-continental flying record has been set by Marilyn Salser. I knew she could handle a Jett . . . What's this? Oh! Yes, Deloris Pyatt and Sue Hupp are happily married and are living in Cottageville. They seemed to want to go there all along.

What?! A commercial on a submarine? I've seen everything now . . . That voice sounds familiar. Now I recognize it; it's Carol Brogle and she's advertising the Knotty Pine Club with guest stars Carole (Sparkle) Pursley and Gladys (The Voice) Cobb. Those girls surely made a name for themselves . . . Chuck Milhoan is in the New York Stock Exchange, but what's that--??? OH! Yes, he is president of the Women's Hosiery Company; that lad's interest never did change . . . The White House has taken on a new President this month. It's Democrat James

Truman Cooper; that boy always seemed to be connected to a donkey somehow . . . The past president's term ended when he was seriously hurt while watching the Indianapolis 500 race. The winner was Keith Paxton . . . he ended up like his older brother, driving cars for the Champion Spark Plug Company. Keith is backed up with a good crew though: Larry Staats, and Larry Cathers . . . Oh no! Another commercial--Hm, Fly Smokey Mountain Airlines. Your hostess Helen White will serve you to the fullest degree in her position as stewardess of the year. That's why she was "never up in the air around school" saving for a future date was this nice lassie.

More names in the sports world, too . . . The world was astonished today when a new under-water swimming record was broken by secretary Carol Foose, who has assumed the role of housewife and secretary for blessed husband--I didn't know that she could swim.

Mike (Muscles) McGavran has finally started growing and capped the Mr. Universe title for two years. Who is that with him but young Donna Allman, the U. S. Champion ice skater. Well, she always was fast on her feet in the ladies division. I'm starting to see things . . . over to Myers . . . Down periscope.

Now what's this I see--Mrs. Judy Lincicome Tucker is the head majorette in Glenville State College Marching Band, where Mike Tucker is head coach. They are raising a corps of majorettes and a football team. Just a minute. There's somebody waiting for the mailman. Oh, that's just Kathy Norris, still waiting for Darry's letter. Here comes the mailman now; why, it's Ronnie Belue. He always did like to play postoffice. The inventor of the really smear-less lipstick, Edwin Haynes, comes in handy with his occupation . . . And what do you think became of Don Brownlee? He never graduated; Mr. Cox kicked him out of class for not laughing at one of his jokes . . . Dolly Rymer is now teaching drivers ed. at R.H.S.

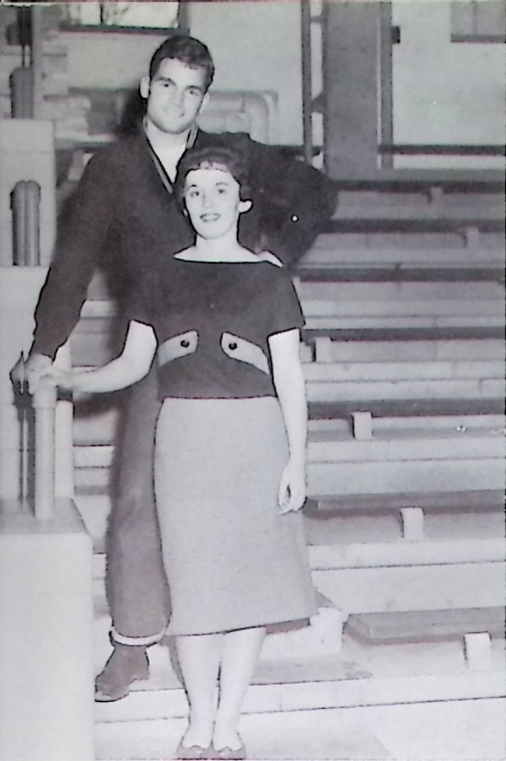

Still working hard is Jeannie Frum, who recently applied for the position of the late Professor Think, founder and president for Think-At-All-Times College in Lost Village, South Africa. Helen Teets and Roberta King Stevens are now the co-presidents of the "Little Problems Inc.," mostly two-legged ones . . . The new owner of the Ravenswood Bowling Alley is Sally DeLong and Sue McMurray, her champion bowler, gives lessons free to all good looking boys!

Richard Hafer made a great scientific discovery recently. Using his new discovery, he is now employed as stand-in for Elvis Presley. It is known as the "Scientific Trick." Larry Bennett and Jim Gibson joined the Army upon graduation from R.H.S. and finally have reached the rank of PFC. Virginia Seals, Kay Lyons, and Mildred Riffle are now owners of the Dirty Diaper Syndicate. The pass-word is T-I-D-E.

Oh no--Wayne (lead foot) Dockery is running a dance studio!! His lovely assistant is none other than "Pammy." Look at that--Faye Franklin is now living in Alaska teaching the Eskimos the three R's--she surely must have a lot of patience. Not again, Larry Peppers is still trading cars. Just recently he wrecked his new Thunderette. Who was with him? Yep--you guessed it--Pat Hunt--more plaster casts for that gal.

What a strange series of occurrences on this periscope. Wait a minute! It's clearing. Now all we can see are water and land.

Down Periscope!

SPORTS ABOARD SHIP

We, the Nautilus Staff, wish to pay respect to the memory of Mart Moore. Mart will always be remembered by the students, faculty, and alumni of Ravenswood High School who were fortunate enough to know him. His untiring efforts to keep the sports equipment and gym in readiness were most commendable.

RAVENSWOOD'S

This year the Ravenswood Red Devils completed their most successful gridiron season in school history. Under the outstanding direction of coaches, Spano and Bokovitz, the Red Devils captured their second state championship in three years and the first Little Kanawha Conference Championship in school history. The Red Devils finished the season with a 10--1 record.

RHS versus WAHAMA--The Red Devils made their first appearance of the season with an impressive 28-18 victory over the Wahama White Falcons. Halfback, Gerry Stephenson tallied 2 touchdowns on 46 and 33-yard runs. End, Ronnie Belue, tallied the other 2 on a pass from Gary Enos and a 30-yard run with an intercepted pass. Jim McKinley dropkicked the 4 extra points.

RHS versus SPENCER--In the second game the fired-up Red Devils stomped a strong Spencer eleven 28-7. Ron Belue scored the first touchdown on a 20-yard pass from Gary Enos. Enos scored the second on a quarterback sneak. The Red Devils scored their other 2 TD's on a 70-yard run after a fumble by Jim Cooper and a short line plunge by Jim Yoakum. Jim McKinley added 4 extra points to the score.

RHS versus MARIETTA--The jittery Red Devils received their lone loss of the campaign against Marietta 48-14. Fullback, Pete Gould, scored the 2 Ravenswood touchdowns and Jim McKinley added the extra points on end runs.

RHS versus SISTERSVILLE--Ravenswood got back on the win trail in their homecoming game beating the Tigers from Sistersville 12-6. Daryl Culp scored both Red Devil touchdowns. The defensive team protected the slim lead in the last quarter, putting up two spirited goal line stands.

RHS versus BUFFALO--For their fifth game of the season, Ravenswood traveled to Buffalo where they downed the Bisons 26-6. Ebby Crow led the scoring with 2 touchdowns, followed by Bob Coates and Jim Cooper with one each. Jim McKinley added 2 extra points.

RHS versus CALHOUN--On Oct. 9, Ravenswood pasted Calhoun 38-6. Daryl Culp scored twice on runs of 75 and 34 yards respectively. Wayne Dockery scored on a 10-yard pass from Gary Enos. Pete Gould added the 4th on a 39-yard dash and C. W. Caldwell the 5th on a 5-yard run. Ebby Crow scampered 40 yards with an intercepted pass for the locals last. Jim McKinley added 2.

SEASON WRITE-UP

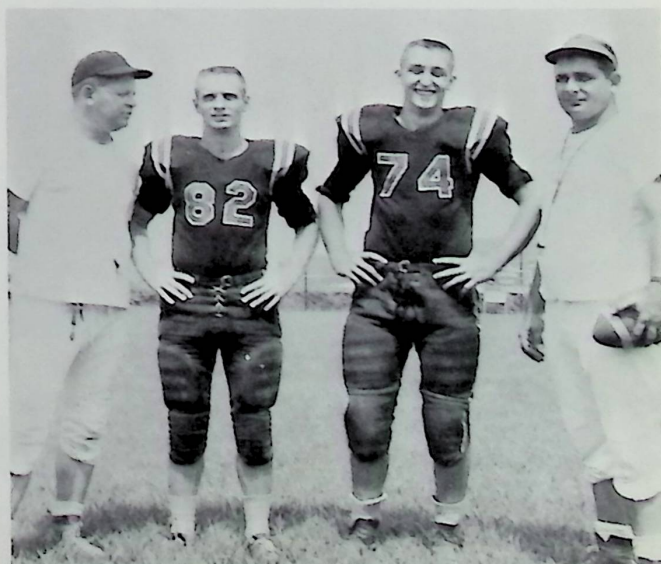

RHS versus WIRT--On Oct. 16, the Red Devils traveled to Elizabeth where they skinned the Wirt Tigers 40-0. The first TD was made by Ebby Crow on a 56-yard run. Gary Enos scored a 55-yard touchdown on a quarterback sneak. Culp went 9 yards for the 3rd score after a 56-yard pass to Mike Chambers had placed the ball in scoring position. Jim Cooper scored on a 50-yard run with a fumble and Pete Gould scored on a 15-yard run. Lineman, Dave James, scored the last Red Devil touchdown when he blocked a Wirt punt in the end zone and fell on it for the score. McKinley added 4 extra points.

RHS versus CRUM--In the eighth game of the season RHS walloped a strong Crum team 32-6. Daryl Culp scored 2 TD's in the first half. In the second half Pete Gould scored 2 more touchdowns on an intercepted pass and a 30-yard run from scrimmage. Bob Coates scored the final touchdown on a 30-yard plunge. Jim McKinley accounted for the extra points.

RHS versus HANNAN--Ravenswood clinched a berth in the Class "A" playoff with a 52-0 win over Hannan High School. RHS's fleet backs ran wild through large holes made by the Red Devils' beefy line. Daryl Culp scored three touchdowns and Bob Coates scored two. Gerry Stephenson, Wayne Dockery, and Pete Gould each added one. McKinley added 4 extra points.

RHS versus RIPLEY--Ravenswood got sweet revenge for last year's 6-0 loss to Ripley by handing the Vikings a 26-7 loss. Ron Belue scored the first touchdown on a short pass from Gary Enos. Culp ran for the extra point. Gould scored the second TD on a long run around end. In the third quarter Culp scored on an end run and added the extra point also. RHS's final TD was scored by Culp on a 56-yard run over right tackle. The victory clinched the LK title for the Red Devils.

RHS versus WINFIELD--On Nov. 14, in the rain and mud and with temperatures hovering around 32°, Ravenswood won it's 2nd state championship in 3 years by edging Winfield 15-13. The victory was a great team effort. After Winfield had scored first, Culp took the kickoff and behind a freak block thrown by Pete Gould outdistanced the entire Winfield team. Culp also added the extra point. In the second quarter, with Winfield in possession of the ball on their own two-yard line, Bill Bryant, Winfield's ace halfback, tried an end run; but Jim Norris made a spectacular play by tackling Bryant in his end zone. This gave Ravenswood 2 points and its final margin of victory. Daryl Culp scored another TD to make the score 15-6, and from then on the Red Devil's defense took over and allowed the Winfield but one more touchdown.

In addition to the traditional letter--grade honor roll each six weeks, Ravenswood, this year, initiated semester Honors Groups as a new incentive toward scholarship, freshmen through seniors. The basis for the Academic Honors Group follows the national criteria as recommended by the President's Committee on Education.

1. Selection of college preparatory courses in core subjects such as higher math, advanced science, Latin, college English, and requisite social studies.
2. At least 2 A letter grades and nothing in any subject below B.
3. At least 3 teachers recommendations in core subjects dependent upon class participation and contribution as well as individual achievement.
