

9 Maryland Nurses Called To Army Duty

Nine Maryland nurses have been called to duty by the army and will report early in January to Fort George G. Meade for basic training, the Third Service Command announced yesterday.

The women, all second lieutenants, will be assigned to station hospitals in Pennsylvania, Maryland or Virginia following the training. They are:

Eleanor M. Stanford, 3404 University Place; Eloise J. Goode, Maddox, St. Mary's county; Clara G. Lebeck, Cumberland; Dorothy E. Lechlitter, Towson; Edith P. Hudson, 2514 Talbot road; Nellie P. Von Culin, Betterton, Kent county; Eleanor F. Keesey, 710 Rutland avenue; Ruth V. Rennix, Sinai Hospital, and Romaine Scales, 710 Rutland avenue.