

A CENTURY OF WOMEN

THE MOST INFLUENTIAL

EVENTS IN 20TH CENTURY
WOMEN'S HISTORY

1900-1910: The National Women's Trade Union League is formed. 1910-1919: Mother's Day becomes a national holiday.

1920-1929: The Nineteenth Amendment guarantees American women the right to vote. 1930-1939: Amelia Earhart flies solo across the Atlantic Ocean.

1940-1949: French designer Louis Réard invents the bikini. 1950-1959: The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet premieres. 1960-1969: The National Organization for Women is founded. 1970-1979:

Congress passes the Equal Rights Amendment. 1980-1989: Sally Ride becomes the first American woman astronaut in space. 1990-1999: All branches of the military are ordered to examine and justify policies that exclude women from

DEBORAH G. FELDER