

investment in which the trustee hoped to make a financial profit on Anna's behalf. He held the property for about two and a half years, and then sold it, on 5 April 1878, to three unmarried sisters: the Kendalls. The ladies paid $6,000. for the house and its 47 acres. (D.B. 486, page 344.)

16. Mary E. Kendall, Ruby J.A. Kendall, and H. Belle Kendall - For the next 34 years, the Shawnee Run house was the home of these sisters. Finally, sometime after the death of Ruby, Mary and Belle sold the property to A.O. Johnson, --on 11 January 1912. (D.B. 1052, page 451.)

17. A.O. Johnson - On 17 January 1913, a year after he acquired the property, Mr. Johnson and his wife, Elizabeth, were sued by the Kendall sisters for "foreclosure of mortgage and other equitable relief". He owed them a total of $1145.06. The court decision was that the Shawnee Run property be sold in a public auction. --- The Kendall sisters were the highest bidders ($3,000.) and so they got their property back! The Sheriff signed this Deed on 3 June 1913. (D.B. 1071, page 506.)

18. Mary E. Kendall and H. Belle Kendall - For another seven years, these ladies held title to the property, except for a half-acre of land in the southwest corner (on the south side of the road) which they had sold to Charlotte C. Shipley on 3 October 1913. On 1st May 1920, they conveyed the remaining 46.73 acres to Katarina Eisele. (D.B. 1218, page 121.)

19. Katarina Eisele - She lived for twenty years in the Shawnee Run house and finally sold it (and the land) to Frank T. Hamilton, on 13 May 1940. (D.B. 1861, page 365.)

20. Frank T. Hamilton - He also owned the property for several years before selling it, on 24 January 1948, to Virginia P. Fry. (D.B. 2282, page 384.)

21. Virginia P. Fry - She was a resident of the subject property for 16 years, and then on 29 July 1964, sold it to John R. and Jean S. Kinmonth. (D.B. 3362, page 241.)

22. John R. Kinmonth and his wife, Jean S. Kinmonth - They owned the 46.73 acres and the house, but on 14 Dec. 1967 a quit claim was written by John Kinmonth, relinquishing to Jean Kinmonth his interest in the 5.344 acres upon which the house stands. (D.B. 3582, page 462.) She later sold this property to Robert J. Carr Jr. and his wife, Jerusha B. Carr, --on 13 September 1971. (D.B. 3810, page 318.)

23. Robert J. Carr Jr. and his wife, Jerusha B. Carr - The Carrs lived here until they sold the house and 5.344 acres to James R. and Ann G. Troppmann, on 28 March 1983. (D.B. 4252, page 1919.)
