

IMAGES

... then and now

From The Indian Hill Historical Society

Buckingham Lodge
1861

VILLAGE BARNs

Over 200 barns dot the landscape in the Village. These include both vacant reminders of days gone by and up-to-date working barns for horse owners and riders.

Constructed of timber, brick or stone, they are visual reminders of "then" ...and "now" serve as residences, storage facilities, or agricultural structures.

