Little masteries achieved
Little wants with care relieved
Little words of love expressed
Little wrongs at once confessed
Little graces meekly woven
Little slights with patience forgiven
These are treasures that shall rise
Far beyond the smiling skies
Respectfully yours
B.E. Merry

Dear Lillie
For thee my fair and gentle friend
I ask not wealth or fame. I only ask
Thy path may be free from lifes

Here is one leaf reserved for me,
From all kind words it yet is free,
Oh! could I now within thy mind,
One little vacant corner find
How quick would I with greatest care,
Write down my name forever there.
Yours sincerely,

Lillie,
 Not the beauties that surround us
 Not the pleasures life may bring
 Have alone the power to charm us
 Or their golden shadows fling
 But our pathway dearest Lillie
 Shadows back the form we wear
 May yours be a glow of sunshine
 Pure and peaceful full of prayer
 This, the wish I leave you Lillie
 Please accept the parting token
 And beyond the darksome river
 May we share a bliss unbroken

Dear Lillian:
We may write our names in albums,
We may trace them in the sand,
We amy chisel them in marble,
With a firm and skillful hand;
But the pages soon are sullied,
Soon each name shall fade away,
Every monument will crumble,
Like all earthly hopes decay.
But, dear Lillie, there is an album,
Filled with leaves of snowy white,
Where no name is never tarnished
But forever pure and bright;
In that book of Life, God's Album,
May your name be penned with care
And may all who here have written
Write their names forever there.
