Western Reserve Chronicle - May 21, 1856

DIED--In Warren, on the 14 inst., Mrs. ANNA REEVES ELWELL, wife of Samuel Elwell, aged 57 years.

Mrs. Elwell emigrated to this town in company with her husband, 40 years ago, from Bridgeton, Cumberland county, New Jersey. She was then 17 years of age. For 36 years a member of the Congregational Church of this place, retired in her disposition; and without ostentation, she lived an unusually active, earnest and religious life.

To her this life was a momentous and vital reality, as the preparatory state for that other great life. To fit herself and family for usefulness here, and immortality hereafter, has been the one great absorbing object of her life, and this purpose has ever been pursued with firmness and constancy. After a long and wearisome illness, which completely exhausted the body, she departed full of hope, her mind remaining clear and strong to the last.
