

Readers Cricket Bats

- Called the “biggest selling cricket ball “company in the UK” by a site Romida that sells (mostly) cricket, hockey, and darts in the UK.

“Leeds and Kingswood Cubs and Scouts”

- English Boys/Girls Scouts. There is a World Scouting Organization connecting these different scouting associations. These programs are a form of informal education with emphasis on practical outdoor activities, including camping, woodcraft, aquatics, hiking, backpacking, and sports.

“Presented at the 21st Jamboree England 2007”

- “The 21st World Scout Jamboree brought together some 28,000 young people – girls and boys, aged between 14 and 17 – and 12,000 adult leaders from more than 150 countries. It took place from 27 July to 8 August 2007 at Hylands Park, Chelmsford, 50 kilometres to the north-east of London. The 21st World Scout Jamboree was part of the world centenary celebrations of Scouting.”

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/worldscouting/albums/72157637554489554/>

This “jamboree” or large festive gathering took place to celebrate the 100 year anniversary of the founding of Scouting on Brownsea Island, UK, the “birthplace of Scouting”.

(https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Scouting_2007_Centenary)

Value

- On eBay there are scarves from the Jamboree up for bid starting at £149.99 (about $190)
- Not sure how prevalent cricket was in the celebration. In a 70 page digital report of the Jamboree “cricket” is only mentioned once.

Location

- Maybe connection to village named Broomfield in Essex, United Kingdom.
- There is a “Leeds Castle” located near “Broomfield” and Kingswood. There is also a church names LBK Church (Leeds, Broomfield, Kingswood). All located in the county of Kent in southeastern England.
- sister/twin name