JUNIOR LEAGUE XI

This year's team have had a very successful season, finishing in fourth position in the table. I feel sure that we could have done even better than this had not certain conditions placed us at a disadvantage. Our first two games of the season were against Bermuda Technical Institute and Churchill, two strong teams who ended the season in first and second places. Having to play these two teams at a time when our own was only just settling down and learning each other's particular football talents, meant that our almost unbeaten record against the other teams was just not good enough.

However, all members of the team can feel justifiably satisfied with their performance. As for team personalities, the captain, Marshall II, was an ideal base for the team with his exceptional ball control and seemingly endless energy. Our forwards were somewhat small and therefore ineffective but nevertheless their combined efforts produced some exciting football. Both fullbacks, Moulder and McKirdy, were bastions of strength, both possessing a formidable right foot, which cleared many menacing attacks.

Next season I am sure that a more determined effort whilst training will yield even better results.

JUNIOR XI

Marshall 2, Moulder, McKirdy, Dawson, Bargett, Evans 1, Branco, Gilbert, Smith, Harker, Fredericksen, Thorne.

During this last term, the enthusiasm of the club's members has noticeably dropped, and I sincerely hope that this is not a sign of what is to come next year, for I hasten to say that Saltus has probably got the strongest and most organised chess club in Bermuda. It would be a crying shame if it suddenly broke up, for we have a reputation to live up to.

My hearty thanks go out to Mr. Pettit, our organiser, my two administration colleagues, and especially the parents who have donated funds to the club to keep our equipment. I also thank the boys who played in the school teams, and thus so willingly gave up much of their spare time for it. I hope that the same standard of play and enthusiasm will continue for many more years to come.

SALTUS JUNIOR XI

The Junior XI enjoyed a relatively successful season, eventually finishing third in the league behind two very good under 13 teams from Berkeley and Warwick Sec.

Throughout the season the team played with enthusiasm, however a lack of physical strength, especially in midfield often led to their downfall.

Most consistent players throughout the season were Lambert I, Brown III and Bean II, those who had developed more than the others, but it was pleasing to see the small players like Wilson, Heyliger II, and Reid exhibit skills which obviously will serve the school well in the future.

SOCCER - INTERMEDIATE TEAM

The Intermediate team enjoyed a very successful season and at times displayed the full value of their soccer talents with some graceful performances.

The league this year was divided between East and West to ease the travel burden on some schools. We were in the West Division and the games were played on a home and away basis. Out of a total of eight league games, we won six, lost one and drew one, finishing second to Berkeley in our Division. Berkeley was responsible for our only defeat, fighting back to win 4-2, after we had led 2-1 at the half. In other games we played three, winning two, losing one.

The team was very capably led by Marshall, a natural leader on and off the field. On the field he was a thorn in the side of many teams as he drove his team on with some dazzling displays — and he was the top scorer with 23 goals.

In goal Thorne 1 and Dawson showed remarkable improvement and gave solid support between the sticks. Thorne also converted into a very useful defender when needed. Benevides developed into a strong tackling fullback and he and Branco made a formidable pair. Frederiksen also played in the fullback position, but was over anxious and too hesitant in his play; however, proved himself as a good distributor of the ball. Hayward and DeSilva 1 gave solid support in the middle of the defense. Hayward, a strong stopper, is possibly one of the strongest headers of the ball in schoolboy circles. DeSilva, although a very good footballer, tends at times to lack concentration. In midfield we were well served by Marshall, and Gilbert, a diminutive schemer, who possesses the best ball control on the team. Up front Masters 2, with his speed, was a real match winner as he has a very strong shot. Bardgett showed his skills — and was the find of the season. Heyliger, a utility forward played in every position in the forward line, enjoyed a splendid season. Godwin, another utility forward, must be faster on the ball, but this will develop with time and experience. Each member of the team was outstanding as credit to the school, not only as footballers, but in the manner in which they conducted themselves at all times.

SOCCER: SCHOOL VS. STAFF

Any team that beats the School First XI by 7-0 and 4-1 must be good. Even though the School's premier side is getting younger and less robust, the requirements of the Academic 6th Form Centre having been met, there is no denying the talents of the Staff's team.

It is fair to compare, and find remarkable similarities between, the present Staff side and the new Brazilian World Champions. M. Jackson in goal has nothing to learn from Felix; A. Pettit covered his goalmouth after the fashion of M. Brito, whilst Carlos Alberto and R. Soyles both overlapped in savage thrusts. The rock-like defending of J. McEwan reminded us all of Everaldo. Defending wing-half Clodoaldo had much the same ideas of defence as M. Hunter, though
