Worshipful Master	Out of Juris No.0	01/01/2000	01/01/2000

My father, Floyd Deo Rodgers, was so proud to be a Mason. His family was proud too. We showed up for all of the installations. Several of his children and grandchildren were Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls, or Demolay. He and his wife, my mother Opal, were also active in Easter Star.

Dad's most often involvement was with Thomas M. Reed Lodge 225 where he served as worshipful master. He was also very active with a lodge in British Columbia. My parents and "the Canadians" visited each other frequently.

I never asked my Dad to help me join the Masons and he never asked me to. I knew that that would have made him happy but, regrettably, I never did.

Dad passed away in 1994 at the age of 84.

Proudly, Floyd Deo Rodgers, Jr.

Clint Brown

My father, Floyd Rodgers, was a very proud member of The Masons. He was a past Grand Master of Lodge 225. He passed away in 1994. I have two of his aprons in beautiful cases. I'm proud of them but I have to let them go as I N headed for assisted living and can't keep them. Would you like me to get them to you? I'm in Des Moines, WA. Please phone, text, or email me.
