Barrytown Items.

Thursday's Eaglit had a fine description of the dedicatory exercises at the Lutheran Church, Red Hook, and it was

Thursday a Lagua man a me descaption of the dedicatory exercises at the Lutheran Church, Red Hook, and it was appreciated.
Wedneeday morning funeral services were held over the remains of Joseph Sullivan, of Barrytown, who died last Sunday, and the remains were interred
in the Rhinecliff Cemetery.
The rain has interfered some with apple-picking, but a great many lots are being shipped.
A steam drill has been at work boring
a well in Jerry Sullivan's yard.
Some of the summer boarders still linger at Barrytown.
Wm. Lown has bought some orchards at Barrytown and over the river, the Osterhoudt and Davis orchards being among them.
The time-tables of the steam yachts
running between Rondout and Glasco don't give the time of arrival at either end of their routo, and are a great annoyance, especially to strangers.
A car load of good oats that—could be sold for a fair price per bushel would probably find ready sale at Barrytown.
A party who exhibited some sheep at the county fair is not satisfied at the low premiums offered, and thinks too much attention is paid to "hoss" tros, especially so soon after the regular circuit races on the same track.
Mr. Alexander Near contemplates going South this winter, and while there will indulge in fishing, photographing,
etc.

etc.

The Hungarian who was killed over the river by a cave-in was not a resident of Barrytown.

A car load of barrel staves and hoops has arrived at Barrytown for Mr. Sny-

1890 newspaper clipping Jerry Sullivan's well drilling

Clipped By:

paula_schoonmaker Sat, Jul 29, 2023

Copyright © 2023 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

Newspapers™