

Irhaeuer answered the door requested that if I wished any information to give her the form and she would see that her mother filled out the form and upon completion would return it when we called the next time. I agreed, & this is the completed form given to me.