

HARDSCRABBLE

Hardscrabble

1960

Edited by the

SENIOR CLASS
OF

RED HOOK CENTRAL SCHOOL

Red Hook, New York

To you, Miss Aiken, we, the Senior Class of 1960, dedicate this yearbook. Through the last four years you have guided, counseled, and taught us.
We truly thank you for your patience and helpfulness.

We, the Senior Class of 1960, dedicate this yearbook to you, Miss Bennison; you who have been our constant guide and counselor through our last three years in high school.

For the many hours of patient effort, for the loyalty, and for the friendliness that you have given to the pupils of Red Hook Central,
Mrs. Champlain, we thank you.

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

As individuals grow older they tend to look backward with nostalgia to the days of their youth and to the many warm friendships developed during high school and college years. A high school senior yearbook is the strongest and only lasting link between the many friendships that are forged during high school. It is a permanent record of the joys and sorrows, almost exclusively the former, of a group of boys and girls who have lived, loved, and struggled together through twelve years of formal education. Therefore, it is right and proper that the staff should have worked diligently and long on this yearbook.

The staff, and their advisors, Mrs. Champlin and Mr. Baringer are to be congratulated for preserving and enhancing the quality of Hardscrabble in the year of 1959-1960.

I wish to extend my congratulations and best wishes to all the members of the Class of 1960.

FACULTY

A dramatic black and white photograph of a cloudy sky. A bright light source, likely the sun, is positioned behind a large, billowing cloud mass in the upper half of the frame, creating a strong lens flare that radiates across the lower half of the image. The clouds are textured and layered, with some appearing darker and more dense than others. The overall mood is one of awe and grandeur.

*I dare do all that may become a man;
Who dares do more, is none.*

A.F.S. - BARBARA CAMPBELL

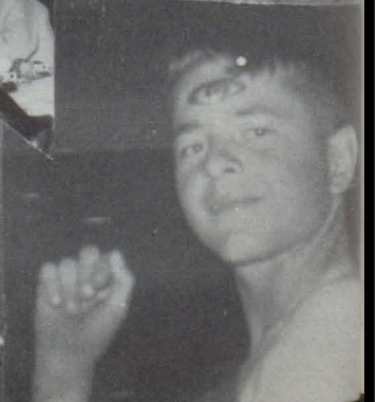

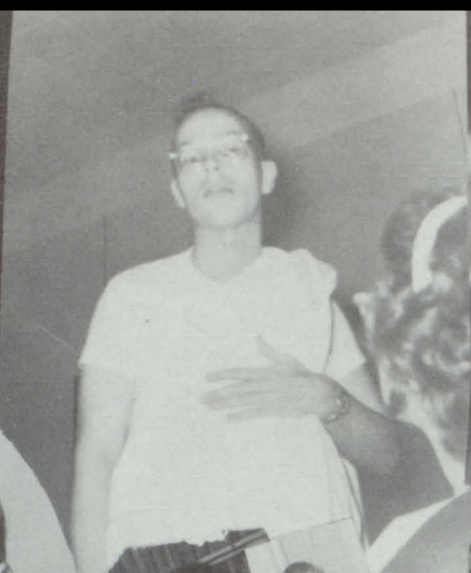

Last summer, Barbara Campbell, Red Hook's A.F.S. student went to the Netherlands and was a member of the Seegeler-Thieles family for four weeks and the Komes family for four weeks.

"It was wonderful to represent my school, community, and country, this summer as part of the American Field Exchange Program," Barbara says. "I only hope I can relay my experiences and impressions of the Netherlands to many of the people I represented."

A.F.S. - TUNCER ORUKLU

The seniors have been proud and happy to have Tuncer Oruklu from Turkey as part of their class this year. During his year in Red Hook, Tuncer lived with Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey and family.

Tuncer says, "In R.H.C.S. the instructions and manner of the teachers and the behavior of the active, friendly, intelligent classmates, gave me the best impressions of this great nation."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the class of 1960, county of Dutchess, in the state of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, making the following personal bequeaths:

Mary A. thinks that her freckles would look good on Sandy H. Bob B. leaves one job at the Grand Union for anyone crazy enough to take it. Frank B. leaves his acting ability in the Senior play love scenes to Pete R. Sue B. wishes her dimples upon Chase Green. Barbara C. leaves Europe to next year's A.F.S. student. Glenn C. bequeaths his 248 bowling score to Jim McGurk. Bruce C. leaves all of Rhinebeck to Ernie Wooden and Ross Williams. Jerry D. leaves all financial worries to next year's Senior class treasurer. John D. Wills his Ford to Dale S. Melissa F. just wants to leave. Vivien F. gladly bestows one badly used driver ed. car to Mr. Barnes. Dale F. leaves DITTO'S crossword puzzles to anyone with patience. Frank D. leaves for West Venice? Ruth F. leaves Red Hook to set up housekeeping. Mary Ellen F. wills her braces to her orthodontist. Hildegard F. leaves locker no. C-3 to Janet Carley. Penny G. bequeaths to Lorraine Young her driving abilities. Judy G. wills her hair to anyone who wants it. Brenda G. leaves HARDSCRABBLE to next year's editor, with luck. Carol H. would like to leave her shy, quiet manner to Joan S. Lincoln H. leaves to become a truant officer. Katherine H. wishes to leave all the "motts and moit" to Marianne J. Lorraine H. wills her Brooklyn accent to Clara Barth. JoAnn K. leaves all corn stalks, broken windows and her boot to Hank Webster. Susan L. desires that her driving ability go to Joan F. Pat L. bestows unused hair bleach, left to her last year, to Loretta K. Barbara M. would like to leave her ponytail to Jane G. Robert M. leaves the hospital nurses in the care of Matt A. Bill O. wills his friendly personality to any deserving person. Clara O. disposes of her baritone sax to the possession of Betty McGurk. Tuncer O. wants to leave his seat and books to next year's A.F.S. student. Rita P. leaves her height to Rosemary A. Glenna Q. wills her short hair to Karen Scully. Judy R. wills her questionable answers to Mr. Campisi. Cynthia R. leaves her alto clarinet to Iggy Orlich. Karen R. thinks that the "Schnitzelbank" should be left to Mr. Campisi. Lee Ann R. bequeaths her love of horses to Linda Freer. The Senior class leaves Bob P.'s good looks to whomever can handle them. Tim R. leaves the street corner to Richard Larson. Pat R. bestows her quiet ways to Pat R. Liz R. leaves her traveling to Betty Lou O. Bob S. leaves his laughs. Ernie S. leaves his height to anyone who needs it. Steve S. wills his old Model A. to Lari Sue A. Doug S. wills all the tools he borrowed from the shop back to the shop. Jim S. wills his good humor to everyone. Lucille S. leaves her sophisticated styles to anyone who can sew them. Pat Sondey leaves her Fall weekends to Donna Tremper. Pat Szytk wills slimness to anyone who thinks they need it. Bob T. wants to keep his Greek ways. Bobbi W. wants to leave her brown and blue eyes to future biology classes. Richard Y. leaves. Fern Z. wills her oboe to anyone who doesn't mind being teased.

In conclusion, the class of 1960 requests the payments of all our just debts, and bequeaths our scholastic ability, our leadership, our out-standing musical and athletic talent and our great love of enjoyment to the class of 1961.

CLASS MEMORIES

The time has now come when we, the Class of 1960, have the privilege of looking back over our four years at R.H.C.S. to recall the many cherished events and activities in which we participated.

In September 1956, we enter our Freshmen year . . . Miss Ruby Aiken and Mr. Donald Brooks become our advisors. . . Judy Rockefeller is elected our class president . . . We sponsor a very profitable Spaghetti Supper.

Gay young Sophomores are we now . . . Homeroom advisors are Miss Ruby Aiken and Miss Anne Bennison . . . Judy Rockefeller is again elected to lead our class . . . Karen Rueger joins us from Germany.

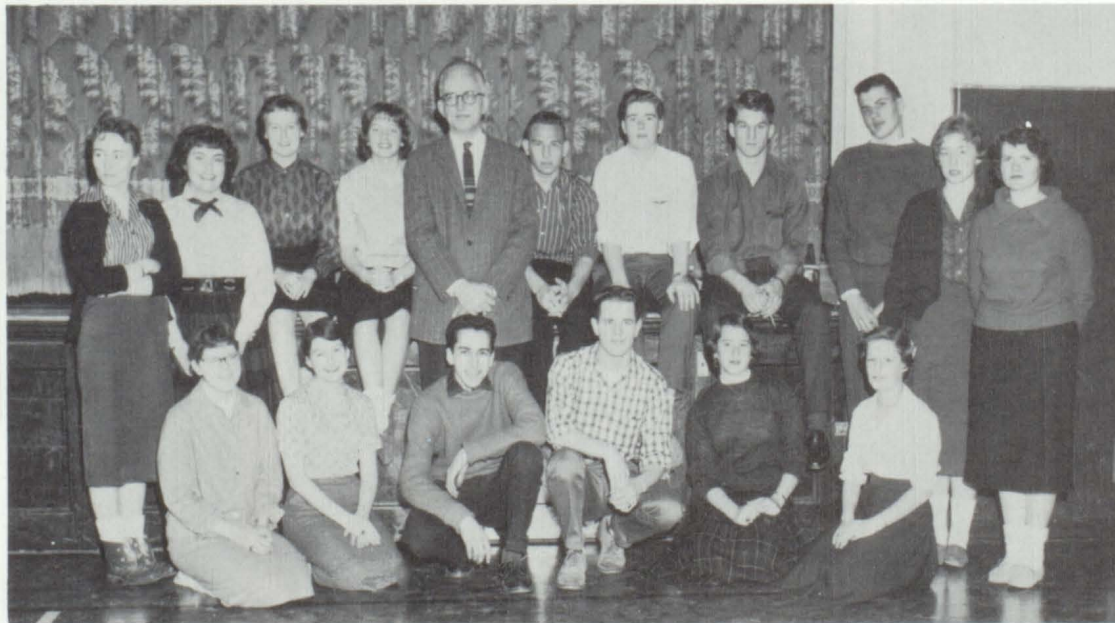

Two years of memories behind us . . . Judy Rockefeller is class president . . . Five Junior girls campaign for Student Council President . . . Moving-Up Day - We receive our new design school rings . . . Thirteen are tapped for Honor Society . . . Judy Rockefeller is announced Student Council President . . . Junior Prom - Eight of our prettiest girls are attendants to the queen . . . Barbara Campbell leaves to represent us in Holland.

Proud Seniors are we now . . . Glenna Quimby is our class president . . . Tuncer joins us from Turkey . . . Senior Homecoming Hop finale to football season . . . Seniors hard at work on Senior Play, "Brother Goose" - a huge success . . . Four Senior boys, John D., Moe, Jim D., and Tom are chosen for County All-Star team . . . Bobbi and Liz are chosen to participate in the All-State Band . . . Christmas Ball a social success . . . Our long awaited Washington trip . . . Moving-Up Day . . . Baccalaureate . . . Graduation ***
