

Miss Shook answered the door when I called, but was unwilling to give any information concerning the house except that it was over 75 years old & she inherited the house from her father. She said she had deeds also, but didn't wish to bother getting them