So here we are, half a foot into the eighties. The eighties! It has an exciting ring to it. Events around us in the nation and in the world seem to suggest that it may be a critical decade for all of us. Red Hook-Central's Class of '80, as so many others across the country, will be entering a world in which the only certainty seems to be uncertainty-- but it goes not unarmed. Optimism, hope, and the will to make things better for themselves and for others are weapons whose potency cannot be underestimated.

In the continuing cycle of things, Graduation 1980 represents old giving way to new. It is the harbinger of a fresh sophomore class waiting to make its contribution to Red Hook High. The new juniors and seniors will also find themselves in a novel position, with another year of experience behind them with which to shape and guide their continuing high school careers. The teachers will be enriched by the coming year as well, learning from their new students even as they teach them.

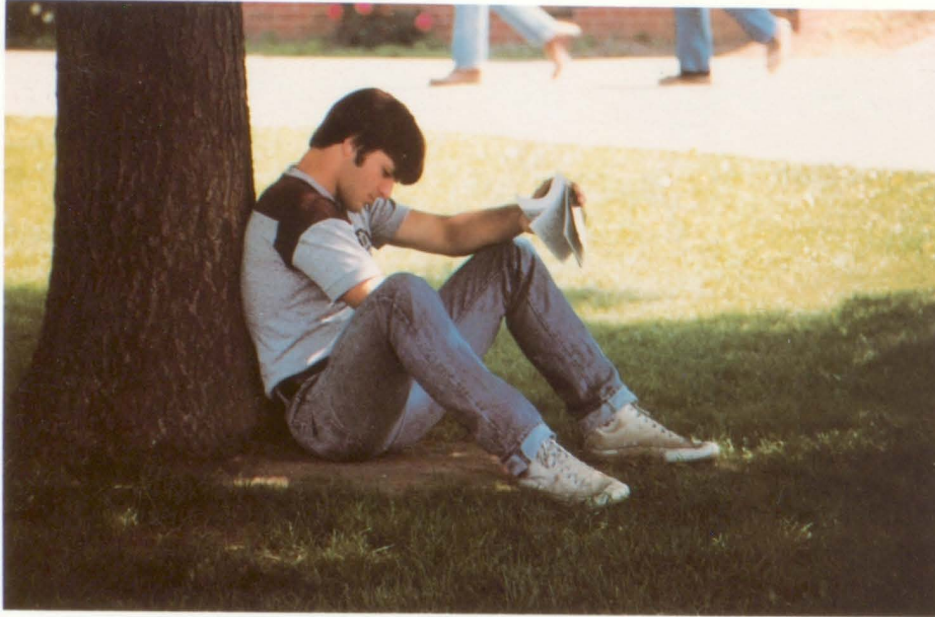

Above all, however, it will be a crucial time of change and adjustment for the graduates themselves. They'll go to universities, jobs, the armed forces-- all to contribute to the search for solutions to the old and new problems that will crop up in the future.

We, the Class of 1980, have completed our job here--to get the best possible education in order to prepare to make our contributions to society in whatever form they make take. To us, breaking into the eighties the last fifth of the twentieth century-- is symbolic of our breaking into an outside world of possibilities in which we hope to, and by our effort will, make.

*I wish a golden dawn for this little child,
I wish green balloons were sold by cups,
I wish that dreams were never grey,
I wish I were a painter, painting purple breakers over canyons.
I wish Blanche's red hair back would break!
I wish the red, white, and blue stars out
Stripes men in the moon were not there.
I wish tomorrow's child would be yellow.
I wish that green-eyed girl was me.
"I wish," the boy said, "to fly into the silver clouds."*

By revealing eyes
Glimmering to an invisible looking

Observing an antiquated sky
Overturns of brilliant flowers
Radiantly reflected over the

Luminous,
Cautle people to a visible counterpart,
In a sunset illusion,
Blushing with luminous*

Dedicated to . . .

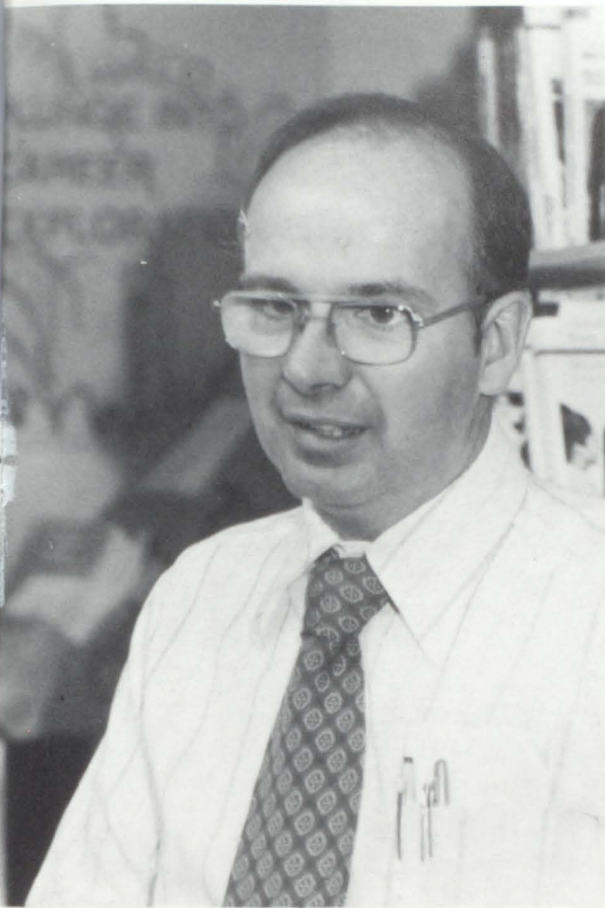

Mr. VanNess

This year, as always, the yearbook will be dedicated to a teacher who has made a difference for our class sometime during its journey through school. However, this year we dedicate this book to a very special man. He has made a difference in this school by his very presence and his unstinting efforts to bring the joys of music to all students, not just to those who are members of the music department. His warmth as a human being stands out.

Mr. VanNess is not just any music teacher. His ear is always open to students who have ideas or questions. His is that special personality that earns the respect of all who know him. As this book reaches you, he will be finishing his 29th year as a faculty member at R.H.C.S. The Seniors will always have fond memories of Mr. VanNess, wherever he or we may go.

Mr. Peter M. Lawson Principal

To the Class of 1980:

You are now completing the first step of your formal education. For the past thirteen years it has been our privilege and our responsibility to assist you in attaining this goal.

If you have taken full advantage of the opportunities offered, you are prepared for the steps which will follow. Some of you will go on to additional formal education, while others will go directly to the business of making a living. Regardless of your future endeavors, our interest and our best wishes go with you. It is our hope that in spite of the difficulties you may encounter, you will always put forth the best effort of which you are capable. Having done this, the world will make a place for you.

Very sincerely,

Peter M. Lawson

Mr. William J. Donnelly Athletic Director

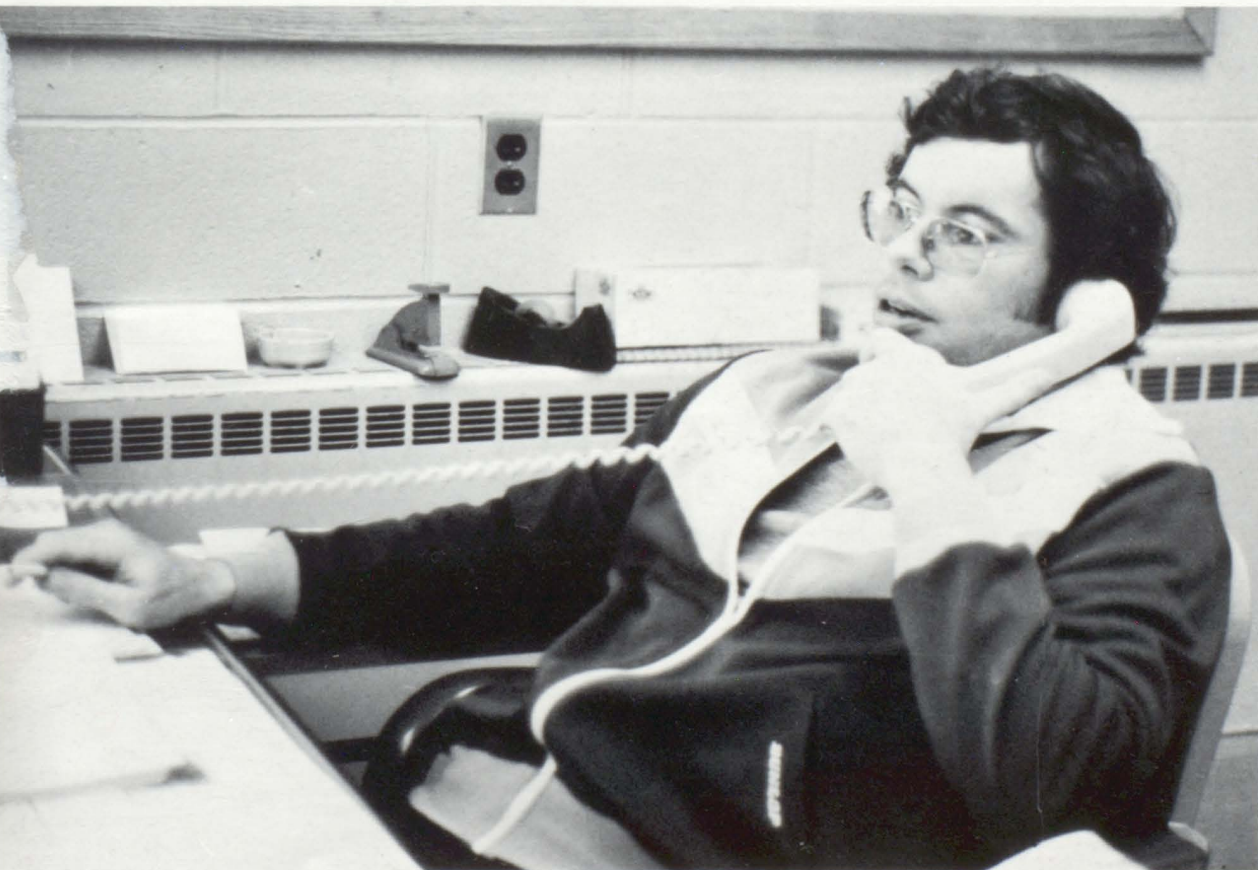

To the Class of 1980:

If you seize the opportunities and accept the challenges in your futures as well as you have in the past, success and satisfaction will surely come to you.

Congratulations and best wishes.

Tomorrow Isn't Promised
Carolyn L. Burge

It's been a long time since we have started; so much has happened so much has changed. So many people have touched our lives; so many people have gone away.

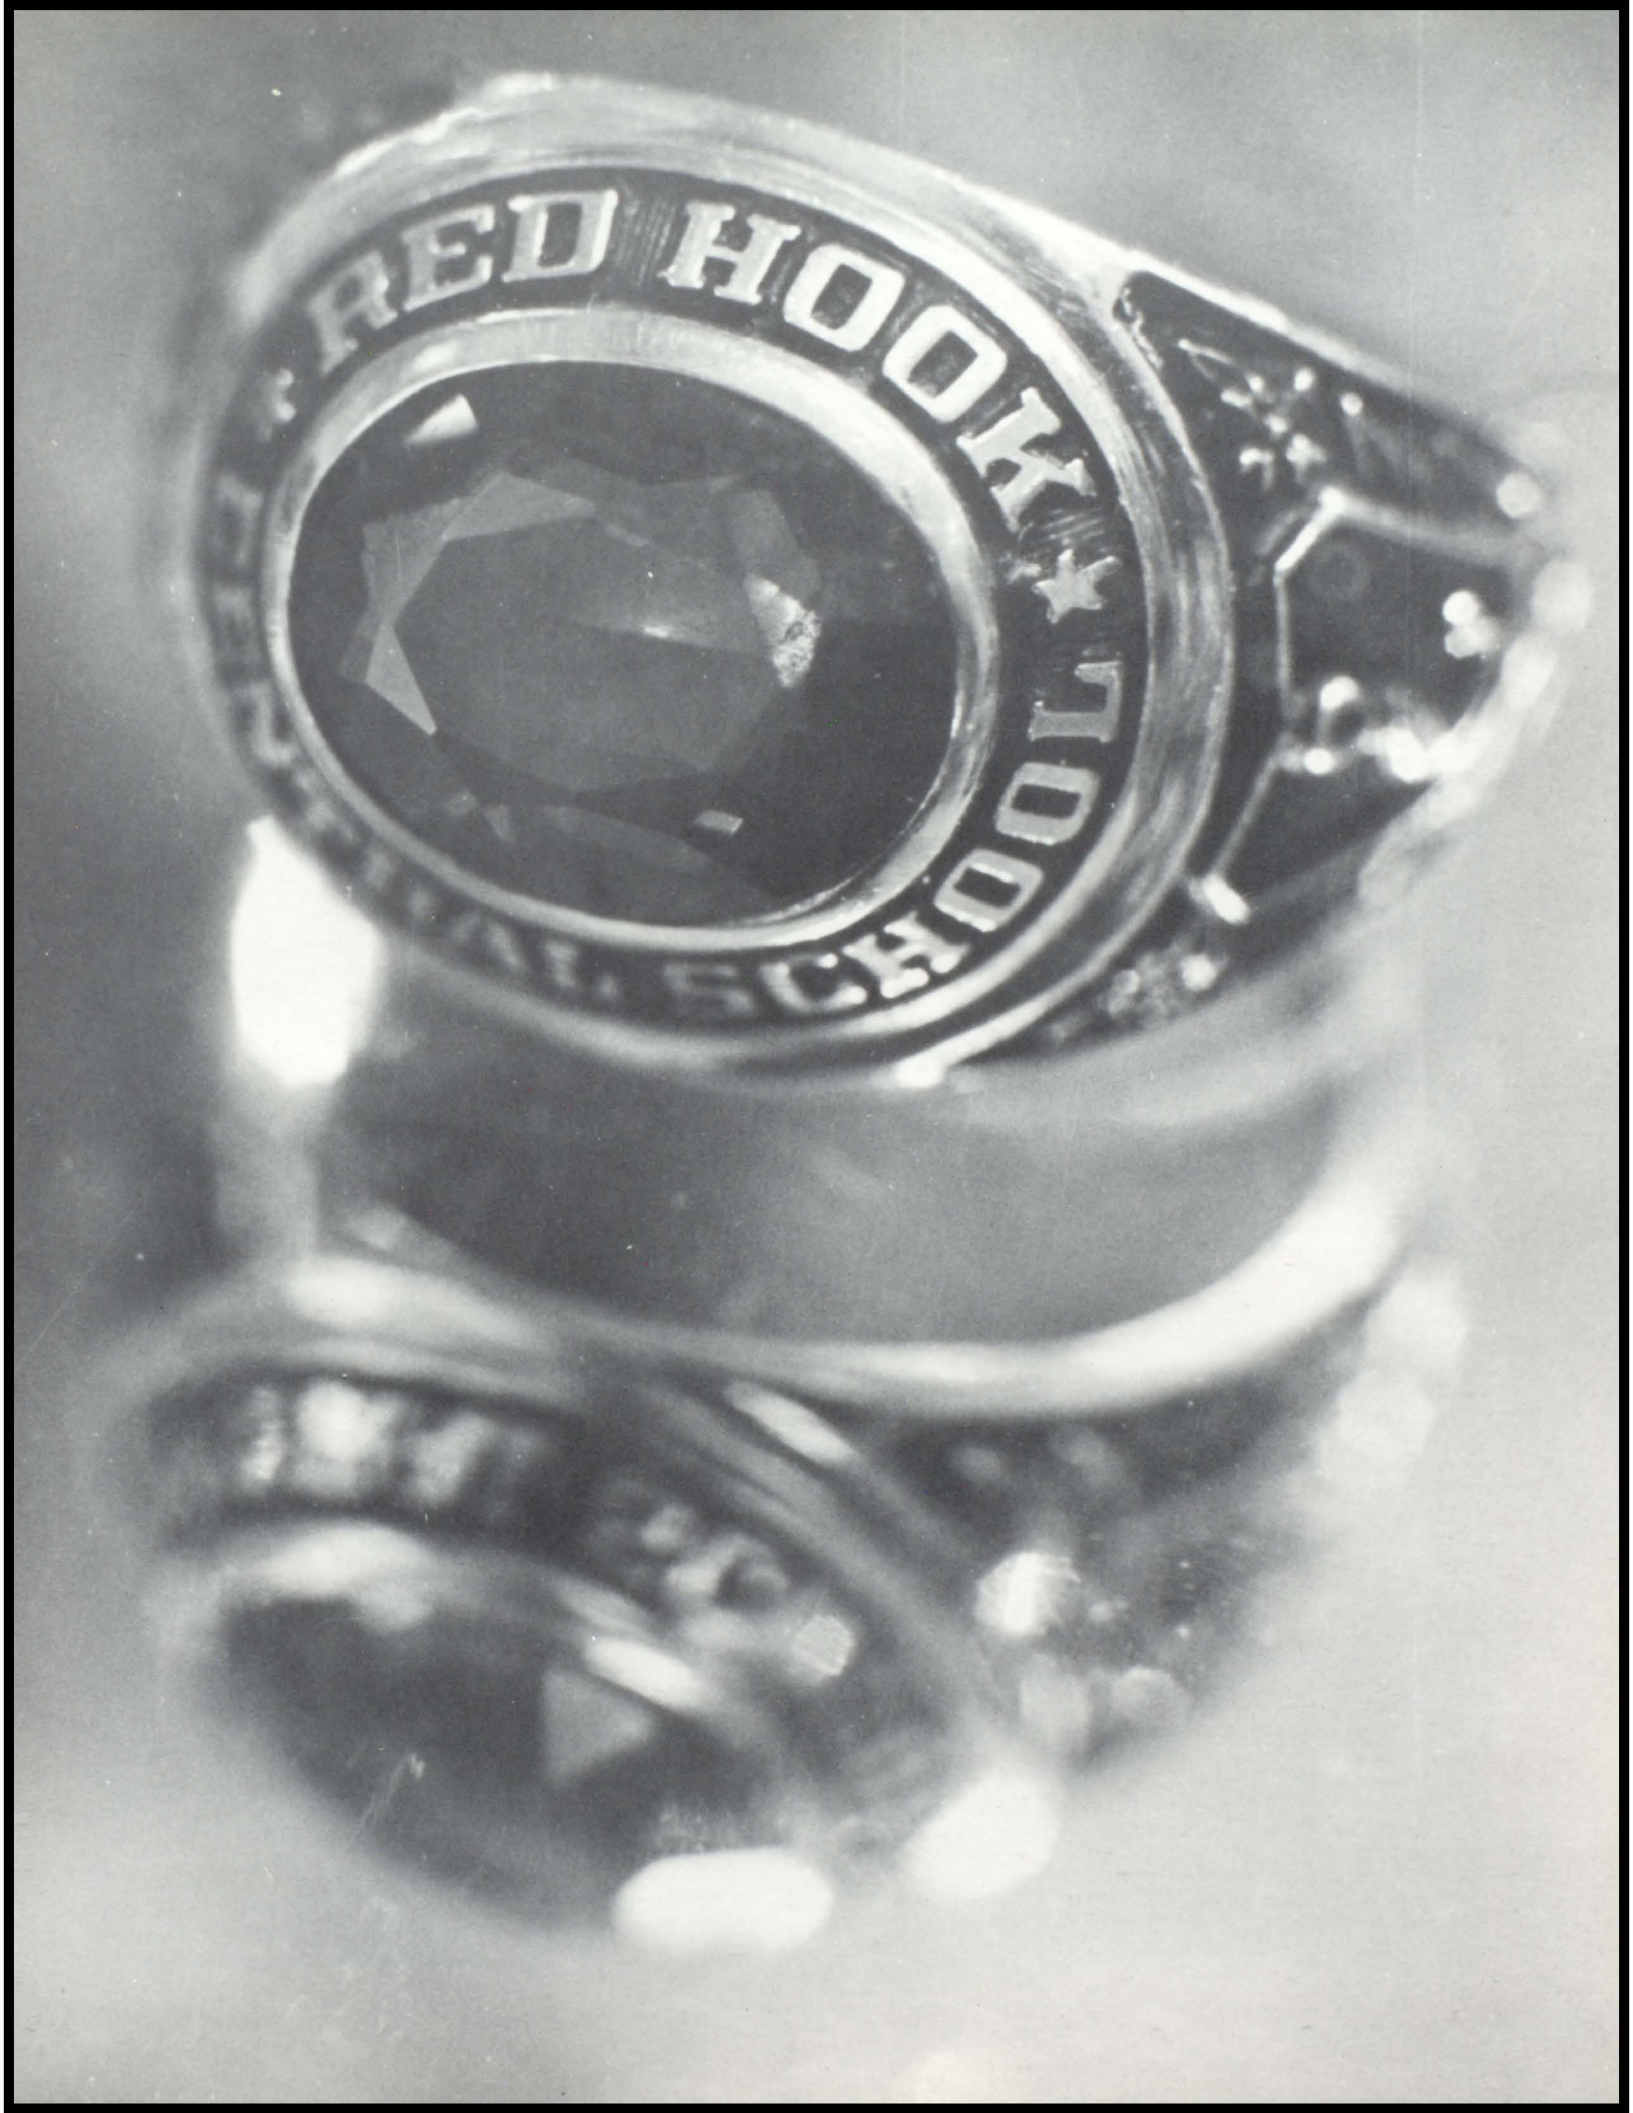

Yes, it's been a long time since we have started, and some of us still have a long time to go. But others may leave us tomorrow.

So there is one thing we must do.

We must live life to the fullest; smile, laugh, sing, and always be ourselves . . .

. . . . Because tomorrow we may not have that chance.

Last Wills . . .

To the administration, faculty, and school employees:

The Class of 1980 thanks you for all your help. These past thirteen years of school would not have been possible without your caring, understanding and support. Your help with clubs, sports, activities, and other school organizations made it easier for us to enjoy our years in school. As we go on in life these years will never be forgotten and memories of the best times of our lives will be in our minds always. THANK YOU AND GOOD LUCK.

Visions of the Future

We, the sophomore class, are the newcomers to Red Hook High School. As we mature, we look upon this new year with promise. What was once "cool" and the "in" thing to do, is now considered part of the past. We are met with new circumstances and challenges, which we meet with confidence and pride.

We have participated in the school's activities and made ourselves part of Red Hook High. Neither our junior nor senior years will bring us as much confusion, change, and promise.

When we leave this school in 1982, we will take with us memories of the fun, joy, and sometimes agony we experienced in Red Hook. Just as other sophomore classes before us, we hope that that we, too, can leave visions of the future.

Let's Hear It for the Juniors!

Carrie Rose

Look out for the class of 1981. Our class was very successful in its sophomore year and the junior year has been the same. After some successful money - raisers, they began the long, hard work of planning our junior prom. "A Christmas Fantasy" turned out to be a complete success. It took alot of hard work by many different people, but, as in the past, our class of '81 pulled together and was rewarded with an outstanding attendance.

We owe many thanks to Mr. Peter Lawson, our advisor, without whom we could not have accomplished our many activities.

The class of '81 still has one year left at good ole RHCS and we intend to make the very best of it!

Varsity Football

The varsity football team made a complete turnaround from its 3 - 5 record of last year to a 6 - 3 record. This turn can be accredited to the team play of all twenty-five players.

The offensive unit was an example of the type of play the Raiders showed. It produced its first 1,000 yard runner since Jim Merriken, he being 2nd team all-league, junior, Joey Vucich. The improvement of junior quarterback Scott Gardner also added to the Raiders' success. At the rare times he could not find 1st team all-league end Tim Ward, a steady pair of hands could be found in 2nd team all-league, Danny Burud. Also, Gardner had dependable backs in co-captain Larry Cambalik, David Durst, Steve Coon, and Steven Kudzy, along with Vucich.

Defensively, the Raiders employed one of the hardest hitting defenses this league has seen. The Raider Defense was anchored by 2nd team all-league Dan Burud at end. The linebacking crew always found the ball as 1st team all-UCAL Dave Durst led the way.

The Junior Varsity team compiled a 1 - 8 season, due to the loss of many good sophomores to varsity. The offense was led by freshman quarterback Keith Gardner, Co-captains Mike Swift and Scott Courtney, ran the ball well. When Gardner went to the air, ends Jim Strieder, Jim Rogers, and Don Lown could be found. The defense was led by Courtney, Swift, Joe DeJoy, Pat Dempsey, and Ron Frey. The young team has many returnees so good years can be expected in the future.

#1 Miss Bowman supervises. #2 Red Hook's goalie - Kathleen Gilfeather #3 Girls Varsity field hockey team

Varsity Field Hockey

This year as in the past several years, the 1979 Field Hockey Team had a very successful season. With a 13 - 0 record, the girls once again captured the Ulster County Athletic League title. We went all the way to sectionals, but suffered a very disappointing defeat in the deciding game.

We never could have gone that far without the great coaching of Ms. P. Bowman (P B), who gave us all and much more. Not only did we become a great team, but great friends as well.

With seniors Julie Vellake (Co-captain), Tracy Mahoney (Co-captain), Ann Vosburgh, Sue Gehrer, Maribeth Moul, Michele Sevigny, Cindy Banks, Lynne Staats, and Lorie Appleby graduating, we wish the 1980 team a very successful and rewarding year.

The J.V. team had a great season with a perfect record of 12 - 0. The team was a young one with only half of last year's starting lineup returning. The young talent of the 8th and 9th graders helped make the winning season.

The team looks good for many years to come because of the young talent that is coming in the future. Many thanks to both coaches for all their help and cooperation.

Cross

The girls' CC team had a very good season. Massive improvement in the veterans' running combining with new abilities showed the Raiderettes, once again, dominating the league and retaining the UCAL title for the fifth year in a row. The team came in fifth in sectionals. Seniors for the team were new - comers Maureen Ward, Rose Fritz, and Lynda DeWitt. The next few years look bright with the talents of Sue Palen, Heide Rosenthahl, Karen Ward, and the other under classmen who back the team so energetically.

The guy's cross country team placed fourth in UCAL with top runner Mark Anderson leading our team. There are many under classmen returning. Seniors were Mark Anderson, Joe Cirafice, Artie Schad, and Brian Butt. The team was rather consistent. Rosenthahl, Palen, DeWitt, Frit, both the Wards and Anderson received all league recognition.

Coach Cauldwell has proved once again to be the great inspiration and counselor that the long distance runners need. Thanks for another season Coach.

1) "What's that horrible smell?" (Mark Anderson) 2) "Did I hear someone mention food?" (Rose Fritz) 3) Running on empty (Joe Cirafice) 4) The agony of de feet (Artie Schad) 5) "Hi, Mom" (Cross country teams)

Varsity Volleyball

In 1979, the Red Hook Varsity Volley team compiled a 7-4 record. We finished in a tie for 3rd in UCAL competition and scored 2 wins over nearby Rhinebeck. The highlight of the season was a 15-10, 15-13 upset of unbeaten Ontonagon on the final day of the season. Other wins were over Coleman, Rondout, Fallsburgh and Highland.

Team balance was displayed throughout the season, as all contributed as team members. Several players received all - UCAL honors. Wendy Coons was on first team; Paula Newland on second team and Sue Mergendahl received honorable mention. Graduating seniors are: Debbie Evans, Meghan Hanley, Jill Hegstetter, Wendy Coons, Jaron Stash, Sue Mergendahl and Ellen Hoch. They will be missed next season.

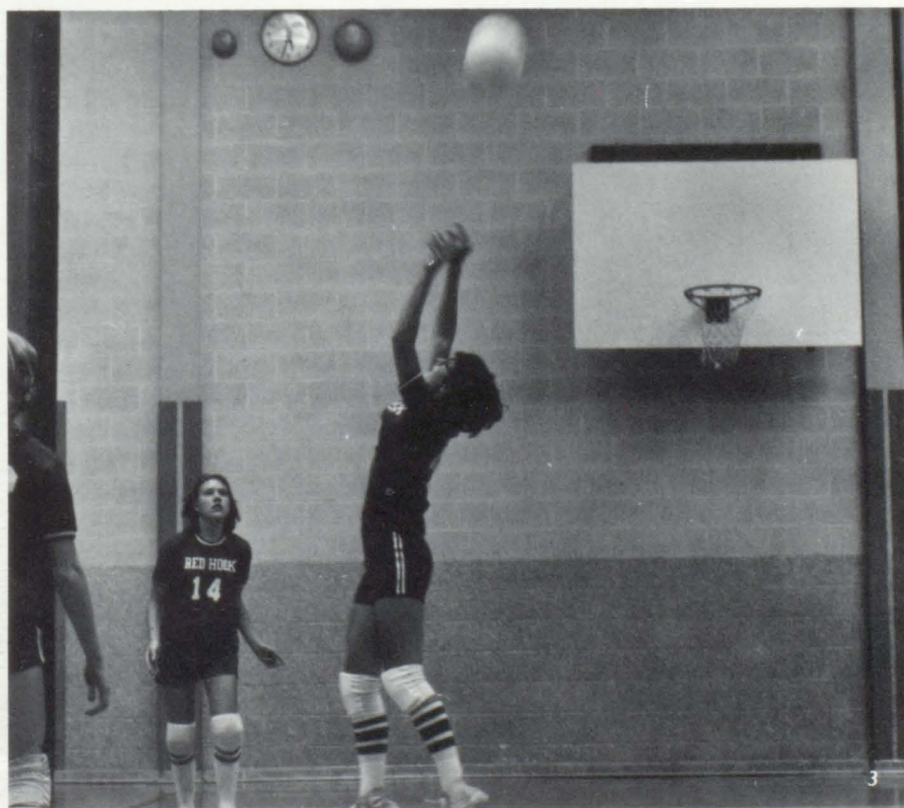

J.V. was undefeated, 11-0, and compiled an impressive series of scores during the year. In addition to being unbeaten, this team outscored its opponents by a 3 to 1 margin and won 22 of 27 games played by them. Deb Hester was the high scorer while Lisa Shook led the spikers in scoring points. Eight of these people will be welcomed to the varsity in 1980.

1. J.V. Raiderettes in action. 2. Coach Bruce Buhler has a good laugh. 3. Debbie Rogers sets up her teammate. 4. Line-up for leapfrog! (Kelley Clelland, Debbie Hester, Liz Fritz) 5. "Say mouseburger!" (Red Hook J.V. Volleyball Team)

 2. "Please stay in" (Molly Dewsnap); 3.
 Coach Fred Fisher; 4. Red Hook Girls Tennis Team; 5. Open sesame!"; 6. "What kind of shot was that?" (Molly Dewsnap)

Girl's Tennis

This year girls' tennis was moved to the fall. Though we did not belong to a league, our scheduled season was with many of the larger and more powerful schools of the Dutchess County Scholastic League (DCSL). Needless to say, our inexperience and youth showed through; we did not win a match all season. But, with the help of our coach, Fred Fisher, we "rolled with the punches" and didn't let those defeats get us down.

Indeed, the 1979 Red Hook Girls' Tennis Team can best be described as a great bunch of people who enjoy tennis and the thrill of competition.

The seniors on the team, Karen Sipperley, Jen Thompson, and Chris Wildman want to wish the members of the team good luck and many thanks for a great season. And girls, remember, you can only move upward!!

F.B. Cheerleaders

The Red Hook football cheerleaders had an exciting season this year. Besides cheering ever Friday or Saturday, they were busy with other commitments. They were involved in all of the Homecoming events. They added a lot of spirit to all of the festivities included in the week. The cheerleaders had a "Pep Rally" the night before the Marlboro game, in order to boost the team's spirit. Although the game was lost, everyone had a great time.

Over the summer a group of girls went to cheerleading camp at Utica College. Many new cheers and and stunts were learned. The varsity squad attending the camp won five ribbons. The JV girls also won five. The good ideas from this camp were used and resulted in a better looking squad.

1. The 1979 Raiders

Golf

1979 was by far the greatest year in recent history for the Raider golf team. The Raiders finished in third place with a league record of 4-2, their best ever in Pete McMahon's 12 years as coach.

Lance Rogers led the Raiders with outstanding performances in every match, an achievement that earned him the distinction of being the only unanimous All-UCAL selection. Another strong performance was turned in by John McGarty.

The fine team effort displayed by all the Raiders this year has given new life to Coach McMahon's dream of someday winning the league title.

Hoop Cheerleaders

The Red Hook Basketball Cheerleaders put more effort than ever into this year's season. They had much help from the newly formed "Pep Club". I'm sure none of the cheerleaders will forget Mr. Chando's "get psyched campaign" and how much help was given to it by them.

The girls are going to competition for the third year in a row. They are hoping to come back with another trophy. Eileen Anderson and Pam Barrett are competing with forty-five other girls for individual trophies. A lot of hard work has been put into going to competition this year. The best of luck is wished to them.

The cheerleaders would like to especially thank Yonnie Beckert for putting up with them thru thick and thin. Her time that was given helped to improve the squads 100%.

Girl's Varsity

The varsity team, after a disappointing loss to Marlboro, went on to devastate the rest of the league. Under the coaching of John Kuhn, the team worked very hard Monday thru Saturday to finish with a 14-1 record. Coach Kuhn has been considered a good leader with his new drills, but when it comes to jokes he is considered super. With all this, the team of 1979-80 would like to give Coach Kuhn our many thanks.

The '79-80 JV team lived up to last year's powerhouse, finishing with a 9-1 record. Our new coach, Miss Brita McCauley, helped this season to be a successful one. After getting off to a good start we took our first and only loss, to Liberty, losing by one point. Our last game, against Wallkill proved to be the most challenging. It should be said that the team's future looks to be bright. Many thanks to Miss McCauley for a great season.

Varsity Hoop

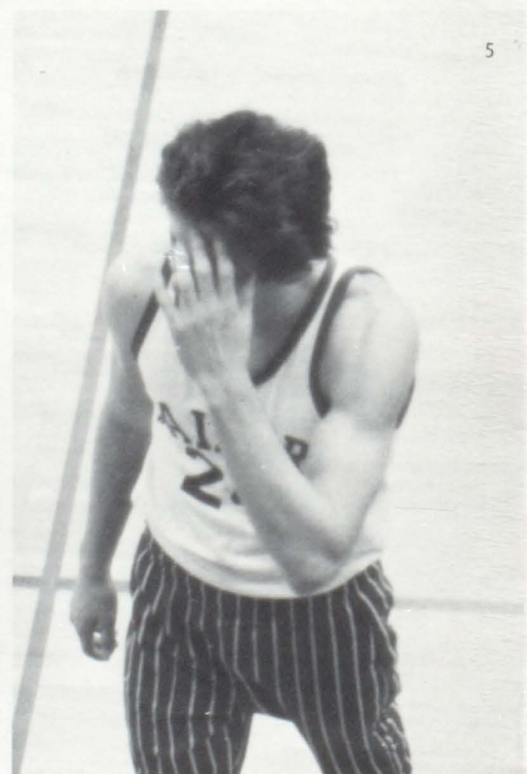

The varsity basketball team turned in a fine season this year with a 14-5 record.

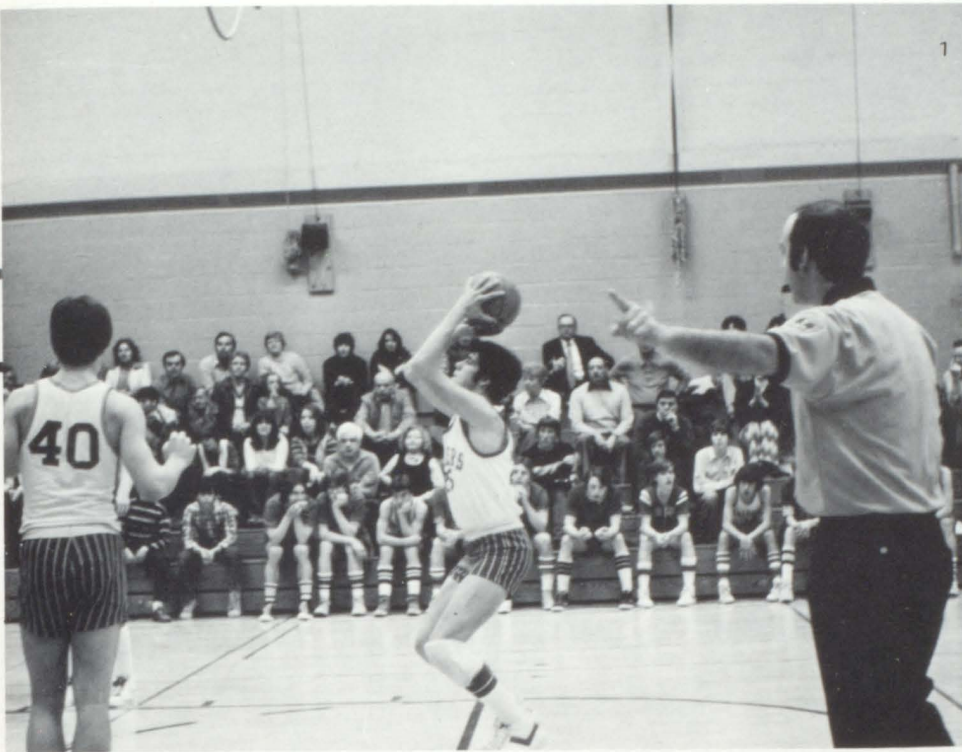

Seniors Brian Longobardi and Jim Hogan led a potent offense as the Raiders blew out many opponents and scored over 100 points in a single game for the first time. Jake Mosher and Scott Gardner were dynamic play makers and constantly set up the big men while Ken Todd was constantly psyching out the other team. The bench proved more than capable of doing the job as Buzz Campo, Steve Coon, Dave Durst, Frank Zapatta, and Andy Sparks all rose to the occasion when summoned.

Sparks turned out to be a pleasant surprise as he really turned it on at the end of the season. Andy still has two years left and the UCAL had better learn how to stop him, as he is on the verge of dominating the league.

The JV team also turned in a fine season. Sophomore Chris Kurdziel led the team with his consistent shooting and Sophomores Tom Van Hoesen and Tom Hegstetter dominated the boards.

Congratulations go to all the players on a fine year and special congratulations go to the departing seniors and to Coaches Pete McMahon and Rod Chando.

Gymnastics

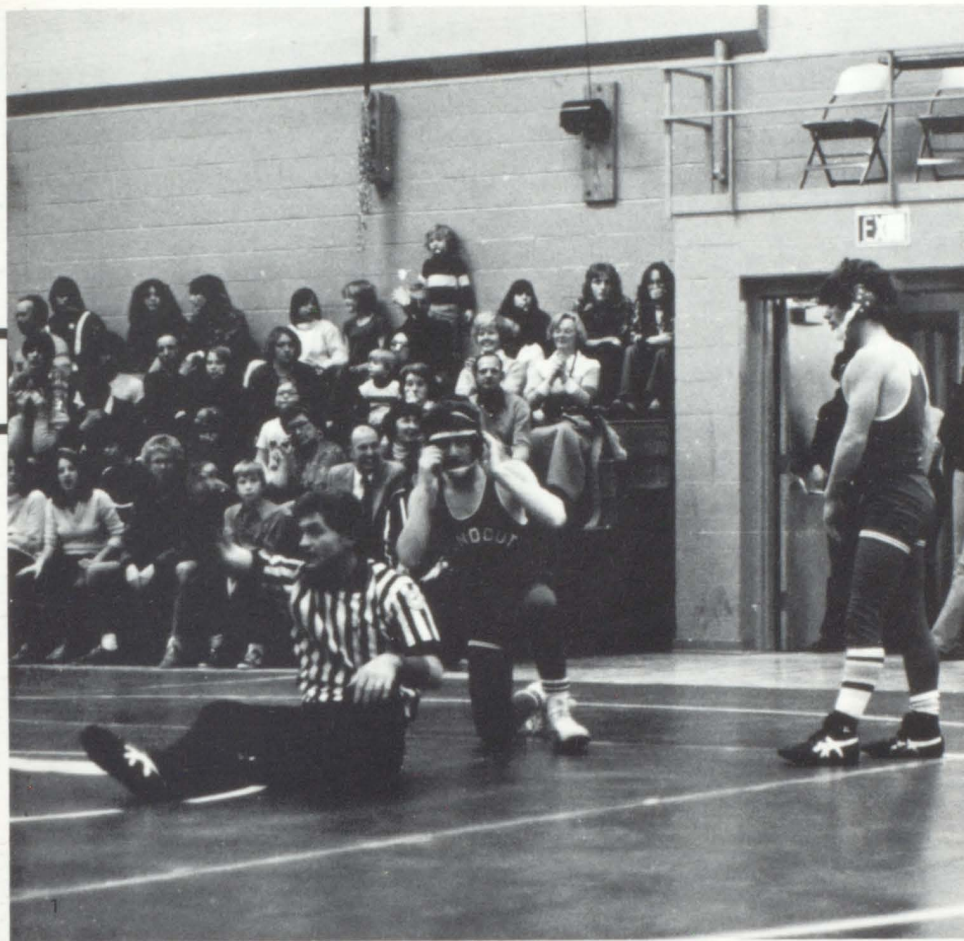

This year's gymnastics team was every fortunate to have two fine coaches in Melanie Babineau and Fran Thompson. The 79-80 team consisted of senior Lori Miller, juniors Erika Poleschner, sophomores Diane Banks, Lisa Bain, Veronica Singleton, Barb Barrett, Leslie Bahorik and freshman Debbie Newland.

Gymnastics may sound easy but it is far from that. It takes a lot of time, patience, determination, and drive. Many times we get disgusted and want to quit but there is always determination to push on.

Erika was our high all-around gymnast, averaging 21 pts. a meet. Barb Barrett averaged 16 pts. a meet. Diane Banks, competing in three events averaged 18 pts. a meet. Bain competed on floor and vaulting. Newland did bars, beam and floor. Miller did beam, floor and vault. Bahorik started by vaulting and added beam.

The performance of this year's gymnasts was outstanding and we hope to see you next year.

Wrestling

This year's Raider matmen surprised many people by pulling off surprising upsets and finishing with a winning 4-3 season in dual meet competition. The grapplers put on a strong showing in tournament competition as well. Individual recognition should go to 91 pounder Bill Muirhead, who finished 3rd in the county; 98 lb. Scott Kruger, who finished 2nd; 105 lb. Fred Schultz finished 3rd in the county and 4th in the Wallenpaupak tourney; 112 lb. Art Schad, who placed 1st at the Wallenpaupak tourney, 1st in the county, and 1st in the section 9 meet; 126 lb. Terry Dorrian finished 3rd in the county; 132 lb. senior John (J.D.) Douglas finished 4th in the county; 155 lb. Tim Ross finishes 2nd in the county; 167 lb. Bob Waterhouse finished 3rd in the county, as did Lance Sterling at 177. At heavy weight, Howie A'Brial finished 3rd in the county.

Although the grapplers will be losing 4 starters to graduation, there is a strong team young team behind them, and with the dedication of coaches Andy Seidel and Jim Cauldwell, the grapplers should bring the county championship back to Red Hook, where it belongs.

Boy's Tennis

The boy's tennis team went through another rebuilding year last spring. Although the team record was a mediocre 1-14, many of the matches could have easily gone the other way. There were a few bright spots on the team as freshman Ravi Mangat and junior Matt Adams moved into the starting lineup and proved more than capable of doing the job. Adams was mowing down the opposition, when an ankle injury cut him down, seriously hurting Raider title hopes. Joel and Jeremy Cohn teamed up for a winning combination at second doubles.

Seniors Greg Wiles and Scott Traudt provided leadership and inspiration for the whole team, as sophomore Bruce Brammer and junior Shawn O'Connor once again proved "it's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game" that counts.

With the many returning lettermen plus the addition of rising stars such as Randy Clifford, this year's tennis should be a race for the UCAL title.

Softball

In the thrilling 3-2 win over Ellenville, the varsity girls' softball team in 1979 captured the UCAL Championship. However, we were not as successful during the Section 9 tournament. Under the coaching of Tony Causa, the team's overall record was 12-3. All UCAL honors went to Denise Zimmerman and Paula Newland. Julie Shanley was named to the Division 11 All-Star team.

The team was young with three ninth-graders and an eighth-grader starting. Thanks to the encouragement and enthusiasm of Coach Causa, we worked hard and kept improving. This year we are going to give it our best effort and hope that success will be ours.

Varsity Baseball

The varsity's record of 8-8 is not a true account of their play last season: of the eight losses, six were by two runs or less. Buzz Campo was the dominant figure as he led the team in batting and pitching. He also was a unanimous ALL-UCAL selection. With seven of last years starters returning and excellent J.V. players coming up, Red Hook's key to the new season seems to be experience and depth, of which they have both. This should give them a good shot at the UCAL title.

The JV team had a 9-5 season. Dan Burud led in hitting, while Billy Moore gave fine performances on the pitching mound and was backed by Steve Kudzy, Brett Orlich, Jim Rogers, and Dave Bathrick.

Girl's Track

The Girls Team racked up many wins and showed many good performances as it made its way to win the league. The team also placed first at the Arlington Relays, a prestigious meet with tough competition. Ann Dewsnap (a tough 400 meter runner) broke and re-broke the school record many times. Ann and Rose Fritz (long jump) traveled to West Point to participate in the State Meet.

Ann placed 7th and Rose, 13 in their respective events.

Thanks to Coach Herb Elsemore for all his help. With talented underclassmen the team should be quite competitive for the next few years.

Boy's Track

Last year's track season turned out as expected. The Raider team put together a 6-3 dual meet record going into the UCAL meet. The team finished fourth out of eight teams. This year's team will have seven returning senior lettermen; they are Jim Hogan, Ken-ny Todd, Brian Butt, Howie A'Brial, Tim Ross, Joe Cirafice, and Mark Anderson. This track season should be filled with many surprises. Other returning lettermen are Carl Liebold, Tim Mahoney, Mark Berdnik, Mike Waterhous, Doug Meyerhoff, John Douglas, Mike Snelten, Terry Dorrian and Joe Vucich. New faces this year - Dave Smith, Chris Kurdziel, Jake Mosher, Warren Wesolowski, Ron Frey, Scott Kruger, and Duane Simpson.

This year, a fantastically fun filled Spirit Week led directly into the Homecoming Weekend, which consisted of a pep rally, pancake breakfast, parade, varsity football game and a junior versus senior girls football game. Although there was a discouraging lack of participation on the part of the student body in general, those of us who were involved had a great time.

Friday night was clear and crisp, perfect for a pep rally - which turned out to be one heck-of-a-good time. Saturday morning's pancake breakfast brought in less people than the Student Council would have liked, but it turned out to be a good break in the hectic pace. The parade, which took place before the game, was a huge success. All three high school classes entered the float competition, as well as clubs, the band, and sports. After a great show of spirit, and a tough decision, the sophomores had won. The football game against the Wallkill Panthers also added to the rising spirits - we actually won!! Nice work guys.

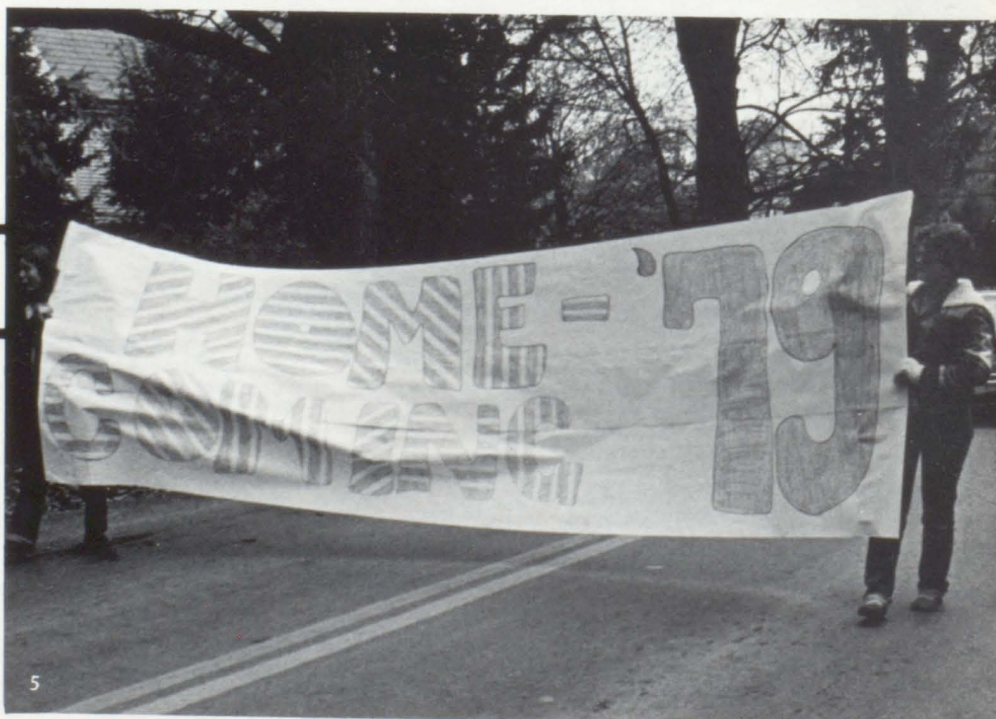

Sunday morning ended the festivities with the junior versus the senior girls football game. After a fun game stomping through the mud puddles on the field, it ended with a slightly embarrassing loss by the seniors; oh well . . .

Although this year's homecoming week wasn't the best, now that those of you know what you missed, I'm certain that you're looking forward to making next year's a weekend to remember!

The class of '81 presented a Christmas Ball that truly lived up to its name of "A Christmas Fantasy".

Our thanks go to Mr. Lewis and the Mill Road School for their help and cooperation with the ball.

Upon entering the ball, the couples crossed a yellow brick road until we found ourselves under a tunnel of snow. After emerging from the tunnel, the couples were completely dazzled by one of the best decorated balls in the history of Red Hook Central High. The fabulous sound of the group "Sugar and Spice" inspired us all to fulfill our Christmas fantasies and the evening was a complete success.

The Ball

1. "Get down, Berdnik!" (Mark Berdnik). 2. Swinging to the tunes. 3. Paula Veldman and Dave Sevigny do the hustle. 4. "Swanee, how I love ya, how I love ya!" (Trish McCauliff) 5. Christmas tree 1979 (Mr. and Mrs. Sober) 6. Last dance. 7. Sugar and Spice. 8. Studio 54 (Chris Warnimont and Maureen Ward) 9. "We're just friends" (Ralph Appa and Debbie Evans)

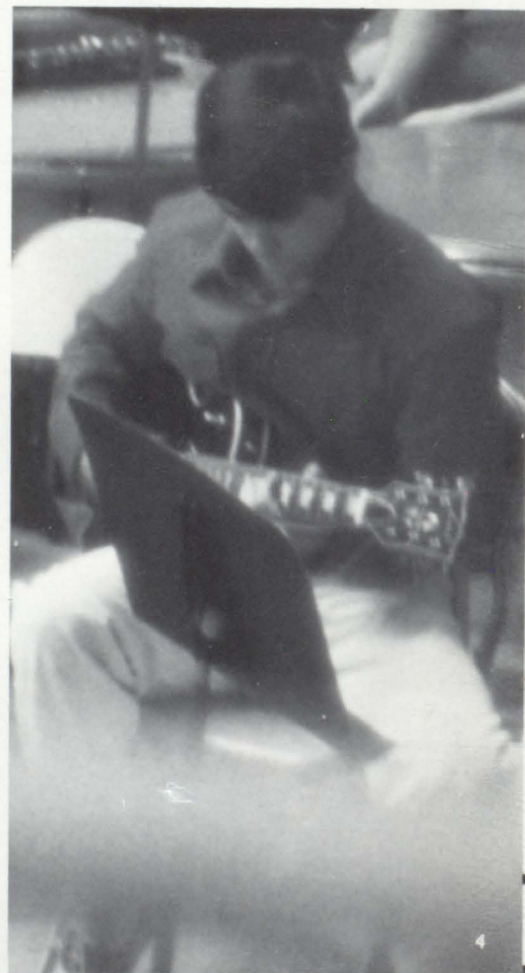

This year's assembly brought Ralph Kramden and Ed Norton back to life. The show was a huge success and was accompanied by several commercials.

There was a short delay as a special news bulletin was flashed. The headlining stories were the kidnapping of the Atlantic ocean, and the controversial Pepclub, led by the ruthless Ayatollah Hesse.

Finally the main event was held as Ralph (Oakie), Norton (Jack Auster), Alice (Jean Crane), and Trixie (Jen Thompson) did their thing.

As usual, Ralph got himself in a "What am I gonna do, Norton?" situation, but the story ended happily as Ralph gave his famous last line, "Baby, you're the greatest!"

Under the guidance of Kate Hammersley and Mr. Lawson the event was pulled off with lots of laughs and a great deal of fun. Thanks to all who participated.

Christmas Assembly

1. "Quit booing!" (Shawn O'Connor & Jack Auster); 2. The Barbershop Trio (Marilyn Benkart, Pam & Barbie Barrett); 3. The battered housewife (Jean Crane) 4. Joe Cirafice tunes his gee-tar. 5. "Oh brother, someone shut her up" (Jean Crane, Oakie, and Denise Pascal)

This year there was an added attraction to the boy's basketball games. One section of the bleachers was occupied by the Pep Club. We went by a few names such as the Pep Club, The One Percent, and the Athletic Supporters.

The idea was to stir up pandemonium in the crowd; to incite Raider spirit. We received good comments from coaches, players, and even a mention in the paper. We received not so good comments from the cheerleaders and other basketball game patrons. Our get up was hats, T-shirts, horns (for one game), megaphones, and the loudest voices possible. They proved to be the best instruments for enthusiasm.

I think we did a pretty good job this year and I hope we set an example for future Raider fans!

Pep Club

1. The Pep Club with mouths open wide; 2. "Is it deer season?" (Cameraman Doug Wicks); 3. The Pep Club at attention.

Life in the music room is very different from any other place in the school. No where else can you find so many people at one time except in classrooms (sometimes). The music room is a place to relax, study, listen to music, play music, or talk to friends.

We brag about our permanent passes to the music room to our poor, poor friends that have to spend forty four minutes cooped up in a study hall (most likely the famous 167-169). The members of the music department are hardly ever seen by study hall teachers who sometimes wonder if they exist at all. It is also a popular place for seniors with nothing to do. At any time, you can find people: (A) playing instruments, (B) singing, (C) listening to records, (D) talking, (E) doing homework, or (F) reading. The music room is more of a playroom than a classroom.

The day begins at 8 a.m. Until 10:24, there are no classes in music, giving students the opportunity to do any or all of the above activities, or anything else, for that matter. During fourth period, Mr. VanNess teaches a comprehensive music class. From then on, until 7th period, the music room is again free to the students. 7th period, the room is in use for band or chorus. After school, the room is used for extra work, play practice and other activities.

The music room is the true spot of fun, recreation and the hope of relieving boredom. Only there can students lounge around and generally relax. Hopefully, the music room will always be run as freely.

Lyre in concert. 11. Jenny Pine contemplates a milk carton. 12. Barb shows Maureen Ward the latest steps.

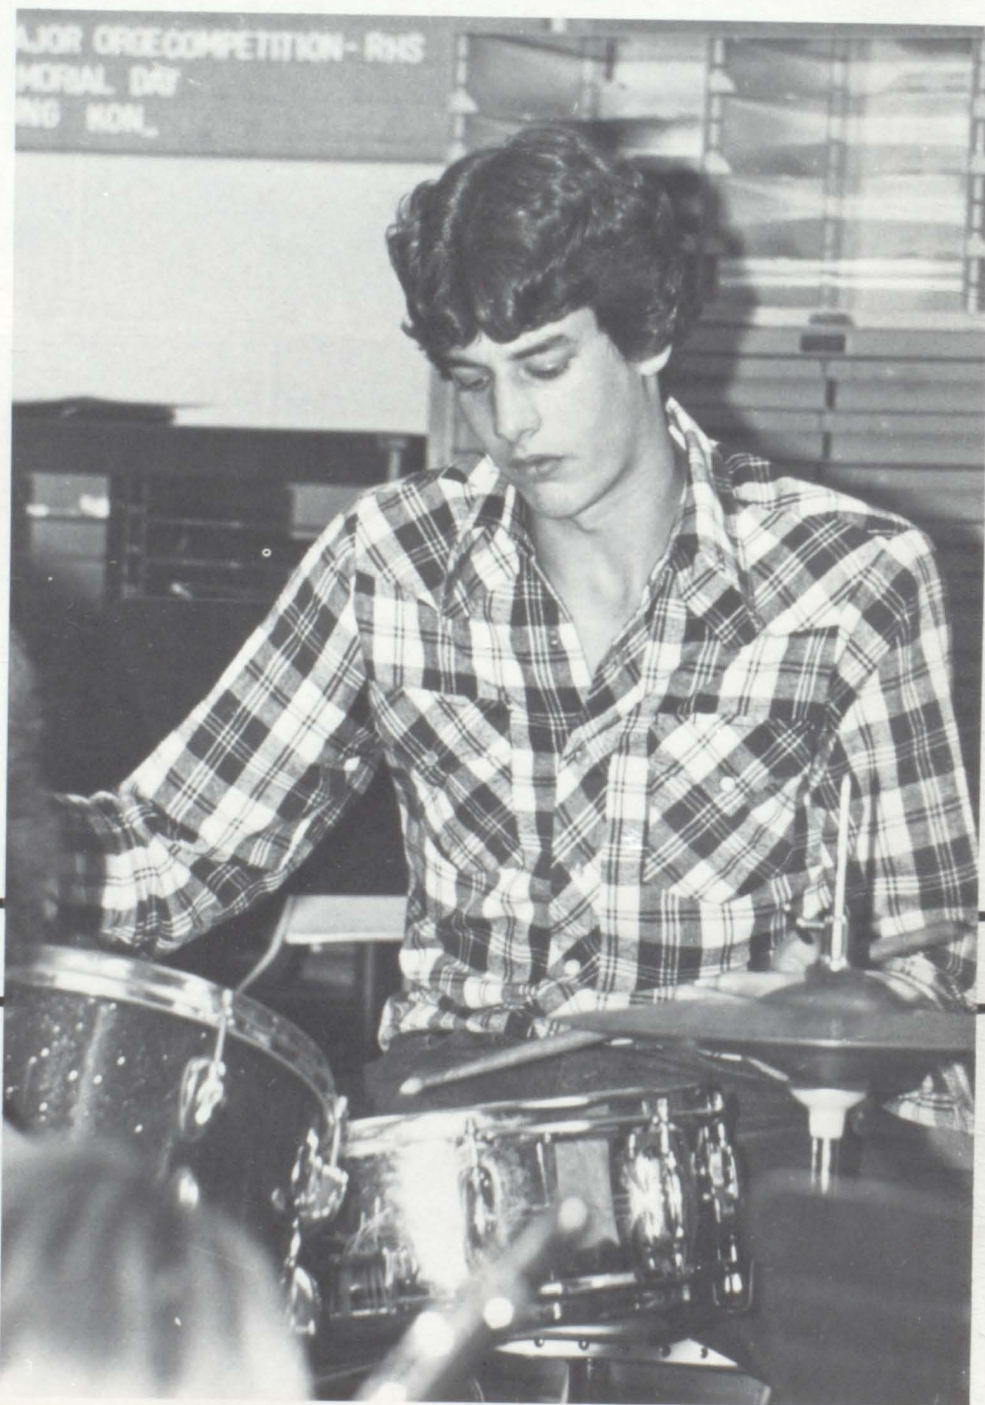

The stage band is an extension of the concert band with a sound all its own. They play jazz, blues, rock, and pop tunes. Its membership is composed of trumpets, saxaphones, trombones, french horns, a clarinet, a drummer, a guitar, a bass player, a pianist, and vocalists. They perform at all the normal concerts and a few of their own. They perform almost all the music for the Swing Into Spring dance.

Emphasis is on improvisation and solos. This year, led by our famous conductor and arranger, Mr. V., the stage band entered a contest sponsored by the Libby Soup Co. The idea was to take the familiar Libby jingle and make a recording of your arrangement of it. The band soon learned that they had received second place, earning a prize of $1500. Good luck to departing seniors Rory Schultz, Sharon Stash, Matt Adams, Joe Cirafice, Jim Hogan, Mike Baden, Lynda Dewitt, Cindy Banks, Rose Fritz, and Annalee VanKleeck.

Although the chorus suffered from a little confusion due to a change in teachers during the first half of the year, they managed to shine during their various activities, including a combined chorus concert. Great thanks to our president Annalee VanKleeck and to Mrs. Goldsmith. Perhaps there'll be a few more basses next year (only four this year). Best luck and wishes to all.

Chorus

1. The Chorus. 2. The Barbershop Trio (Patti Hogan, Sheri Hitchcock, Jen Rivers). 3. The basses and tenors practice. 4. "Do re mi!" 5. Ron Frey - singing star. 6. "Is this how you turn a page?" (Debbie Pavlovic and Mrs. Goldsmith). 7. Carol Karpowich. 8. Mrs. Goldsmith leads the chorus.

This year's band was (is) a fun filled group. The members had a good time, and under the guidance of Mr. VanNess, it has performed at cabaret, at the Pine Plains and Mill Road Schools, the annual Fall and Spring concerts, and at Band competition. Obviously, a lot of work went into all that! And a good time was had by all!!

The officers for this year included: President, the petite Miss Sharon Stash; V.P., the wonderful Miss Cynthia Banks, and Treasurer, the honorable Mr. Rory Schultz, Esquire. Thanks for their efforts.

All hail and thanks to Mr. V, whose valorous efforts gave rise to perfectly harmonized notes throughout the year. Hopefully, next year's group will have as much fun as we did. Ciao!

Band

1. "Is he kidding?" (Cindy Banks and Linda Mulford). 2. "You did it this time!" (Jenny Pine, Todd Martin, and Karen Stash). 3. Joe Cirafice and his faithful companion. 4. The Band. 5. Pam Barrett on piccolo. 6. Leslie Bahorik slams the keys.

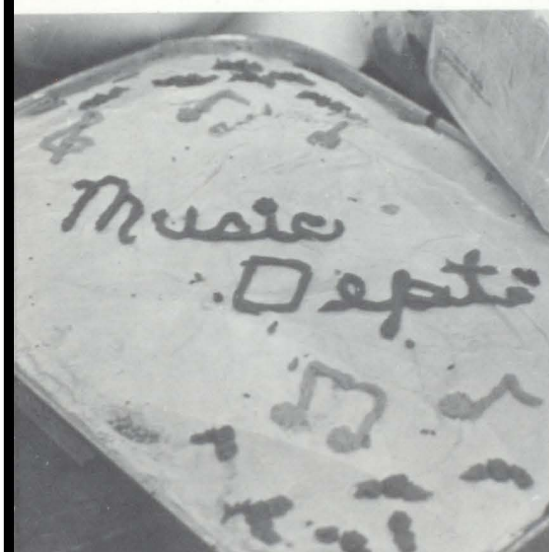

Although not as large a crowd turned out last year as other years, the music department picnic was a great success. Even without the guidance of the ever-present Mr. VanNess we managed to pull off one of the most enjoyable picnics ever. Clams were steamed and the watermelon was scooped out of its shell. Water fights were a common sight in the lake as were chicken fights two and three people high. Only when it started to get dark did the crowds disperse, and we all went home to get some rest from the day's festivities.

The Famous

In Memorial

This year we include a page in memorial to a member of our class who didn't make it with us to graduation. Thus, we honor the memory of Edward Neese, who died in ninth grade.

Ed was a fun-loving, friendly person whose heart was full of jokes and whose mouth was full of laughter.

For the people who didn't know him well, his death was a loss, but for his friends and family, only they know what a deep loss it truly was.

We know not where the various paths of life will lead us, but each will take a bit of the spirit Ed had in their hearts. As we walk through life we know his spirit will walk beside us, and thus he will never be truly gone.

THANKS TO: Jen Rivers, Sherrie Hitchcock, Linda Lutz, Andy Cascone, Shawn O'Connor, Ken VanSteenburg, the Lyceum Theatre, all writers, typists, and photographers, and anyone who assisted in the production of this book for their help.

EXTRA SPECIAL THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING WHO REALLY MADE THIS YEARBOOK SUCCESSFUL: Lisa Barrett, Debbie Evans, Bill Hesse, Annalee VanKleeck, Avec Langridge, Rory Schultz, Cindy Banks, Mike Baden, Matt Adams, Ed Roberts, Arax, and Kevin Byrne for their continuing support, service, and dedication to HARD-SCRABBLE 1980.

As this school year comes to a close I look back and ask "Why?" Why did a group of students give so much time to putting together this yearbook? I think it's because the chronicle of every school year needs to be told in words and pictures and somebody has to do it. Lots of hours of work went into making this book.

In this, my last year as Yearbook Advisor, I would like to take the time to thank the entire staff but especially (in alphabetical order) Matt Adams, Mike Baden, Bill Hesse, Avec Langridge, and Rory Schultz for their dedication. They did their jobs and did them well — I couldn't think of a nicer group of people to work with than these fine staff members.

Friends always,
Mr. Roberts.

This yearbook is an experiment. It is an attempt at beginning a new trend in yearbook making at Red Hook Central. It is an attempt at capturing the true creativity of the students. It is not merely a carbon copy of past yearbooks, but a totally different view of how to produce a successful yearbook.

Of course, change cannot (and probably never will) come about without some form of dissent. People get accustomed to doing things a certain way and if these ways are successful we are reluctant to explore new ideas.

There are many misconceptions about yearbook production that must be overcome every year.

"A yearbook is just for the seniors" . . .
 "Last year's yearbook was like this" . . .
 "A yearbook should be full of pictures" . . . "The yearbook belongs to the senior class" . . .

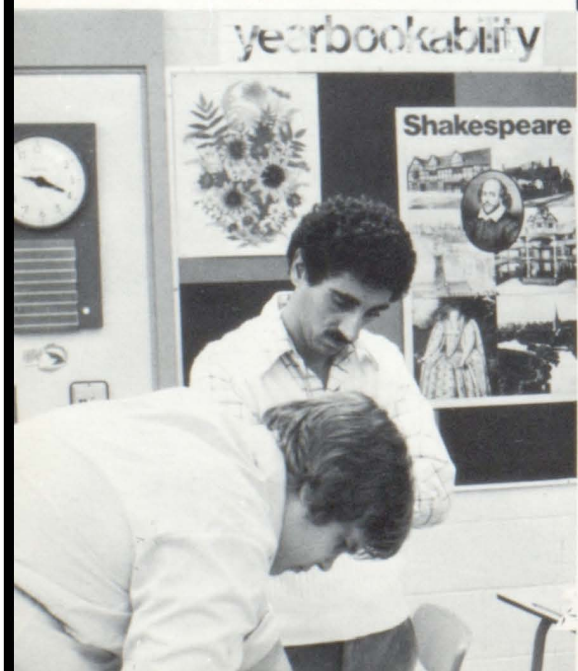

A yearbook should not become a yearly chore done year after year without thinking. It is not put together by a bunch of "select seniors" who only do what they or the advisor wants.

A yearbook has a single purpose; to express who WE ARE and what WE DO. We are not just the Class of '80, '81, and '82. We are six hundred different individuals with a hundred different sets of values, hopes, dreams, and ideas. In publishing this book, we are trying to demonstrate people as they truly are in all the various aspects of school life.

The yearbook was created (not put together) by many students and faculty members; each with their own ideas. Even the smallest jobs done were important to the creation and the publication of this yearbook. We are sorry that more people did not get involved. Many had the attitude that their ideas wouldn't be listened to by the editors. Only the people who were involved in the production can really appreciate the true meaning of this book. We (the staff) take with us many fond and some not so fond memories of our work. The long hard hours put into its creation somehow seem not so long or hard as they did before. The mistakes that once appeared to be so crucial are now not as bad as they first seemed. We will always remember missing deadlines, Mr. Roberts' music, our paper airplanes, the typing room, losing the ladder diagram, the yearbook filing cabinet (especially the editor's drawer), room 265, the fun, the mistakes, and the joy of completing tasks But through it all, we will especially remember the sense of comradeship that came about through the production of this yearbook. This is the dawning of a new age of students not to be confused with the class of '79, '78, '70, '52, or any other class. This is your yearbook. Enjoy it and may it always remind you of your school days forever.

Sincerely,
 Matthew H. Adams
 Michael E. Baden

Thank You For All Your Help, Support, And Dedication Mr. Ed Roberts to be sung to the tune of

"Thanks for the Memories"

"Thanks for the memories . . .
for weeks of messy desks . . .
and people who were pests . . .
for seminars that really are not worthy of distress, we thank you, our friend.

Thanks for the memories . . .
of people who said no . . . and pencils we love so . . . and airplanes made of paper that from your desk did flow, we thank you, our friend.

Thanks for the memories . . .
of staying all day late . . . of music on a crate . . . of cropping tools and pica rules and work which we did hate . . . we thank
you, our friend."

In all seriousness, thanks for the fun times and all the times we shared.
