Bond for Tavern Licence.

Plebeian Print.

Know all Men by these Presents, that we, Martin Ganison & Jacob Martin of the town of Real Hook in the county of Duchess are held and firmly bound unto the people of the State of New-York, in the penal sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars—for the payment of which sum to the said people, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of May in the year 1830

THE CONDITION OF THIS OBLIGATION IS SUCH, that whereas the said Martin Ganison is about to apply to the commissioners of excise of the said town, for a licence to sell strong and spirituous liquors and wines, during the ensuing year, to be drank in his present dwelling-house in said town, where he proposes to keep an inn or tavern. Now therefore, if said licence shall be granted, and during the time that the said Martin Ganison — — — shall keep an Inn or Tavern, he shall not suffer it to be disorderly, or suffer any cock-fighting, gaming, or playing with cards or dice, or keep any billiard table, or other gaming table, within the tavern so by him kept, or in any out-house, yard or garden belonging thereto—then this obligation to be void, otherwise of force.
