

Barrytown.

Another car load of horses has arrived for Mr. Jas. Herrick.

Thursday a tug landed at Barrytown and a man was taken from it and carried on an improvised stretcher to the flat car at the depot, and upon the arrival of the down noon train he was placed in the baggage car, he having broken his knee cap.

Friday morning the 11:21 up (catch) mail left the south mail at Barrytown, but missed the north mail which hung on the crane.

A boy baby at Jeremiah Sullivan's.

Jer Sullivan son born June 1892
